CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

This report contains proceedings of the Departmental Committee on Finance and National Planning during the approval hearings of the seven (7) nominees for approval for appointment as members of the Commission on Revenue Allocation (CRA) pursuant to Article 215(2) (b) and (c) of the Constitution of Kenya and as communicated to the House by the Hon Speaker on Tuesday, 29th November, 2022.

Pursuant to Article 215(2) (b) and (c) as read with Article 215 (3) of the Constitution and Section 5 of the Public Appointments Parliamentary Approval Act (No. 33 of 2011) and Standing Order 45(1), the Leadership of Majority and Minority parties in the Houses of Parliament notified the National Assembly of the nomination of seven (7) nominees to be members the Commission of Revenue Allocation (CRA) vide letters dated 25th and 26th November 2022. The Hon Speaker vide a communication made on Saturday 26th November, 2022 conveyed to the House the Message from the Leadership of Majority and Minority parties in the Houses of Parliament and subsequently referred the names of the nominees, curricula vitae to Departmental Committee on Finance and National Planning for approval hearings.

While referring the matter to the Committee, the Speaker directed that, the Committee undertakes the vetting within twenty-eight (28) days pursuant to Section 8 of the Public Appointments Parliamentary Approval Act (No. 33 of 2011). The Speaker further directed the Clerk of the National Assembly to notify the nominees and the general public of the vetting. In this regard, an advertisements were placed in two daily newspapers of nationwide circulation and on the Parliamentary Website, of the time and place of holding the approval hearings by Sunday, 27th November 2022.

In compliance with Article 118 (b) of the Constitution and section 6 (4) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011), the Committee placed an advertisement in the print media on Saturday , 26th November 2022 informing the public of the nomination, date, time and place of the approval hearing. The Committee also invited the public to submit memoranda by way of written statements on oath on the suitability of the nominees in conformity with section 6 (9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011). The memoranda were to be received on or before Friday, 2nd December 2022 at 5.00 p.m. (East African Time). The Committee received two memoranda (affidavits) contesting the suitability of Hon. Fatuma Gedi Ali, CBS by the set deadline.

The Committee also conducted background checks with KRA, EACC, DCI, HELB, and ORPP on the nominee's suitability to hold office.

The nominees appeared before the Committee on Monday, 5th December 2022 for vetting. The Committee examined their suitability based on the criteria set out in Section 6 of the Commission on Revenue Allocation Act 2011 and Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011). In addition, the Committee examined their academic credentials, relevant experience, knowledge of sector issues and on leadership and integrity. The Committee paid due regard to the procedure used to arrive at the nominees; any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question and the suitability of the nominees for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominees' abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the Commission.

Further, the Committee considered the memoranda by Mr. Julius Kairu Kiambati and Mr. Abass Adam that were in form of written statements contesting the suitability of Hon. Fatuma Gedi Ali, CBS. The statements were sworn on 30th November, 2022 and 1st December, 2022 respectively. In their respective affidavits, the deponents averred that the nominee was a member of the governing body of the Jubilee Party contrary to Article 77 (2) of the Constitution. Further, one of the deponents raised concerns on the validity of the nominee's academic credentials, stating that he was aware that the nominee's results in the Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education (KCSE) examination would not have qualified her to join a university and therefore to hold a bachelor's degree.

Pursuant to Article 215 (2) (b) and (c), section 6 of the Commission for Revenue Allocation Act, and section 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011, the Committee observed that the nominees met the integrity threshold; demonstrated knowledge of topical, administrative and technical issues touching on the portfolio to which they had been nominated; and had the requisite abilities, academic qualifications and professional experience to be approved for appointment as members of the Commission on Revenue Allocation.

Having conducted approval hearings of the nominees and examined certificates, testimonials and other documents in its possession, the Committee was persuaded that due process was followed in the nomination process of the nominees as provided for under Article 215 of the Constitution and the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval Act) (No. 33 of 2011). Given the foregoing, the Committee recommends as follows -

i) pursuant to Article 215(2) (b) of the Constitution, the House APPROVES the nomination of Mr. Benedict Muasya Mutiso and Mr. Wilfred Koitamet Olekina Nchosoi for appointment as Commissioners of the Commission on Revenue Allocations (CRA).

The Committee thanks the nominees for their cooperation during the vetting process and while appreciating KRA, EACC, DCI, HELB and ORPP for providing references and background checks relating to the suitability of the nominees.

Finally, I wish to acknowledge and appreciate Committee Members for their patience, sacrifice and commitment to duty which enabled the Committee complete the vetting task within the required timelines.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Finance and National Planning, and pursuant to Article 215 of the Constitution and Section 8 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011) and provisions of Standing Orders 45(4) and 199(6), it is my pleasant duty to present the Report of the Committee on the approval hearings of the seven (7) nominees as Commissioners at the Commission on Revenue Allocations (CRA) for debate and adoption by the House.

The Petitions touching on the integrity of the nominee

The Chairperson informed the nominee that Mr. Abass Adam, in his written statement on oath sworn on 1st December, 2022 and received by the Clerk on Thursday, 1st December, 2022, contested the suitability of Hon. Fatuma Gedi, CBS on the following grounds:

a) The nominee does not possess a University degree or equivalent professional qualification as required by section 6(1) of the Commission on Revenue Allocation Act. In the Parliamentary records and website as of 2017, the nominee had a Diploma in Public Relations and any degree that she purports to have would have been obtained fraudulently after 2017. The nominee got a grade D in KCSE thus not eligible for entry to a degree course as the minimum is C+.

b) The nominee does not have extensive professional experience in financial and economic matters as required by Article 215(4) of the Constitution of Kenya. Section 6 of the Commission on Revenue Allocation Act requires a person to be qualified for appointment as a member to have professional experience in financial and economic matters of at least ten years and have a distinguished career in their field. In a similar case with a nominee for the Salaries and Remuneration Commission, Ms. Halima Abdille, the Speaker ruled that experience should be counted from the date of graduation. The nominee championed and lobbied for the fall of Senator Halima on the experience question. The nominee does not have the required 10 years of professional experience.

c) The nominee does not meet the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution of Kenya. She has conducted herself badly in public office against the standards set in Article 75. She is an untruthful, disrespectful, manipulative, and abusive person who will not hold the public office of a CRA Commissioner in respect. Mr. Abass stated that he believed that the nominee would use the office to harass Governors as she did when she served as Vice Chairperson of the Administration and National Security Committee. Further, she abused her office and mistreated many people, and she is not fit to serve in the office of a Commissioner of CRA.

He also informed her that Mr. Julius Kairu Kiambati, in his written statement on oath sworn on 30th November, 2022 and vide a letter to the Clerk dated 30th November, 2022 and received by the Clerk on Thursday, 1st December, 2022, contested the suitability of Hon. Fatuma Gedi, CBS on the following grounds:

a) Gazette Notice No. 3195 of 21st March, 2022 lists Hon. Fatuma Gedi is a member of the Party's National Executive Committee which is the governing body of the Jubilee Party. Section 6(2)(a) of the Commission on Revenue Allocation Act states that a person shall not be qualified for the appointment as a member of the Commission if the person is a member of a governing body of a political party. Mr. Julius annexed a copy of the Gazette Notice and a letter dated 28th November, 2022 sent to him by the Registrar of Political Parties;

b) Hon. Fatuma Gedi does not have extensive professional experience in financial and economic matters as required by Article 215(4) of the Constitution of Kenya;

c) Hon. Fatuma Gedi does not possess a University degree or equivalent professional qualification as required by section 6(1) (a) of the Commission on Revenue Allocation Act;

d) Hon. Fatuma Gedi's nomination is not supported by a resolution of the relevant organ of the Minority Coalition Party or the Jubilee Party.

In response to the two affidavits, the nominee informed the Committee as follows, that a) From 2012- 2017, she pursued a Bachelor of Commerce Degree in Human Resource Management Option at Gretsa and in 2008, she attained a Higher Diploma Certificate in Public Relations from the Regional Institute of Business Management.

b) During her stint as a Member of Parliament from 2017-2022, she served as a Member of the Budget and Appropriations Committee where she participated in determining the allocation of national revenue between the national and county governments, appropriation of funds for expenditure by the national government and national state organs, investigating into and inquiring into all matters related to coordination, control and monitoring of the national budget, discussing and reviewing the estimates and recommendations to the National Assembly, examining the Budget Policy Statement and Bills related to the national budget including Appropriation Bills and evaluated tax estimates. Further, she participated in oversight of public debt and guarantees, consolidated fund services, examined reports on the status of the economy in respect of the public debt and examined the public debt and its sustainability. Also, she was instrumental in the determination of the basis for allocating among the counties the share of national revenue under Article 217 of the Constitution and participated in the consideration of the Division of Revenue Bills and County Allocation of Revenue Bills for the five financial years during her term as a Member of Parliament;

c) Similarly, during her term as a Member of Parliament, she served as Vice Chairperson of the Committee on Delegated Legislation where the Committee considered the Public Finance Management (Equalisation Fund Administration) Regulations, 2021, among other regulations which were finance-related;

d) She has fourteen years of experience in financial and economic matters;

e) She meets the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution of Kenya; and

f) She had resigned as the National Chairperson of Jubilee Party's Women League.

Committee findings and observations

The Committee made the following findings and observations:

a) The nominee has at least ten years of experience in financial and economic matters, the ten years of experience include being a member of the Budget and Appropriation Committee of the National Assembly and the previous work nominee did in Red Cross and Save the Children in 2009.

b) The Committee received a letter from the Registrar of Political Parties dated 1st December 2022 indicating that the nominee had resigned as National Chairperson of Jubilee Party's Women League and that she does not hold the office of the political party.

On other issues under consideration, the nominee informed the Committee as follows, that

a) Her net-worth stood at Kshs. 194.2m which had invested in houses, land, camels, cows, goats, and vehicles;
b) On increasing their own source of revenue by marginalized counties, she stated that she would ensure that revenue collection systems in counties were automated and integrated, this would ensure that all revenue collected was known. She also stated that if approved she engages with the Council of Governors in ensuring that the county government staff are trained;
c) On pending equalization funds, she said that one of the major issues was that the Commission was not represented on the Board. She said if approved she would ensure the Commission had a representative presenting the interests of the Commission. She would also engage relevant stakeholders in ensuring more funds are allocated and released to marginalized counties;
d) On compliance with management regulations by county governments, she stated that the law was clear and non-negotiable and need to be followed and implemented to the letter;
e) On policies, she informed the committee that as a former member of Parliament she would use her experience to champion public participation when coming come with any policy. She undertook that if approved she would come up with a proposal on a legal framework for public participation;
f) On adherence to equitable funds, she stated that if approved she would ensure that money not less than the required 15% goes to the counties and champion for more;
g) On misappropriations by counties, she stated that she would ensure that the Public Finance Management Act and Public Auditing Act are adhered to and ensure all funds appropriated are not misused;
h) On her allegiance, she informed the committee that if approved she would be guided by the Commission on Revenue Allocation (CRA) vision in ensuring no Kenyan is left behind in terms of development; and
i) On the management of public debt, she said she would ensure that counties prioritize development projects that generate revenue and spend on what had been budgeted. She would also engage with the Council of Governors in ensuring public debt doesn't take all the revenue collected.

3. Dr. George Jalang'o Midiwo
On Personal Background, the nominee informed the Committee as follows, that

He informed the Committee that he was born in 1961 in Mombasa in a family of 8 siblings.

On work experience, the nominee informed the Committee as follows, that a) In 1995, he was employed as a medical officer in the then New Russia Hospital, Kisumu. He also served in other areas as a medical officer of health such as Rachuonyo and Suba Districts as well as Mbagathi Hospital in Nairobi between 1999 and 2003;

b) He joined National Hospital Insurance Fund (NHIF) in 2003 and left in 2014 as a general manager in charge of benefits and quality assurance; and

c) Between 2014 to 2017, he served as a Chief Officer for Health in the County Government of Siaya from 2018 to the present, he is the Chief Executive Officer of Siaya Medical Centre.

On other issues under consideration, the nominee informed the Committee as follows, that

a) His financial net worth was estimated at around about KSh. 30 million comprising of pieces of land, a house in Nairobi metropolitan area and another in his village of origin, and a car;
b) On whether meets the qualification for the job, he told said that having worked at NHIF for 11 years where he was charged with the responsibility of defining benefits, processing payments and quality assurance has enhanced his competencies in financial management and makes him suitable for the position he has been nominated;
c) On conflict of interest, he does not foresee any conflict of interest and if it would arise, he would declare;
d) On criteria used for sharing revenue that doesn't consider devolved function, he stated funds are supposed to follow functions and over time, the allocation of revenue to county governments had been increasing but remained insufficient. He averred that there was a need to focus on fiscal management at the county level which he finds poor. He was also of the opinion that the Commission should support counties to mount training and capacity building to enhance their own source revenue generation and adhere to the expenditure ceilings, especially on personnel emoluments that were capped at 35% according to the Public Finance Management Act;
e) On the Equalization Fund, he said that the operationalization and utilization had not been realized. He stated that if approved he would advocate for robust stakeholders' engagement to devise mechanisms of operationalizing the Fund to benefit the marginalized areas;
f) On equitable sharing of national revenue pursuant to Article 202 of the Constitution, He underscored the importance of considering national interests as balanced with the need to finance the devolved functions when determining the vertical sharing of revenue. He opined that the counties could capitalize on their own source revenue enhancement to significantly reduce overreliance on equitable share. In addition, they should consider focusing on upscaling the coverage of the NHIF to enhance revenue for hospitals;
g) On the conflict between the Commission and County Governments regarding non-adherence to the fiscal responsibility principles, He said that his experience working at NHIF would come in handy to rally fellow commissioners in advising counties to strictly adhere to the human resources manual that specifies how vacancies are established and filled optimally. He noted that most counties were not using HR manuals which was a crucial management tool. Further, he would advocate for ISO certification of counties to standardize processes to in turn comply with the fiscal responsibility principles as well as ensure robust Treasury management;
h) On criteria used for sharing revenue seems unstable and inequitable, he said that one of his first assignments would be to urge his fellow commissioners to study the previous sets of criteria for revenue sharing, engage stakeholders to review, and propose a new one that would be widely acceptable; and
i) On public debt and the continued piling up of pending bills by counties, he said that he believed that the overdraft facility by county governments ought to be discouraged and that the pending bills at the county level need a rethink. He also said that the national government should be encouraged to ensure timely disbursement of funds to the county revenue fund to minimize the utilization of the overdraft facility.

MIN. NO. 55/2022: ADJOURNMENT

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned at forty-one minutes past one o'clock in the afternoon. The Committee was to reconvene again at 2.30 the same day.

Omollo: Intelligence key to secure Kenya

Interior PS nominee to deal with underlying issues rather than respond to incidents; to be impartial

MOSES ODHIAMBO
@Allwamoses

Interior Principal Secretary Raymond Omollo on Monday laid bare his plans for securing Kenyans should MPs approve his nomination to the position.

The PS nominee says he would employ a different approach to fighting crime, relying heavily on intelligence gathering "other than stereotypes".

While assuring he'd serve with impartiality, Omollo, who is President William Ruto's new power man taki[illegible]r from Karanja Kibicho, 'd[illegible] was a need for a proper le[illegible]nding of crime.

Citing cattle rustling as among insecurity incidents that need a new approach, the PS said he would consider dealing with underlying issues rather than responding to incidents. We must look at new ways of combating rustling, through intelligence, looking at other case studies as well as see whether to increase punishment for culprits."

This was even as some members of the Administration and Internal Affairs Committee who were vetting him for the job asked whether he would misuse the authority of the office given its immense powers.

"What Kenyans are going to see is a leader who abides by the law, is impartial, and will push or coordinate service delivery to wananchi. I would want to be judged as someone who made a difference," the PS nominee said.

Omollo, who also disclosed he earth Sh450 million from landed properties and stocks, told the committee chaired by Narok West MP Gabriel Tongoyo that he would dedicate his time to serving Kenyans without disadvantaging any.

"This job goes beyond ensuring Kenyans are safe but ensuring they go about their businesses without fear. I will be consultative, have an open door policy and work by the rules," he said. On his plans, if approved, the PS nominee said he was keen on digitising the OB, equipping the officers with not only technologically advanced equipment but also skills for using the same, as well as checking on the welfare of the police.

"On OBs, I'd work to ensure the plan progresses from the pilot phase and move away from physical OBs. Things are changing fast hence we need to equip officers with modern technological know-how," he added.

Omollo further assured MPs that he'd look into issues of remuneration and career progression of police and officers attached to the national government administration (NGAO).

"I will look into these welfare issues, be it on accommodation or their tools of trade," the PS nominee said, adding that he would seek a review of the department's service charters.

(+) PLAN TO TAME CATTLE RUSTLING

Wajir governor in fight for survival as poll petition begins

▹ Senate candidate who lost narrated to the court the widespread malpractices that took place.

▹ Petitioner claims some polling stations didn't use Kiems kits while others had marked ballot papers.

PAUL OGEMBA, NAIROBI

Wajir Governor Ahmed Abdullahi began the fight for survival as the High Court in Nairobi began hearing an election petition challenging his victory.

The hearing started with a witness, Ibrahim Mohamud (pictured), narrating how there were widespread electoral malpractices that compromised the integrity of the governor's election.

"Voting in Wajir County started well in the morning until in the afternoon when everything went wrong. The electronic voting materials failed while in some centres people were allowed to vote more than once," he said.

As a result of the discrepancies, Mohamud who also contested but lost the Wajir senatorial seat said the elections were not free and fair and that Abdullahi was not validly elected as governor.

He told Justice George Dulu that election in all the elective seats in Wajir were marred by irregularities including the senatorial seat but decided not to file a petition to challenge the outcome because he did not have the resources.

He told the court that he decided to support Dr Hassan Mohamed who is challenging Abdullahi's win and denied claims that he had been paid to fight the governor.

"I do not have any historical differences with the governor but I swore an affidavit to tell the malpractices which took place. Our agents documented the malpractices and told us how double voting was taking place in certain polling centres after the electronic gadgets failed," said Mohamud.

Dr Mohamed, who was the runner-up in the Wajir gubernatorial election, is the petitioner challenging governor Abdullahi's win.

He alleges that the governor election was not conducted in accordance with the Constitution and Elections Act and that the results which showed Abdullahi won the election with 35,533 votes against his tally of 27,224 was fraudulent.

According to the petitioner, there was violence in Wajir East on the eve of the elections which was deliberately orchestrated to ensure that the voter turnout was low.

"The attacks started a day before elections and abruptly stopped after. This hindered voting and led to polling stations being opened late and closed early," said Mohamed.

The petitioner added that the postponed elections in Eldas Constituency also affected the outcome since voters were misled to believe that the governor who hails from the constituency was the frontrunner and favourite to win the seat.

Hearing continues today.

JUSTICE

Auctioneer behind the demolition of Westlands home to be sentenced for flouting court orders uctioneer behind the Westlands house demolition will be sentenced on Wednesday for defying court orders.

Environment and Lands Court judge Oscar Angote ordered that Zachary Barasa should appear before him for mitigation and sentencing after finding that he ignored court orders barring him from evicting or demolishing the house belonging to Niraj Shah.

Although Barasa told the judge that he was not the one who demolished the house, Justice Angote found his explanation wanting as he carted away the items in the property.

"The issue of who actually demolished the building, for now, is neither here nor there. Having found that the auctioneer went on a frolic of this court, he is in contempt of the orders of the court, which were issued, in the presence of his advocate Mr Nyanyuki (Edwin). The said auctioneer will appear in court for mitigation and sentencing," ruled Justice Angote.

Barasa said he was told by the lawyer that the magistrate's court had not issued any orders barring him from evicting Niraj and his family.

He says he saw no need of extracting the orders as the lawyer had confirmed that the court had barred him from evicting the family.

Samuel Chepkwony, the director of Lariak Properties Limited, the company claiming ownership of the property, said he instructed Edwin Nyanyuki to file a case against Metro Pharmaceuticals Limited on October 18, 2022.

He alleged that Nyanyuki informed him that the magistrate's court had granted him the orders. According Chepkwony, he no reason to doubt his lawyer.

He told the court that he then proceeded to hired Barasa to effect the orders.

Nyanyuki on his part claimed that he attended the virtual court and the orders issued were different from the written orders.

The court heard that Niraj and his wife lost items worth around Sh70 million.

Meanwhile, Sergeant Eric Onyango, the investigator told the court that he needs time to recover items vandalised from the property. [Kamau Muthoni]

Interviews 11 nominees faced House teams yesterday

We'll review fuel taxes, says PS nominee at vetting

Multiple petroleum levies blamed for the runaway fuel prices

BY DAVID MWERE AND COLLINS OMULLO

Treasury Principal Secretary nominee Chris Kiptoo has pledged the government will review multiple petroleum taxes blamed for runaway fuel prices, as 11 nominees faced parliamentary committees yesterday.

Dr Kiptoo ruled out the introduction of a fuel subsidy, as he outlined plans to reduce expenditure and wastage in government.

On fuel, Dr Kiptoo said the government was mulling reducing levies, but not the reintroduction of the fuel subsidy scrapped by President William Ruto, which he said had gobbled up Sh144 billion, which could have risen to Sh280 billion, for one year.

"We may look around the levies charged on fuel but in the long term, as the rest of the world embraces green energy, we must reduce our over reliance on fossil fuels," Dr Kiptoo said.

He also promised to address Kenya's debt, now at Sh8.8 trillion, by focusing on widening the tax base while ensuring compliance.

He was among 11 of President Ruto's nominees for principal secretary that made a pitch on their suitability to serve, as MPs unleashed questions on Day One of a week-long vetting of the 51 nominees by parliamentary committees.

Yesterday, Mr Julius Korir (Cabinet Affairs), Mr Raymond Omollo (Interior and National Administration), Prof Julius Bitok (Citizen Services) and Ms Aurelia Rono (Parliamentary Affairs) had a date with the Administration and Internal Affairs Committee of the National Assembly.

Vetted by the Agriculture committee were Mr Philip Harsame (Crops) and Mr Harry Kimutai (Livestock Development) while Mr Peter Tum (Medical Services) and Dr Josephine Mburu (Health Standards and Professional Management) were vetted by the House Committee on Health.

The Finance and Planning Committee also had a busy schedule vetting Dr Kiptoo, Mr James Muhati (Economic Planning) and Ms Esther Ngero (Performance and Delivery Management).

Mr Korir said he would coordinate programmes of government to ensure the Kenya Kwanza manifesto is realised.

"If you approve my nomination for the formal appointment I will ensure that Cabinet decisions are implemented as required within the shortest time," Mr Korir told the committee chaired by Narok West MP Gabriel Tongoyo.

Mr Omollo, a statistician from the University of Nairobi, will replace Mr Karanja Kibicho, the powerful figure in retired President Uhuru Kenyatta's administration, if approved by MPs and formally appointed by the President.

On the police vehicle leasing programme, Mr Omollo said that he will look at it afresh if Parliament confirm his appointment.

Mr Omollo also promised change of laws governing betting and gaming in Kenya, which he termed "archaic".

Prof Bitok, who unsuccessfully contested the Uasin Gishu governor's seat in the August 9, 2022 election, promised to digitise registration of persons. "It will be a one-stop shop," said Prof Bitok as he gave the undertaking of ensuring that Huduma Namba is successful.

Mr Kimutai, on the other hand, said all livestock in the country will be tagged as part of plans to end cattle rustling in the country.

He said the government was in the process of carrying out a mandatory animal census that will see all livestock in the country tagged for easy identification and traceability.

Mr Harsame defended President Ruto's move to lift the ban on genetically modified organisms (GMOs) and BT cotton, saying the move was long overdue.

Further, he defended the Galana-Kulalu project, saying it is a success story that has only been made to look like a failed project due to bad publicity.

Mr Muhati promised to streamline collection and processing of data meant for national planning, saying the current system was labour-intensive and required improved technological advancement to ensure quality of data.

Mr Muhati, the immediate former Huduma Kenya CEO, said Kenya's biggest problem was not a growing population, but a plan to ensure skilled labour, which, he said, could then be exported.

Mr Tum said the healthcare sector in the country is in dire need of serious reforms to adequately respond to health service needs of Kenyans.

He committed to spearhead reforms of institutions providing healthcare in the country with a view to providing quality and seamless health services.

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

(No. 024 of 2022)

RESUMPTION OF VETTING OF NOMINEES FOR APPOINTMENT AS PRINCIPAL SECRETARIES

Honourable Members,

1. You will recall that on 15th November 2022, the Employment and Labour Relations Court in Constitution Petition No. E186 of 2022, Dr. Magare Gikenyi versus The President of the Republic of Kenya and 55 Others and in Constitution Petition No. E192 of 2022, Law Society of Kenya versus The National Assembly and 4 Others, granted EX-PARTE CONSERVATORY ORDERS temporarily staying the vetting process in respect of nominees for appointment to the position of Principal Secretaries pending hearing and determination of the Petitioners' application for conservatory orders.

2. Consequently, on 16th November 2022 vide Notification No. 02 of 2022, I directed that the vetting process be suspended pending the outcome of the judicial process. This was informed by the appreciation of the provisions of Article 3(1) of the Constitution which places an obligation on myself and indeed the House, to respect and uphold the Constitution and in particular by abiding and upholding the rule of law.

3. Further, I directed our litigation Counsel to move the concerned courts to set aside the ex-parte orders based on various legal grounds and more particularly on lack of jurisdiction on the part of Courts to interfere with active parliamentary processes.

4. Accordingly, the National Assembly challenged the court's power to hear and determine the case on the ground that the Petitions were in contravention of the constitutional principle of separation of powers, as they were inviting the court to determine a matter under the exclusive jurisdiction of the National Assembly under Article 155(3)(b) of the Constitution and the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011.

Honourable Members

5. In its Ruling delivered today, Tuesday, 29th November 2022, the court agreed with the National Assembly's submission that the doctrine of separation of powers as provided for in the Constitution ought to be respected and upheld at all times. Further, the court observed that the National Assembly has exclusive original jurisdiction to first carry out the approval process before the court can intervene. The court therefore, paved the way for the resumption of the vetting process noting that the petitions were baseless, frivolous, vexatious and premature. The court also noted that the legislature must be allowed to carry out its constitutional mandate without undue interference by any person or other arm of government.

6. From the onset, I wish to note the very progressive view taken by the court in this matter. Whereas it is the constitutional right of every person to approach the courts of law, state organs must be allowed sufficient leeway to carry out their mandate without undue interference by any person. Indeed, to a keen observer, the petitioners were moved more by a lack of proper information and legal guidance, and a push to stall a process for reasons other than national interest.

Honourable Members,

7. As observed by the court, comity among the organs of the State dictates that one organ shall not interfere in a matter under the active consideration of another organ. Indeed, our own Standing Order 89 on Matters sub-judice prohibit referral or consideration of any matter before a court of law. In the same vein, the courts are expected to exercise restraint and refrain from interfering with matters that are active before Parliament, a constitutional concept that the court has today once again upheld in its Ruling. As the National Assembly, we will endeavour to protect and uphold these constitutional principles in furtherance of the mandate bestowed on us.

Honourable Members,

8. Following this ruling by the court, I wish to guide the House, the concerned Committees and indeed the general public as follows –

(1) THAT, the suspension of the vetting of persons nominated to serve as Principal Secretaries is hereby lifted. The Committees are therefore expected to resume the vetting process immediately; and

(2) THAT, all Departmental Committees are to conclude the vetting proceedings and approval hearings as soon as possible to allow for the conclusion of process. In any case, noting that the House will be commencing the long recess on 2nd December 2022 in accordance with its calendar, it is expected that the Committees will hasten the process and report to the House by end of the morning sitting of Thursday, 1st December 2022, to pave way for consideration of the various approval motions by the House.

THE RT. HON. MOSES WETANG'ULA, EGH, MP
SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
Tuesday, 29th November 2022

Honourable Members,

7. Noting the close timelines and given the fact that the House is scheduled to commence the long recess on Thursday, December 1, 2022, in accordance with its Calendar, I forthwith referred the names of the seven persons so nominated to the Departmental Committee on Finance & National Planning. The Committee is expected to undertake the necessary approval hearing as contemplated under the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 and Standing Order 45 (Committal of public appointments to Committees). Indeed, I am aware that the Committee has already called for the submission of memoranda from the public as part of the approval process.

8. Additionally, by way of a Notification, I directed the Clerk of the National Assembly to transmit the said notification to all Members, which he did.

Honourable Members,

9. I now direct the Committee to expeditiously undertake the approval hearings and report back to the House. In any case, the Committee should conclude the approval hearings by 6th of December 2022 and table its report before the expiry of the constitutional deadline.

The House is accordingly guided.

I thank you.
