- (b) carry out the duties in a transparent and accountable manner;
- (c) keep accurate records and documents relating to the functions of the office; and
- (d) report truthfully on all matters of the organization which they represent.

11. Professionalism

A State officer shall—

- (a) carry out duties of the office in a manner that maintains public confidence in the integrity of the office;
- (b) treat members of the public and other public officers with courtesy and respect;
- (c) not discriminate against any person, except as is expressly provided by the law;
- (d) to the extent appropriate to the office, maintain high standards of performance and level of professionalism within the organisation; and
- (e) if the State officer is a member of a professional body, observe and subscribe to the ethical and professional requirements of that body in so far as the requirements do not contravene the Constitution or this Act.

12. Financial integrity

(1) A State officer shall not use the office to unlawfully or wrongfully enrich himself or herself or any other person.

(2) Subject to Article 76(2)(b) of the Constitution, a State officer shall not accept a personal loan or benefit which may compromise the State officer in carrying out the duties.

12A. Self-declaration

Any person intending to be appointed to a State office shall submit to the Commission a self-declaration form in the form set out in the First Schedule.

[Act No. 18 of 2014, Sch.]

13. Moral and ethical requirements

(1) For the purposes of Articles 99(1)(b) and 193(1)(b) of the Constitution, a person shall observe and maintain the following ethical and moral requirements—

- (a) demonstrate honesty in the conduct of public affairs subject to the Public Officer Ethics Act (No. 4 of 2003);
- (b) not to engage in activities that amount to abuse of office;
- (c) accurately and honestly represent information to the public;
- (d) not engage in wrongful conduct in furtherance of personal benefit;
- (e) not misuse public resources;
- (f) not discriminate against any person, except as expressly provided for under the law;
- (g) not falsify any records;
- (h) not engage in actions which would lead to the State officer's removal from the membership of a professional body in accordance with the law; and

- (i) not commit offences and in particular, any of the offences under Parts XV and XVI of the Penal Code (Cap. 63), the Sexual Offences Act (No. 3 of 2006), the Counter-Trafficking in Persons Act (No. 8 of 2010), and the Children Act (No. 8 of 2001).

(2) A person who wishes to be elected to a State office shall, for the purposes of this section, submit to the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission a self-declaration in the form set out in the First Schedule.

14. Gifts or benefits in kind

(1) A gift or donation given to a State officer on a public or official occasion shall be treated as a gift or donation to the State.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a State officer may receive a gift given to the State officer in an official capacity, provided that—

- (a) the gift is within the ordinary bounds of propriety, a usual expression of courtesy or protocol and within the ordinary standards of hospitality;
- (b) the gift is not monetary; and
- (c) the gift does not exceed such value as may be prescribed by the Commission in the regulations.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), a State officer shall not—

- (a) accept or solicit gifts, hospitality or other benefits from a person who—
 - (i) has an interest that may be achieved by the carrying out or not carrying out of the State officer's duties;
 - (ii) carries on regulated activities with respect to which the State officer's organisation has a role; or
 - (iii) has a contractual or legal relationship with the State officer's organisation;
- (b) accept gifts of jewellery or other gifts comprising of precious metal or stones ivory or any other animal part protected under the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora; or
- (c) any other type of gift specified by the Commission in the regulations.

(4) A State officer shall not receive a gift which is given with the intention of compromising the integrity, objectivity or impartiality of the State officer.

(5) Subject to subsection (2), a State officer who receives a gift or donation shall declare the gift or donation to the Commission and the public entity which the State officer represents.

(6) Every public entity shall keep a register of—

- (a) gifts received by a State officer serving in the public entity; and
- (b) gifts given by the public entity to other State officers.

(7) The Commission shall make and publicize regulations regarding receipt and disposal of gifts under this section.

15. Wrongful or unlawful acquisition of property

A State officer shall not use the office to wrongfully or unlawfully influence the acquisition of property.

16. Conflict of interest

(1) A State officer or a public officer shall use the best efforts to avoid being in a situation where personal interests conflict or appear to conflict with the State officer's or public officer's official duties.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a State officer or a public officer shall not hold shares or have any other interest in a corporation, partnership or other body, directly or through another person, if holding those shares or having that interest would result in a conflict of the State officer's or public officer's personal interests and the officer's official duties.

(3) A State officer or a public officer whose personal interests conflict with their official duties shall declare the personal interests to the public entity or the Commission.

(4) The Commission or a public entity may give direction on the appropriate action to be taken by the State officer or public officer to avoid the conflict of interest and the State officer or public officer shall—

- (a) comply with the directions; and
- (b) refrain from participating in any deliberations with respect to the matter.

(5) Notwithstanding any directions to the contrary under subsection (4), a State officer or a public officer shall not award or influence the award of a contract to—

- (a) himself or herself;
- (b) the State officer's or public officer's spouse or child;
- (c) a business associate or agent; or
- (d) a corporation, private company, partnership or other body in which the officer has a substantial or controlling interest.

(6) In this section, "personal interest" includes the interest of a spouse, child, business associate or agent or any other matter in which the State officer or public officer has a direct or indirect pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest.

(7) Where a State officer or a public officer is present at a meeting, where an issue which is likely to result in a conflict of interest is to be discussed, the State officer or public officer shall declare the interest at the beginning of the meeting or before the issue is deliberated upon.

(8) A declaration of a conflict of interest under subsection (7) shall be recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

(9) Subject to Article 116(3) and (4) of the Constitution, a member of Parliament or a member of a county assembly shall declare any direct pecuniary interest or benefit of whatever nature in any—

- (a) debate or proceeding of the body of which he or she is a member;
- (b) debate or proceeding in any committee of that body; and
- (c) transaction or communication which the State officer may have with other members of the body, State officers, public officers or government officers.

(10) For purposes of subsection (9), the Clerk of the Senate, the National Assembly or a county assembly shall maintain a register of conflicts of interest, which shall be open to the public for inspection.

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE MATTER OF THE OATHS AND STATUTORY DECLARATIONS ACT, CAP 15
OF THE LAWS OF KENYA

STATUTORY DECLARATION

I JOYCE NUNGARI KINYANJUI of ID 6485923 (Annexed is a copy of the Identification Card at Page 1), P.O. Box 30075-00100, Nairobi, a resident of Nairobi do hereby make oath and state as follows;

1. THAT In the year 2018, I was an employee of Nairobi City County in the Position of Director Inter Governmental Relations & Head CEC Secretariat.
2. THAT I received a letter from the CEO, Council of Governors (C.O.G.) dated 30th November, 2017 and received on 1st March, 2017 inviting First Ladies of various Counties to attend to the 62nd CSW Conference in New York that was to take place between the 12th to 23rd March 2018 (Annexed is a copy of the letter on page 2 attesting as much).
3. THAT further on 7th March, 2018, the Head of Public Service wrote to the Cabinet Secretary Ministry of Public Service, Youth and Gender affairs, authorizing the inclusion of one Mrs. Primrose Mwelu Nyamu and Ms. Saumu Agnes Mbuvi to the delegation traveling to United States of America to attend the 62nd CSW Conference. (Annexed is a copy of the letter o page 3).
4. THAT the County Secretary instructed me to prepare Authority to incur expenditure which was dated 9th March, 2018. An approval was then given by the County Secretary and thereafter forwarded to the pay master for purposes of computing the per diem. The paymaster instructed that the payments for Janet Muthoni be processed through the per diem system and that for the first Lady be processed through imprest. (Annexed is the authority to incur expenditure on page 4).
5. THAT I was introduced to one Dorothy by the County Secretary, who informed me that she is the person who handles the First Lady's travel plans.
6. THAT Dorothy traded in the style of Premier Plan Agency. I received an invoice from the Premier Plan Agency, which company was not in the IFMIS system, for a sum of Kenya Shillings Two million (Kshs. 2.6 Million). (Annexed is a copy of the invoice on pages 5 to 6 attesting as much).

7. THAT on 9th March, 2018, I made a request to Shades of Africa Limited (a prequalified travel agency by the Nairobi City County) for the provision of two air tickets for the Nairobi City County First Lady and her entourage, who then issued an invoice of USD 17, 260, air tickets and payment voucher number 5942 in favour of Shades of Africa. (Annexed is letter requesting for the tickets, air tickets and payment voucher on running from pages 7 to 11 attesting as much).
8. THAT the sector accountant then prepared the Imprest warrant number 3225199 for the sum of Kshs. 2.6 million (being imprest for County First Lady and Ward Administrator to travel to USA) (Annexed is a copy of the Imprest warrant on page 12).
9. THAT on 19th March, 2018 one Christopher Mmbwanga who was the then Governor's security called me through my mobile number and asked me where I was. I confirmed that I was in my office and he indicated that he had been sent by the Governor so that I go and withdraw the First Lady's Primrose Mwelu Nyamu payments and or per diem.
10. THAT upon his arrival we proceeded to Cooperative Bank City Hall Branch and withdrew the money amounting to Kshs. 2.6 Million. (Annexed is a copy of the transactional receipt on page 13)
11. THAT the amount of Kshs. 2.6 M was to cater for the costs of the First Lady and the Ward Administrator.
12. THAT on 9th may, 2019, I then compiled all the documents with respect to the trip which include the air tickets, boarding passes as well as accommodation and submitted the same to the accountant for preparation of surrender documents. (Annexed is a copy of the Payment Voucher for surrender the on pages 14 to 27).

13. THAT what is deponed herein is true to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

All Excellency Governors

Your Excellency,

PARTICIPATION OF COUNTY FIRST LADIES IN THE 62ND CSW 2018 IN NEW YORK – 12TH TO 23RD MARCH 2018

Season's Greetings

The Commission on Status of Women conference is held annually. The preparation for the 62nd CSW is underway nationally to consolidate the Kenyan report that shall be presented in New York at the CSW meeting running from 12th to 23rd March, 2018. The theme for the meeting next year is "Challenges and Opportunities in Advancing Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Rural Women and Girls." This is relevant to the work of the County First Ladies.

Your Excellency, County First Ladies from some counties have shown interest in participating in the 62nd CSW. The purpose of this letter therefore, is to bring to your attention this request and ask that Counties who will support the First Ladies, write to the Council of Governors to coordinate or write directly to the State Department of Gender.

Yours sincerely,

Jacqueline Mogeni

March 15, 2018

Dear Ms. Nyamu,

We are pleased to confirm the following transportation arrangements for you. We have arranged a SUV for you. As agreed upon, the rate quoted for this vehicle is $299.00 (All inclusive)

From: The Dominick
To: JFK
Date: Friday, March 16, 2018
Time: 7:00 AM
Flight Details: Emrites
Flight Time: 11:00am
Meeting Location:
Confirmation # 19994316

Please review the arrangements for your airport transfer. There is a 3-hour cancellation policy when reserving a car; please advise the Concierge (212) 842-5555, if your plans change. For guests arriving on domestic flights, a representative will meet passengers at the baggage claim area holding a sign with your name on it. For guests arriving on international flights, a representative will meet passengers outside U.S. Customs holding a sign with your name on it. Please be assured that your driver is there. If you do not see your chauffeur or greeter, please call the Concierge, (212) 842-5555, and we will help you locate the driver. Kindly note, that vehicles are at the mercy of New York area traffic.

If there is anything else we can do to make your visit more enjoyable, please let us know and we will be happy to assist you.

Sincerely,

Michael Davidson
Concierge
