The Minutes of the 67th Sitting were confirmed as a true record of the proceedings as proposed by Hon. Mohammed Shidiye, MP and seconded by Hon. Alice Wahome, MP.

The Minutes of the 68th Sitting were confirmed as a true record of the proceedings as proposed by Hon. Alice Wahome, MP and seconded by Hon. Shaaban Isaack, MP.

MIN.NO.321/ANS/2016: CONSIDERATION AND ADOPTION OF A DRAFT REPORT ON THE VETTING OF LT. COL.(RTD) JULIUS AYUB GITHIRI NOMINEE FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE POSITION OF CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF THE NATIONAL AUTHORITY FOR THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE(NACADA)

The Committee unanimously adopted the report as proposed by Hon. Joseph Lekuton, MP and seconded by Hon. Fatuma Ibrahim Ali, MP.

The Committee observed that Lt. Col. (Rtd) Julius Ayub Githiru having worked in the army would be instrumental in the campaign against drugs and alcohol abuse if his as a chairperson of the National Authority for the Campaign against Alcohol and Drug Abuse NACADA was confirmed noting that previous civilians Chairpersons had performed dismally. Further alcohol and drugs were destroying and killing many citizens and NACADA appeared to be losing the ability to contain the problem.

The Committee also observed that the Authority was not visible in many parts of the Country and impact of its civic education and public awareness campaigns was minimal. Members further noted that there was need for the new Chairperson, once he settles in office, to brief the Committee on his strategic plan to deal with the problem of alcohol and illicit drugs.

The Committee also noted a recent trend where former military officers have be appointed to key positions in the Ministry of Interior and Coordination of National Government as well as various Commissions under its mandate. Members raised concern that the Ministry could be militarized if the trend continued.

The Committee also resolved to hold a workshop with NACADA and other stakeholders on the Authority's strategic plan to deal with the alcohol and drug menace in Kenya, once the new Chairperson settles in office.

Hotels get star ratings from tourism authority

UASIN GISHU

By MICHAEL OLLINGA

The Tourism Regulation Authority (TRA) has conducted the first classification of hotels in 13 years.

Hotel and restaurant classification has been a challenge for regulation agencies due to resistance from investors in the sector.

TRA Director General Kipkorir Lagat said efforts to classify hotels in the past decade had failed due to resistance and unwillingness by hoteliers and other stakeholders.

"It was wonderful for the North Rift to pioneer this vital procedure. An in-depth engagement with investors in the hospitality industry, creating awareness and building capacity for the stakeholders prior to the categorisation ensured we attained this milestone," said Mr Lagat.

He said classified facilities that have been gazetted will benefit from free advertising and publicity on the Kenya Tourism Board (KTB) website.

They will also enjoy duty-free importation of 11 hotel items, including linen, to enable them to maintain and even upgrade their standards.

"The exercise is ongoing across

HOW HOTELS WERE RATED

• Out of 126 facilities that initially sought free classification, 11 hotels got a two-star rating.

• Four stars: Boma Inn Hotel in Eldoret.

• Three stars: Samich Resort and Kerio View Lodge in Elgeyo Marakwet, and The Noble Conference Centre and Hotel Horizon in Uasin Gishu.

• Two stars: Comfy Hotel, Kenmosa Tourist Hotel, Poa Place Resort, Starbucks, Cicada, Hotel Winstar and The Pearl Hotel.

the East African Community and will enable us to assure clients of value for their money. Some facilities have been overcharging clients and promising services they don't deliver," added Lagat.

Out of 126 facilities that initially sought free classification, 11 hotels got a two-star rating. Only Boma Inn Hotel in Eldoret received a four-star rating based on quality of service, accommodation capacity, variety of services and calibre of staff.

Samich Resort and Kerio View Lodge in Elgeyo Marakwet, and The Noble Conference Centre and Hotel Horizon in Uasin Gishu got three-star rating although the latter closed down several months ago following a financial crisis.

CERTIFICATE AND PLAQUE

Comfy Hotel, Kenmosa Tourist Hotel, Poa Place Resort, Starbucks Hotel, Cicada, Hotel Winstar and The Pearl Hotel, all in Uasin Gishu, got a two-star rating and were awarded a certificate and a plaque showing their categories.

"We are currently classifying the facilities voluntarily but it will soon be a compulsory exercise and those that fail to utilise the free service will have to pay Sh50,000 to be rated," said Lagat.

He said poor sanitation and lack of qualified, high-calibre staff as the main challenge for many hotels, a situation that had caused resistance to vetting and rating from some renowned hotels.

Lagat noted that the North Rift region, which lies within the Western Kenya Tourism Circuit, is well-placed to develop the industry further through its diverse opportunities.

What we need is water!

Residents of Chemolingot town in Tiaty sub-county, Baringo County, yesterday staged a protest against water shortages in the area. They accused the county government of failing to address the matter after several boreholes dried up.
