1.2 ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSION ON REVENUE ALLOCATION

Article 215 of the Constitution provides for the establishment and membership of the Commission on Revenue Allocation. Article 215 (2) of the Constitution empowers the President and the political parties represented in Parliament to nominate the Chairperson and seven members of the Commission on Revenue Allocation respectively. The ninth member of the Commission is the Principal Secretary in the Ministry of Finance.

1.3 APPOINTMENT PROCESS FOR THE NOMINEES TO THE COMMISSION ON REVENUE ALLOCATION

The process for the appointment of the Chairperson and members of the Commission on Revenue Allocation commenced by the advertisement in the Kenya Gazette dated 11th November, 2010 by His Excellency the President and the Clerk of the National Assembly, respectively declaring vacancies in the office of the Chairperson and the members of the Commission and setting out the qualifications required for each office. The closing date for receipt of applications was Thursday 18th November, 2010

On Friday 19th November 2010, His Excellency the President and the Clerk of the National Assembly published in the Gazette, the list of all the applicants for the office of the Chairperson and members of the Commission respectively, indicating their academic and professional qualifications. The list of the participants was forwarded on the same day to all political parties represented in Parliament through the Whips.

The political parties represented in Parliament were supposed to consider all the applications received, abiding by all constitutional requirements, forward through the Whips, the names of the seven persons nominated for appointment as members of the Commission to the Departmental Committee on Finance, Planning and Trade for vetting. Similarly, His Excellency the President in consultation with the Right Honourable Prime Minister was supposed to forward to the Committee for vetting, the name of the person nominated as the Chairperson of the Commission on Revenue Allocation.

The Departmental Committee on Finance, Planning & Trade was supposed to vet the persons nominated for appointment as chairperson and members of the Commission and present its report thereon to the House for debate and approval by Thursday 25th November, 2010.
