3.1.22 General and Sector Specific questions to Mr. Geoffrey Kaituko

56. The President, H.E William Ruto announced plans to enact the 6% contribution of employees' salary towards NSSF. There have been reports of misuse of workers' funds at NSSF while the payment of benefits upon retirement has been a frustrating process for many. In your view, what policies will you consider to ensure funds are not misused and streamline the system payments?

The nominee stated that the 6 % proposed workers' contribution and matched by one by the employer is based on the National Social Security Fund (amendment) Act, 2013. The current model is unsustainable. Mismanagement of the Fund is due to risky land deals undertaken. To mitigate the mismanagement, there is need for the adoption of global best practice to manage pension funds and have the right trustees in place. NSSF is an autonomous body outside the government's purview which makes monitoring its activities difficult. Enhanced government intervention and oversight will go a long way to mitigate against the mismanagement. To reduce the time of cost and time of processing retirees' pensions, NSSF can be devolved to county headquarters and payments digitized.

57. What would the nominee consider to be the major challenges for the labor sector today? What solutions would he propose?

The nominee stated that unemployment is exacerbated by the low rate of absorption of new graduates in the market. As per the UDA manifesto, there is need to unlock the main sectoral drivers of economies such as agriculture and manufacturing. There is a mismatch of skills to market requirements and over supply of certain skills. The Ministry is to carry out a skills assessment in order to advise the training institutes on the requisite skills including the National Industrial Training Authority and the Tertiary and Vocational Education and Training (TVET). The review of labour laws and regulations to allow for labour exporting agreement with Countries who require the skills which are in excess. The Ministry is to requisition for additional Labour Attaché especially in large labour markets to protect the right of migrant workers.

On labour unrests, the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) mechanism is been implemented to arrest the disputes before they became industrial actions and thus reduce litigation.

58. The country is facing serious challenges of child labour and child prostitution, how can this vice be combated?

The nominee reported that there is need for more labour inspectors especially in known hotspot areas and during certain seasons. Schooling is a big deterrent against child labor because those who go to school do not engage in child labor. A multi –sectoral and multi-agency approach is advisable to ensure success.

59. What safeguards are there or can be enacted to ensure that expatriate opportunities issued expatriates before ensuring that Kenyans do not have the requisite skills, thus promoting "A Kenyan first employment policy".

The nominee proposes a multi-sectoral approach. The Ministry of Interior that issues work permits to request for a skills vetting report from the Ministry of Labour on whether the skills are available in Kenya. Enactment of regulations to allow the Ministry of Labour to receive a copy of the expatriate contracts for verification and confirmation of skills transfer.

60. The mistreatment of migrant workers to the Middle East is a thorny issue and there is a blame game between foreign affairs and labour. What measures can be put in place to curb the mistreatment of the workers?

The nominee reported that the mistreatment of largely unskilled and domestic migrant workers is largely in Saudi Arabia, because Kenya does not have a labour agreement with the Kingdom of Saudi to govern among others, a minimum wage and acceptable working conditions. There is need to enhance consular services in Saudi Arabia by increase of Labour attaché to seven (7) to provide more hands on consular services. Currently there is only one officer. There is need to enact a labour migration management bill, to provide teeth for the Ministry to register and sanction migrant workers agencies. At the moment, administrative actions taken against these agencies, have no sanctions to discipline them and courts have not ruled in favour of the Ministry since there is weak legislation in place. The consular can operate safe houses for those migrant workers in need before they are repatriated.

Saudi Arabia is one of Kenya's largest migrant workers market with close to 300,000 Kenyans working there. Kenyans faced the same issues in Qatar, but with the labour agreement in place incidence of mistreatment have greatly reduce. Further, skilled workers do not face the same mistreatment since their contracts are governed by different set of laws. Saudi Arabia had made labour agreements with countries like Philippines who are reporting reduced incidences of mistreatments. A combined labour agreement from the East African community will also dissuade the Middle East Countries from exploiting individual members' migrant workers.

The Migrant workers welfare Fund needs to be operationalized with budgetary allocation of seed capital to the Fund and contributory deductions from the migrant workers.

3.2.11 General and Sector Specific questions to Mr. Geoffrey Kaituko

73. How will the nominee deal with allegations of nepotism and corruption in the recruitment of public officers as well as ensure that recruitment in public service is by merit and all communities are given an equal chance?

The nominee stated that he would implement the provisions of the constitution during the various recruitment exercises, will refer to Article 232 on fairness and Article 52 of the Constitution also discusses gender inclusivity.

74. The public service is the single largest employer in the country. The Cabinet Secretary for Public Service, Gender and Affirmative action, Hon. Aisha Jumwa Katana recently proposed a plan by the government for a salary increase for civil servants in 100 days. Given that there is already a huge wage bill, what are the nominee view, on what needs to be done to streamline the public service to be lean and effective while at the same time meeting the welfare needs of civil servants?

The nominee reported that civil servants deserve the pay rise but a discussion has to be based on the wage bill and whether it will be sustainable. The government has come up with a welfare package for civil servants such as full medical cover through NHIF, Group personal cover, mortgage, car loan, and through HELB, loans to civil servants to pursue higher learning.

75. In the nominee's assessment, what can the public service do to improve public service delivery?

He advocates for entrenchment of performance management and results-oriented initiatives to improve service delivery. Further, entrenching quarterly appraisals makes officers conscious of what they have to do, holds them more accountable for their actions. Have a feedback mechanisms to gauge service delivery. Entrench customer service in the public service.

76. On the right to fair labor practices every worker has the right to fair remuneration. What steps will the nominee take to ensure that the workers' remunerations are at par with the current economic environment, where inflation in the local and international sphere is high? This is with a special focus on hardship areas for different workers.

There is a draft hardship policy pending before the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection awaiting public participation. It is envisaged to redefine hardship areas and increase amounts paid as allowance.

77. The public service has been politicized and public servants have become politicians in their offices. How can the nominee ensure the civil service remains professional?

He stated that in the past, the public service was shunned because of poor pay but due to improved pay and various other incentives, it's attracting candidates for various positions. The nominee promised to entrench and enhance professionalism including advocating for officers to be members of professional bodies.

78. The rationale behind not devolving the Kenya School of Government to Counties?

The Kenya School of Government is intended to be a learning institution to train and provide a forum for interaction for all Public Officers regardless of their county of residence. The civil servant can therefore be posted anywhere in the Country.

79. Measures to mitigate against ethnicity in the public service.

The nominee stated that the provisions of the Constitution under Articles 10, 232 and 56 promote inclusivity which requires entrenchment and continuous monitoring. The criteria to use is on pro-rata rate based on population. The main challenges still arising are on gender and age. The policy on affirmative action is in place in the public service to mainly address the gender parity in pay and positions.

80. The Cabinet Secretary for Public Service, Gender and Affirmative Action has undertaken to increase pay for public servants within 100 days of office. How will the nominee implement the proposed pay increase in light of the measures in place to curb the ballooning wage bill?

The nominee reported that the undertaking was based on a Collective Bargain Agreement with the civil service unions which is in the process of negotiation. The speed at which the parties will reach an agreement would impact on the timeline of 100 days.

MIN. NO.013 NA/LABOUR/2022: PRELIMINARIES

The Meeting was called to order at four minutes to eleven o'clock, after which a Prayer was said by the Chairperson. The agenda was adopted, having been proposed by Hon. Chiformodo Mangale, MP and seconded by Hon. George Alwada, MP

MIN.NO.014 NA/LABOUR/2022: CONFIRMATION OF MINUTES OF THE PREVIOUS SITTING

Confirmation of Minutes of the previous meeting was deferred to the next sitting.

MIN.NO.015 NA/LABOUR/2022: COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIRPERSON

The chairperson read a brief on the nomination exercise to members. The Chairperson took members through the procedure of vetting entailed in the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approvals) Act. The Chairperson informed Members that the Committee had received all documentation required by the law for the vetting exercise.

MIN. NO. 016 NA/LABOUR/2022: APPROVAL HEARINGS FOR MR. GEOFFREY EYANAE KAITUKO AND MR. AMOS NJOROGE GATHECHA, NOMINEES TO BE APPOINTED TO THE POSITION OF PRINCIPAL SECRETARIES FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR AND SKILLS DEVELOPMENT, AND STATE DEPARTMENT FOR PUBLIC SERVICE RESPECTIVELY

The Chairperson welcomed Mr. Geoffrey Eyanae Kaituko, for the vetting and thereafter self-introduction of those present was made. He then directed the Legal Counsel to administer the oath to the nominee. The nominee then presented his original identity card, academic and professional certificates and clearance from Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), Higher Education Loans Board (HELB), Directorate of Criminal Investigation (DCI), Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA) and Office of Registrar of Political Parties (ORPP) for verification by the Legal Counsel.

Mr. Geoffrey Kaituko presented his information as was in his filled questionnaire to introduce giving details of his family background, educational background, net worth, work/employment record and present engagement.

The nominee responded to various questions on thematic areas as indicated below-

1. The President, H.E William Ruto announced plans to enact the 6% contribution of employees' salary towards NSSF. There have been reports of misuse of workers' funds at NSSF while the payment of benefits upon retirement has been a frustrating process for many. In your view, what policies will you consider to ensure funds are not misused and streamline the system payments?

The nominee stated that the 6 % proposed workers' contribution and matched by one by the employer is based on the National Social Security Fund (amendment) Act, 2013. The current model is unsustainable. Mismanagement of the Fund is due to risky land deals undertaken. To mitigate the mismanagement, there is need for the adoption of global best practice to manage pension funds and have the right trustees in place. NSSF is an autonomous body outside the government's purview which makes monitoring its activities difficult. Enhanced government intervention and oversight will go a long way to mitigate against the mismanagement. To reduce the time of cost and time of processing retirees' pensions, NSSF can be devolved to county headquarters and payments digitized.

2. What would the nominee consider to be the major challenges for the labor sector today? What solutions would he propose?

The nominee stated that unemployment is exacerbated by the low rate of absorption of new graduates in the market. As per the UDA manifesto, there is need to unlock the main sectoral drivers of economies such as agriculture and manufacturing. There is a mismatch of skills to market requirements and over supply of certain skills. The Ministry is to carry out a skills assessment in order to advise the training institutes on the requisite skills including the National Industrial Training Authority and the Tertiary and Vocational Education and Training (TVET). The review of labour laws and regulations to allow for labour exporting agreement with Countries who require the skills which are in excess. The Ministry is to requisition for additional Labour Attaché especially in large labour markets to protect the right of migrant workers. On labour unrests, the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) mechanism is been implemented to arrest the disputes before they became industrial actions and thus reduce litigation.

3. The country is facing serious challenges of child labour and child prostitution, how can this vice be combated?

The nominee reported that there is need for more labour inspectors especially in known hotspot areas and during certain seasons. Schooling is a big deterrent against child labor because those who go to school do not engage in child labor. A multi –sectoral and multi-agency approach is advisable to ensure success.

4. What safeguards are there or can be enacted to ensure that expatriate opportunities issued expatriates before ensuring that Kenyans do not have the requisite skills, thus promoting "A Kenyan first employment policy".

The nominee proposes a multi-sectoral approach. The Ministry of Interior that issues work permits to request for a skills vetting report from the Ministry of Labour on whether the skills are available in Kenya. Enactment of regulations to allow the Ministry of Labour to receive a copy of the expatriate contracts for verification and confirmation of skills transfer.

5. The mistreatment of migrant workers to the Middle East is a thorny issue and there is a blame game between foreign affairs and labour. What measures can be put in place to curb the mistreatment of the workers?

The nominee reported that the mistreatment of largely unskilled and domestic migrant workers is largely in Saudi Arabia, because Kenya does not have a labour agreement with the Kingdom of Saudi to govern among others, a minimum wage and acceptable working conditions. There is need to enhance consular services in Saudi Arabia by increase of Labour attaché to seven (7) to provide more hands on consular services. Currently there is only one officer. There is need to enact a labour migration management bill, to provide teeth for the Ministry to register and sanction migrant workers agencies. At the moment, administrative actions taken against these agencies, have no sanctions to discipline them and courts have not ruled in favour of the Ministry since there is weak legislation in place. The consular can operate safe houses for those migrant workers in need before they are repatriated.

Saudi Arabia is one of Kenya's largest migrant workers market with close to 300,000 Kenyans working there. Kenyans faced the same issues in Qatar, but with the labour agreement in place incidence of mistreatment have greatly reduce. Further, skilled workers do not face the same mistreatment since their contracts are governed by different set of laws. Saudi Arabia had made labour agreements with countries like Philippines who are reporting reduced incidences of mistreatments. A combined labour agreement from the East African community will also dissuade the Middle East Countries from exploiting individual members' migrant workers.

The Migrant workers welfare Fund needs to be operationalized with budgetary allocation of seed capital to the Fund and contributory deductions from the migrant workers.

The Chairperson welcomed Mr. Amos Njoroge Gathecha, EBS, for the vetting and thereafter self-introduction of those present was made. He then directed the Legal Counsel to administer the oath to the nominee. The nominee then presented his original identity card, academic and professional certificates and clearance from Ethics and Anti- Corruption Commission (EACC), Higher Educations Loans Board (HELB), Directorate of Criminal Investigation (DCI), Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA) and Office of Registrar of Political Parties (ORPP) for verification by the Legal Counsel.

Mr. Amos Njoroge presented his information as was in his filled questionnaire to introduce giving details of his family background, educational background, net worth, work/employment record and present engagement.

The nominee responded to various questions on thematic areas as indicated below-

How will the nominee deal with allegations of nepotism and corruption in the recruitment of public officers as well as ensure that recruitment in public service is by merit and all communities are given an equal chance?

The nominee stated that he would implement the provisions of the constitution during the various recruitment exercises, will refer to Article 232 on fairness and Article 52 of the Constitution also discusses gender inclusivity.

6. The public service is the single largest employer in the country. The Cabinet Secretary for Public Service, Gender and Affirmative action, Hon. Aisha Jumwa Katana recently proposed a plan by the government for a salary increase for civil servants in 100 days. Given that there is already a huge wage bill, what are the nominee view, on what needs to be done to streamline the public service to be lean and effective while at the same time meeting the welfare needs of civil servants?

The nominee reported that civil servants deserve the pay rise but a discussion has to be based on the wage bill and whether it will be sustainable. The government has come up with a welfare package for civil servants such as full medical cover through NHIF, Group personal cover, mortgage, car loan, and Through HELB, loans to civil servants to pursue higher learning.

7. In the nominee's assessment, what can the public service do to improve public service delivery?

He advocates for entrenchment of performance management and results-oriented initiatives to improve service delivery. Further, entrenching quarterly appraisals makes officers conscious of what they have to do, holds them more accountable for their actions. Have a feedback mechanisms to gauge service delivery. Entrench customer service in the public service.

8. On the right to fair labor practices every worker has the right to fair remuneration. What steps will the nominee take to ensure that the workers' remunerations are at par with the current economic environment, where inflation in the local and international sphere is high? This is with a special focus on hardship areas for different workers.

There is a draft hardship policy pending before the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection awaiting public participation. It is envisaged to redefine hardship areas and increase amounts paid as allowance.

9. The public service has been politicized and public servants have become politicians in their offices. How can the nominee ensure the civil service remains professional?

He stated that in the past, the public service was shunned because of poor pay but due to improved pay and various other incentives, it's attracting candidates for various positions. The nominee promised to entrench and enhance professionalism including advocating for officers to be members of professional bodies.

10. The rationale behind not devolving the Kenya School of Government to Counties?

The Kenya School of Government is intended to be a learning institution to train and provide a forum for interaction for all Public Officers regardless of their county of residence. The civil servant can therefore be posted anywhere in the Country.

11. Measures to mitigate against ethnicity in the public service.

The nominee stated that the provisions of the Constitution under Articles 10, 232 and 56 promote inclusivity which requires entrenchment and continuous monitoring. The criteria to use is on pro-rata rate based on population. The main challenges still arising are on gender and age. The policy on affirmative action is in place in the public service to mainly address the gender parity in pay and positions.

12. The Cabinet Secretary for Public Service, Gender and Affirmative Action has undertaken to increase pay for public servants within 100 days of office. How will the nominee implement the proposed pay increase in light of the measures in place to curb the ballooning wage bill?

The nominee reported that the undertaking was based on a Collective Bargain Agreement with the civil service unions which is in the process of negotiation. The speed at which the parties will reach an agreement would impact on the timeline of 100 days.
