Major Achievements for the Period under Review

Judiciary in delivering its programme objectives, made the following achievements during the period under review;

- The Office of Ombudsperson was established to receive and deal with public complaints. An internet-based and SMS Code (5834) complaints system was launched.
- Major recruitment of judicial officers including Judges, Magistrates, legal researchers ICT officers drivers among others. This staffs have greatly contributed in greatly in expediting the achievement of the programme's objective.

- In order to reduce the waiting period in civil appeals from the current average of 6 years, the Court of Appeal undertook an exercise to distinguish main and interlocutory appeals emanating from Judgments and Decrees and Rulings/Orders of the superior court respectively.
- The Civil Procedure Rules were updated and now incorporate Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). This has been adopted in the rules of procedure to improve case management and reduce case delays.
- Leadership and Management teams have been established at all High Court stations to oversee the transformation process.
- Customer Care desks have been established in most of the court stations despite some of them facing challenges with space and have to be innovative and operate under trees.
- The Court of Appeal is now implementing a new automated Legal Case Management System, a key component of the Judiciary's vision in the ICT Policy and Strategic Plan.
- 17 High Court Stations have been networked with a Local Area Network (LAN) in preparation for automation. Scanning of file records has also been piloted in the Eldoret court and similar initiatives will be rolled out to other courts.
- A prototype court was developed through a design competition as well as a manual for design and maintenance.
- The National Sexual Offenders Register was launched and Draft Rules under the Sexual Offences Act 2006 presented.
- The Judiciary continued to establish new court stations and mobile courts in areas that had no courts in an effort to improve access to justice. Some of the Courts established in the period under review include Mutomo and Kyuso.
- Construction of new courts also commenced in several courts during the period under review including Gatundu, Naivasha, Sirisia, Narok and Malindi. This is being done in an effort to improve access to and expeditious delivery of justice.

- In an effort to improve service delivery, the Judicial Service Commission continued to speed up the filling of existing vacancies for judicial officers and established seven directorates for the administrative services. This has contributed to reduction case backlog cases and a smooth flow in administrative activities.
- The National Council for Law Reporting converted all the laws of Kenya into digital form and established a website. All Judgements of the Court of Appeal and most judgements of the High court are on-line. Besides, all Judges have been equipped with laptops loaded with the laws of Kenya and other necessary tools to improve on their efficiency.
- Stakeholder's relationship in the Justice System has been improved through the Court Users Committees (CUCs) which have been revamped.
- A Judiciary Transformation Frame work (JTF) was launched articulating Judiciary's strategic objectives towards equitable access to and expeditious delivery of justice through four main pillars, people focused delivery of justice, transformative leadership, organizational culture & professional staff, adequate financial resources and physical infrastructure, and harnessing technology as an enabler of justice.
- The Supreme Court was established as provided for in the new constitution, launched and begun operations during this period.

Constraints and challenges in Budget implementation and how they are being addressed

The period under review had some major constraints that affected the implementation of Judiciary's budget as follows;

i. Inadequate funding

Judiciary's funding had been inadequate over the years making it a challenge to effectively attain some of the objectives of the programme. However, through lobbying and engagement with donors, the budget allocation has been increasing over the years with a major increase of 85% in the year 2011/12.

ii. Lengthy Procurement Procedures and Sub-Standard Construction Work

The lengthy procurement procedures have led to delays in completion of court construction projects. In addition, the Ministry of Public Works often lacks adequate capacity to supervise construction work and in some cases has approved sub-standard work for payment. This not only wastes time and money but also delays access to justice. Judiciary however is moving towards engagement other Government Agencies with similar expertise and consultants to oversee the development project implementation.

iii. Lack of land for Construction or Expansion of Courts

Some land for the Judiciary has not been identified while in certain instances it has been grabbed. This makes it difficult to expand courts or construct new ones, thus denying some people access to justice. Judiciary however is working with the Ministry of Lands and other Government Agencies to ensure that all land owned by the Judiciary is registered and any land grabbed reverts back to Judiciary.

iv. ICT challenges

The Courts records are yet to be completely automated hence most records are still in hard copy which renders them susceptible to being destroyed or lost. In harnessing technology as an enabler of justice, audio virtual technology of recording court proceedings is being adopted. This will help to curb this problem of missing records. Vacancies for ICT officers have been advertised to provide necessary support.

v. Inadequate Public Awareness on Supreme Court's Mandate

There had been lack of understanding by members of public regarding mandates of the courts and their rights to access of quality justice from the courts. Through the established directorate of Public Affairs and Communication, public awareness is being carried out through Judicial marches and branding.

vi. High cost of legal representation

The high legal fees charged by advocates are prohibitive and this denies litigants the opportunity to be competently be represented especially in complex litigation matters. Judiciary is engaging the Law society of Kenya, over this issue and allocating funds in its budget to cater for pauper briefs for deserving cases.

Major services to be provided in MTEF period 2013/14-2015/16

Judiciary will be implementing Dispensation of Justice programme, which is highly ranked given that it focuses on implementing a Constitutional mandate whose authority is derived from the people of Kenya. Towards this end, Judiciary will be focused on implementing the Judiciary Transformation Framework (JTF) through which the programme's objective will be achieved. Major areas of focus will include;

1. Capacity Building:

The success of the JTF initiatives will not be sustainable without focus on the institutional capacity to manage the change process. To address this concern, the Judiciary will inter alia, focus on the following areas:-

- i. Building critical human resource capacity through hiring and training;
- ii. Improving terms of service for its staff so as to attract and retain competent professional staff;
- iii. Establishing and operationalizing Leadership and Management teams at both the stations and at the headquarter;
- iv. Applying modern management approaches to efficiently and effectively serve the needs of court users;
- v. Constructing new court infrastructure and rehabilitating some existing court stations including setting up of prefabricated buildings; and
- vi. Providing ICT as an enabler to delivery of justice.

2. Access to Justice

In an effort to improve access to justice, the Judiciary will ensure the following:-

- i. Justice is provided to all irrespective of status. This will call for pauper brief expenses for those litigants who are unable to hire their own Counsels;
- ii. Affordability of the adjudication system;
- iii. Election Dispute Resolution preparedness;
- iv. Easy access to information pertinent to litigants' cases;
- v. Physical accessibility both to the court buildings and in reducing distance to the courts;
- vi. Court procedures will be simplified and disseminated to all stakeholders; and
- vii. Timeliness in processing of claims and enforcement of judicial decisions. In addressing this concern, Judiciary recently launched the Faini Chap Chap for traffic cases fines which can now be paid through the M-Pesa money transfer system. This will first run in Kibera and Milimani Law Courts before being rolled out to other stations.
- viii. Engaging and partnering with other stakeholders to propose bills to effect change in legislations which impede the expedition of Justice e.g. The Children Act and The Law of Succession Act. (Cap. 160).

The above initiatives call for a significant financial resource requirement which Judiciary is seeking for in the next MTEF period. Political stability and support from the other two arms of the Government are also crucial to the success of the Judiciary. Judiciary will therefore partner with all key stakeholders in an effort to deliver justice fairly, impartially and expeditiously to all.
