CLERK-AT THE TABLE:	Finlay Muriuki

Dear Mr. Sialai,

THE NATIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL (ELECTION OF CERTAIN COUNCIL MEMBERS) REGULATIONS, 2021

Reference is made to the above.

The National Youth Council Act, 2009 was operationalized in December 2012 following nationwide youth elections held as per the National Youth Council Election Guidelines 2011 (Legal Notice No. 7 of 2011).

The Kenya Youth Development Policy formulated in the year 2019 clearly stipulates the challenges affecting the youth in Kenya and identifies key priority areas for policy interventions, one of which is to ensure effective civic participation and representation of the youth by prioritizing the youth voice and representation through strengthening of the National Youth Council.

Sections 5(1)(g) and (h) of the National Youth Council Act (No. 10 of 2009) empower the Cabinet Secretary to prescribe guidelines for the purpose of the election of youth representatives to the National Youth Council.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY RECEIVED
1	03 SEP 2021
DEPUTY CLERK P. O. Box 41842 - 00100, NAIROBI

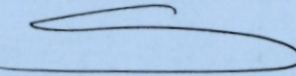

Consequently, the Ministry has formulated the National Youth Council (Election Of Certain Council Members) Regulations, 2021 intended to revoke the 2011 Guidelines.

It is expected that the Regulations will enrich the national youth election process by inter alia ensuring that voting is carried out in a digital and manual format as opposed to the only existing manual format, provision of an election timetable; and provision of an election dispute resolution mechanism.

The Ministry therefore encloses the necessary documentation herewith for tabling before Parliament.

We thank you for your continued support and collaboration.

Yours

 sincerely

JOE MUCHERU, EGH

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ON THE NATIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL (ELECTION OF CERTAIN COUNCIL MEMBERS) REGULATIONS, 2021

PART I

Name of Statutory instrument:	The National Youth Council (Election Of Certain Council Members) Regulations, 2021
Name of the Principal Act:	National Youth Council Act (No. 10 of 2009)
Enacted pursuant to:	Section 5(1)(g) and (h) of the National Youth Council Act (No. 10 of 2009)
Name of the Ministry:	Ministry of ICT, Innovation and Youth Affairs
Gazetted on:	27 th August 2021
Tabled on:

PART II

1. Purpose of the National Youth Council (Election Of Certain Council Members) Regulations, 2021

1.1 The purpose of the National Youth Council (Election Of Certain Council Members) Regulations, 2021 ('the Regulations') is to provide for a framework for the conduct of free, fair and transparent national youth elections to fill vacancies in the National Youth Council established under section 3 of the National Youth Council Act (No. 10 of 2009) (the Act).

1.2 The Regulations provide for among others: the formation of the National Steering Committee on National Youth Council Elections to co-ordinate the National Youth Council elections at constituency levels; a framework of the National Youth Council Elections; the registration of voters; nomination of candidates; an elections timetable; voter education; voter offences; election observers and observers; the process of voting and counting of votes; management of election results; dispute resolution and appointment of elected delegates.

2. Legislative context

2.1 The Act was operationalized in December 2012 following nationwide youth elections held as per the National Youth Council Election Guidelines (Legal Notice No. 7 of 2011).

- 2.2 Sections 5(1)(g) and (h) of the Act (No. 10 of 2009) empower the Cabinet Secretary to prescribe guidelines for the purpose of the election of youth representatives to the National Youth Council.
- 2.3 The Regulations are intended to revoke Legal Notice No. 7 of 2011 and provide for the election of youth representatives to the National Youth Council.

PART III

3. Policy Background

- 3.1 The National Youth Policy 2007 goal was to promote youth participation in community and civic affairs to ensure that youth programmes are youth centered. It spelt out the strategic areas that must be addressed and implementation mechanisms.
- 3.2 It recognized the need to establish a National Youth Council through an Act of Parliament whose mandate would include co-ordination of youth organisations, designing and continuously reviewing the NYP and developing an "integrated national youth development plan" in collaboration with the ministry responsible for youth affairs.
- 3.3 The Policy (Kenya Youth Development Policy, 2019) takes into account emerging issues affecting the youth, and hence supersedes the National Youth Policy.
- 3.4 The Policy clearly stipulates the challenges affecting the youth in Kenya and identifies key priority areas for policy interventions, one of which is to ensure effective civic participation and representation of the youth by prioritizing the youth voice and representation through strengthening of the National Youth Council.
- 3.5 Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5(1)(g), (h) and Section 1 and 2 of the First Schedule of the National Youth Council Act, the Cabinet Secretary for Youth Affairs issues the Regulations for the purpose of the election of youth members of the National Youth Council.
- 3.6 The Regulations seek to ensure that national youth elections will be free, fair, and transparent and will to the highest extent possible contribute towards the social and political integration of the youth in this country.

3.7 The key areas of review from the 2011 Guidelines are highlighted in the matrix below:

- Annexures

4. Public Consultations

- 4.1. Pursuant to Article 10 of the Constitution, the Ministry of ICT, Innovation and Youth Affairs held extensive public consultations as well as stakeholder consultations on the Regulations.
- 4.2. A public notice calling for comments from the members of the public on the Regulations dated 23rd June 2020 was published in My Gov. The notice invited the members of the public to review the Regulations and submit their written memorandums through the office of the CEO and email address research@nationalyouthcouncil.go.ke of the National Youth Council. The advertisement was also circulated on social media platforms (Web site, Facebook and Twitter).

- 4.3. The National Youth Council also held virtual meeting with the identified stakeholders between the 27th June 2020 and 4th July 2020 on the Regulations keeping in line with the Ministry of Health Protocols on the Covid-19 Pandemic.
- 4.5. In this process of public consultations, members of the public acknowledged that the formulation of the Regulations would provide a legal framework for undertaking the election and nomination of youth members of the Council in line with Section 5(1)(g) and Section 5(1)(h) of the National Youth Council Act 2009. Further, valuable input and recommendations were made during oral hearing and through the written memorandum.
- 4.6. To sufficiently consider these views, the National Youth Council appointed a technical working committee comprising of representatives from Youth Advisory Board, Horn of Africa Youth Network, Kenya Youth Economic Empowerment organization, Youth Senate Kenya, YSO Consortium, Kenya Young Parliamentarian association and State department for Youth Affairs to review and compile a report on the recommendations. A Matrix on the concerns raised and how they were incorporated is annexed to this explanatory memorandum.

5. Guidance

The Ministry and the National Youth Council will continue to proactively sensitize and build capacity for national and county government institutions as well as stakeholders dealing with youth issues and the public on the provisions and implementation of the Regulations in order to ensure that they promote transparency in the elections.

6. Impact

- 6.1 The Impact on Fundamental Rights and Freedoms: These Regulations do not limit fundamental rights and freedoms
- 6.2. The impact on the Private Sector: The private sector will substantially benefit from positive externalities emanating from the National Youth Council elections. The benefits of the Regulations will inter alia be:
 - a) Contribute to the economic vitality of the private sector;
 - b) Contribute towards healthy civic engagements among local communities

- c) Contribute towards social and political integration
- d) Contribute towards ensuring accountability for organizational goal alignment and donor coordination.

6.3. The impact on the Public Sector: The implementation of national youth elections will benefit Government in the following ways:

- a) Contribute towards critical public policy discussions and allowing government to weigh in on issues arising
- b) Contribution towards cohesive communities and more effective advocacy
- c) Contribute fundamentally to democratic governance and hold leaders accountable for their performance in public office
- d) Contribute towards dictating the conduct of public democratic institutions

7. Monitoring and review

7.1 The Ministry shall monitor and track the implementation of the Regulations.

MINISTRY OF ICT, INNOVATION AND YOUTH AFFAIRS

PUBLIC NOTICE

INVITATION FOR PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AND SUBMISSION OF MEMORANDA ON THE NATIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL ELECTIONS GUIDELINES, 2020

The National youth Council (NYC) is a state corporation in the Ministry of ICT, Innovation and Youth Affairs established under the National Youth Council Act No. 10 of 2009, as the official voice of the youth. NYC's mandate is to advocate for youth opportunities to associate, be represented and participate in the Political, Social, Economic and other spheres.

Sections 5(1)(g) and 5(1)(h) of the National Youth Council Act have reserved a total of sixteen (16) membership positions in NYC's top governing body, the Council, to youth aged between 18-35 years, who shall be elected and nominated by the Kenya's youth.

The Ministry of ICT, Innovation and Youth Affairs has, pursuant to Sections 5(1)(g), 5(1)(h) and 24 of the National Youth Council Act, developed the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines 2020 (Elections Guidelines), with a view to streamlining and enhancing the legal framework for undertaking the election and nomination of youth members of the Council.

In observance of the legal requirements for public participation in the making of statutory instruments under Article 10 (2) (a) of the Constitution and Section 5 (1) of the Statutory Instruments Act No. 23 of 2013, interested members of the public are hereby invited to submit any representations that they may have on the Elections Guidelines by way of written memoranda.

Memoranda may be submitted in writing by email through research@nationalyouthcouncil.go.ke. The memoranda must be received on or before 7th July 2020 at 5.00 pm.

The Elections Guidelines are available for downloading on <https://www.nationalyouthcouncil.go.ke/downloads/>.

The rationale provided is that the youth should not be subjected to an extended election period.	Youth Consortium	It may not be practical, from a logistics perspective, to hold fresh elections within 14 days. The technical team shall guide on this aspect.	The technical committee shall determine this issue.
Part 8 (generally)	Opposition to Electronic Voting It is proposed that the electronic voting process should be deleted and that the elections must be conducted by manual processes only. PART III— FRAMEWORK OF THE NATIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

8. (1) Unless otherwise determined by the Cabinet Secretary, the National Youth Council elections shall commence six months prior to the third anniversary of the date when the Cabinet Secretary publishes the names of the elected and nominated members of the National Youth Council in the Kenya Gazette:

Commencement of the National Youth Council Elections.

Provided that any outgoing members of the National Youth Council shall complete their respective three-year terms prior to commencement of the term of office of the National Youth Council members elected at a National Youth Council Election.

9. (1) The National Youth Council Elections shall be conducted in accordance to the procedure provided in this paragraph.

Procedure for the National Youth Council elections.

(2) The youth registered as voters within a ward shall elect six ward delegates from among the ward delegates elected in that ward to represent the respective wards as voters at the constituency youth elections.

(3) The first three males and the first three females to garner the highest number of votes shall be deemed to have been elected as ward delegates.

(4) A total of eight thousand seven hundred ward delegates shall therefore be elected nationally to represent the one thousand four hundred and fifty wards in Kenya.

(5) The ward delegates in each constituency shall at the constituency youth elections of their respective constituencies each elect two National Youth Congress delegates, being one male and one female, from among their number to represent their respective Constituencies at the National Youth Congress.

(6) A total of Five Hundred and Eighty Constituency delegates shall therefore be elected nationally to represent the Constituencies in Kenya.

(7) The National Youth Congress shall be a meeting of the Five Hundred and Eighty National Youth Congress delegates elected by the Constituency delegates and shall be convened by the National Steering Committee to elect and nominate the youth members of the National Youth Council, in accordance with at sections 5(1)(g) and 5(1)(h) of the Act.

(8) Where none of the persons with disability have made it to the National Youth Congress by organic progression of the National Youth Congress, the National Steering Committee shall identify any person with disability candidates who had taken part in the elections and select twenty individuals living with disability who had garnered the highest votes calculated on prorated basis.

(9) Where no young person with disability had taken part in the elections, the National Steering Committee shall liaise with the National Council for Persons Living with Disability to identify twenty delegates to join the National Youth Congress.

(10) The National Youth Congress shall elect eight members from amongst its membership, and in the said election the National Youth Congress shall observe the principle of regional and ethnic balance and shall have due regard to the principle of fair representation.

(11) The National Youth Congress shall nominate not more than eight other youth, from amongst its membership, to be considered for appointment as National Youth Council members, under section 5(1)(h) of the Act in the following manner—

- (a) at least one of the nominees shall be a person with disability;
- (b) at least three of the nominees shall be women;
- (c) the National Youth Congress shall ensure that, to the greatest extent possible, the National Youth Council composition represents the diversity of the people of Kenya; and
- (d) None of the nominees shall be from the same county as any of the eight regional representatives elected under section 5(1)(g) of the National Youth Council Act and subparagraph 9(10) of these Guidelines to ensure that the nominees reflect the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya as provided in the Constitution of Kenya, 2010.

(12) Whenever the National Youth Congress exercises its powers to nominate council members pursuant to section 5(1)(h) of the Act, it shall ensure that—

- (a) such nomination secures that the aggregate of delegates elected and nominated as members of the National Youth Council shall not be comprised of a majority of more than two-thirds of either gender;
- (b) that the delegates so nominated are not from the same county as any delegates elected under section 5(1)(g) of the Act and paragraphs 9(10), 9(11)(a) and 9(11)(b) of these Guidelines to ensure that the nominees reflect the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya as provided in the Constitution of Kenya, 2010; and
- (c) the ward delegates elected under paragraph 9(2) are considered where there are no qualified candidates who can be validly nominated from the National Youth Congress.

(13) The National Youth Congress shall elect and nominate a total of thirty-one substitute members of the National Youth Council, whose details shall be retained by the Cabinet Secretary in a list or roster of substitute members of the National Youth Council.

(14) The substitute members shall be considered for appointment by the Cabinet Secretary to fill vacancies arising due to vacation of office by any of the youth members of the National Youth Council elected or nominated pursuant to these Guidelines.

(15) The thirty-one substitute members of the National Youth Council shall be elected or nominated as follows—

- (a) eight representatives, from amongst the membership of the National Youth Congress, shall be elected to represent the regional and ethnic balance of the people of Kenya;
- (b) not more than twenty-three other substitute members shall be nominated as follows—
 - (i) at least one of the nominees shall be a person with disability; and
 - (ii) at least nine of the nominees shall be women.
- (c) the National Youth Congress shall ensure that, in electing and nominating the substitute members:
 - (i) all candidates participating in the election and nomination of substitute members, as applicable, are not more than thirty years old on the election date;
 - (ii) the aggregate of delegates elected or nominated on the substitute members list is not comprised of more than two-thirds membership being of either gender;
 - (iii) that each county has either a member elected or nominated to the National Youth Council, or a member elected or nominated to the substitute members list;
 - (iv) the substitute members list, taken together with the National Youth Council composition, shall represent the diversity of the peoples of Kenya to the greatest extent possible; and

- (v) the ward delegates elected under paragraph 9(2) are considered where there are no qualified candidates who can be validly nominated from the National Youth Congress.

(11) The candidates who garner the highest number of votes cast in an election shall be declared duly elected, as follows—

- (a) at the ward level elections, the six candidates who garner the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected;
- (b) at the constituency level elections, the male candidate who garners the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected as the male representative for the Constituency at the National Youth Congress, while the female candidate who garners the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected as the female representative for the Constituency at the National Youth Congress; and
- (c) at the National Youth Congress elections—
 - (i) the candidates who garner the highest number of votes as representatives of their respective regions in the National Youth Council or substitute members list, as applicable, shall be declared duly elected as members of the National Youth Council or substitute members for their regions;
 - (ii) the person with disability who garners the highest number of votes in the election of the member representing persons with disability in the National Youth Council or list of substitute members, as applicable, shall be declared duly nominated to the National Youth Council or substitute member thereof;
 - (iii) the women who garner the highest number of votes in an election of women representatives in the National Youth Council or list of substitute members, as applicable, shall be declared duly nominated to the National Youth Council or elected as substitute members.

(12) Whenever a tie between any two or more candidates cannot be resolved by application of the provisions of paragraph 11 above, or by consensus, then, in order to fill an available position, a fresh election shall be held, whereby only the candidates involved in the tie shall be allowed to participate as candidates.

(13) The election of ward and constituency delegates shall not be construed as establishment of the branches of the National Youth Council in those electoral areas.

10. The Cabinet Secretary may, in his discretion implement any one or more of the following measures—

1. This Code of Conduct shall be observed by—

- (a) all candidates participating in the National Youth Council elections; and
- (b) every agent, observer, and media representative registered or accredited under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines.

2. In this Code, unless the context otherwise requires—

“agent” means an agent appointed under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines; “Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary responsible for youth affairs;

“candidate” means a candidate duly nominated under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines;

“Code” means the Electoral Code of Conduct;

“election” means the elections held under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines;

“electoral committees” refers to the National Steering Committee or the Elections Steering Committees established under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines;

“electoral tribunal” means National Steering Committee or the Elections Steering Committees, sitting pursuant to their respective complaints and dispute resolution jurisdictions;

“National Youth Congress” means the National Youth Congress constituted pursuant to paragraph 9(3) of the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines;

“National Youth Council” means the National Youth Council established under section 3 of the Act;

“National Youth Council Elections Guidelines” means the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines 2021;

“observer” means an observer appointed under the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines;

“voter” means a youth who is eligible to participate in the National Youth Council Elections by virtue of having been registered as voter in accordance with these Guidelines;

“voter education” means all forms of information or communication whose purpose is to educate voters on their rights and responsibilities in the National Youth Council electoral process;

“voter education provider” means a person or association duly registered by the National Steering Committee and the responsible Elections Steering Committee to deploy and coordinate voter educators within electoral areas;

“voting centre” means a location designated by the National Steering Committee or an Election Steering Committee as a place where voting shall take place in the National Youth Council elections.

3. The object of this Code is to promote conditions conducive to the conduct of free and fair elections and a climate of tolerance in which elections and election related activities may take place without fear, coercion, intimidation or reprisals.

4. All persons bound by this Code shall endeavour to promote its objects to enable free campaigning and open public debate in all parts of Kenya during an election period.

5. Candidates, agents, and their representatives do, by subscribing to this Code, further commit themselves to—

- (a) adhere to the values and principles of the Constitution;
- (b) give wide publicity to this Code, the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines, and the National Youth Council Act;
- (c) promote voter education campaigns;
- (d) condemn, avoid, and take steps to prevent violence and intimidation;
- (e) ensure that their agents and other representatives comply with this Code;
- (f) promote gender equality;
- (g) promote ethnic tolerance;
- (h) promote cultural diversity;
- (i) promote the fair representation of special interest groups;
- (j) generally, affirm the rights of all participants in an election to—
 - (i) express divergent opinions;
 - (ii) debate and contest the policies and programmes of other candidates;
 - (iii) canvass freely for support from voters;
 - (iv) subject to the Public Order Act (Cap. 56), hold public meetings;
 - (i) attend public meetings convened by others;
 - (ii) distribute non-offensive electoral literature and campaign materials;
 - (iii) publish and distribute non-offensive notices and advertisements;
 - (iv) erect non-offensive banners, placards and posters;
 - (v) remove all banners, placards and posters erected during the election period within fourteen (14) days from the date when the relevant elections are concluded or in compliance with a notice issued by an Electoral Committee or by a County Government or by any other lawful authority;
 - (vi) promote free electoral campaigns by all lawful means; and
- (k) co-operate with the electoral committees, electoral tribunals, and the relevant Government agencies and other authorities in the investigation of issues and allegations arising during the election period.

6. All persons bound by this Code shall, throughout an election period—

- (a) publicly and repeatedly condemn violence and intimidation and avoid the use of hate speech, language or any kind of action which may lead to violence or

- intimidation, whether to demonstrate strength, gain any kind of advantage, or for any other reason;
- (b) refrain from any action involving violence or intimidation;
 - (c) ensure that no arms or weapons of any kind are carried or displayed at campaign meetings or any march, demonstration or other event related to the elections;
 - (d) refrain from campaigning in places of worship or during burial ceremonies;
 - (e) co-operate and liaise in good faith with other parties to avoid organising public meetings, demonstrations, rallies or marches to take place at the same time and venue as similar events organised by other parties;
 - (f) do nothing to impede the right of candidates, their canvassers and representatives, to have reasonable access to voters for the purposes of conducting voter education, fund raising, or soliciting support;
 - (g) avoid plagiarising the symbols, colours or acronyms of other candidates; and to discourage and, if possible, prevent the removal, disfigurement or destruction of campaign materials of any candidate;
 - (h) refrain from offering any document or reward to any person in consideration of such person either joining a candidate's campaign or voting for a candidate; attending or not attending any election related event; voting or not voting (either at all, or in any particular manner); or accepting, refusing or withdrawing such person's nomination as a candidate in the election;
 - (i) refrain from any attempt to abuse a position of power, privilege or influence, including parental, patriarchal, state or traditional authority in relation to the elections, including any offer of reward or threat of penalty;
 - (j) avoid any discrimination based on race, sex, pregnancy, marital status, health status, ethnic or social origin, colour, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, dress, language or birth in connection with the election;
 - (k) in relation to the electoral committees—
 - (i) acknowledge the authority of the electoral committees in the conduct of the election;
 - (ii) ensure the attendance and participation of representatives at any meetings and other forums convened by or on behalf of the Cabinet Secretary or electoral committees;
 - (iii) implement the orders and directions of the electoral committees;
 - (iv) facilitate the electoral committees' respective rights of access through official observers and other representatives to all campaign meetings or other electoral activities;
 - (v) co-operate in the official investigation of issues and allegations arising during an election period;
 - (vi) take all reasonable steps to ensure the safety of observers, election officials, and other representatives of the electoral committees, from exposure to insult, hazard or threat in the course of their official duties;

- (vii) to establish and maintain effective lines of communication with the electoral committees;
- (viii) to abide by the provisions of this Code; and
- (ix) reassure voters with regard to the impartiality of the electoral committees and the secrecy and integrity of the ballot, and to reaffirm that no one should know how any other person has voted;
- (l) take reasonable steps to discipline and restrain their agents and other representatives, who—
 - (i) infringe this Code;
 - (ii) engage in activities of commission or omission which fail to observe this Code and the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines; and
 - (iii) contravene or fail to comply with any provision of the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines or this Code;
- (m) agree for candidates, supporters and representatives to submit to the disciplinary procedures related to any violation of this Code; and
- (n) accept the final outcome of the election, any election dispute or complaint, and the declaration and certification of the results of an election.

7. Where, in the opinion of an electoral committee of competent jurisdiction, any candidate, agent or other representative of a candidate, in any way infringes any provision of this Code, such electoral committee may—

- (a) in the case of a candidate, agent, or other representative of a candidate, impose upon that candidate one or more of the following penalties or sanctions, of which any or all may be suspended on specific conditions—
 - (i) a formal warning;
 - (ii) a fine determined by the relevant electoral committee;
 - (iii) notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, issue an order prohibiting the candidate, whether permanently or for a specified period, from utilising any public media time, whether through print, television, radio, broadcasting, internet or social media service of such media;
- (b) where a candidate or any of his or her representatives fails, neglects or refuses to comply with the orders of an electoral committee or electoral tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such competent electoral committee or electoral tribunal shall impose upon the defaulting party any of the following sanctions, which may be suspended on specific conditions—
 - (i) in case of a fine imposed, prohibit the defaulting party from participating in ongoing and future elections as candidates in case of a defaulting candidate or prohibit the candidate, his or her agents or representatives from participating in ongoing elections and future elections or any activity facilitated by the Cabinet Secretary, or electoral committees, or electoral tribunals, until such fine has been paid in full;

- (ii) in case of failure to comply with any other sanctions imposed, cancel the right of such candidate or his or her agents or representatives to participate in the next election; and
- (iii) institute recovery proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the recovery of the fine.

8. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 7, the Cabinet Secretary or an electoral committee or electoral tribunal of competent jurisdiction may report a candidate, an agent or other representative of the candidate to the relevant authorities, in relation to any conduct that is reasonably suspected to be in violation of this Code or any other law.

9. In making its decision regarding appropriate penalties or sanctions under this Code, an electoral committee or electoral tribunal of competent jurisdiction shall have regard to any other legal consequences that may result from civil or criminal proceedings instituted by reason of the same occurrence.

10. All candidates, agents, and other representatives of candidates—

- (a) shall respect the role of the media before, during, and after an election;
- (b) may not prevent access by members of the media to campaign meetings, marches, demonstrations and rallies; and
- (c) shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that journalists are not subjected to harassment, intimidation, hazard, threat or physical assault by any of their representatives or persons who support the candidate.

11. Every media house and its representative shall—

- (a) adhere to media professional ethics in its coverage of public meetings, campaign rallies and demonstrations;
- (b) during the prescribed hours of voting, not publish or distribute the result of an exit poll taken in that election;
- (c) adhere to any media regulations issued by the Cabinet Secretary; and
- (d) abide by the provisions of the National Youth Council Elections Guidelines and this Code.

12. This Code shall be enforced by the electoral committee responsible for management of an election in respect of which it is alleged that the Code has been breached.

13. Whenever the jurisdiction to enforce the Code is shared by two or more electoral committees, the National Steering Committee shall either have original jurisdiction to enforce the Code, or shall give directions on the electoral committee that shall be responsible for enforcement of the Code, including but not limited to facilitating joint, cooperative, or concurrent exercise of jurisdiction by electoral committees.

14. (1) Every candidate, official, agent and candidate representative shall—

- (a) acknowledge the authority of the relevant electoral committee to enforce the provisions of this Code;
- (b) ensure compliance with summons issued to a candidate, agent, officials, or representative by an electoral committee or electoral tribunal;
- (c) co-operate in the official investigation of issues and allegations on the breach of this Code; and
- (d) respect and comply with the orders issued by the electoral committee or electoral tribunal exercising jurisdiction over an election.

(2) An electoral committee or electoral tribunal exercising jurisdiction over an election shall issue summons to the person against whom a has been received as having infringed the provisions of this Code, and to any other person who the electoral committee or electoral tribunal has reason to believe has infringed the provisions of this Code, to attend its meetings. The meetings shall be convened at any place which the relevant electoral committee or electoral tribunal may deem fit.

(3) In its proceedings, the electoral committee or electoral tribunal exercising jurisdiction may examine the person summoned and may allow a person to have legal representation.

(4) The electoral committee or electoral tribunal having jurisdiction shall not be bound by the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 75) or the Evidence Act (Cap. 80) in its proceedings.

(5) Every person who is summoned by the electoral committee or electoral tribunal exercising jurisdiction, and who attends the relevant meeting, shall be accorded the right to be heard.

(6) The electoral committee or electoral tribunal having jurisdiction shall exercise the powers provided under this Code to punish any person found to have infringed this Code.

(7) The electoral committee or electoral tribunal shall investigate, conduct a hearing, and deliver its verdict within seven (7) days from the date of receiving or initiating a report or complaint, and shall inform all relevant parties of its decision within twenty-four (24) hours.

(8) Appeals from decisions of the electoral committees regarding the breach of this Code shall be heard and determined in the High Court.

15. Every candidate, agent and other candidate representatives shall—

- (a) ensure security and full participation of women and persons with disabilities as candidates and voters;
- (b) respect the right of women to communicate freely with electoral committees and candidates;
