PART II

1. Purpose of the Statutory Instrument

The objective of the Legal Notice is to exempt from income tax the send-off package of 187 employees of Kenya Airways PLC who exited the service between January and March 2021.

2. Legislative Context

The Legal Notice seeks to exempt from income tax the send-off package, which is three months' salary paid in lieu of notice, severance pay and pay for accumulated leave days, paid to the 187 retrenched employees of Kenya Airways PLC in accordance with the provisions of Section 13(2) of the Income Tax Act.

3. Policy Background

3.1 Kenya Airways PLC has been implementing a turn-around program since 2019. As you may be aware, the company has been making losses in the recent years due to various factors and this has financially constrained the operations of the Airline. To mitigate the problem, the Board in 2016 approved the implementation of a turn-around program, which among others includes the rationalization of staff to reduce the cost of operations. The rationalization of staff started in 2019. Due to the impact of COVID-19 on the aviation industry since 2020, where most of the international travels were suspended, fast-tracking the rationalization of staff became absolutely necessary.

3.2 Considering that the retrenchment is voluntary, the tax exemption and especially during the COVID-19 pandemic will encourage staff to take the offer and also provide reasonable income to start off some activities to sustain themselves.

4. Public Participation

Internationally, the effects of COVID-19 pandemic have been worse on airlines to the extent that some airlines may not re-open operations after the pandemic hence job losses. Kenya Airways PLC has been reporting losses for a long period and now the situation is worse, this has led to the retrenchment of some staff under a turn-around program to sustain the airline. However, the representatives of the affected staff requested for improvement of the send-off package that was agreed through the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA).

In view of the above, the Kenya Airways PLC sought the intervention of the National Treasury to exempt the staff from income tax on the send-off package as one of the ways to improve the send-off package.

5. Impact

The exemption is expected to facilitate the Kenya Airways Limited reduce the cost of sustaining redundant staff following the reduced business occasioned by the COVID-19 pandemic among other factors.

6. Monitoring and review

The implementation of the exemption will be monitored by the Kenya Revenue Authority.

7. Request to the National Assembly

The National Assembly is invited to:

- a) note the contents of this Memorandum and
- b) accede to the Legal Notice No. 115 of 2021.
