3.0 BACKGROUND

Article 109 of the Constitution states that “Parliament shall exercise its legislative power through Bills passed by Parliament and assented to by the President.

The Public Service (Values and Principles) (Amendments) Bill, 2019, by Hon. Andrew Mwadime, MP.

The Public Service (Values & Principles) (Amendment) Bill, 2019 was read for the first time on Thursday 2nd May, 2019 and subsequently committed to the Committee pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 127 (1) and report to the House.

The Bill proposes an amendment to the Public Service (Values and Principles) to require state organs in the national and county governments, state corporations, Constitutional Commissions, Independent Offices and County Public Service Boards to submit annual reports on details of the human resources in constitutional commissions, independent offices and county Public Service Boards and County Assembly Service Board.

The reports should contain details outlining the total number of employees and highlighting their gender, age country of birth and county of residence.

4.0 SITTINGS.

The Committee considered the Public Service (Values and Principles) (Amendments) Bill, 2019 in its sittings held on Friday 16th August, 2019 and adopted its report on Tuesday 22nd October, 2019.

5.0 SUMMARY OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE (VALUES & PEINCIPLES) (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2019

The Bill proposes an amendment to the Public Service (Values and Principles) Act to require state organs in the national and county governments, state corporations, Constitutional Commissions, Independent Offices and County Public Service Boards to submit annual reports on details of the human resources in constitutional commissions, independent offices and county Public Service Boards and County Assembly Service Board.

Clause 1 of the Bill provides for the short title of the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill provides for amendment to section 16(3) of the Public Service (Values and Principles) Act.

6.0 CONSIDERATION OF PUBLIC SERVICE (VALUES & PEINICIPLES)
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2019

Analysis of the Bill

OBSERVATIONS

Article 232 of the Constitution provides for principles and values of public service which include inter-alia-

- (a) high standards of professional ethics;
- (b) efficient, effective and economic use of resources;
- (c) responsive, prompt, effective, impartial and equitable provision of services;
- (d) involvement of the people in the process of policy making;
- (e) accountability for administrative acts
- (f) transparency and provision to the public of timely accurate information;
- (g) subject to paragraph (h) and (i), fair competition and merit as the basis of appointments and promotions;
- (h) representation of Kenya’s diverse communities; and
- (i) affording adequate and equal opportunities for appointment, training and advancement at all levels of the public service of-
 - (i) Men and women;
 - (ii) The members of all ethnic groups; and
 - (iii) Persons with disabilities

The proposed Bill seeks to ensure that the public service reflects the Nation's diverse communities and affords adequate and equal opportunities for appointment of women, men, members of all ethnic groups and persons with disabilities.

7.0 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Pursuant to Article 118 of the Constitution and Standing Order 127 (3) the committee invited memoranda from the public vide a notice in the local dailies.

One of the most important features of the Country constitutional framework is the requirement of public participation in governance and other administrative activities. Specifically, the provisions of the following Articles are pertinent.

- i) Article 10 recognizes public participation as one of the national values;
- ii) Article 27 provides for equal treatment of all persons, while affirmative action in governance is provided for in Articles 54 and 56 of the Constitution;
- iii) Article 35 provides for the right of access to information held by the State or another person which is necessary for the exercise of any right or fundamental freedom;
- iv) Article 118 requires Parliament to conduct its business in an open manner and to facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its committees. It also prohibits Parliament from denying the public and media access into its sittings unless there are any justifiable reasons.

The Constitution obligates the State and all State organs to ensure adequate public consultation on all public policies, legislation or any decision that is likely to impact on the people of Kenya. Failure to factor in the mandatory requirement of public participation exposes the legislative instrument or policy framework to constitutional challenges of legitimacy, hence making it actionable for unconstitutionality in a court of law.

Effective public consultation is based on principles of openness, transparency, integrity and mutual respect. The open process facilitates acceptability amongst the key stakeholders, subsequently facilitating efficient and effective implementation of the legislative instrument.

The committee put an advert on the Bill on the local dailies inviting for comments from the public.

7.1 MEETING WITH HON. ANDREW MWADIME, MP

On Thursday 13th June, 2019, the Hon. Andrew Mwadime, MP appeared before the Committee and informed the Committee as follows:- That,

- a) The Bill was seeking to amend Public Service (Services and Principles) Act to require all state organs in the national and county governments and state corporations to submit annual reports on details of the human resource.
- b) The report should contain details outlining the total number of employees and highlighting their gender, age, county of birth and county of residence;
- c) This would facilitate the public service values and principles that require the public service to reflect Kenya's diverse communities and afford adequate and equal opportunities for appointment of women and men, members of all ethnic groups and persons with disabilities pursuant to Article 232 of the Constitution;
- d) By reviewing annual reports, legislatures could discharge the oversight role bestowed upon them as they would be able to analyze and query non-compliant state organs;

- e) The Bill concerned county governments in terms of Articles 110(1)(c) of the Constitution; and

8.0 CLAUSE BY CLAUSE CONSIDERATION OF THE BILL

CLAUSE 1- SHORT TITLE

Clause 1 relates to the short title

Committee observations and recommendation on clause 1

The Committee observed that there were no stakeholder comments received on this provision. The Committee recommends that the Clause be agreed to as it appears in the Bill.

CLAUSE 2- AMENDMENT OF SECTION 16 OF NO.1A OF 2015

The clause proposes an amendment to the Public Service (Values and Principles) to require state organs in the national and county governments, state corporations, Constitutional Commissions, Independent Offices and County Public Service Boards to submit annual reports on details of the human resources outlining the total number of employees and highlighting their gender, age, county of birth and county of residence.

9.0 COMMITTEE OBSERVATIONS

The Committee observed that—

- (a) The proposed Bill seeks to ensure that the public service reflects the Nation’s diverse communities and affords adequate and equal opportunities for appointment of women, men, members of all ethnic groups and persons with disabilities;
- (b) In order to realise Article 232 (h) and (i), there is need to insert more factors that the report is to provide information on. These factors include ethnicity and persons living with disabilities;
- (c) There is need for such a provision in order for institutions and appointing authorities to take into account principles such as the principle and composition of offices to take into account regional and ethnic diversity.

10.0 COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee having considered the Public Service (Values and Principles) Bill, 2019 resolved the Bill should be amended as follows-

That clause 2 of the Bill be amended by deleting the proposed new paragraph (da) and substituting therefor the following new paragraph—

“(da) details on the human resource establishment within the service Commission outlining the total number of employees and highlighting their gender, age, county of birth, county of residence, ethnicity and whether they are persons living with disabilities.”
