2.0 BACKGROUND

2.1 Establishment of the Committee

The Committee on Appointments is established under Standing Order 204(4) with the mandate to consider for approval by the House, appointments of Cabinet Secretaries pursuant to Article 152(2) of the Constitution. The said Article requires H.E. the President to nominate and with the approval of the National Assembly, appoint Cabinet Secretaries. Section 7(10) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136, provides that, where the nomination of a candidate is rejected by Parliament, the appointing authority may submit to the relevant House the name of another candidate, and the procedure for approval specified in this Act shall apply accordingly.

2.2 Appointment Process of Cabinet Secretary Nominees

In accordance with the provisions of Article 152(2) of the Constitution, H.E. the President forwarded to the Speaker of the National Assembly, the nomination of the seven (7) persons vide a letter dated 1st December 2015, for vetting by the Committee on Appointments and consideration for approval by the National Assembly for appointment as Cabinet Secretaries for various Ministries.

Pursuant to Standing Order 42(1), the Honorable Speaker informed the House on 2nd December, 2015 that he had received the notification of the nominations and referred the same to the Committee on Appointments for vetting and reporting to the House within 14 days in accordance with Section 8(1) of Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136.

2.3 Notification to the Public

Section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 provides that "any person may, prior to the approval hearing and by a written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated".

The Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the print media on Thursday, 3rd, December, 2015 inviting the public to submit memoranda by way of written statements on oath (sworn affidavits) on the suitability or otherwise of the nominees in conformity with section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136. The submissions were to be received latest by Wednesday, 9th December, 2015 at 5.00 pm.

Pursuant to provisions of Article 118 of the Constitution, section 6(4) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 and Standing Order 45(3), the general public was also notified in the print media by the Clerk of the National Assembly of the intention of the Committee on Appointments to conduct the vetting and approval hearing of the nominees on Friday, 11th December, 2015.

2.4 Clearance Requirements

On 2nd December, 2015 the Clerk of the National Assembly wrote to the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA), Directorate of Criminal Investigations and the Higher Education Loans Board (HELB) requesting for reports with respect to the nominees on-

- matters touching on integrity;
- tax compliance; and
- loan repayments.

The Higher Education Loans Board confirmed vide letter Ref. Ref. HELB/RD/56593 dated 7th December, 2015 that ALL the nominees were cleared by the Board as per the schedule below:

Nominee	Clearance Date	Certificate No.
Hon. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri	June 2002	2271
Hon. Charles Cheruiyot Keter	June 2003	88437
Hon. Daniel Kazungu Muzee	December 2012	43498
Mr. Willy Kipkorir Bett	June 2007	88243
Mr. Joseph Mucheru	Non-beneficiary	N/A
Mrs. Sicily Kanini Kariuki	May 2006	6945
Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu	October 2007	10077

The Kenya Revenue Authority confirmed vide letter Ref. CDT/HQ/54 dated 8th December 2015 and Ref. CDT/HQ/81 dated 9th December 2015 that ALL the nominees are tax compliant.

The Directorate of Criminal Investigations issued individual nominees with Police Clearance Certificates indicating their record on offenses and ongoing court cases. The Committee however observed that the Directorate should exercise care and due diligence while clearing candidates for purposes of Chapter Six of the Constitution and avoid submitting information to Parliament that is unfounded and conflicting.

Various Credit Reference Bureaus also issued individual nominees with clearance certificates confirming that ALL nominees have complied with their loan repayment terms and are not listed by the Bureau as defaulters.

2.5 Appearance by Mr. Halakhe Wāqo, Chief Executive Officer, EACC

The Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission vide a letter Ref. EACC.7/10/5 VOL.II(3) dated 7th December 2015 to the Clerk of the National Assembly confirmed that it did not have outstanding issues or ongoing investigations against the nominees except Hon. Daniel Kazungu who was adversely mentioned in an unsubstantiated complaint. However, in a subsequent letter dated 10th December, 2015, the Commission confirmed that it had verified information in its possession on the nominee and found no evidence to warrant an adverse recommendation on his appointment.

Following the two letters referenced above, the Chief Executive Officer, Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission appeared before the Committee on 11th December 2015 at 4.00pm to substantiate the extent and veracity of the complaint against Hon. Kazungu.

In his response, the CEO informed the Committee that on receiving the list of nominees to be vetted by Parliament on 2nd December 2015, the Commission searched its records on any complaints and investigations touching on the nominees. It is based on these findings that the Commission found complaints on three of the nominees one of whom, is Hon. Kazungu, Cabinet Secretary nominee, Ministry of Mining. On further verification prompted by Clerk of the National Assembly in a letter dated 9th December, 2015, the Commission found the allegations of misuse of CDF funds by the nominee were unsubstantiated and could read malice bearing in mind the timing of filing the complaint.

He however committed that the Commission will undertake its investigations and report to the relevant authorities its findings of the corruption allegations against the nominee.

The Committee observed that EACC should exercise care and due diligence while clearing candidates for purposes of Chapter Six of the Constitution and avoid submitting information to Parliament that is unfounded and conflicting.

2.6 Criteria for Vetting

Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 provides that the issues for consideration by the relevant House in relation to any nomination shall be:-

i. the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;

ii. any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and

iii. the suitability of the nominee for appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which nomination is being made.

Further, section 6(10) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 provides that a candidate may at any time, by notice in writing addressed to the Clerk withdraw from the approval process.

2.7 Submission of Memoranda

Pursuant to section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), which provides that "any person may, prior to the approval hearing, and by written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated", the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advert in the local dailies on 3rd December, 2015, inviting interested members of the public to submit any representations by written statement on oath (affidavit) , that they may have on the suitability of the said nominees for appointment as Cabinet Secretaries for their respective Ministries.

By close of business on 9th December, 2015, the Committee had received five (5) submissions against the approval for appointment of-

(a) the nominee for Agriculture, Livestock and Fisheries;

(b) the nominee for Energy and Petroleum;

(c) the nominee for Devolution and Planning; and

(d) the nominee for Health.

There were no memoranda submitted in respect of-

a) the nominee for Mining;

b) the nominee for Information, Communication and Technology; and

c) the nominee for Public Service, Youth and Gender Affairs.

The details of the Memoranda are as follows: - xix Email from the Legal Officer, Kenya Seed Company to Mr. Alfred Busolo dated 24th January, 2013 with the subject "duration of leased farms".

Analysis of the Memorandum against Mr. Bett

In the letter, Mr. Sammy Tonui stated that he was wrongfully dismissed for alleged gross misconduct for selling three hundred bags of maize unprocedurally. The dismissal letter was allegedly written by the Acting Human Resource Manager on behalf of the Managing Director. Further, Mr. Sammy Tonui alleges his dismissal was as a result of witch hunt for his actions of following up on fraudulent activities in the Company involving among other things the disposal of 2,000 bags of non-conforming seed maize worth Kshs. 3.2 million, sale of a bull for which no money was remitted to the Company and underpricing deal in which the Company lost Kshs. 3.3 million. He further alleges that the Staff Disciplinary Committee which recommended his dismissal was not properly constituted.

Committee Observations

In reference to the submission made against the nominee for Agriculture, Livestock and Fisheries, the Committee observed as follows: -

i) THAT, the letter is not a sworn statement as required by Section 6(9) of the Act which provides that evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated to should be by way of "a written statement on oath".

ii) THAT, the letter does not in any way illustrate how the nominee was involved in the alleged unfair dismissal of the complainant. The letters submitted by the complainant were all signed by the Ag. Human Resource Manager of the Kenya Seed Company.

iii) THAT, the issues raised by the complainant do not fall within the purview of the issues for consideration by the Committee. Indeed, section 6(7) of the Act provides that "an approval hearing shall focus on a candidate's academic credentials, professional training and experience, personal integrity and background." The issues raised by the complainant do not touch on the issues referred to in section 6(7) of the Act. Further, section 7 of the Act provides as follows-

> The issues for consideration by the relevant House of Parliament in relation to any nomination shall be-

i. the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;

ii. the constitutional and statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and

iii. the suitability of the nominee for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which the nomination is being made.

Consequently, a close reading of section 7 of the Act clearly indicates that the letter refers to issues other than those contemplated to be issues for consideration by the Committee.

The Committee therefore resolved to proceed to conduct the approval hearing of the nominee for Agriculture, Livestock and Fisheries without reference to the letter as submitted by Mr. Sammy Tonui.

2.7.2 Memorandum by Mr. William J. Ombese against Senator Charles Keter

Mr. William Jeremiah Ombese submitted a sworn affidavit dated 4th December, 2015 against the appointment of Mr. Charles Cheruiyot Keter as Cabinet Secretary for the Ministry of Energy and Petroleum and attached a newspaper cutting of the article titled "Multi-billion calls fraud pits" dated 1st December, 2015.

In the affidavit, the deponent states that he was a former employee of the defunct Telecommunications Corporation and had worked with the nominee for Energy and Petroleum who had risen over time to the rank of Assistant Manager at Internal Investigation Department. The deponent alleges that the nominee used intimidation on other staff to extract information. Further, the deponent alleges that the nominee took advantage of his position and duties for personal gain as he had his own networks of dealings which deprived the employer of its financial income. Further, the deponent depones that after the nominee left employment, he continued to carry on with his networks which were detrimental to his former employer. The deponent therefore states that the issues raised by him touch on the nominee's integrity and urges that more investigations need to be carried out on his past background and further his self-declaration forms ought to be scrutinized thoroughly. The deponent has also attached a newspaper cutting of the Daily Nation of Tuesday 1st December, 2015, which has an article that discusses how fraud is perpetuated in the telecommunication industry through sim boxes where international calls are routed to the recipients as local calls. In the article, the Communication Authority states that it estimates that fraudsters' pocketed around Kshs. 3 Billion last year.

Committee Observations

In reference to the submission made against the nominee for Energy and Petroleum, the Committee observed as follows:

i) THAT, the Memorandum meets the requirements of section 6(9) of the Act as it is a sworn statement. Further, although the allegations made in the affidavit are largely unsubstantiated, they cast doubt as to the integrity, qualities and the background of the nominee. As such, the issues raised fall within the purview of the issues for consideration by the Committee in terms of sections 6(7) and 7 of the Act. However, the newspaper cutting which was attached by the deponent, did not in any way whether directly or indirectly refer to the nominee and did not also substantiate any of allegations made in the affidavit.

ii) THAT, by the close of business on 8th December, 2015, the Office of the Clerk received a letter dated 8th December, 2015 from the deponent formally withdrawing the memorandum.

A close reading of the Act, indicates that there is no provision barring a person from withdrawing a memorandum once submitted. In this regard therefore, the memorandum stands withdrawn.

The Committee therefore resolved to proceed to conduct the approval hearing of the Cabinet Secretary nominee for Energy and Petroleum without reference to the Memorandum by Mr. William J. Ombese.

2.7.3 Memorandum by Mr. John Mbugua against Hon. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri

Mr. John Mbugua submitted an affidavit dated 9th December 2015 against the appointment of Mr. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri as the Cabinet Secretary for the Ministry of Devolution and Planning.

Analysis of the Memorandum

In the affidavit drawn and filed by Mr. John Mbugua, the deponent opposes the appointment of the nominee due to alleged corruption in the Ministry of Water where he served as the Assistant Minister. Further, the Ministry of Roads where he also served as an Assistant Minister, the nominee was allegedly removed from office for corruption charges. The deponent questions how the nominee will be able to ensure that the funds missing at the Ministry of Devolution and Planning are recovered if he is appointed as the Cabinet Secretary.

2.7.4 Memorandum by Mr. Phillip Mwangi against Hon. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri

Mr. Phillip Mwangi submitted an affidavit dated 7th December, 2015 against the appointment of Mr. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri as the Cabinet Secretary for the Ministry of Devolution and Planning.

Analysis of the Memorandum

In reference to the submission made against the nominee for Devolution and Planning by Mr. Phillip Mwangi, the affidavit submitted raises questions on the abilities, experience, qualities, professional training and experience and the personal integrity and background of the nominee, which fall within the purview of the issues to be considered by the Committee in terms of section 6(7) and 7 of the Act. However, the allegations made against the nominee are largely unsubstantiated.

Further, the affidavit does not meet the requirements of section 6(9) of the Act as it is not a sworn statement. A close look at the jurat of the affidavit indicates that the affidavit is not signed by both the deponent and the commissioner of oaths. Pursuant to sections 4 and 5 of the Oath and Statutory Declarations Act, Cap. 15, the Commissioner of Oaths has powers to administer oath. The veracity of a sworn statement is therefore revealed by the signature of the Commissioner of Oaths and the deponent. However, a reading of the Civil Procedure Rules in particular Order 19, Rule 17 which relates to the irregularity in form of affidavit provides that "a court may receive any affidavit sworn for the purpose of being used in any suit notwithstanding any defect by mis-description of the parties or otherwise in the title or other irregularity in the form thereof or on any technicality". Further, Article 159(2)(d) of the Constitution which outlines the principles of judicial authority provides that "justice shall be administered without undue regard to procedural technicalities". Indeed, although undue regard to technicalities is one of the principles observed by the Courts which this Committee may want to refer to, issues of veracity of an affidavit touch on the very substance of the subject matter and cannot be disregarded. As a matter of fact, the question of veracity is one which involves answering the question of whether or not to admit evidence. In this regard, the veracity of the affidavit as submitted as evidence against the nominee is one that cannot be determined as it is unsigned.

Committee Observations

The Committee observed as follows:

i. THAT, that the veracity of the affidavit submitted by Mr. Philip Mwangi as evidence against the nominee is one that cannot be determined as it is unsigned.

ii. THAT, in reference to the submission made against the nominee by Mr. John Mbugua, although the affidavit submitted raises questions on the integrity and background of the nominee, which fall within the purview of the issues to be considered by the Committee in terms of section 6(7) and 7 of the Act, the affidavit as drawn does not meet the requirements of Order 19 of the Civil Procedure Rules which require in Rule 4 that every affidavit states the description, true place of abode and postal address of the deponent and Rule 5 which require every affidavit to be drawn in the first person and divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively which shall be confined as nearly as may be to a distinct portion of the subject.

iii. THAT, the affidavit by Mr. John Mbugua offends the provisions of section 8 of the Oaths and Statutory Declarations Act, Cap 15 as read with the Schedule of the same Act. In addition, pursuant to section 34 of the Advocates Act Cap. 16, unqualified persons cannot prepare documents for which a fee has been prescribed by the Chief Justice. An affidavit is one of the documents envisaged under section 34 and as such the affidavit as presented against the approval for appointment of the nominee as Cabinet Secretary is contrary to the provisions of the Advocates Act as the deponent is unqualified person.

iv. THAT, a close look at the jurat of the affidavit casts aspersion on the veracity of the affidavit. In this regard therefore, the affidavit presented by the deponent offends the provisions of section 6(9) of the Act.

Having carefully considered the two memoranda against the appointment of Hon. Festus Kiunjuri, the Committee resolved to proceed to conduct the approval hearing of the nominee without reference to the affidavits as submitted by Mr. Phillip Mwangi and Mr. John Mbugua.

2.7.5 Memorandum by Mr. Joseph Gituru Mahugu against Dr. Cleopa Mailu

Mr. Joseph Gituru Mahugu submitted a sworn affidavit dated 9th December, 2015 by against the appointment of Dr. Cleopa Mailu, the Cabinet Secretary nominee for the Ministry of Health.

The affidavit is supported by the following documents-

i. Signed letter dated 16th March, 2013 by the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu to Mr. Joseph Mahugu with the subject "Appeal";

ii. Signed letter dated 7th March, 2013 by Christine M. Were for the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu to Mr. Joseph Mahugu with the subject "Appeal Hearing";

iii. Signed letter by Mr. Joseph Mahugu dated 14th February, 2013 to the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu with the subject "reminder of appeal for termination of employment";

iv. Signed letter by Mr. Joseph Mahugu dated 14th January, 2013 to the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu with the subject "Appeal for termination of employment";

v. Signed letter dated 10th January, 2013 by Christine M. Were for the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu to Mr. Joseph Mahugu with the subject "Termination of services";

vi. Signed letter dated 5th December, 2012 by Christine M. Were for the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu to Mr. Joseph Mahugu with the subject "Suspension";

vii. Signed letter dated 3rd July, 2012 by Christine M. Were for the Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital, Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu to Mr. Joseph Mahugu with the subject "Employment confirmation.

Analysis of the Memorandum

In the affidavit, the deponent states that he was confirmed for employment at the Nairobi Hospital under the watch of the nominee. He further depones that his contract of employment was terminated on flimsy grounds of alleged fraudulent transactions leading to the loss of Kshs. 28,300 by Nairobi Hospital. Mr. Joseph Mahugu further states that the nominee should not be approved for the appointment of Cabinet Secretary due to his reputation and integrity. Further, he depones that the nominee failed to conduct his case with due diligence, humility and without bias.

Dr. Mailu's Response to Mr. Mahugu's Memorandum

In response to Mr. Mahugu's allegations, the nominee responded as follows-

GENERAL AND SECTOR SPECIFIC QUESTIONS TO THE NOMINEE

The Committee posed several questions to the nominee on his past work experience and knowledge of the Mining sector and he responded as follows: -

Challenges facing the Mining Sector

16. He responded that indeed Kenya's mining sector contributes less than one per cent (1%) to the Gross Domestic Product yet it is referred to as a gold mine. To reverse this trend and given that only four per cent (4%) of Kenya's natural resources have been explored, there is need for a legal framework to guide the sector and an extensive survey on the county's natural resource including geophysical data. He also added that the Country ought to improve infrastructure in areas where mining is being undertaken to encourage investment. While concluding on why the mining sector is under performing, the nominee indicated that given that mining activities are high energy consumers, reducing cost of energy in the County should be a priority.

Mining and Community Benefits

17. He indicated that the Mining Bill still pending in Parliament seeks to address the challenge of community benefits among other challenges affecting communities with mineral deposits.

Multinationals and Royalties vis-à-vis Community Benefits

18. He informed the Committee that Kenya has pegged its royalties returns at 2.5% of investment while the global average is 10%. If appointed to the position of the Cabinet secretary he plans to work closely with the various stakeholder, in a bid to revisit the issue on royalties so as to balance investment in the mining sector and community benefits.

Corruption Allegations against him by EACC

19. The nominee distanced himself from any corruption allegations against him and informed the Committee that he is not aware of any such allegations since he has not been contacted by EACC to respond to the same.

His position on leaving elective politics for appointment as Cabinet Secretary

20. He informed the Committee that having served his constituents as a Member of Parliament, he believes that time has come for him to serve the nation in a higher capacity as Cabinet Secretary. He pledged to work with the Jubilee Government in fulfilling its manifesto.

Plans to address smuggling challenge in the Mining Sector

21. He reiterated that the Mining Bill, 2015 currently at the mediation stage in Parliament once enacted into law will be key in addressing challenges associated with smuggling, sharing of resources with communities and value addition.

Committee Observations on Suitability of Hon. Daniel Kazungu for Appointment as Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mining

The Committee having considered the nominee's filled Questionnaire pursuant to Section 6 (8) of Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, his Curriculum Vitae and having heard his oral submission during the vetting exercise/interview, made the following observations on his suitability for appointment as Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mining:-

1. THAT, he satisfies the requirements of Chapter 6 of the Constitution of Kenya on leadership and integrity having been cleared by the Kenya Revenue Authority, Higher Education Loans Board (HELB), Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission and the Credit Reference Bureau.

2. THAT, he has not been charged in a Court of Law in the last three (3) years.

3. THAT, he has no potential conflict of interest.

4. THAT, he has never been dismissed from office for contravention of the provisions of Article 75 of the Constitution which deals with conduct of state officers and has not been adversely mentioned in any investigatory report of Parliament or any Commission of Inquiry.

5. THAT, he exhibited impressive knowledge of topical and legal issues touching on the docket of Mining and has the requisite abilities, qualifications and experience. Therefore, the Committee found the nominee suitable for appointment as the Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mining.

6. THAT, the nominee was not involved either directly or indirectly in the issues raised by the Auditor General in respect of misuse of CDF funds for Malindi Constituency in the Auditor General's Report for financial year 2013/2014. In the Report, the Auditor General observed that "in respect of the CDF funds for Malindi Constituency, the statements of financial assets as at 30th June, 2014 reflects bank balance of Kshs. 32, 405, 597.10. However, an examination of the bank reconciliation statement for the month of June, 2014 revealed unpresented cheques amounting to Kshs. 4,514, 507 but some of the cheques have remained unpresented since year 2005 and no explanation has been provided for not reversing the amounts to the cashbook. Consequently, the accuracy and validity of the cash and bank balance of Kshs. 32, 405, 597 as at 30th June, 2015 could not be confirmed."

7. THAT, page 3 of the Auditor General's Report states that "the Fund Account Manager in charge of Malindi CDF accepts responsibility for the Constituency's financial statements...".

1. ABSTRACT

Africa is now at a cross roads in relation to health care with many governments struggling to cope with the burden of providing adequate health services to its people within very limited budgets. The continent is finding it increasingly harder to keep its health professionals, which it has trained at a great cost and who are difficult to replace. Increased international demand coupled with active recruitment set in a background of poor working conditions and low pay as well as political instability serve as driving factors for the migration of health workers within and outside of the continent. The magnitude of the problem is often not well understood with most countries having difficulty monitoring migration patterns due to insufficient data, related in part to registration and recording problems. Although there is no quick remedy for the loss of key workers through emigration, doing nothing is not an option. The problem must be tackled from two fronts, both in developing (sending) and the mostly developed countries that receive these health professionals. A new emphasis on adopting a more strategic approach to Human Resources reflects a developing consensus that human resources are the key source of competitive advantage because it is the skills, behavior and values of staff that are the paramount in sustaining high performance. Governments and other institutions need to build into their operations a capacity to adequately address the issues/concerns that skilled workers have in their various professions. Only then over time can they be able to stem the tide of migration of these skilled workers. This paper explores some of the approaches being taken to help stop and possibly reverse the migration of skilled health workers from the continent.

2. INTRODUCTION

Africa is now at a cross roads in relation to health care with many governments struggling to cope with the burden of providing adequate health services to its people within very limited budgets. Working within these difficult conditions are health workers who are finding it even more difficult to cope with the demands of providing services to the public for low pay and in difficult working conditions. Health workers form a critical part of any nation's health system and health systems are now faced with difficulties that have arisen due to the migration of many skilled health professionals.

How does one define skill? A major issue in regard to the mobility of skill is how to define skilled workers. Researchers have treated all tertiary educated migrants as among the skilled. Occupations or jobs currently or previously held by the migrant workers are also treated as indicators of acquired skills. Even further a distinction also is made between highly skilled and skilled persons. Middle level professionals such as nurses and teachers are difficult to regard in some mindsets as highly skilled (Wickramasekara, 2002) yet when you look at the significance of their contribution to the development goals of a country they are absolutely indispensable, because of the range of services that they offer.

The concept of "brain drain" in the context of developing countries generally refers to the permanent long-term international emigration of skilled people who have been the subject of considerable educational investment by their own societies (Wickramasekara, 2002). Africa is finding it increasingly harder to keep its health professionals, which it has trained at a great cost and who are difficult to replace. The loss of skilled professionals is thought to be costly for developing countries not only in terms of skills shortage but also in fiscal costs from educational subsidies when these are available (Stilwell et al). Ghana, between 1986 and 1995 lost an estimated US$ 5,960,000 in tuition costs alone from the 61% of medical graduates who emigrated from just one medical school (Dovlo, 2003).

On the opposite side of the coin the benefit of migration of skilled workers is regarded as a form of reverse subsidy to the mostly developed nations that acquire these professionals. The USA with its estimated total of 130,000 foreign medical graduates must have gained some $26 billion in training costs saved (Dovlo, 2003). Developed countries have not done all that they can to create a sustainable professional health work force -particularly nurses -that meet their needs, largely a symptom of failed policies and under-investment (Aiken et al) and so will continue at least in the short and near term to draw health workers from developing countries and increasingly so from African countries.

The emphasis on adopting a more strategic approach to Human Resources reflects a developing consensus that human resources are the key source of competitive advantage because it is the skills, behavior and values of staff that are the paramount in sustaining high performance (Bach, 2001).

It is therefore imperative that African governments and health care providers come up with solutions that will help stem the tide of migration that is greatly affecting our continent's ability to supply quality health care to its people.

2.1 Magnitude of the problem

The migration of skilled health professionals directly affects the health system, and in consequence also affects population health outcomes and health workers remaining in the country and although medical practitioners and nurses represent a small proportion of highly skilled workers who migrate, the loss of health human resources for developing countries can mean that the capacity of the health system to deliver health care equitably is compromised. (Stilwell et al).

SOURCE: WHO ESTIMATES OF HEALTH PERSONNEL: 1998

Fig: These country-level indicators conceal the considerable inequities in health personnel within African countries. This means that for large numbers of people, the availability of health personnel is worse even than the figures shown in the table (Padarath et al)

The magnitude of the problem is quite significant, with some countries loosing a large proportion of their health professionals, both newly trained and experienced. This is not a recent phenomenon; the Zambian public health system has retained only about 50 of the more than 600 doctors trained in the country since independence (Padarath et al). There are more than 21000 Nigerian doctors practicing in the United States alone while Nigeria's health system suffers from an acute lack of medical personnel (UN HDR, 1993). 60% of Ghanaian doctors trained in the 1980's had left the country, while in Sudan, 17% of doctors and dentists in 1978 had gone to work abroad (Wickramasekara, 2002).

Health personnel from South Africa appear to make up the bulk of the more recent migration out of the Africa, although smaller numbers lost from other African countries may represent a larger share of the overall personnel numbers from those countries. For example 10% of all staff leaving the Nairobi Hospital in 2003 were doctors, many of them specialists. South Africa is profiled as being on the high end of brain drain mainly affecting health workers but is seen as having the possibility to recruit from the region even with the low return of skilled professionals (Bhorat et al, 2002). Though South Africa has been traditionally a country that both sent and received migrants, its rate of export of human capital is now far higher than its rate of import (Stilwell et al, 2003)

Nurses are the most severely affected group of health professionals. In Ghana it is reported that more that 500 nurses left the country in the year 2001 (Zachary, 2001). These departures represent nearly three times the total recorded in 1999 and more than double the number of nursing graduates Ghana produced in 2000 (Kingma, 2001). 13% of all the staff leaving the Nairobi Hospital in 2003 were nursing staff and over 50% of these went to the UK and the USA. Most nurses who migrate are professionally qualified, so the pool of nurses in the sending country is likely to be more severely depleted than figures would suggest. (Stilwell et al). Nurse migration is thought to be less permanent than physician migration. The UK register of 1995 reports more than half of foreign nurses did not stay longer than three years and some 85% of departures occur within four years of entry to the UK (Padarath et al).

2.2 Push and pull factors

These work hand in hand to either attract health professionals to what they view as greener pastures or to encourage them to leave their countries and move to others. In poorer countries, such as Malawi, it is felt that it is not so much the pull factors that are attracting Malawian nurses to richer countries in the region or to Europe, as it is the push factors of poor remuneration and working conditions, which are driving them out of the country (Padarath et al).

2.2.1 Increasing income

Salary differentials around the world are a big driving factor in the migration of health workers. African countries are the lowest paying and even between African nations significant differences exist as illustrated in the table below. As opportunities in the labour market expand it is becoming increasingly difficult to attract workers (particularly at a professional level) in the health sector with this kind of pay (Martinez and Martineu, 2002).

Table 2 – Average monthly salary levels for junior doctors ($US equivalent -1999)

Country	Salary
Sierra Leone	$50
Kenya	$250
Ghana	$75

Zambia	$200
Lesotho	$1058
Namibia	$1161
South Africa	$1242

SOURCE: MARTINEAU ET AL: 2002, MARTINEZ AND MARTINEU 2002, DZVIMBO: 2003

Health personnel from Africa who join international agencies can expect to double their income. Nursing jobs in the United Kingdom offer US$ 41000-72000 a year, while in Saudi Arabia; nurses can earn a tax-free salary of US$ 37000-58000 per annum. In contrast, an experienced nurse in South Africa working in an intensive care unit or theatre would earn between US$ 13000 and 16000 per annum (Padarath et al). A medical doctor in Kenya earns approximately US$ 250 per month, when he/she migrates to South Africa, his/her salary increases up to 6 times (Dzvimbo). In their review of human resources management in health services, Martinez and Martineau point out that the reality for many health workers in developing countries is to be "underpaid, poorly motivated and increasingly dissatisfied and skeptical".

The global flow of nurses and doctors, from poor to rich lands, reflects the way talent today goes to the highest bidder, regardless of national borders' (Kingma, 2001). This insufficient supply of nursing personnel, especially in developing countries, is believed to be a consequence of the unstable and dwindling funding of health systems, coupled with low salaries and poor working conditions (WHO 2001). Poor remuneration is one of the chief reasons cited by those leaving the Nairobi Hospital in 2003, being mentioned by 17% of them.

2.2.2 Working Conditions

Working conditions that reduce job satisfaction act as push factors. Poor management, the lack of medicines and equipment, bureaucratic inefficiencies and inadequate support and communication with health personnel are all factors that contribute to dissatisfaction amongst public sector health workers, especially in rural areas where the health infrastructure is worse. A survey conducted in Zimbabwe in 1998 showed that a common cause of for health workers resigning from the public sector was the inability to offer effective care to patients due to inadequate resources in health facilities (Padarath et al).

The work-associated risks of being a health worker have grown in southern Africa, particularly with the rise in HIV prevalence. Nurses are subject to biological, chemical, physical, social and sensory hazards and yet there are often inadequate resources to provide necessary protective equipment/materials (Kingma, 2001). 8% of employees leaving the Nairobi Hospital in 2003 cited long working hrs as one of the reasons for leaving compared to only 2% in 2002. This is likely to get worse as more and more staff leave for greener pastures leaving gaps in the system.

In many countries, there is no occupational health legislation and in others, the means to monitor its implementation and the mechanisms to discipline the offending employers are ineffective or nonexistent.

2.2.3 International Demand:

The numbers of health professionals joining the brain drain has reached a peak in recent years in apparent response to huge demands emanating from the developed countries. The majority of member states of the world health organization report a shortage, maldistribution and misutilisation of nurses (WHO, 2000). The critical shortage of nurses experienced in industrialized countries leads to a stronger market demand globally. England estimates that some 250, 000 nurses will be needed above the 1997 levels by 2008 and current new registration of nurses show that some 45% of all new registrants come from international sources compared with about 12-15% in 1996/97. (Dovlo, 2003)

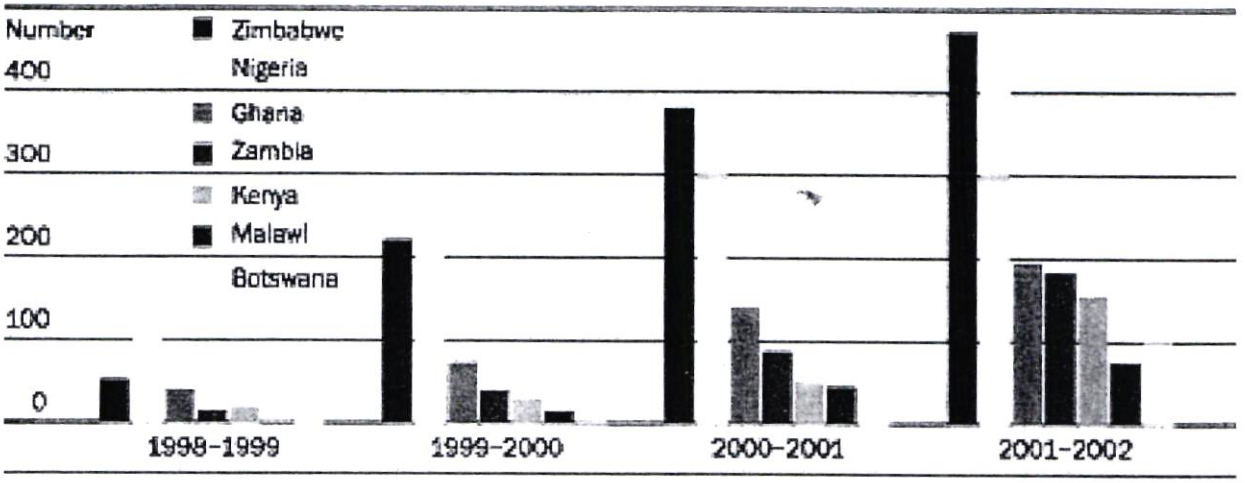

There have been continuing declines in the numbers of specialized nurses in the developed world. For example in the UK a survey of 220 midwifery units found that the overall and long term vacancy rates to be the highest ever recorded. According to the RCM, the Government target of supplying 2,000 extra midwives by 2004 and a total of 10,000 over the next seven years will not be met if the trend is allowed to continue. (Informer 2002)

In spite of higher nurse and doctor to population ratios, there is a demand for health personnel that out-strips their availability in the private sector and in rich countries. The United States, for example, will need a further one million nurses over the next 10 years to meet its shortfall. New-York State alone estimates that next year (2005), the shortfall of nurses will be 17,000 (New York State Board of Regents, 2001). This number can clearly take in all of Africa's new trainees. It has been said that part of the problem has been due to a flawed process of forecasting future staff needs. At the same time, while recruitment is possible and less costly than training it will continue to be a preferred method for countries with staff shortfalls (Padarath et al).

2.2.4 Active Recruitment

In relation to health care professionals, especially nurses, it is apparent in several countries that there are aggressive and targeted international recruitment initiatives (Stilwell et al). Recruiting nurses abroad to solve staff shortages has been a strategy used by many countries (Buchan and O'may 1999), including among developing countries in the same geographic region such as seen in the Caribbean and Southern Africa (Kingma 2001). The UK has a long tradition of recruiting permanent and temporary workers from overseas, and as a result of the need to combat staff shortages and meet the NHS Plan staffing targets, international recruitment of nurses and other health care staff has become a priority issue. (Stilwell et al). British and Dutch recruiting agencies, which operate within Africa, will offer high pay to Africans to bring them to Britain or the Netherlands (AUF). Over 50% of nurses leaving employment at the Nairobi Hospital in 2003 moved either to the UK or the USA.

Table 3: Number of New Registered Nurse (RN) Registrants in the United Kingdom Coming From Selected African Countries

Source: Buchan et al, 2003

2.2.5 Political Instability and Personal Safety

Volatile, unstable and repressive political conditions, high levels of poverty, unemployment and famine, coupled with a lack of business and economic opportunities operate as push factors. Zimbabwe is a point in case many professionals are leaving simply because of the existing political climate. The same has been seen over the years in countries such as Liberia and Sierra Leone. These professionals once they have settled in other countries have little incentive to come back even after the situations in their countries have stabilized.

Research internationally has confirmed that within the health sector, nurses are as much as three times more likely to be victims of violence than other categories of health personnel (NHS 1999). Violence occurring in nurses' external environment at times invades their personal lives. Amnesty International has repeatedly denounced cases where health personnel have been victimized in countries experiencing armed conflict or under oppressive regimes (ILO 1998). It is no surprise that nurses are attracted to countries where the work and social environment promises better personal safety.

2.2.6 Professional development

Doctors and nurses actively seek positive learning experiences, both theoretical and practical (Kingma, 2001). The application of newly acquired knowledge, skills and theory often require a physical move to a new unit, care setting, institution, and in some cases, another country (ICN 1993). At the global level, the need to migrate is likely to increase with specialization or advanced practice and higher levels of tertiary education.

The lack of career advancement paths in developing countries is illustrated with the case of pharmacists in Zimbabwe. Here 153 pharmacy technician posts exist but with limited career path or advancement possibility (Padarath et al).

Among the reasons given by many of the doctors leaving Ghana for other countries included the following (Kingma, 2001):

- Poor pay structure;
- Lack of incentives for hard work;
- Frustration of juniors by their seniors;
- Inadequate opportunities for entry into postgraduate-programs
- Ill-defined and poorly structured locally run postgraduate programs

So for many health professionals personal career advancement serves as a big incentive for them to leave for other countries as they see a greater opportunity to advance their careers in more developed nations.

2.2.7 Quality of Life

Poor housing, general isolation from social networks and lack of quality education for children have also been cited earlier as push factors. In South Africa, for example, approximately 96% of emigrants cited high crime rates as their reason for emigrating. South Africans quote the declining quality of life since the demise of apartheid, general dissatisfaction with the cost of living, taxation levels, the government's affirmative action policy and the standard of public services as primary reasons for their decision to emigrate (Padarath et al).

The South African Medical Journal describes physician immigration as 'a medical carousel, in which doctors seem to be continually moving to countries with a perceived higher standard of living. The US is often depicted as the final destination in the ever-present migration pattern of health professionals. Nurses and midwives were reported to be emigrating in vast numbers to countries offering better prospects. For example, the Global Advisory Group on Nursing/Midwifery noted that the number of nurses arriving in the UK from overseas had risen by 48% in the last 12 months.

2.3 Effects of skills drain

Those health workers who remain in public health systems with inadequate numbers of health workers experience added stress and greater workloads. Many of the remaining health workers are ill-motivated, not only because of their workload, but also because they are poorly paid, poorly equipped, inadequately supervised and informed and have limited career opportunities (Stilwell et al). Mutizwa-Mangiza reports that as a result of increased stress, staff were neglecting public sector responsibilities to work in the private sector, and there was a high turnover of staff. Because of the lower production volumes of doctors in the smaller and poorer African countries, the loss of even a small number of doctors can have a disproportionately large impact.

Losing part of the professional mix in the health workforce may result in either an absence of some services or in professionals' having to adapt their roles to deliver services commonly outside their scope of practice.

The education cycle of preparation for health workers is long, and response to loss of human capital from the health workforce is not usually fast or flexible. For example, in some developing countries the shortage of nurses and physicians is thought to have resulted in rural clinics being staffed by aides who are trained to deal only with uncomplicated conditions. Dovlo, in his 1998 survey of seven African countries, found vacancy levels in the public health sector to range between 7.6% (for doctors in Lesotho) and 72.9% (for specialists in Ghana). Malawi reported a 52.9% vacancy level for nurses. Such vacancy rates will inevitably lead to inadequate coverage, and some population health needs will remain unmet.

Remittances the portion of international migrant workers' earnings sent back from the country of employment to the country of origin play a central role in the economies of many labour-sending countries and have become a focal point in the ongoing debate concerning the costs and benefits of international migration for employment.

2.3.1 Stemming the tide

There is no quick remedy for the loss of key workers through emigration. Only a long-term effort to improve society, develop democracy and freedom, and upgrade schools and hospitals can create sustainable economies, says Commonwealth Deputy Secretary-General Winston Cox (2004). Although the health worker is considered a critical part of the health system and perhaps the most essential of the health sector's resources (Dovlo, 2003), the way development agencies and aid-recipient countries have traditionally approached human resource (HR) problems has been ambivalent. It has become commonplace for organizations to suggest that human resources are their most important assets (Bach, 2001) but this has often been in sharp contrast with the amount of attention or the volume of resources that would be required to develop institutional capacity and to address deep-rooted problems in the human resource domain. (Martinez and Martineu).

Governments and other institutions need to build into their operations a capacity to adequately address the issues/concerns that skilled workers have in their various professions. Bach (2001) notes that first, most governments which directly or indirectly fund the majority of health care expenditure, have been primarily concerned with macro-economic issues especially the size of health sector workforce rather than the micro-level focus of contemporary HR practice which concentrates on the motivation and performance of the workforce. Secondly the establishment of terms and conditions of employment in the health systems has usually formed part of a broader system of public sector employment regulation, characterized by centralized personnel policies. This type of approach is not at all suited to addressing the specific needs of health professionals.

On a broader level stemming the tide of migration of health workers requires an approach from both fronts, that is from both the sending and receiving nations and sound employment imperatives are applicable at both these two levels

2.3.2 Approaches at the source

Developing Competitive Incentive Packages That Will Attract and Retain Employees: Too much emphasis has been placed on the need to reform pay systems and pay levels of the health service staff and insufficient attention has been given to the equally important issues of improving non-pay benefits (Bach, 2001). African nations will never be able to compete with more developed nations on the issue of how much they pay their doctors and other health professionals hence the need to enhance the concept of a more inclusive package that caters for the various aspects that a health professional may consider when thinking about emigrating to another country.

Equitable distribution of health personnel and their retention is in turn related to the prospects of career progression and incentive packages associated with the posts (Martinez and Martineu, 2002). The relevance of motivation to migration is self-evident: there can be little doubt that for many health workers an improvement in pay and conditions will act as incentives to stay in their country. Improved pensions, childcare, educational opportunities and recognition are also known to be important (Stilwell et al). A study by the international Council of Nurses found that the following issues acted as incentives and disincentives for migration of nurses:

Table 4: Incentives and Disincentives for nurse migration to developed countries

Incentives	%	Disincentives	%
Pay	41	Language	44
Learning opportunities	37	Cultural similarities/differences	26
Career opportunities	26	Pay	22

Language	11	Job security	4

Source: ICN, 2000

For incentives to be effective better information is needed at the operational level on the location of greatest need so that inducements are properly targeted and incentives should be tied to the posts so that only the people working in those posts benefit from them (Martinez and Martineu, 2002).

Working conditions matter as much as salary levels. NGOs and mission hospitals are often more successful than governments at attracting and retaining health professionals because the working conditions and working environment are often better, which makes these employers more attractive to work for. Job satisfaction is one of the key reasons health care professionals leave their countries for greener pastures, it is essential that doctors and nurses feel that they are making a difference in the places they work. One of the greatest discouragements for a health professional is to see someone that he could have helped walk away because the facilities were not available.

2.3.3 Addressing the Issue of Doctors Professional Fees

The cost of the kind of pay increases needed to make a real difference to health workers is substantial due to the number of employees involved and because of the nature of the employment of civil servants this is not an area over which managers of publicly funded health services can have an influence (Martinez and Martineu, 2002). African nations simply must develop innovative ways to ensure that their doctors earn more both in the public and private sectors.

Countries are beginning to allow public sector doctors to engage in a limited amount of private practice as a means to improve retention by allowing practitioners to complement their government salaries. Such programs have been started in South Africa, Tanzania and several other African countries. If this response is to be followed private practice should be transparent, covered by contract and with risk sharing if applicable (Martinez and Martineu, 2002).

Low pay arises not only because of the universal constraints on the public sector paybill but also because health sector pay determination arrangements are frequently incorporated within wider civil service pay systems (Bach, 2001). Breaking this link may be a possible solution to this problem but it is also not without risk to the health workers in terms of job security and other civil service benefits for the workers.

2.3.4 Enhancing Working Conditions and Increasing Job Security

In many African nations doctors are forced to work in the most primitive of conditions, and without the most basic of equipment. The work environments of nurses in developing countries, especially in hospitals, are deficient in many correctable ways. Most notably, nurses—who presumably are in short supply—are spending an inordinate amount of time in non-nursing tasks as a result of poor work design and under-investment in information and other nurse-saving technologies (Kingma, 2001).

Associated high levels of nurse burn-out, dissatisfaction, and turnover have added to the number of nurses fleeing to other countries.

Most of these problems are correctable and at a cost that is not too great. However, there is a need in our countries to first create an environment in which these changes can be made. Political will is a big requirement if any meaningful changes are to be made. An investment in infrastructure, equipment and the right staff mix in our health facilities is required. As in all the areas of life in Africa corruption has to be tamed. Many times because of corruption health care reforms are mainly cosmetic-a few buildings will be painted- nothing really changes.

Importantly, one can understand the concern for personal safety that now underpins the rationale of many doctors and nurses wishing to emigrate more than monetary issues. Health professionals should not feel that they are endangering their lives and those of their families by doing their jobs. Steps should be taken to ensure that already agreed protocols are enforced to ensure the safety of health professionals even in conflict situations.

2.3.5 Taking the Bull By the Horns

It is notable that remittances now significantly exceed official development aid and are the second largest source, behind foreign direct investment, of external funding for developing countries (Stilwell et al). Recognizing the demand that exists for health care workers in the developed world and positioning themselves to cater for this demand could be the key to helping solve some of Africa's employment problems and in the process generating some income for the countries.

The Philippines is the leading primary source country for nurses internationally by design and with the support of the government (Aiken et al). The 2001–2004 Medium Term Philippines Development plan views overseas employment as a key source of economic growth. Filipino nurses are in great demand because they are primarily educated in college-degree programs and communicate well in English, and because governments have deemed the Philippines to be an ethical source of nurses. A motivator for the Philippines to produce nurses for export is remittance income sent home by nurses working in other countries.

In my view this is a golden opportunity for African nations to engage the problem, training more nurses to a level adequate to the needs of the international market and in numbers that do not mean that nurses leaving the country leaves a gap in the national health system. Nursing schools such as the one at the Nairobi Hospital and others all over the continent can be re-engineered to manage a higher intake with training programs being specifically targeted to meet the requirements for nurses in developed countries.

2.3.6 Approaches in the recipient countries

Ethical hiring practices: Commonwealth member countries have addressed the loss of scarce professionals to targeted recruitment programmes through the Commonwealth Code of Practice for the International Recruitment of Health Workers, endorsed in May 2003 (Cox). The Department of Health in the UK introduced ethical guidelines for recruitment of nurses from overseas in November 1999. The first full year of their implementation was from April 2000 to March 2001. The number of new registrants from both South Africa and the West Indies decreased in 2000/2001 from the level in the previous year, by 25% and 39%, respectively (Stilwell et al).

South Africa has a self-imposed moratorium on hiring health professionals from other developing African countries. This principled stand may be costing the country, as it is turn losing its health professional to other more developed nations at a faster rate than it can replace them. So it may not entirely be to the benefit of nations to hire ethically in order to meet the demand for health professionals in their countries. Ethical recruitment guidelines provide a strategy for responsibly managing international nurse and doctor recruitment, the challenge is in enforcement of the guidelines, especially considering the private, entrepreneurial character of international recruitment (Aiken et al, 2003).

Compensation: Developed countries' growing dependence on foreign-trained nurses and doctors is largely a symptom of failed policies and under-investment in training (Aiken et al). Asking them to help pay for the necessary facilities required to train more nurses to replace those that they are attracting from our countries is not a far-fetched idea. Countries that use the most nurses and doctors should make the biggest investments in medical education in both their own and the developing countries from which they recruit these health workers. It is not common for developed countries to invest their international aid in medical related and especially nursing education, and this should change to help build sustainable nursing education infrastructures in developing countries.

Freedom of movement is a human right, compensating the donor country for the cost of educating the migrating health professional may be more likely to preserve individual freedom than policies to restrict exit or entrance of individuals, though evidence and further analysis are needed to support such a policy recommendation (Stilwell et al).

Brain circulation:
If international migration could be made to allow for health workers to move to and from developed countries rather than the one way traffic that currently exists it could be of potential benefits to developing African nations. They would be able to go to these countries and the skills and new ideas they acquire would return to benefit the continent.

The General Agreement on Trade and Services (GATS) agreement from the Uruguay round represents the first multilateral and legally enforceable agreement on the international trade in services.

Its central objective is the progressive liberalization of trade in services. GATS mode 4 seems to provide the best of both worlds for promoting circulation at least in theory (Wickramasekara, 2002).

At present, the immigration laws and visa regimes of developed receiving countries act as major barriers to the concept of circulation of skills. Some elements in the French Immigration Law of 1998 have tried to rectify these gaps. But much more remains to be done, especially in GATS mode 4. Source countries should also attempt to promote short-term movements. One option is to actively lobby for GATS commitments (Wickramasekara, 2002).

Thousands of Africans living overseas and seeking ways to contribute to the development of the continent are offering new possibilities. Because many people are reluctant to return to politically or economically unstable countries, some countries are now trying to find other ways to tap the knowledge and skills of their professionals based overseas. This approach is popular because it does not require participants to relocate to their home countries. The South African Network of Skills Abroad (SANSA) is an example.

3. CONCLUSION

Stopping and even reversing the skills drain especially in the health sector on the continent is not going to be easy, and as is evident there is no quick remedy for the problem. However, doing nothing is not an option because the continued loss of skilled health personnel is placing an increasing strain on health systems all across the continent.

The approaches taken must value the contribution of these individuals to the development of their respective nations while at the same time respecting their inherent right to seek to improve themselves. In order for any success to be realized there is a need for political will from governments in both developed and developing countries, a will to change the way they train, employ and compensate health workers. The time to act is now and the decisions that need to be made are clear, what is left for us is to start working on effecting the necessary legislations and strategies.

SUBJECT: COMMENDATION ON WESTERN UNION CONTRACT NEGOTIATION

Postbank has been offering Western Union services since 1995 under a contract with an exclusivity clause among other terms that were not favourable to the bank.

The last Postbank/Western Union negotiation that resulted in the removal of the exclusivity clause and Postbank receiving a special signing fee of USD 250,000 i.e. Kshs.17.482 million were tough. I recognize your contribution alongside the other negotiation team members including the team from the Monopolies Prices Department of the Ministry of Finance in making this negotiation a success. The bank has never received a signing fee in the past.

In this respect, I have approved one salary increament w.e.f. February 2008.

Keep up the good work.

UAP Group is a pan-African Financial Services Group with interest in Insurance, Investment Management, Property Investments, Securities Brokerage and Financial Advisory. Currently UAP has eight (8) businesses operating in Kenya, Uganda and South Sudan which are market leaders in their respective markets, and will be entering the Tanzania, Rwanda and Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) markets before the end of the year. Director at afb - all you can be

April 2015 - Present (4 months)

afb's mission is to unlock the potential in Africa's digital footprint. Using data to understand behaviour, we give people the power to change their lives through innovative financial products. afb has won over 350 000 new customers in Kenya, Ghana and Tanzania, enjoys over 400 retail partners and is the first to deliver unsecured credit digitally with leading network operators Airtel and MTN.

Director at GiveDirectly

January 2015 - Present (7 months)

Traditional ways of giving internationally are complex. Donors typically give to international NGOs that manage money, fundraise, and implement programs through partner organizations abroad which have their own (usually hidden) cost structures. Overall it is hard for donors to tell how their money will be used, what this will cost, and whether there is any evidence that it works. At GiveDirectly we've created a simpler way: we take money from donors and give it to the poor. We can do this because modern payments technology has Page2 drastically cut the costs of sending money directly to the extreme poor, at the same time as new research has shown the powerful effects this has on their lives. At GiveDirectly we see these trends converging to make direct giving the benchmark against which the old, top-down models are evaluated.

Director at BitPesa

February 2014 - Present (1 year 6 months)

In November 2014, BitPesa celebrated its first birthday. We've seen huge growth of our Bitcoin to Kenyan Shilling (KES) remittance product, and we've started sales of Bitcoin in Kenya and Ghana. We now have a team of 9 full-time employees, and recently closed a follow-on round of $1.1M. CGAP's blog post about us on the World Bank's website also made it to the 2014 Top Ten Editor's Picks and we were just featured in Fast Company and TechCrunch. It's been a huge year for us. The November funding round brought our 2014 total equity to over $1.7M. This latest raise was led by Pantera Capital Management LP with support from the Crypto Currency Partners LP, Stephens Investment Management LLC, and existing shareholders: the Bitcoin Opportunity Corporation and Future/Perfect Ventures, among others. We have been happy to add Dan Morehead of Pantera Capital Management LP to our Board of Directors, joining Joseph Mucheru, Duncan Goldie-Scot and Jalak Jobanputra.

CAREER PROFILE

Extensive experience in Kenya's agricultural sector and demonstrable expertise in policy formulation, business advocacy, trade negotiations and promotion of Kenya's agricultural exports. Excellent understanding of the International Food Laws & Regulations and organizational leadership and governance.

WORK EXPERIENCE

I started my career at Kenya's Investment Promotion Centre, (now Kenya Investment Authority) a quasi – government organization as an Investment Promotion Officer in 1990 and quickly rose to the position of the Investment Promotion Manager from 1995 to 1997.

In mid- 1997, I moved to the private sector to join the Fresh Produce Exporters Association of Kenya in the capacity of Export Marketing Manager.

Between 1999 and 2000, I joined an exporting company specializing in horticultural and floriculture exports- (Kenia Fresh Ltd.) as the General Manager. In 2001, I re-joined the Fresh Produce Exporters Association of Kenya as the Chief Executive Officer, where I served until May 2006.

In June 2006 I took up a more challenging assignment at the Tea Board of Kenya as the Managing Director/Secretary to the Board, where I am at the moment. Tea Board of Kenya is a parastatal organization responsible for the regulation and development of Kenya's tea sector.

In the current capacity, as the Principal Secretary, State Department of Agriculture, Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Fisheries. I am responsible for the operations of the State Department of Agriculture, which range from agriculture policy, agriculture research and development, crop development and irrigation policy and interventions; with special focus on food security.

Further, for the past thirteen years, I have served as one of Kenya's agriculture trade experts involved in charting the course of the country's agriculture trade negotiations under the WTO, the Economic Partnership Agreement between the East African Community and the European Union, and several bi-lateral trade Agreements. Resultantly, I have gained extensive experience in global agriculture trade dynamics as well as major aspects of Kenya's agriculture sector. I have also had the opportunity of serving as a Director on various Kenyan and international organizations.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS IN KENYA'S TEA SECTOR

Notable achievements in Kenya's tea sector attributable to my leadership include the following:-

(a) Improvement of service delivery to industry stakeholders through championing various interventions; key among them being:- improved enforcement of the Tea Act, development of the Board's first Strategic Plan and the first ever Industry Promotion Strategy, successful negotiation for favorable trade terms in key markets such as Iran, China, Pakistan, as well decentralization of services through expansion of branch network. These interventions have raised the level of customer satisfaction from an index of 56 % in 2006 to 78 % in 2009.

(b) Championed industry reforms aimed at long-term sustainability of the tea industry by generating high returns, as well as infusing more equity and improved governance among the various stakeholders. These reforms culminated in the enactment of the Tea (Amendment) Regulations of 2008 and a further review of the principal Tea Act.

(c) Giving leadership to the industry by implementing TBK's long term strategy which has resulted in the growth the tea industry from an export volume of 313 Million Kgs (valued at KSHS 47 Billion) in 2006 to 342 Million Kgs (valued at Kshs. 70 Billion) in 2009.

(d) Created visibility of the Kenya's tea industry locally as well as internationally by being an effective Spokesperson. This has been realized by continuous media engagement, maintaining advocacy on matters affecting tea producers and making presentations in all important global tea Conferences. To this end, I have also been instrumental in establishing the International Tea Producers Forum, in which I am the Coordinator.

(e) Institutional capacity enhancement through re-structuring of Tea Board of Kenya. This entailed Human Resource rationalization and capacity enhancement, improvement of internal processes which lead to the attainment of ISO 9001: 2000, establishment of internal control and governance systems and development of operational procedures among others. These activities have raised the level of employees satisfaction from 40 % in 2006 to 89 % in 2009.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS IN KENYA'S HORTICULTURAL INDUSTRY

During my previous employment at FPEAK, I spearheaded institutional reforms aimed at improvement in the relationship between the members' and relevant publics. This resulted in the amendment of the Constitution of the FPEAK, and application of the new rules with effect from 2005. Other reforms involved institutional capacity improvement and resulted in attraction of partner funds which were non existent prior to the reforms. During my tenure, FPEAK was transformed to an effective lobby organization for the horticultural sector from dormant ineffective member's body.

Notably, I spearheaded the development of the Horticulture Code of Practice, (Kenya GAP), which was successfully benchmarked to global standards and has been instrumental in the sustainability of Kenya's exports to global markets.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS IN KENYA'S AGRICULTURE SECTOR

- Agriculture Policy – Spearheaded the development of the agriculture policy which provides guidelines to the National and County Governments in order to ensure national food and nutrition security and increased agricultural productivity.

MEMORANDUM AGAINTS APPOINTMENT OF FESTUS MWANGI KIUNJURI AS A CABINET SECRETARY

I, Philip Mwangi, a citizen of Kenya of P.O. BOX 832 OL KALOU, solemnly and sincerely affirm and declare as follows:-

THAT Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri is unfit to hold public office as he lacks the integrity required by Chapter Six of the Constitution on Leadership and Integrity;

THAT Mr. Kiunjuri While holding the position of Assistant Minister in the Ministry of Water and Irrigation was involved in irregular and unprofessional conduct in interfering with the performance of tasks by ministry staff in respect of the procurement of works for Umaa Dam.

THAT he was involved in corrupt conduct by attempting to force the inflation of the cost of the said dam to a cost of Kshs 652 million for his personal benefit and that of the contractor who was his personal friend with whom they played golf.

THAT the appointment of Mr. Kiunjuri as Cabinet Secretary will contribute to the proliferation of corruption in the Ministry of Devolution;

THAT he lacks the professional and academic experience to carry out the tasks assigned having only been a teacher and a politician;

THAT the facts and circumstances herein deposed to are within my own knowledge and belief save such as are deposed to from information only and my means of knowledge and source of information appear on the face of this my affidavit.

TO THE HONOURABLE SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY,

Petition to oppose the suitability of Hon. Kiunjuri for the position of Cabinet Secretary for devolution.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
RECEIVED
CLERK'S OFFICE
P. O. Box 41842, NAIROBI

I stand opposed to the appointment of Hon. Kiunjuri due to the history of corruption in Water Ministry where he was an Assistant Minister.

That when he was transferred to the ministry of roads he claimed that there is a lot of corruption at the ministry of water whereby he had not raised the matter while there.

That at the Ministry of roads where he serve das an assistant minister, is where the Cabinet Secretary was removed for corruption charges where by the ministry is not able to account for the 63 billion allocated to it.

That where he is headed at devolution the 44 billion allocated to it is not accountable.

We would like him to tell us the magic he will use to recover all those billions and put them in the right use.

What will happen when he is not able to recover the lost billions?

Finally it has become a trend whereby when one loots public funds instead of being arrested he/she is transferred and another ministry and another one takes over. This must stop.

LOOT » COMMUNICATION AUTHORITY ESTIMATES THE FRAUDSTER COULD HAVE POCKETED OVER SH3 BILLION LAST YEAR.

Multi-billion calls fraud pits

At the centre of the tussle is a growing number of cases where international calls are illegally terminated locally by use of SIM box

Telecom regulator and mobile firms are entangled in a blame game over a multi-billion shilling fraud that has been robbing government of massive taxes.

At the centre of the tussle is a growing number of cases where international calls are illegally terminated as local calls by use of SIM box - a device housing numerous SIMs cards routing away traffic from operators' network to one operated by a fraudster.

The international calls are then routed to the recipient, appearing on phone as local calls.

Communication Authority estimates the fraudster could have pocketed over Sh3 billion last year. A report by an African Union High level panel on illicit flows in Africa released in May noted that the telecom fraud had surged and could cost the country over Sh6 billion this year.

But it is the question of who should bear responsibility of the fraud that is causing friction between telcos and the regulator.

Last week, the Communications Authority (CA) wrote to all the mobile phone companies informing them of a planned crackdown, warning that they would be slapped with hefty fines if found culpable.

Monitoring systems

"The authority is acquiring monitoring systems that will be used to track SIM box fraud in a historic exercise," said CA Director General Francis Wangusi. "Enforcement will follow soon, and it will not leave operators off the hook because they provide the SIM cards."

Mobile firms, however, say CA is oversimplifying the problem in an attempt to pass the buck. They say the regulator must come out clearly on the position of the SIM boxes being sold freely in the market, adding that the government must also issue a policy guideline on the matter.

"Our industry regulator needs to give stakeholders a clear position on the status of SIM boxing and its effect to the country, most especially on the institution and enforcement of laws that can help deter the spread of this fraud," Telkom Kenya CEO Vincent Lobry told Smart Company.

WE ARE USING DIFFERENT METHODS TO DETECT THE PRACTICE IN REAL TIME," Telkom Kenya CEO Vincent Lobry

Mr Lobry noted that it is alarming to see SIM boxes being sold freely in many online platforms.

ICT Association of Kenya Secretary General Kamotho Njenga said the SIM fraud is deep and could involve elaborate connections that have kept the vice going for quite some time. He said the vice could even have existed since the 1990s. However, he added, sophistication of gadgets brought about by the Internet revolution now enables ease of monitoring.

"These fraudsters take advantage of loopholes in the network of operators that make it possible for them to convey their communication without being detected," said Mr Njenga.

In other instances, mobile companies question the genuineness of CA in fighting the vice saying there are cases where the regulator takes even six months to act on reported cases.

The slow response by CA, the telcos say, points to either lack of capacity or the inability of the Computer Incident Response Team (KE-CIRT) to execute its task of investigating cyber fraud.

Efforts to reach the CyberCrime Unit of the Directorate of Criminal Investigations (DCI), who are also charged with tackling fraud in the telecom industry, were futile.

Neither the DCI Ndegwa Muhoro nor Mr Jackson Cheboi, the cellular forensic investigator at the CyberCrime unit, picked our calls to state whether Kenya has in the recent times arrested any SIM box fraudsters.

The fraud is carried out through the SIM box which hosts multiple low-cost prepaid SIM cards. It terminates international calls through local phone numbers such as Safaricom, Airtel and Orange lines in respective countries, making the calls appear as local.

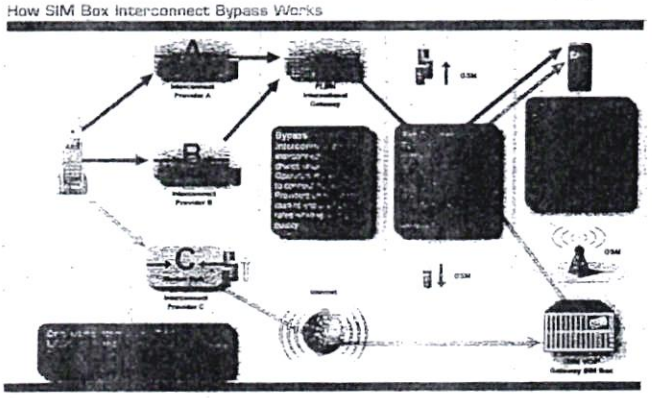

A fraudster could operate more than 10,000 SIM cards from different SIM boxes through one server. The calls are sent through the Internet to a SIM box — that houses eight to 32 illegal SIM cards— which redirects the illegal Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) traffic to mobile networks.

"The devices provide very poor quality service because of poor encryption. They also pose security risks since they can be used by criminals without trace," said Mr Wangusi during an interview last week.

"We have written to telecom operators and cautioned them of inspection on their own switches ahead of the exercise."

The major players in this elaborate fraudulent business are two; the fraudsters who are based in the terminating country and the illegal international carriers from across the border.

How SIM Box Interconnect Bypass Works

The fraudster operates as a SIM box operator, or a national licence holder such as a big telecom operator, or an insignificant telecom operator as a new entrant.

In this case, the fraudster hosts the SIM boxes, server, hands-on employees and constant SIM card supplies usually packed up in bulk in a box.

CA now wants to fine telecom operators for allowing the illegal SIM cards to operate on their network. Telecom firms however want the regulator to collaborate with them in the fight against SIM box fraud instead of holding them liable through fines.

A global body, The Communications Fraud Control Association (CFCA) states that telecoms lose over 15 per cent of their interconnection termination revenue through SIM boxing.

"We believe the CA should take a collaborative approach in this exercise instead of blaming operators. Any person can purchase SIMs from the open market, register them as required by law and put them to whatever use they want," said Safaricom corporate affairs director Stephen Chege.

"This does not make any operator complicit in any illegal action undertaken by such fraudsters. Co-operation between mobile operators, the CA and law enforcement agencies is what is needed to stamp out this practice."

Because calls made through SIM box connections are of poor quality, the customer is compelled to spend more while the government and the regulator get less. It also overloads base stations as many SIM cards (they could be in thousands). This ends up affecting the quality of network services

Mr Chege said the revenue of mobile

Amount that illegal operators of SIM boxes are said to have pocketed last year. It is feared this could rise to a whopping Sh6 billion this year as the fraud is increasingly becoming rampant.

firms are affected when the SIM cards used on the SIM boxes are cut from the network , contributing to "churn", which refers to the amount of customers or subscribers who cut ties with a telecom firm within a given time period.

Airtel and Telkom Kenya also share the same sentiments.

The menace slows revenue growth for operators who have to frequently deal with huge numbers of SIM cards leaving the network.

"Within our networks, we have systems that detect SIM box businesses and stop them. What the CA needs to realise is that we cannot prevent a person from buying a SIM card when he has the necessary requirements," said Mr Chege.

He added that CA should, "take a collaborative approach instead of punishing operators to ensure that SIM boxes are removed from operation."

Airtel Kenya CEO Adil El Youssefi told Smart Company in a statement that operator mechanisms and tools to monitor and prevent SIM boxes must evolve to out pace fraudsters' tricks.

"The organisation actively monitors traffic partners on a constant basis to sniff out SIM boxers, as well as manage customers on board to detect early stages of the fraud," said Mr El Youssefi last week.

Mr Lobry said CA should check and remedy the situation as soon as possible taking into account the best international approaches.

"We are using different methods to detect the practice in real time and we are closing in on perpetrators," said Mr Lobry.

SIM boxing telecom fraud is not unique to Kenya. Countries like Uganda, Tanzania, Ghana and the rest of Africa are up in arms against the menace.

Uganda's Financial Intelligence Authority for instance in March this year, probed the loss of Sh14.7 billion a year through revenue diversion in telecoms.

"The FIA has received reports of suspicious activities, pointing to possible fraud, tax evasion, money laundering and suspected terrorist financing via illegal international traffic, also known as 'grey traffic," FIA Executive Director Mr Sydney Asubo is quoted by The East African, in a written alert to Uganda Communications Commission Godfrey Mutabazi.

The letter also noted that Ugandan government loses 45 per cent in tax revenue in the fraud while the telcos — MTN, Airtel, Africell, Uganda Telecom Ltd and Vodafone — lose over 80 per cent of their revenue.

Tanzania has managed to curtail SIM box fraud through harsh penalties while Ghana is deep in the fight. The Ghana Criminal Investigative Department (CID) of Police Service in January stated that the fraud is on the rise and it costs the country over Sh3.3 billion yearly.

The African Union panel on illicit financial flows stated in a report early this year that the fraud contributes the most to the Sh4 trillion lost annually in tax evasion in the continent.

According to the International Telecommunications Union (ITU), a single operator cannot deal with the problem on its own hence the need to team up.

Research by the telecom union states that telecom operators need better SIM box detection equipment, greater regulations that will stop the sale of SIM cards to fake subscribers.

In regulations aimed at stopping SIM boxing, there is need to check multiple SIMs in the same name, prevent the sale of pre-activated SIMs, and verify credentials before SIM activation.

There is also need for operators to work closely with regulators to device legislation that will keep off this fraud from the country and prescribe stiff penalties to perpetrators.

TO THE AFFIDAVIT AGAINST THE APPOINTMENT OF MR. CHARLES CHERUIYOT KETER AS CABINET SECRETARY/MINISTRY OF ENERGY AND PETROLEUM

I, CHARLES CHERUIYOT KETER of Post Office Box Number 51439 – 00200 Nairobi in the Republic of Kenya do make oath and state as follows:

1. THAT I am a male adult of sound mind and competent to swear this affidavit.

2. THAT I have read and understood the affidavit sworn by one William Jeremiah Ombese on 4th December 2015 and I make this affidavit in reply thereto.

3. THAT I state from the onset that I do not know Mr. Ombese. I neither met him nor interacted with him whilst I was employed by the then Kenya Posts and Telecommunications Corporation (hereinafter referred to as 'KPTC').

4. THAT I was employed by the then KPTC as a systems analyst in its IT Department in 1993. I worked at the Headquarters. Mr. Ombese depones to the fact that he worked as a Senior Technical Officer in the Installation and Maintenance Section (Nairobi- North region). KPTC had over 30,000 employees and considering that Mr. Ombese and I worked in different departments, it is highly unlikely that he knew me.

5. THAT in the course of my employment with KPTC I was moved into a multi-disciplined special unit with four other colleagues. The unit was in charge of KPTC'S network. I did not at any time work in the Investigation Department as alleged by Mr. Ombese. It is clear from his averments that he did not know me at all and his affidavit is nothing but a complete fabrication.

6. THAT since being served with the affidavit, I have carried out some in and established that Mr. Ombese was retired in the public interest in November 1994. The retirement came about a year after my emplo therefore he could not have known me at all. I annex hereto and 1" a copy of his letter of retirement.

7. THAT the letter of retirement clearly states that Mr. Om' public interest on account of unsatisfactory work perfo Having been retired on those grounds, he canno' aspersions on my character and integrity.

8. THAT the contents of paragraphs 5, 6,7,8,9 and 10 are a figment of the imagination of Mr. Ombese. Having not worked in the Investigation Department, I had no duty or indeed capacity to carry out any investigations or intimidate anyone.

9. THAT whereas Mr. Ombese makes wild and unsubstantiated allegations that I allegedly took advantage of my position, there are no particulars at all of the purported personal gain or particulars of the alleged deprivation of my employer. The allegations contained at paragraphs 11, 12, 12, and 14 are total lies and only intended to embarrass me.

10. THAT throughout my employment with KPTC there was neither a complaint raised against me in whatsoever manner nor was my integrity ever questioned. I diligently served KPTC until the date I resigned in the year 2002 to join politics. I annex hereto and mark "CCK 2" a copy of my letter of resignation.

11. THAT after I resigned from KPTC I was elected as a Member of Parliament for Belgut Constituency in 2002. I was re-elected for a second term in 2007 which was historical for the reason that other than myself, no one has been re-elected for a second term in Belgut since 1963. Whilst I was the Member of Parliament, Belgut Constituency was ranked No. 1 in the usage of CDF Funds.

12. THAT whilst I was the Member of Parliament, Belgut Constituency was ranked No. 1 in the usage of CDF Funds. The trust and confidence shown in me by the people of Belgut Constituency is testimony to my integrity and service to society.

13. THAT in reply to paragraph 15 of Mr. Ombese's affidavit, I state that Criminal case Number 2233/2003 was brought against five accused persons in the year 2003. I was not one of the five persons. In or about mid- 2004 I filed a Motion in Parliament touching on Sections 58 and 59 of the then Kenyan Constitution seeking to delink Parliament from the Executive. In January 2005, I was shocked to be arraigned in Court charged with four counts and then the case was consolidated with the case brought in 2003.I verily believe that the only the only reason I was charged was to attempt to intimidate me into withdrawing the Motion I had filed in Parliament.

The matter case was nevertheless fully heard before a Senior Resident magistrate and at the close of the Prosecution's case less. In any event the Criminal Case was heard and the court found that it lacked substance and that I had no case to answer. I annex hereto and mark as 'CCK-3' a certified copy of the Ruling. I beseech the Honourable vetting Committee to peruse the Ruling from which they will no doubt draw the conclusion that the case brought against me had no basis and was malicious.

THAT in reply to paragraphs 16, 17 and 18 of Mr. Ombese' s affidavit, I state that the articles referred to therein have nothing to do with me and neither is [redacted] The articles were written on 1st December 2015 [redacted] was brought in the year 2005. In any event the [redacted] ng a full hearing, that I had no case to answer, any [redacted] ation of calls have nothing to do with me.

THAT I verily believe that Mr. Ombese' s affidavit is motivated by malice and for reasons I don't understand. I have carried out some inquiries on the [redacted] ent and established the following facts:

16. He is pensioner with Teleposta Pension Scheme having been retired from the services of KPTC on 17th November 1994 on account of public interest because of unsatisfactory work performance;

ii. He is a member of Postel Pensioners Association a group of active retirees of KPTC who regularly write numerous letters to Retirement Benefits Authority, and Telkom Kenya Limited Teleposta Pension Scheme;

iii. Mr. Ombese appeared at page 2 of Sunday Nation and pages 4 of the Standard Newspapers of 12/5/13 on the vetting of Davis Chirchir. He had written a letter on 3/5/13 to the Vetting Committee on Davis Chirchir;

iv. It was alleged in that Sunday Nation newspaper that Mr. Ombese was the Secretary of the Pension Scheme which was a total lie because the Trust Secretary of Teleposta Pension Scheme at that time was Peter Kipyegon Rotich. Mr. Ombese purported to be the Trust Secretary in order to cloth himself with some false credibility. The Pension Scheme did not at any time present any complaint against Mr. Chirchir.

17. THAT it is therefore clear that Mr. Ombese, whose conduct his former employer found wanting, is a busybody who has since then pre-occupied himself with raising objections as relates to persons proposed to be Cabinet Secretaries.

18. THAT what is deponed to herein is true and within my own knowledge save for matters deponed to on information and belief, sources whereof and grounds whereupon have been duly disclosed.

The retirement came about a year after my employment and therefore he could not have known me at all. I annex hereto and mark "CCK 1" a copy of his letter of retirement.

7. THAT the letter of retirement clearly states that Mr. Ombese was retired on public interest on account of unsatisfactory work performance and conduct. Having been retired on those grounds, he cannot now purport to cast aspersions on my character and integrity.

8. THAT the contents of paragraphs 5, 6,7,8,9 and 10 are a figment of the imagination of Mr. Ombese. Having not worked in the Investigation Department, I had no duty or indeed capacity to carry out any investigations or intimidate anyone.

9. THAT whereas Mr. Ombese makes wild and unsubstantiated allegations that I allegedly took advantage of my position, there are no particulars at all of the purported personal gain or particulars of the alleged deprivation of my employer. The allegations contained at paragraphs 11, 12, 12, and 14 are total lies and only intended to embarrass me.

10. THAT throughout my employment with KPTC there was neither a complaint raised against me in whatsoever manner nor was my integrity ever questioned. I diligently served KPTC until the date I resigned in the year 2002 to join politics. I annex hereto and mark "CCK 2" a copy of my letter of resignation.

11. THAT after I resigned from KPTC I was elected as a Member of Parliament for Belgut Constituency in 2002. I was re-elected for a second term in 2007 which was historical for the reason that other than myself, no one has been re-elected for a second term in Belgut since 1963. Whilst I was the Member of Parliament, Belgut Constituency was ranked No. 1 in the usage of CDF Funds.

12. THAT whilst I was the Member of Parliament, Belgut Constituency was ranked No. 1 in the usage of CDF Funds. The trust and confidence shown in me by the people of Belgut Constituency is testimony to my integrity and service to society.

13. THAT in reply to paragraph 15 of Mr. Ombese's affidavit, I state that Criminal case Number 2233/2003 was brought against five accused persons in the year 2003. I was not one of the five persons. In or about mid- 2004 I filed a Motion in Parliament touching on Sections 58 and 59 of the then Kenyan Constitution seeking to delink Parliament from the Executive. In January 2005, I was shocked to be arraigned in Court charged with four counts and then the case was consolidated with the case brought in 2003.I verily believe that the only the only reason I was charged was to attempt to intimidate me into withdrawing the Motion I had filed in Parliament.

14. The matter case was nevertheless fully heard before a Senior Resident magistrate and at the close of the Prosecution's casé less. In any event the Criminal Case was heard and the court found that it lacked substance and that I had no case to answer. I annex hereto and mark as 'CCK-3' a certified copy of the Ruling. I beseech the Honourable vetting Committee to peruse the Ruling from which they will no doubt draw the conclusion that the case brought against me had no basis and was malicious.

15. THAT in reply to paragraphs 16, 17 and 18 of Mr. Ombese' s affidavit, I state that the articles referred to therein have nothing to do with me and neither is my name mentioned therein. The articles were written on 1st December 2015 whereas the case against me was brought in the year 2005. In any event the court having found, following a full hearing, that I had no case to answer, any alleged dealings in termination of calls have nothing to do with me.

16. THAT I verily believe that Mr. Ombese' s affidavit is motivated by malice and ill-will for reasons I don't understand. I have carried out some inquiries on the deponent and established the following facts:

    i. He is pensioner with Teleposta Pension Scheme having been retired from the services of KPTC on 17th November 1994 on account of public interest because of unsatisfactory work performance;

    ii. He is a member of Postel Pensioners Association a group of active retirees of KPTC who regularly write numerous letters to Retirement Benefits Authority, and Telkom Kenya Limited Teleposta Pension Scheme;

    iii. Mr. Ombese appeared at page 2 of Sunday Nation and pages 4 of the Standard Newspapers of 12/5/13 on the vetting of Davis Chirchir. He had written a letter on 3/5/13 to the Vetting Committee on Davis Chirchir;

    iv. It was alleged in that Sunday Nation newspaper that Mr. Ombese was the Secretary of the Pension Scheme which was a total lie because the Trust Secretary of Teleposta Pension Scheme at that time was Peter Kipyegon Rotich. Mr. Ombese purported to be the Trust Secretary in order to cloth himself with some false credibility. The Pension Scheme did not at any time present any complaint against Mr. Chirchir.

17. THAT it is therefore clear that Mr. Ombese, whose conduct his former employer found wanting, is a busybody who has since then pre-occupied himself with raising objections as relates to persons proposed to be Cabinet Secretaries.

18. THAT what is deponed to herein is true and within my own knowledge save for matters deponed to on information and belief, sources whereof and grounds whereupon have been duly disclosed.

BEFORE ME:

COMMISSIONER FOR OATHS

The prosecution evidence on record, as well as the submissions by learned counsels for the accused persons have been carefully considered by me.

It is appropriate to point out at this stage that the 2nd accused person is now deceased having passed on the 27/11/2005.

By then, the hearing of this case had not commenced dispute the fact that accused 2 – accused 6 had been arraigned before court on 8/9/2003. It is no wonder however since the state took over the case from the police on 7/3/2005.

The hearing of this case did commence on 11/7/2005 while Accused 2 was still alive. The court proceeded and heard the evidence of three (3) witnesses before it learned on 2/12/2005 that Accused 2 had passed on. So the hearing of the rest of the witnesses proceeded on upto the 7/6/2006, when Mr. Gikonyo state counsel closed the prosecution case.

Having carefully considered the same and in light of the charges preferred with respect to count I, I find that the prosecution has not been able to show any connection of all the accused persons that would lead to me to draw the inference that they conspired to defraud Telkom (K) of anything.

Indeed let me state from the outset that there was no evidence adduced to show that Telkom (K) had any complaint or claim against any of the accused persons. The only connection made among the accused persons is that Accused 1 is the brother to Accused 3 but has no connection with Accused 4 – Accused 6. Accused 2 – Accused 6 were all employees of Data Global which it is alleged by the prosecution was the company through which all the accused operated telecommunications systems and provided telecommunications services without a license.

The prosecution did not endeavour even by way of submissions to bring out the connection I have set out above. The charge in count I therefore has no legs to stand on and must collapse at this stage.

With respect to the charge in count II I must agree with Mr. Kibet for A1 that there is absolutely no evidence to show that the 1st accused person made calls to the United States of America on behalf of Edward Keter Accused 3 herein. First of all the prosecution did not set out the purported benefit to A3 who was not a director at M/s Data global company Evidence led by the Manager in charge of Consumer Affairs at CCK one Liston Cheruiyot related to his analyzing the call data on a CD Rom from both Safaricom and Kencell (now Celtel) communicating companies with a view to determining if they were made by operators or switched automatically by a system.

Even from his testimony there was no connection made to the calls he analyzed and any that may have been made, if at all by Accused 1 while he was working in Telkom (K) Department of Fraud Management where he had access to telephone number 340 811 and 213 598 through which he could call any part of the world while conducting his duties.

His colleague in the said department one Hezekeah Yobera PW7 testified that indeed A1 made calls on the said lines to the USA and several other countries like Rwanda, USA, South Africa & UAE but he was not asked to establish the nature of these calls and did not find any restrictions placed on the 1st accused while making these calls. PW7's evidence remained hanging and the prosecution failed to show the nexus between it and the evidence of Linus Cheruiyot PW11 That led Inspector Prosper Bosire PW12 to want to charge the 1st accused with respect to count II almost (2) two years after the others were charged. It is not this court's duty whatsoever to tie up the prosecution's case. The charge in count II which in any case is in congruent with the other charges preferred against the accused persons in counts I, III and IV must also collapse at this stage.

With respect to counts III and IV, if indeed Accused 2 – Accused 6 were employees at Data global Communications as 1P Etyang testified then the prosecution needed to adduce evidence to show how they can be held liable for offences committed by their employer. Indeed there was no attempt made by the prosecution to explain the reason for not preferring charges against the directions of Data Global Ltd. The prosecution did not even bother to set out specifically what each of the accused persons i.e. 2 – 6th accused did that led to the conclusion that they committed the offences set out in counts III and IV. To even connect A1 with the charges in counts III & IV is just ridiculous.

I must in conclusion say this, the prosecution failed to present its case in a systematic manner even if it may not have had any substance.

It is possible that Mr. Gikonyo was badly briefed by the investigations hence the bungling that I evidenced during the prosecution's case. This however does not discount the fact that the prosecution's case lacked substance and was improperly put together.

In any case, the prosecution has failed totally to establish a prima facie case against all the accused persons in all the charges they face and they are each found to have no case to answer and are each acquitted under section 210 Criminal Procedure Code. The court so orders.

Dear Sir,

RE: APPEAL TO MY DISMISSAL VIDE LETTER DATED 25TH SEPTEMBER, 2015.

The above subject refers.

On 25th September, 2015 I was served with a dismissal letter dated same day. Attached is a copy marked "a".

The reasons for my dismissal were indicated as (a) and (b) in the letter.

I hereby appeal against my dismissal on the following grounds;-

1. That the nature of Gross misconduct was not explained or spelled out in the letter.

2. That the show cause letter dated 11th May, 2015 did not required me to give explanation on any gross misconduct. Attached is a copy marked "b".

3. That a letter dated 7th August, 2015 marked as "c" as well did not spell out the nature of Gross Misconduct. Attached is a copy marked "c".

4. That the dismissal letter indicates that I appeared before the staff disciplinary committee on 28th August, 2015. There was no staff Disciplinary Committee held on 28th August, 2015.

5. That the show cause and dismissal letter marked as "a" and "b" did not spell out the detail of the procedures that I breached or details of breach on my part.

6. That on my letter dated 13th May, 2015, I showed cause I gave a satisfactory explanation on how the 300 bags of maize 3rd grade were sold which explanation was never considered in any manner. Attached is a copy marked "d".

7. That the company never lost any cash neither was there any complain from my head of department.

8. That section 15 of the company manual on Discipline and Grievance procedure was never followed for following reasons;-

a) That my case did not fall under section 15.1 subsection (3).

b) That no disciplinary action was taken against me by Head of Department in line with section 15.1 subsection 7.

c) That no report was compiled by Head of Department in this case Finance Director in regard to the alleged breach in line with section 15.1 sub section 8.

d) That no facts were documented by Head of Department and no advise was sought from Human Rescoure Manager before action was taken according to section 15.1 sub section 10.

9. That the dismissal letter was written by one K.S Malakwen. The said Malakwen is Acting Human Resource Manager. He had no authority nor capacity whatsoever to write a dismissal letter on behalf of the Managing Director who is currently in the office.

Hence the dismissal letter was not drawn by an authorized office.

10. The composition of the purported staff disciplinary committee was not proper as the legal department was never represented. Further, Finance Director who is the Chairman of the Staff Disciplinary committee was not in attendance yet he was within the offices.

My dismissal was as a result of witch hunting due to the following grounds;-

1) That I was following up a syndicate where the company must have lost Kshs.3,200,000 through dubious Disposal of non-confirming seed maize of 2000 bags of 90 kg each. Attached are copies of Memorandums dated 29/7/2015, 19/8/2015, 27/8/2015, 9/4/2015 and 16/9/2015 marked "e". The letters are self explanatory.

2) That through memo dated 16/9/2015, the Finance Director wrote to me and congratulated me for what I was doing hence the reason why he was not included in the staff Disciplinary committee.

3) That since June, 2014 I found out that some goods were being taken away by staff member free of charge from Head office. I stopped it and there was an increment of sale on those goods which did not go down well in some quarters. Attached is an internal audit marked "f".

4) That in April, 2015, I did a follow -up of a bull which was purportedly sold but there was no documentation nor money remitted. I did a memo dated 20/4/2015 and Finance Director responded via letter dated 22/4/2015. Attached are copies marked "g" which memos are self explanatory.

5) In February, 2015 I was following-up a syndicate in which the company lost Kshs.3,300,000 through under pricing of commercial maize. After purporting to deliberate on the price through Planning Committee, the Head of production then requested for sale of the commercial maize. Attached are copies of minutes marked "h" and request marked "I".

I questioned the whole transaction vide my Report dated 10/6/2015. Attached is a copy marked "j". This did not go down well on some quarters hence I was marked for witch hunting.

6) In or about June, 2013, K.S Malakwen made false allegations and reported to the police that I wanted to kill him. The said report was rubbished by the police and since then he has been on my neck.

7) That I was doing a follow-up of parcels of land which were leased out but no documented and money accounted for. This lead to the company loosing huge amount of money. Attached is summary of leased farm by the company but one was leased out before the expiry without any documents and we were paying casual workers in the farm "k".

It's now my appeal that the said dismissal was baseless and a witch hunt hence the same should be set aside or quashed. I have worked with the company for the last 30 years without suspension or demotion.

Also Elgon down farm where I work as senior accountant, we can make a turnover of more than a billion but due to some poor management it is not possible, it needs some changes.

Yours faithfully,

RE: REASONS I SHOULD NOT BE DICIPLINED

Thank you for your letter dated 11th May, 2015. I am surprised about the letter because I followed the due procedure as follows:

1. I wrote a list of items to be disposed in our stores to our Head of Production Elgon Downs Farm/ BSU on 19th January, 2015 to seek approval for the same with recommended prices, see attached list.

   On February 2015, the planning committee met and came up with the price list plus some of my recommendation list. The minutes were signed by Mr. Hosea Sirma who is the committee chairman and also Mr. Oloibe, the secretary to the committee.

   On 16th February, 2015, our Managing Director Mr. Willy Bett approved the same for implementation; see the attached minutes and approval comments for the same.
2. The reason why I came up with the list, I had a discussion with the accounts staff and stores clerks, whereby I was informed that most of the by products from the stores were being given for free, that's why according to 2013/2014 sales, some items like chippings, 3rd grade and pre-cleaning dust were not there.
3. During that period, we had cash flow problems and we had to look for items to be sold to get cash

The company never lost anything since the money was banked and the prices was correct as approved by the Managing Director.

4. Since I joined Elgon Downs Farm, I have been strict and I have followed the procedures and no goods can go out without a delivery note whether free or sold which used not to be the case.

*NB.*I have not received due laid down procedures

MIN 4: 09/02/2015 Chairman's Welcoming Remarks

The Chairman called the meeting to order at 11.11 am and an opening prayer was offered by Eunice Ombachi. The chairman apologized for the late take off for the meeting because of the other meeting that commenced at 8.30 am where some of the committee members were expected to attend. He further noted that the mandate of the committee besides sales and production projections was to also discuss and approve prices for various products within the company.

MIN 5: 09/02/2015 Remarks from planning Secretariat

The secretary to planning committee reminded members that the prices of these products were reviewed during the meeting of 27/08/14. However the prevailing market prices have changed due to the reduction in commercial maize purchase price by National Cereal and Produce Board (NCPB) from Kshs. 3,000 to Kshs. 2,300, though current prevailing price in Kitale in the region is Kshs. 1,600 per 90 kg bag. In view of this the company is not able to dispose off these by products which keeps on accumulating high handling charges and occupying storage space which should be used for storing seeds. The secretary also noted the proceeds from the sales will also be used to improve the cash flow.

MIN 6:09/02/15-Price review of by products

The Sales and Marketing department presented the request for the review as per the earlier remarks by the secretary to the committee. The Head of Sales and Marketing department noted that the change in prices of commercial maize also fluctuates due to cheap maize coming from Uganda. The proposal was done together with the finance department and its worth noting that not all by products were affected since other products prices had been determined during the planning committee meeting of 27.08.14.

The committee during the deliberations noted the following;

1. There was need to be a policy on pricing of by products
2. The pricing should be guided by Agricultural Food and Fisheries Authority (AFFA) prices.
3. The grading of maize into 1st, 2nd and 3rd grade should be spearheaded by Quality Assurance department.
4. Future price review should be accompanied by departmental price proposals.

After a lengthy deliberation the committee resolved that the prices be reviewed as follows and this proposal be presented to the board.

S/No.	Item	Unit/pack	Previous Approved price	Current approved price	Approx. current market price	New proposed price	New approved price
1	Maize rejects 1st grade	90kgs	3,000.00	2,500.00	1,800.00	1,800.00	1,600.00
2	Maize rejects 2nd grade	90kgs	1,250.00	2,500.00	1,200.00	1,250.00	1,100.00
3	Maize rejects 3rd grade	90kgs	1,250.00	1,800.00	800.00	800.00	700.00
4	Finger millet	90kgs	-	6,750.00	4,500.00	4,500.00	4,950.00
5	Commercial Wheat	90kgs	3,500.00	3,000.00	2,600.00	2,600.00	3,000.00

MIN 8: 09/02/2015- Price review of low germ sunflower

The committee was briefed on existence of low germ sunflower stocks in the company. Some of these had been approved by board for disposal/sale. The committee tasked Pasture/Sunflower, Finance, Marketing and Planning team to meet and work on the proposal and present the proposal to a sub-committee of planning committee for approval.

MIN 9: 09/02/2015- Any Other Business.

Being no other business the meeting came to an end with a word of prayer from Mr. Alphonse Laboso at 2.30 pm.

RE: DISPOSAL OF NON CONFORMING SEED MAIZE/MAIZE CLEANINGS

Please refer to the Disposal of the above items that was done early 2015.

In the process of disposal it was realized that there were customers who were issued with offer letters to purchase 3,482 x 90 Kilo bags of 1st Grade maize and they paid for the same, unfortunately the department did not have the goods at that time.

Several discussions were made between the Head of sales and Marketing and the processing department on the same in trying to get a way forward on the matter, upon which the customers were advised and they agreed to wait as the company tried to resolve the matter.

In the Research, Production and Marketing Board meeting held on 10th of July, 2015 a total of 2,367 x 90Kilo bags which do not meet the quality standards were presented for approval, and only 2,045 x 90 Kilo bags were approved for disposal.

This therefore is to request as follows-:

i) That all the approved non conforming products be repacked into unmarked poly bags and transferred to EDF store.

ii) That 1st grade maize available in EDF (1,000 x 90 Kilo bags) intended for staff food ration is mixed with the non conforming maize seed.

iii) That the mixed grains up to a maximum of 2,000 x90 kilo bags be issued to the customers as attached (Appendix I) after verification of the payment receipts.

iv) The outstanding balances after the above is issued are given priority in the next disposal.

REF: SALE OF REJECT MAIZE UNPROCEDURALLY

In reply to the letter you wrote to Head of Production EDF/BSU and a copy to me, I wish to inform that:-

1. The company sold rejects maize to some individuals which were not in the stores according to the Senior Engineer but later it was availabled at Elgon Downs Farm.
2. One of the resolutions was that the goods should be given out after verification of the payment receipts. Unfortunately there was no verification by either the finance department.

The company normally sells its goods through cash sale not on credit especially by – products but you went ahead and issued the goods without production of either bank slip or cash sale receipt showing payments. To make the matter worse you used delivery notes to buyers who don't have accounts with us, some are third parties as per the Memo of Senior Engineer.

As per now out of the 2000 x 90kgs reject maize you gave out using Delivery Notes is wrong and no payment has been received.

In order to rectify the situation, I urgently need the original cash sale receipts or bank slips showing payments of each individual transactions.

RE: NON –CORNFORMING SEED MAIZE- DH02 FROM SEED DRIERS

Refer to my letter dated 19th august 2015. It is now about one and a half weeks waiting for the receipts and I have not seen anybody bringing them. The normal procedure of disposing seeds with low germination is that there should be somebody from security, finance, audit, quality and processing department.

The way the recent disposal was done was incorrect. Normally after the disposal the certificate is issued and signed by the above departments. Now that am still waiting for the receipts, the people who signed the delivery notes to show that the goods have gone out are two clerks and head of production EDF and BSU who is Mr. Sirma, I now suspect that we might have lost a lot of money in this kind of sales.

Kindly note that we are talking of 1,562 bags which we bought at Kshs. 5,450 per bag and we sold at kshs.1600 per bag.

Please use your powers to make Mr. Sirma or Lagat to bring the receipts.

Regards.

Exclusion of Finance Director and his team from key Inventory movement Information and communication

As you are aware, more than 60% of the Balance Sheet of Kenya Seed Company is made up of both Inventory and Cash. Inventory and cash move in inverse proportions, high inventory and less cash or lower inventory and high cash balances.

Managing Inventory and Cash is a key function of the Finance Director and his team. Any transaction in the company will ultimately end up in the bank books and FD has a responsibility of ensuring proper accounting and accurate reporting.

Normal sales of seeds are automated through POS or the module and these reflect directly in the system.

FD has noted with concern instances where the FD and his team are kept in the dark on the transactions relating to inventory movements outside the automated sales.. This is a major and worrying lapse. A case in point is the two attached memos KSC/MKT/MR/059/15 and KSC/MKT/BS/021/15. The entries and proper accounting of these two transactions is complex, engaging and involving. When the FD is not informed, this certainly ends up causing "accounting chaos", reconciliation nightmares and inaccurate reporting. Before issuing these two memo's for instance, there was need by the Head of Marketing to initiate and ensure that FD and his team have processed downgrading entries in the system and is aware of the expected cash in and stock out.

Please ensure that the FD is involved, informed and copied in all such transactions, communications and correspondences that will impact inventory, assets and cash.

Thank you,

Patrick Thuo

Reference is made to your communications KSC/EDF/08/15 dated 19th August 2015 and 27th August 2015 as well as our telephone conversation today that you have not received any feedback on the same to date.

I thank you for your continuous effort in enforcing accurate, timely and correct accounting treatment of each item and entry affecting the company's books of accounts.

Keep it up.

In your financial control and oversight role, you must ensure that you understand and are aware of every transaction impacting on the books of the company. Consequently, you have responsibility to ensure compliance with communication KSC/FD/00005515 (attached) and escalate any exception or non-compliance.

RE: Sale of Maize Chenga, Hay, Off-cuts and other products from EDF Farm

Your memo Reference No. KSC/FD/130924/2013 on the above subject matter dated September 24, 2013 refers.

The special review was carried out between the dates of 15th and 28th of October, 2013.

Introduction

The products of maize chenga, hay, off-cuts, etc arise out of farm produce. Grated maize or chenga is as a resulted of milling selected rotten maize that is on cob.

Scope

To review the issuance of the above mentioned farm by-products based on available policy(ies), if any.

Audit Objectives

- Review and advise/confirm policy guidelines/infringements of sales of such farm products
- Quantity the losses, if any, and advise on any surcharge

Findings:

The Disposal Policy, approved in April 2013, spells out methods of disposing off the various types of items mentioned herein above as follows:

1. Maize chenga, maize waste on cob & maize cobs

Maize chenga is not mentioned in the policy. However, according to paragraph or clause 9.3 of the policy, the other by-products of maize waste on cob and maize cobs may be sold to staff. This implies that the Disposal Committee needs to determine prices for these products.

Maize chenga is maize waste on cob (rotten maize on cob) that is milled for animal feed. Costs are inquired on this product in terms of transport from the various EDF farms, milling (using power at the EDF), labour in handling the products and at issuance, transporting the same to staff residences at the expense of EDF (using EDF vehicles).

From the documents that we were able to peruse (see appendix I), a number of staff have benefited from this product. However, since there was price attached to it until recently in September 2013, the staff has been getting it for free.

Appendix I indicates a list of staff who obtained the chenga for free. Considering that the chenga had/has a value, even though there was no policy in place on how to handle the product, management could ask the staff to pay for what they obtained, probably at 800/= per bag because costs were incurred as mentioned above in paragraph 2.

2. Hay, milk, trees & perishables

Clause 9.2 of the Disposal policy says that these products should be sold through public tender or to staff subject to the requirements of the Section 131 of the Procurement Act and Procurement Regulations, section 93 (1a).

Hay has a price determined by the Disposal Committee @120/= per a bale. As per appendix II, the following need to be surcharged for obtaining hay without paying for it:

No.	Name	Quantity	Unit Price	Amount – K.Shs	Remarks
1	Dr. Andrew Mulei	100	120/=	12,000/=	Former Board Chairman
2	Elijah Kosgei	80	120/=	9,600/=	EDF staff
3	Eunice Ombachi	100	120/=	12,000/=	Former EDF staff
4	Harun Koross	80	120/=	9,600/=	EDF staff
5	Robert Namanga	50	120/=	6,000/=	Security staff
6	Shadrack Lagat	100	120/=	12,000/=	EDF staff
7	Samson Ndengu	50	120/=	6,000/=	EDF staff
8	William Walubengo	20	120/=	2,400/=	EDF staff
				69,600/=

The current market price of a bale of hay is more than 500/=. It is time the price of 120/= per bale was reviewed upwards.

3. Droppers, posts & off-cuts

These products are not mentioned in the Disposal policy although they definitely have an economic value. The off-cuts are going for about 80/= in the market while the posts go for about 150/=.

Appendices III & IV, indicate as follows:

Appendix III

No.	NAME	OFF-CUTS	ESTIMATED MARKET PRICE	AMOUNT –K.Shs

15	SAMSON NDENGU	30	80	2,400.00
				62,960.00

Appendix IV

No.	NAME	POSTS	ESTIMATED MARKET PRICE	AMOUNT –K.Shs
1	AMOS KASILI	12	150	1,800.00
2	SAMMY BULULU	50	150	7,500.00
3	SAMSON NDENGU	10	150	1,500.00
4				10,800.00

4. Drums, jerricans, gunnies & waste paper

The Disposal policy, clause 9.5(a), states that these products should be disposed off through a method recommended by the Disposal Committee.

Prices for empty drums, jerricans and 3rd grade gunnies are 200/=, 20/= and 10/= respectively per a unit.

As per appendices V & VI, the following staff needs to be surcharged for obtaining these items without paying for them:

No.	Name	Drums / Jerricans / Gunnies	Unit Price	Amount – K.Shs	Remarks

1	Betty Khaemba	5	200/=	1,000/=	EDF staff
2	David Khatete	1	200/=	200/=	EDF staff
3	John Ongaro	10	200/=	2,000/=	EDF staff
4	Samson Ndengu	2	20/=	40/=	EDF staff
5	James Okeyo	5	10/=	50/=	EDF staff
6	Robert Namanga	20	10/=	200/=	Security staff
7	Richard Juma	74	10/=	740/=	EDF staff
8	Robert Nalima	20	10/=	200/=	EDF staff
			69,600/=	4,430/=

All the above items were issued using simple notebook chits that are difficult to trace and maintain. Proper official pre-printed issue notes are required.

Conclusions:

There have been serious internal control issues with regard to accounting for the above mentioned products. The farm does not seem to have a policy on handling products such as maize chenga, off-cuts and posts that are obtainable at the Farm.

The Disposal Committee should be able to include these and similar items under its purview and dispose off the same as per policy.

Recommendations:

- For hay, empty drums, empty jerricans and gunnies with prices as set by the Disposal Committee, all the staff that obtained these items should be made to pay for them as highlighted under findings above. These items have always been sold to staff or outsiders at the set prices.

  In summary, they should be surcharged as follows:

No.	Name	Hay	Drums / Jerricans / Gunnies	Totals – K.Shs
1	Dr. Andrew Mulei	12,000/=	-	12,000/=
2	Elijah Kosgei	9,600/=	-	9,600/=
3	Eunice Ombachi	12,000/=	-	12,000/=
4	Harun Koross	9,600/=	-	9,600/=
5	Robert Namanga	6,000/=	200/=	6,200/=
6	Shadrack Lagat	12,000/=	-	12,000/=
7	Samson Ndengu	6,000/=	40/=	6,040/=
8	William Walubengo	2,400/=	-	2,400/=
9	Betty Khaemba	-	1,000/=	1,000/=
10	David Khatete	-	200/=	200/=
11	John Ongaro	-	2,000/=	2,000/=
12	James Okeyo	-	50/=	50/=
13	Richard Juma	-	740/=	740/=
14	Robert Nalima	-	200/=	200/=
	Totals		4,430/=	62,030/=

- For maize chenga that is not specifically mentioned in the Disposal policy, management could still ask the staff that benefited to pay or consider the same as sales only from 17/09/2013 when a price was set @800/= a bag.

- Finance needs to design an official accountable document (pre-printed Issue Notes) for issuance of the products mentioned in this report and for issuance of farm inputs destined for EDF farms. The Issue Notes for farm inputs will assist in monitoring usage and movement of these products.

MIN 4: 09/02/2015 Chairman's Welcoming Remarks

The Chairman called the meeting to order at 11.11 am and an opening prayer was offered by Eunice Ombachi. The chairman apologized for the late take off for the meeting because of the other meeting that commenced at 8.30 am where some of the committee members were expected to attend. He further noted that the mandate of the committee besides sales and production projections was to also discuss and approve prices for various products within the company.

MIN 5: 09/02/2015 Remarks from planning Secretariat

The secretary to planning committee reminded members that the prices of these products were reviewed during the meeting of 27/08/14. However the prevailing market prices have changed due to the reduction in commercial maize purchase price by National Cereal and Produce Board (NCPB) from Kshs. 3,000 to Kshs. 2,300, though current prevailing price in Kitale in the region is Kshs. 1,600 per 90 kg bag. In view of this the company is not able to dispose off these by products which keeps on accumulating high handling charges and occupying storage space which should be used for storing seeds. The secretary also noted the proceeds from the sales will also be used to improve the cash flow.

MIN 6:09/02/15-Price review of by products

The Sales and Marketing department presented the request for the review as per the earlier remarks by the secretary to the committee. The Head of Sales and Marketing department noted that the change in prices of commercial maize also fluctuates due to cheap maize coming from Uganda. The proposal was done together with the finance department and its worth noting that not all by products were affected since other products prices had been determined during the planning committee meeting of 27.08.14.

The committee during the deliberations noted the following;

1. There was need to be a policy on pricing of by products
2. The pricing should be guided by Agricultural Food and Fisheries Authority (AFFA) prices.
3. The grading of maize into 1st, 2nd and 3rd grade should be spearheaded by Quality Assurance department.
4. Future price review should be accompanied by departmental price proposals.

After a lengthy deliberation the committee resolved that the prices be reviewed as follows and this proposal be presented to the board.

S/No.	Item	Unit/pack	Previous Approved price	Current approved price	Approx. current market price	New proposed price	New approved price
1	Maize rejects 1st grade	90kgs	3,000.00	2,500.00	1,800.00	1,800.00	1,600.00
2	Maize rejects 2nd grade	90kgs	1,250.00	2,500.00	1,200.00	1,250.00	1,200.00
3	Maize rejects 3rd grade	90kgs	1,250.00	1,800.00	800.00	800.00	700.00
4	Finger millet	90kgs	-	6,750.00	4,500.00	4,500.00	4,950.00
5	Commercial Wheat	90kgs	3,500.00	3,000.00	2,600.00	2,600.00	3,000.00

For commercial wheat the committee was reminded that the board had set a reserve price of Kshs. 3,000 and therefore any change would only be effected after the Managing Director has had a consultation with Cereal Association of Kenya.

The committee agreed that the purchase price of maize rejects should also be revised in tandem with the prevailing changes in the market prices.

The committee also resolved that the staff price be set at 10% below the commercial price i.e Kshs. 1,450 for 1st grade maize.

MIN 7:09/02/2015- Price review of EDF products

After lengthy deliberations the committed resolved that the prices for these products be set as follows;

MIN 8: 09/02/2015- Price review of low germ sunflower

The committee was briefed on existence of low germ sunflower stocks in the company. Some of these had been approved by board for disposal/sale. The committee tasked Pasture/Sunflower, Finance, Marketing and Planning team to meet and work on the proposal and present the proposal to a sub-committee of planning committee for approval.

MIN 9: 09/02/2015- Any Other Business.

Being no other business the meeting came to an end with a word of prayer from Mr. Alphonse Laboso at 2.30 pm.

Dear Hon Speaker,

RE: VETTING OF PERSONS NOMINATED TO THE POSITIONS OF CABINET SECRETARY AND PRINCIPAL SECRETARY

Kindly receive warmest compliments from the Commission on Administrative Justice (Office of the Ombudsman). The Commission is a Constitutional Commission established under Article 59(4) and Chapter Fifteen of the Constitution, and the Commission on Administrative Justice Act, 2011.

The Commission has a mandate, inter-alia, to investigate any conduct in affairs or any act or omission in public administration in any sphere of Government and complaints of abuse of power, unfair treatment, injustice or unlawful, oppressive, unfair or unresponsive official conduct; the Commission has a quasi-judicial mandate to deal with matters through conciliation, mediation and negotiation where appropriate.

In the conduct of its functions, the Commission has powers to conduct investigations on its own initiative or on a complaint made by a member of the public. Under S.8 (h) of the Act, the Commission has the mandate of providing Advisory Opinions or proposals on im...

nistration, including review of legislation, codes of conduct, processes and edures

ttention of the Commission has been drawn to the nomination of Cabinet taries and Principal Secretaries by His Excellency the President and the quent pronouncements by the Honourable Speaker of the National nbly on 2nd December 2015 concerning the vetting of the said candidates e National Assembly. While we appreciate the powers of the President to nate individuals for the aforestated positions, we wish to point out that the should be exercised in accordance with the Constitution. Any deviation the Constitutional provisions and precepts would, therefore, impugn the titution. Having said that, we wish to point out the particular issues raised ding the aforestated nominations for consideration during the approval ess as follows:

That the nomination of Hon. Sen. Charles Cheruiyot Keter and Hon. Daniel Kazungu Musee who are sitting Members of Parliament to the positions of Cabinet Secretaries for Mining, and for Energy and Petroleum respectively may be unconstitutional if, at the point of vetting, they have not presented a letter of resignation from their elected positions. They are ineligible for appointment to such positions while still serving in their aforesaid positions. We have analysed the Constitution and noted that Article 152(3) of the Constitution makes sitting Members of Parliament ineligible for appointment as Cabinet Secretaries. The said provision states that 'a Cabinet Secretary shall not be a Member of Parliament.' The import of this provision is that any sitting Member of Parliament is not eligible for appointment as a Cabinet Secretary. In the event that they are nominated, they should first resign from their positions as Members of Parliament before consideration for vetting by the National Assembly. In our humble opinion, to be vetted, approved then resign before swearing is a breach of the Constitution since eligibility is a constant requirement nomination, during vetting, at the point of approval and on the casion of swearing-in.

ot clear whether the two nominees have resigned from their positions ey await the vetting. It is our opinion that the Assembly should ensure ney are first eligible for consideration for vetting by producing proof nation from their current positions.

ii) That the Ruling by the Hon. Speaker of the National Assembly of 2nd December 2015 concerning the vetting of serving nominees for the positions of Cabinet Secretaries and Principal Secretaries was correct and we fully concur, except if the issue related to the position of Attorney General or Secretary to the Cabinet.

iii) That it there is no information to the effect that the nominees for the positions of Principal Secretaries were competitively recruited and recommended by the Public Service Commission in line with A.155(3)(a) of the Constitution. We have noted this concern and wish to request the National Assembly to ascertain compliance with this requirement before considering the approval of the nominees to the position of Principal Secretary.

iv) That the nomination by His Excellency may have breached the Constitution insofar as it did not comply with the gender and regional requirement principles under Article 10 of the Constitution. We note that the gender principle is not only a requirement under the said Article, but also under Articles 27 and 81 of the Constitution. Notably, Article 27(8) requires the State to '...implement the principle that not more than two-thirds of the members of elective or appointive bodies shall be of the same gender.' The positions of Cabinet Secretaries and Principal Secretary are appointive in nature and must, therefore, comply with this principle. Further, we wish to point out that this position has been affirmed by the Supreme Court in the Gender Principle Case and the High Court in a number of matters. In this regard, we hope that the National Assembly will consider the principle as they undertake the vetting process to ensure compliance with the Constitution.

We hope that the above stated issues will be brought to the attention of relevant Committees and will receive due consideration and attention by the National Assembly during the vetting process to ensure compliance with the Constitution.

We thank you for your continued support and assure you of our highest regards.

Yours Sincerely,

RE: SUBMISSION TO PARLIAMENT, JUSTICE AND LEGAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE IN REGARD TO THE MATTER OF GENDER REPRESENTATION IN THE PROPOSED CABINET AS PRESCRIBED BY ARTICLE 27(8)

WE, the undersigned,

Citizens of Kenya, representing various non-governmental organisations and/or in their private capacities and pursuant to the request for submission of memoranda published on page 25 of the Daily Nation of 3rd December 2015 submit the following statement on the composition of Cabinet and the proposed nominees, based on the existing membership as well as persons nominated to serve in the Cabinet by His Excellency the President, Uhuru Kenyatta.

We humbly draw the attention of the Committee on Appointments and the National Assembly to the following:

1. The Constitution of Kenya 2010 reposes all sovereign authority in the People of Kenya.

2. The People of Kenya have delegated the power to nominate Cabinet Secretaries to the President BUT also given the National Assembly the power to approve for appointment Cabinet Secretary nominees.

3. The Constitution requires that in exercising the delegated authority both the President and Parliament do so in accordance with the Constitution. Indeed, Article 2(2) states that no person may claim or exercise State Authority except as authorized under the Constitution. Article 2(4) makes anything done in contravention of the Constitution invalid.

4. Article 10 of the Constitution outlines the values and principles of governance including rule of law, good governance, inclusiveness, equality, human rights, non-discrimination and protection of the marginalised. These values and principles are binding to all State organs, State officers and public officers.

5. Article 21(1) provides that it is the obligation of the State and every State organ to observe, respect, protect, promote and fulfil the rights and fundamental freedoms.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
RECEIVED
10 DEC 2015
CLERK'S OFFICE
P. O. Box 41842, NAIROBI

6. Equality and non-discrimination are fundamental rights under the Bill of Rights. Specifically, Article 27(3) states that women and men have the right to equal treatment, including the right to equal opportunities in political, economic, cultural and social spheres.

7. In the relevant part, Article 27(8) requires the State to take legislative and other measures to implement the principle that not more than two-thirds of all appointive bodies shall be of the same gender, thereby providing a maximum limit on the members of one gender that can be appointed to a body.

8. Under Article 131(2), the President SHALL, among others:

> (a) respect, uphold and safeguard this Constitution;
> ...
> (d) promote respect for the diversity of the people and communities of Kenya; and > (e) ensure the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms and the rule of law.

9. Under Article 152 (1) The Cabinet consists of—

> (a) the President;
> (b) the Deputy President;
> (c) the Attorney-General; and > (d) not fewer than fourteen and not more than twenty-two Cabinet Secretaries.

10. Article 152 (2) gives the President the power to nominate the Cabinet Secretaries but gives the National Assembly the power to approve them. In doing so, the National Assembly is required to observe, respect, promote, and fulfil the requirements of the Constitution.

11. On 24th November 2015, the President nominated various persons to serve in the Cabinet.

12. THAT Cabinet is a State Organ within the meaning of Article 260, that is it clearly defined in Article 152 (1), but IMPORTANTLY, it is a body within the meaning of Article 27(8).

13. THAT the gender composition of the Cabinet Secretary nominees is 6 (six) men and 1 (one) woman. That if the nominees for the Cabinet were all to be approved, the Cabinet would be composed of 18 (eighteen) men and 5 (five) women. It is notable that the Secretary to the Cabinet is also a man.

14. THAT, effectively, the Cabinet would violate the not more than two-thirds gender provision under Article 27(8) of the Constitution which establishes the maximum permissible membership of one gender.

15. THAT even in coming up with his nominees for the Cabinet, the President should have observed the requirements of the Constitution, since he was exercising a power conferred upon him by the Constitution and hence had to exercise it in compliance with Article 2(2) and Article 131(2)(a),(d) & (e).

16. THAT in its process of vetting and approving the nominees, it is our humble submission that the Committee on Appointments and the National Assembly must start with a threshold question on whether in form, the President's list of nominees, and effectively the Cabinet if all the proposed nominees are approved, would meet the mandatory requirement under Article 27(8) of the Constitution. This preliminary question is because the National Assembly and its Committees exercise authority under the Constitution Article 2(2). If this question is in the negative, then the Committee on Appointments and the National Assembly must reject the President's list before even considering the qualification and appropriateness of each respective candidate, and require him to submit a list of nominees that meets the Constitutional gender composition as provided under Article 27(8) of the Constitution.

17. THAT the procedure we propose is critical especially to guard against unfairness that may result by requiring the nominees to go through the rigorous process of parliamentary vetting, only to later on not to be confirmed, not because they do not qualify or are inappropriate for appointment, but because the composition of the body to which they are appointed would be unconstitutional per se.

18. THAT in any event, there is a danger that if the Committee on Appointments and the National Assembly starts to vet for approval the proposed nominees for the Cabinet, it will be continuing a violation of the Constitution which would be against the requirement of its enabling Constitution provision in Articles 93(2) and 94(4).

19. THAT to the best of our knowledge there is no matter before the Courts on the constitutionality of the composition of the Cabinet on the basis of the imminent threat that the if the nominees were approved, the Cabinet would be unconstitutional primarily for failing to comply with the requirement of Article 27(8).

As such, we humbly request:

20. THAT the objection be dealt with immediately in view of the urgency of this matter and the public interest implicated and the seriousness of the violation of the Constitution.

21. THAT the list of nominees of the Cabinet sent to the National Assembly be remitted back to the President in order that he can re-submit a list that, at a minimum, meets the requirement of Article 27(8) of the Constitution in composition of Cabinet as defined in Article 152.

22. THAT the Committee on Appointments and the National Assembly refrains from undertaking any process of vetting, approval or rejection of any of the individual nominees for the position of the Cabinet until it receives a new list that meets the requirement of Article 27(8).

23. THAT we are permitted an opportunity to address Committee on Appointments on this matter prior to the commencement of the vetting exercise for Cabinet nominees.

And your PETITIONER(S) Prays.

PETITION concerning THE FAILURE OF THE CABINET TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND PARTICULARLY ARTICLE 27(8) OF THE CONSTITUTION.

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR-GENERAL

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR–GENERAL ON CONSTITUENCIES DEVELOPMENT FUND - MALINDI CONSTITUENCY FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2014

REPORT ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Constituencies Development Fund - Malindi Constituency set out on pages 4 to 15, which comprise the statement of financial assets and liabilities as at 30 June 2014, and the statement of receipts and payments, statement of cash flows and summary statement of appropriation statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information in accordance with the provisions of Article 229 of the Constitution of Kenya and Section 8 of the Public Audit Act, 2003. I have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of my knowledge and belief, were necessary for the purpose of the audit.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Public Sector Accounting Standards (Cash Basis) and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

The management is also responsible for the submission of the financial statements to the Auditor-General in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of the Public Audit Act, 2003.

Auditor-General's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on the audit and report in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 of the Public Audit Act, 2003 and submit the report in accordance with Article 229(7) of the Constitution of Kenya. The audit was conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require compliance with ethical requirements and that the audit be planned and performed to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Bank Balance

The statements of financial assets and liabilities as at 30 June 2014 reflects bank balance of Kshs.32,405,597.10. However, examination of the bank reconciliation statement for the month of June 2014 revealed unpresented cheques amounting to Kshs.4,514,507 but some of the cheques have remained unpresented since year 2005 and no explanation has been provided for not reversing the amounts to the cashbook. Consequently, the accuracy and validity of cash and bank balance of Kshs.32,405,597 as at 30 June 2014 could not be confirmed.

Qualified Opinion

In my opinion, except for the effect, of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as at 30 June 2014, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Public Sector Accounting Standards (Cash Basis), and comply with the Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2013.

VI. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principle accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below:

a) Statement of compliance and basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with and comply with International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) with particular emphasis on Cash Basis Financial Reporting under the Cash Basis of Accounting and relevant legal framework of the Government of Kenya. The financial statements comply with and conform to the form of presentation prescribed by the Public Sector Accounting Standards Board of Kenya.

The financial statements are presented in Kenya Shillings,. The accounting policies adopted have been consistently applied to all the years presented.

The financial statements have been prepared on the cash basis following the Government's standard chart of accounts. The cash basis of accounting recognises transactions and events only when cash is received or paid by the Constituency.

b) Recognition of revenue and expenses

The Constituency recognises all revenues from the various sources when the event occurs and the related cash has actually been received by the Constituency. In addition, the Constituency recognises all expenses when the event occurs and the related cash has actually been paid out by the Constituency.

c) In-kind contributions

In-kind contributions are donations that are made to the Constituency in the form of actual goods and/or services rather than in money or cash terms. These donations may include vehicles, equipment or personnel services. Where the financial value received for in-kind contributions can be reliably determined, the Constituency includes such value in the statement of receipts and payments both as revenue and as an expense in equal and opposite amounts; otherwise, the contribution is not recorded.

d) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and cash at bank, short-term deposits on call and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank account balances include amounts held at various commercial banks at the end of the financial year. For the purposes of these financial statements, cash and cash equivalents also include short term cash imprests and advances to authorised public officers and/or institutions which were not surrendered or accounted for at the end of the financial year.

e) Receivables and payables

Receivables are funds due to the Constituency at the end of the financial year from the CDF Board and other sources but not yet received while payables are funds due to other parties at the end of the financial year but not yet paid. As receivables and payables do not involve the receipt or payment of cash in the reporting period, they are recorded as 'memorandum' or 'off-balance' items to provide a sense of the overall net cash position of the Constituency at the end of the year. When the receivables or payables are finally settled, such payments are included in the statement of receipts and payments in the year in which the payments are made.

f) Budget

The budget is developed on the same accounting basis (cash basis), the same accounts classification basis, and for the same period as the financial statements. The Constituency'sbudget was approved as required by Law and as detailed in the Government of Kenya Budget Printed Estimates. A high-level assessment of the Constituency's actual performance against the comparable budget for the financial year under review has been included in an annex to these financial statements.

g) Comparative figures

This is the first year the Constituency is preparing financial statements and hence we do not have comparative figures.

h) Subsequent events

There have been no events subsequent to the financial year end with a significant impact on the financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2014.

MIN. NO. 114/2015 MATTERS ARISING

Under Min.101/2015, on the Nomination of Hon. Festus Kiunjuri, the Committee received a copy of the court order by the Chief Magistrate at Milimani Courts dated 14th December, 2015 that the nominee has been discharged of the incitement to violence charges following withdrawal of Criminal Case No. 278 of 2000 pursuant to section 87(a) of the Criminal Procedure Code.

The Committee thereafter approved the nominee for appointment as Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Devolution and Planning.

Under Min.102/2015 on the nomination of Senator Charles Cheruiyot Keter, the Committee approved his nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Energy and Petroleum.

Under Min.103/2015 on the nomination of Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu, the Committee discussed concerns raised by one of the Committee members on the suitability of the nominee owing to his performance in some of the core subjects in his A-Level examination. The Committee however concurred that indeed the nominee performed exceptionally well in the vetting process and has had a good medical career including being Chief Executive Officer of the Nairobi Hospital.

The Committee thereafter approved his nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Health.

Under Min.106/2015 on the nomination of Mr. Willy Kipkorir Bett, the Committee approved his nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture, Livestock and Fisheries.

Under Min.107/2015 on the nomination of Mr. Joseph Wakaba Mucheru, the Committee approved his nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Information, Communication and Technology.

Under Min.108/2015 on the nomination of Mrs. Sicily Kanini Kariuki, the Committee approved her nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Public Service, Youth and Gender Affairs.

Under Min.110/2015 on the nomination of Hon. Daniel Kazungu Muzee, the Committee's attention was drawn to an audit query raised by the Auditor General in the Financial Statements for Malindi Constituency for the financial year ended 30th June, 2014.

The Committee examined the Report and noted that the Auditor-General observed that "in respect of the CDF funds for Malindi Constituency, the statements of financial assets as at 30th June, 2014 reflects bank balance of Kshs. 32, 405, 597.10. However, an examination of the bank reconciliation statement for the month of June, 2014 revealed unpresented cheques amounting to Kshs. 4,514, 507 but some of the cheques have remained unpresented since year 2005 and no explanation has been provided for not reversing the amounts to the cashbook. Consequently, the accuracy and validity of the cash and bank balance of Kshs. 32, 405, 597 as at 30th June, 2015 could not be confirmed." Further, the Committee observed that page 3 of the Report states that "the Fund Account Manager in charge of Malindi CDF accepts responsibility for the Constituency's financial statements...".

In view of the above, the Committee observed that the nominee was not involved either directly or indirectly in the issue raised by the Member.

The Committee thereafter approved the nomination of Hon. Daniel Kazungu Muzee, for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mining.

The Committee also made the following observations-

1) That the Directorate of Criminal Investigations and EACC should exercise care and due diligence while clearing candidates for purposes of Chapter Six of the Constitution and avoid sending information to Parliament that is unfounded and conflicting.
2) That the EACC should exercise care and due diligence while clearing candidates for purposes of Chapter Six of the Constitution and avoid sending information to Parliament that is unfounded and conflicting.
3) That staff of Parliament should also counter check with the Reports of the House Committees during vetting process to verify whether nominees have been adversely mentioned in any of the reports.

MIN. NO. 115/2015 CONSIDERATION OF THE DRAFT REPORT ON THE VETTING OF THE NOMINEES FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE POSITION OF CABINET SECRETARY

Members considered the draft report on the vetting of nominees for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary and made the following observations-

1. On the nomination of Hon. Festus Mwangi Kiunjuri, the Committee received a copy of the court order by the Chief Magistrate at Milimani Courts dated 14th December, 2015 that the nominee has been discharged of the incitement to violence charges following withdrawal of Criminal Case No. 278 of 2000 pursuant to section 87(a) of the Criminal Procedure Code.

   The Committee thereafter approved the nomination of the nominee as Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Devolution and Planning.

2. On the nomination of Senator Charles Cheruiyot Keter, the Committee approved his nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Energy and Petroleum.

3. On the nomination of Dr. Cleopa Kilonzo Mailu, the Committee discussed concerns raised by one of the Committee members on the suitability of the nominee owing to 'his' poor performance in some of the core subjects in his A-Level examination. 6. On the nomination of Mrs. Sicily Kanini Kariuki, the Committee approved her nomination for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Public Service, Youth and Gender Affairs.

7. On the nomination of Hon. Daniel Kazungu Muzee, the Committee's attention was drawn to an audit query raised by the Auditor General in the Financial Statements for Malindi Constituency for the financial year ended 30th June, 2014.

In view of the above, the Committee observed that the nominee was not involved either directly or indirectly in the issues raised by the Auditor General.

GENERAL AND SECTOR SPECIFIC QUESTIONS TO THE NOMINEE

The Committee posed several questions to the nominee on his knowledge of the Health sector and he responded as follows: -

Challenges facing Devolution of Health Services

24. The main reason devolution of health is facing numerous challenges is because it was undertaken without an existing legal framework. He, therefore, indicated that he intends to engage County Governments so that all parties can appreciate what devolution means in addition to ensuring that each level of Government understands its role in so far as health is concerned. The nominee also added that there is need to review the pending legislation to ensure that it addresses all the gaps.

Preventive Medicine

25. He will prioritize the allocation of additional resources to primary health care to address communicable diseases, vaccination services and curative and preventive services.

Improving Service Delivery at the Kenyatta National Hospital (KNH)

26. He proposed the following key strategies to improve service delivery at KNH:

    a. The need to decongest the Hospital by improving the surrounding County health facilities especially in Nairobi County so that only referral cases requiring highly specialised attention are handled by KNH;
    b. Put in place a clear referral mechanism;
    c. Streamline procurement at the facility;
    d. Review the legal framework which establishes KNH to determine the gaps in the constitution of the Hospital's Board; and
    e. Review the KNH Board's strategic plan to determine if it is in line with Kenya's health strategy.

HIV/ AIDS and Tuberculosis Funding in the Country

27. Having served as Chairperson of the Committee on Global Fund in the Ministry of Health in 2013, there is need to review the innovative ways of raising funds locally for HIV/ AIDS including ensuring that the Government allocates adequate funds for HIV/AIDS management.

28. On issues of TB, he reiterated that the National government has a responsibility to oversee and set policies on cross cutting issues among them TB management, with clear cut boundaries on the role of each level of Government in TB management.

Welfare of Medical Personnel

29. The welfare of medical personnel is critical and the single most important ingredient for provision of health services. He further indicated the need to ensure the ability to train, sustain and maintain key personnel in the Country is enhanced. This function cannot be left to the Counties only. While further addressing the issue of brain drain of health workers, he added that better working conditions is the ultimate solution.

30. On reducing the high cost of healthcare services, he added that the factors contributing to high cost of healthcare services may be attributed to the procurement mechanisms. As such, he proposed the need to engage with private and mission healthcare providers. He further added that the County Governments ought to be assisted to understand the needs of the health worker so as to reduce the ever increasing industrial conflict between the health workers and County Governments.

Managed Equipment Services Vis-à-vis Direct Purchase of Medical Equipment

31. Leasing of medical equipment is a concept that is gaining momentum in several jurisdictions including South Africa where a service level agreement is signed and equipment is paid for according to utilization. However, he added that the success of such a framework will depend on the preparedness of health workers in terms of training and skills to operate the equipment and that there is need for continuous consultation and consensus in handling the matter.

Universal Health Coverage (UHC)

32. He underscored the importance of reforming the National Hospital Insurance Fund (NHIF) to provide universal healthcare and ensure access to quality healthcare.

Capacity of Kenya Medical Supplies Authority (KEMSA) to Supply Medicines & Medicaments

33. He is of the opinion that there is need to review legislation on importation of drugs. While acknowledging the good intention with which KEMSA was established, which was to guarantee and standardize quality of medicines, he admitted that there seems to be a challenge preventing County Governments from utilising the pull system in requisitioning for medicines and other medicaments from KEMSA. As such, he will work towards ensuring that the situation is improved.

Establishment of Referral Facilities in Each of the 47 Counties

34. In his view, the establishment of forty-seven (47) referral health facilities ought to be a long-term goal. He indicated that bearing in mind that the referral centres offer specialised services, this may be a challenge to the sector given the capacity in terms of health personnel. He reiterated the need to build capacity for County governments.

Right to Emergency Care in line with Art 43 (2) of the Constitution

35. He informed the Committee that access to emergency care is a right in line with Article 43(2) of the Constitution. However, there need for legislation that will among other things define emergency care, explain how it can be accessed and most importantly provide for the resources to support the service through a fund.

Matters raised in the Affidavit by deponent Mr. Joseph Gituru Mahugu.
