RE: COMMENDATION LETTER

The Transition Authority was established under section 4 of Transition to Devolved Government (TDGA) 2012. TA was mandated with the facilitation and coordination of transition to devolved system of Government during the transition period of three (3) years.

To achieve this, the Transition Authority staff have had to work tirelessly, in most cases undertaking their duties under extraneous conditions to realize TA's onerous objectives of management and implementation of devolution which has been reportedly done exemplary well.

In this regard, I take this opportunity to formally recognize you for the work and dedication as a County Transition Coordinator (CTC) at Narok County that led to successful implementation of Transition to the Devolved System of Government.

While working at the TA, you demonstrated candor and unparalleled professionalism and wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

By way of this letter, I wish to thank you for this outstanding performance.

Thanks again for your efforts during the transition period.

To Whom it May Concern

Dear Sir,

RE: SILVIA MUSEIYA – AUTHOR

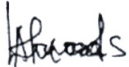

I am writing to inform you that I worked with Ms. Silvia Museiya on English and Literature in English (Senior Secondary 4) books that were evaluated and approved for use in secondary schools in Rwanda between 2015 to 2017. The rights to these textbooks were later bought by the government of Rwanda from East African Educational Publishers Limited – who was my employer then – in 2018. The books are still being used in schools in Rwanda.

Presently, Ms. Museiya has written an educational play that we, Booklyst Press Limited, are forwarding to the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development for evaluation and approval. Once approved and published, the play will be used in Kenyan schools as a supplementary reading material.

Ms. Museiya is diligent and extremely talented in her work as an author, with a desire to help mould a better future for especially the Kenyan youths. She strongly believes in documenting and telling African stories as they unfold and feels there is a lot of room for creativity untapped and unappreciated.

I highly recommend her to you.

Kind regards

RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER FOR SILVIA MUSEIYA ID NO. 25591628

Silvia Museiya is a Kenyan Citizen born and raised in Mukogodo forest, Laikipia North Constituency among the Yiaku Indigenous Community. She worked as the program officer for Yiaku Laikipiak Trust an NGO situated in Laikipia North Sub County in Kenya.

In this position, she provided worthy guidance in the implementation of climate change, Forest, and many other programs related to indigenous and minority issues at the local and national levels. She was able to successfully implement a five-year program on Building Local Democracy, Peace, and Conflict management with support from Action Aid International. This program resulted in greater uptake of Civic responsibilities by the people of Laikipia.

Silvia actively participated in the movement for recognition and development of minority and marginalized communities' rights at the local, national, regional, and international arena including an address at the UN headquarters in New York and Geneva. In 2019, she was nominated by 31 Indigenous peoples' organizations as their representative to the Climate Change Council, a process that stalled at the national assembly.

Adequate interpersonal skills, ability to work in a culturally diverse setting, Strong Analytical thinking, team leadership, multi-tasking, effective public relations, excellent communication, management skills, and commitment to working with strict deadlines and reporting were at the heart of her demonstrated competencies during her time at Yiaku Laikipiak Trust.

With this letter, I kindly recommend Silvia Museiya and will highly appreciate any form of assistance provided to her in her endeavors to further development work in Kenya and Internationally.

Please feel free to contact me should you require further information.

Sincerely

Signed

Daniel Kimalel
