Dear Mr. Twalib

RE: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ON PERSONS NOMINATED FOR APPOINTMENT AS AMBASSADORS, HIGH COMMISSIONERS, PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVES AND CONSULS-GENERAL.

The National Assembly is in receipt of a notification of nomination of twenty-seven (27) persons for appointment as Ambassadors/High Commissioners/Permanent Representatives/Consuls-General by H.E the President.

As you are aware, the National Assembly is required to approve the nominees for appointment in accordance with the provisions of Article 132 (2) (e) of the Constitution and the Public Appointment (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011).

Article 124(4) (a) of the Constitution provides that "when a House of Parliament considers any appointment for which its approval is required under the Constitution or an Act of Parliament, the appointment shall be considered by a Committee of the House"

In view of the foregoing, and in accordance with Standing Order 216(5) (f) as read with the second schedule to the National Assembly Standing Orders, the relevant Departmental Committee of the National Assembly is mandated to consider, for approval by the House, appointment under Articles 132 (2) (e).

Further, pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Public Appointment (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Committees are mandated to consider whether the nominees meet all Constitutional and Statutory requirements relating to the office in question.

In this regard, the nominees have since been committed to the Departmental Committee on Defence, Intelligence and Foreign Relations for approval hearings. As the Constitutional body mandated to oversee the implementation of the provisions of Chapter six of the Constitution, the Committee requests you to provide any information touching on the integrity of the nominees that may be in the possession of the Commission. This information will assist the Committee to effectively undertake its mandate (attached is a list of the nominees and the relevant details for your action).

We will appreciate if the information is received by Thursday, 28th March, 2024.

2ND APRIL 2024.

THE CLERK OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS,

NAIROBI, KENYA

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF THE NOMINATION OF CAROLYNE KAMENDE DAUDI AS HIGH COMMISSIONER OF KENYA TO CANADA

I am writing to express my strong support for the nomination of Carolyne Kamende Daudi as the High Commissioner of Kenya to Canada. As an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, I have had the privilege of working closely with Carolyne in various capacities, and I can confidently attest to her outstanding leadership, integrity, and commitment to excellence.

Carolyne brings to this role a wealth of experience and expertise in law, diplomacy, and international relations. Her distinguished career as an advocate span over 18 years, during which she has specialized in Family, Arbitration, Commercial, Constitutional, and Criminal law. She has also served as the Vice President of the Law Society of Kenya, where she spearheaded initiatives to address critical issues such as sexual harassment and bullying within the legal profession. Her leadership and advocacy skills have been instrumental in advancing the interests of the legal fraternity and promoting access to justice for all Kenyans.

In addition to her legal acumen, Carolyne has demonstrated a deep commitment to public service and community development. She has served as the Chairperson of the Kenya Chapter of the African Bar Association and has been actively involved in initiatives aimed at combating sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV) as part of the Policare initiative. Her dedication to advancing human rights and social justice aligns perfectly with the values and objectives of the High Commission of Kenya to Canada.

Carolyne's extensive network, diplomatic finesse, and multicultural understanding make her eminently qualified to represent Kenya's interests in Canada. Her appointment as High Commissioner would undoubtedly strengthen bilateral relations between our two countries and enhance cooperation in areas of mutual interest, including trade, investment, education, and technology.

As an advocate, I have the utmost confidence in Carolyne's ability to discharge the duties of High Commissioner with professionalism, integrity, and distinction. She possesses the vision, leadership, and diplomatic skills required to effectively promote Kenya's interests and enhance our nation's standing on the global stage.

In conclusion, I wholeheartedly endorse Carolyne Kamende Daudi's nomination as the High Commissioner of Kenya to Canada. I am confident that she will serve with honor, dedication, and excellence, and I respectfully urge the esteemed Members of the National Assembly to support her appointment.

Thank you for considering this memorandum. Should you require any further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

John Katithi Mueke,

Advocate of the High Court of Kenya.

SUMMARY EXPERIENCE

I am a seasoned professional with an outstanding leadership track record spanning about 19 years of my 30 years' working experience.

I am currently serving as an Ag Chief Officer, People and Culture at ZEP-RE Reinsurance a role I transitioned into after successfully executing a transformation project for the organisation.

Prior to this I was the Technical Advisor to the Cabinet Secretary in the Ministry of Public Service, Gender, Senior Citizens Affairs and Special Programmes and the Principal Secretary alternate at the Salaries and Remuneration Commission. I also served as a joint secretary to the Ministerial Management Board of the Ministry and as the secretary to the Departmental Management Committee of the State Department for Public Service.

Previously, I served as a Director at Coach Development Institute (CDI) Africa and Associate Director at Deloitte East Africa, where I headed the Human Resources (HR) Department for close to 11 years. I have also worked with PricewaterhouseCoopers and Altima Africa as a HR Consultant.

I possess an exceptional blend of experience as a line manager leading an international professional services firm and also a consultant delivering pragmatic solutions to leading organsiations locally and in the region. My experience is also broad and rich, having been gained in the public and the private sectors.

Additionally, I have a solid academic background as a top student at Cambridge University (UK), graduating with a Master of Philosophy degree, the best student in my Master of Business Administration (MBA) class at the University of Nairobi and a holder of a First Class Honors Bachelor of Commerce degree, from Kenyatta University.

As a professional, I am well credentialed being a Certified Executive Leadership Coach, a Certified Organizational Effectiveness Coach, a Certified Ken Blanchard Situational Leadership Trainer, a Certified Development Dimensions International (DDI) Trainer and a Certified Facilitator by Deloitte, among others. I am also a member of the Institute of Human Resource Management.

I am adjunct faculty at the Strathmore Business School and a Board member of the Institute of Directors of Kenya and Home Afrika Ltd. I have also been a speaker at numerous Leadership and HR forums.

KEY SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

Inspirational leadership

More than half of my working experience has been in leading teams, where my key role has been to provide overall strategic direction and meaningfully rally the teams behind it.

At the Ministry, I coordinated the top leadership of the State Department for Public Service to unbundle the mandate of the State Department. While at Deloitte I was responsible for building leadership capability for the Executive and Management as well as capacity for staff.

I consider collaborative working as one of the key drivers of my success as a leader. My leadership certifications have also contributed to making me an effective leader.

Results orientation

As a team leader one of my key responsibilities has been translating strategic priorities into operational reality, including ensuring clarity of targets, availability of the right resources (human and financial) and ongoing measurement to stay on track.

Within the Ministry I introduced tracking of action points generated at the Ministerial Management Board and Departmental Management Committee meetings to keep members accountable and to ensure the set targets are met. At Deloitte I insititutionalised performance management both at the individual and corporate level.

I also helped several of my consultancy clients inculcate a results oriented culture within their institutions.

People, leadership and organizational development

I possess deep knowledge of managing people and creating leaders and organisations that help people excel. At Deloitte I reviewed and redefined the organization structure and people management systems to drive performance and productivity. Most of my professional advisories have also been in people, leadership and organizational development.

As a certified coach, trainer and facilitator, I have worked with many leaders to help them enhance their leadership impacts and grow overall team engagement and productivity.

Driving change in complexity

The bulk of my work in Deloitte entailed driving change, starting with the integration of Deloitte East Africa and later Deloitte Africa, as well as institutionalising several productivity enhancing interventions. This entailed, inter alia, working through diverse situations, cultures, levels of staff, different levels of organizational maturity. It also meant creatively navigating resistance.

Working in the public sector and in consulting has also afforded me numerous opportunities to tackle complex situations.

Stakeholder management

The nature of my work has meant interaction with diverse stakeholders including staff, management, boards, government agencies and service providers, among others. These experiences have greatly honed my skills in stakeholder management, including defining criteria to aid in stakeholder categorisation and developing suitable interventions for each stakeholder category.

Successful management of stakeholders has borrowed heavily on my knowledge of managing people and my advanced communication skills,

Commercial awareness and resource management

My experience at senior management level has given me a good appreciation of the key levers/drivers of business/organisational success and how to manage them.

I have also been involved in determining and managing departmental budgets to ensure adequacy and optimal utilization of available resources. In addition, I have spearheaded several cost containment initiatives.

Governance

I have experience setting up and recommending organisation structures, including advising on best practice governance structures. I have also been involved in quality assuring processes and deliverables.

I have served in Boards and currently serving on the Board of Christ is the Answer Ministries (CITAM). I have also undergone corporate governance training.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

May 2023 to date

Ag. Chief Officer, People and Culture
ZEP-RE (PTA Reinsurance Company)

My key responsibility is to assist ZEP-RE drive a sustainably high-performance culture. This includes revamping the performance management system, establishing internal grading and pay equities, creating career paths for staff and designing an aligned corporate staff training and development programme.

So far I have completed revamping the performance management system with the following key milestones achieved:

- Development of a defined performance management calendar;
- Definition of clear corporate and departmental goals using the Balanced Scorecard (BSC) approach;
- Alignment of individual goals to corporate and departmental goals;
- Training of all staff on performance management, including effective goal setting and appraisal;
- Review of individual KPIs to ensure that they are effective (aligned, SMART and comprehensive);
- Successful conduct of the 2023 mid and year-end reviews;
- Performance calibration through the talent round tables; and
- Link of the performance results to rewards and sanctions.

This has enabled ZEP-RE to lay a solid foundation for value creation with a clear line of sight between individual and corporate goals, an institutionalized objective performance measurement criterion, a clear link between performance and rewards and sanctions and credible data to guide management decisions.

1. PERSONAL DETAILS	Nationality:	Kenyan
	Sex:	Male
	Marital Status:	Married with three Children
	Languages:	English, Swahili, French (ltd)
	Date of Birth:	20/02/1969
	Religion:	Christianity

2. SUMMARY BIO

Dr. Peter Mutuku Mathuki is the Secretary General of the East African Community (EAC). He serves as the Principal Executive Officer of the Community and as the Secretary to the Summit of the EAC Heads of State. He also coordinates the EAC Council of Ministers meetings and oversees all the institutions of the East African Community.

Dr. Mathuki is an ardent champion of the EAC regional integration and has left an indelible mark in his previous roles.

He served as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the East African Business Council (EABC), (2018-2021). He was instrumental in driving and articulating the Private Sector priorities in EAC decision-making process. Herein, he spearheaded many international, continental and regional high-level public-private dialogues which resulted in the resolution of bottlenecks hindering the growth of intra-EAC trade and investment.

Dr. Mathuki served as a Member of Parliament of the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) - (2012-2017), where he chaired the EALA Committee responsible for good governance and served in the Committees of Accounts and Trade & Investment.

He worked at the European Union (EU) programs for Africa based in Asmara, Eritrea (2010-2012) and prior to that, he served as Director in charge of International Labour Standards (ILO) at the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU-Africa now ITUC-Africa) (2004-2008).

Dr. Mathuki has actively played a pivotal role in overseeing the coming into effect of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) and championed the formation of the African Business Council, in a bid to reposition the EAC bloc to reap the benefits availed by the continental market. He was also instrumental in creating several regional platforms critical in the negotiation of the EAC Common Market Protocol and Regional economic issues since 2004 such as the East African Employers Association (EAEA) and the East African Trade Union Confederation (EATUC).

He sits on various boards across the region, including all boards of EAC institutions. His career in global leadership has seen him establish strong global and private-sector networks including the diaspora community across the world.

Dr. Mathuki holds an MBA and PhD in Strategic Management & Regional Integration from the University of Nairobi, Kenya.

3. AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS	1. Award by the East African Business Council for outstanding contribution to growth of private sector development in the East Africa Community, and for actively playing a pivotal role in overseeing the coming into effect of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) and championing the formation of the African Business Council. 2. Certificate of recognition by the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) for exemplary service as a member and for serving as the Chair of the Parliamentary Committee responsible for good governance, legal and rules of the Assembly. 3. Summary

I am an all-round public sector leader who is inspired by the idea that a progressive society is dependent on a facilitative government. Until recently, I was the Director General and CEO of the Communication Authority of Kenya (CA), a leading regulatory agency for the ICT sector in Kenya. Before CA, I was a principal partner at Chil & Kemp Strategies Ltd, a strategy management company, where I focused on strategy and risk management, policy and regulatory analysis, and leadership and management effectiveness. Previously, I served as the Chief Executive Officer/Commission Secretary of the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC) between 2015 – 2018. I was responsible for the management and administration of unparalleled large-scale and complex national election programme. Prior to that, I had worked with other reputable international and local organisations including the UN. My experience spans over 17 years in public sector management including policy, legislation, financial management, stakeholder management, risk management and leadership. I also served as a board member of the Youth Enterprise Development Fund. I have immense public sector experience at both local and international levels with the ability to work across borders for socio-economic dividends for our country.

I hold an MSc in Major Programme Management (MMPM) from the University of Oxford (UK) and an MA in Public Policy (MPP) from the Central European University (Hungary). I graduated with a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Nairobi and was admitted to the Roll of Advocates of the High Court in Kenya. In 2015, I was named among the Top 40 under 40 Men by the Business Daily.

9/4/24

Dear Sir

PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL

I would like to give my appreciation for the invitation to appear before the Departmental Committee on Defence, Intelligence and Foreign Relations on 9th April, 2024 at Parliament Buildings, Nairobi.

Pursuant to Section 6 (10) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011), I wish to inform you that I will not appear before the said Committee at the time and venue specified for approval hearing. This has been occasioned by personal and compelling family matters, which (matters) after taking into consideration will not allow me to take up the position of High Commissioner to Ghana as nominated by His Excellency the President on 9th March, 2024. Therefore, to save precious time for other important Parliamentary Business and as per the provisions of the Act (aforementioned) kindly note and this letter serves as Notice not to appear.

Once again, I thank you for the invitation.
