To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: CPA M'MBIJJEWE SHEILA MARY RIZIKI-M/NO 1724

We wish to confirm that CPA M'mbijjewe Sheila Mary Riziki, member number 1724 is a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya, which is the professional accountancy body recognized by Law to regulate Accountants in Kenya.

Members of the Institute who are in good standing are required to adhere to the code of Ethics for Accountants, pay subscriptions on time and attain the required hours of continuous professional development training in each calendar year.

We confirm that CPA Sheila is a member in good standing as of this date.

Kindly therefore accord the required assistance to her.

Yours faithfully,

CPA Nebart Avutswa
Manager, Compliance
FOR: CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Sheila was able to manage difficult situations and large teams at the Bank. She was in charge of the retail division during a robbery at one of the branches and was key in evacuating the head office during a fire.

Sheila's experience, network, and depth of knowledge of the financial sector in Kenya would be, in my opinion, invaluable in the running of the Central Bank of Kenya. As far as I am aware, she has sat on the Board of the Capital Markets Authority and more recently on the Monetary Policy Committee at the Central Bank of Kenya.

I believe that Sheila would be an asset to the Central Bank of Kenya and would have no hesitation in recommending her to the position of Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya.

Yours Faithfully

RE: Reference for Sheila MMbijewe in her application for the position of Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya.

Dear Mrs. Otwala,

I am happy to provide Sheila MMbijewe with a reference in her application for the position of Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya.

I have known Sheila for nearly 10 years and have always found her to be a disciplined and hard working person of integrity.

Sheila's qualifications and depth of experience in the financial sector of Kenya speaks for itself. Most recently she was one of the founding members of the Monetary Policy Committee of the Central Bank of Kenya. This committee in its first seven years of existence has been credited with creating a stable macroeconomic environment for Kenya and for maintaining inflation within the target levels set by the Treasury.

Sheila has in her career set many firsts in the financial Sector in Kenya. Prior to working at the Central Bank of Kenya, Sheila was the first woman to be appointed as an Executive Director of a publically quoted Kenyan bank. In this role she also played her part on international advisory boards giving an African perspective and won an international prize for financial innovation.

Sheila has sat on the boards/ committees of most of our iconic financial institutions including the Nairobi Stock Exchange and the Capital Markets Authority of Kenya. Her commitment to Kenya is evidenced in her work with Thomas Barnardos Childrens Home, Kenya Women's Finance Trust and the Rhodes Scholarship committee of Kenya.

Sheila is an MBS, recognized for her work in Kenya; it is unlikely that you will find another Kenyan woman with this level of competencies and experience in the Kenyan financial sector. I believe Kenya would benefit hugely from her services as the Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya and therefore strongly recommend her for this position.

Yours sincerely

RE: Reference for Sheila MMBijewe in her application for the position of Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya.

Dear Mrs. Otwala,

Mrs. Sheila MMBijewe has requested me to provide her with a reference in respect of the above stated position.

From 2010 to 2014, I was the Resident Representative of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in Kenya. My job required that I had a regular working relationship with the Central Bank of Kenya (CBK) and in particular with its Monetary Policy Committee. I am now based in Jerusalem as the IMF's Resident Representative for the West Bank and Gaza, having left Kenya in August 2014.

In my initial interactions with the Monetary Policy Committee, it was in its formative stages and therefore there was a continual dialog between the IMF and the CBK on the structuring of the committee and the tools that it would use in carrying out its mandate.

It is at this time that I met Sheila MMBijewe and worked with her in her role as a member of the committee. I was immediately impressed by Sheila's clear understanding of economic issues and her in-depth understanding of the workings of the financial system in Kenya.

Sheila's role as a committee member was very important in creating what is now a very successful institution within the Central Bank of Kenya. She was deeply involved with Professor Terry Ryan in selecting the economic data that would be collected and tracked for analyzing and executing Monetary Policy. She was also a key driver in the formation of the committee, having studied the work of Janet Yellen in the composition and effectiveness of monetary policy committees around the world. She visited numerous Central Banks around the world and prepared reports on these visits determining what practices they had that should be adopted in Kenya. During the difficulties experienced in 2011, Sheila's knowledge of the Kenyan financial system was instrumental in analyzing the problem and identifying a solution to resolve the problem.

Sheila is hard working and committed to her work. She has strong interpersonal skills, and her management style is conducive to constructive analysis and problem-solving. Moreover, it is evident that she has a passion to see the Kenyan financial sector become a leader not only within the African context but also globally.

I am happy to provide Sheila MMBijewe with a reference in her application for the position of Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Kenya.

Yours sincerely,

Ragnar Gudmundsson
