CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

This report contains the proceedings of the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs during the approval hearings of persons nominated for appointment as Registrar of Political Parties and Assistant Registrar of Political Parties as forwarded by the Selection Panel and communicated to the House by the Speaker of the National Assembly on 19th August 2025.

Section 34A of the Political Parties Act, Cap. 7D bestows upon the Public Service Commission the responsibility of recruiting the Registrar of Political Parties and Assistant Registrars of Political Parties whenever a vacancy arises in the offices. Therefore, in accordance with section 34A as read with paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of the Sixth Schedule to the Act, the Public Service Commission invited applications for the positions of Registrar and Assistant Registrars from the public, considered the applications, conducted interviews and nominated three (3) persons qualified for appointment as Registrar of Political Parties and three (3) persons qualified for appointment as Assistant Registrar of Political Parties, respectively. Consequently, the Public Service Commission forwarded the names of the selected candidates to the President for nomination for appointment.

In exercise of powers conferred by section 34A as read with paragraph (5) of the Sixth Schedule to the Political Parties Act, Cap. 7D and sections 3 and 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F, H.E. the President nominated Mr. John Cox Lorionokou and Ms. Agatha Wanjiku Wahome for appointment as Registrar of Political Parties and Assistant Registrar of Political Parties, respectively.

The Rt. Honourable Speaker vide Message No. 011 of 2025 dated 19th August 2025 conveyed to the House the Message from H.E. the President and subsequently referred it and the curricula vitae of the nominees to the Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs for approval hearings in accordance with section 4 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F and Standing Orders 42(3)(c) and 45(1) of the National Assembly Standing Orders. While referring the matter to the Committee, the Speaker directed that the Committee undertakes the approval hearings and reports to the House within twenty-one (21) days in accordance with paragraph 6 of the Sixth Schedule to the Political Parties Act, Cap. 7D. The Rt. Hon Speaker further directed the Clerk of the National Assembly to notify the nominees and the general public of the time and place of holding the approval hearings.

In fulfilment of the provisions of Article 118(b) of the Constitution and section 6(2), (3), (4) and (9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F, the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the print media notifying the public of the time and place of holding the approval hearings and inviting the public to submit memoranda by way of written statements on oath (affidavit) on the suitability of the nominees. The advertisement indicated that the memoranda were to be received by 27th August 2025 at 5.00 pm. By close of the submission deadline, the Committee had received three (3) memoranda from the public in support of the nominees.

The Clerk of the National Assembly also wrote to the Directorate of Criminal Investigations (DCI), Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), Higher Education Loans Board (HELB), Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA), Office of the Director or Public Prosecutions (ODPP), Office of the Registrar of Political Parties (ORPP), Kenyatta University (KU), Maseno University and Strathmore University seeking references and background checks relating to the suitability of the nominees.

The nominees appeared before the Committee on 28th August 2025 as scheduled and the Committee examined their suitability based on the criteria set out in section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F including the procedure used to arrive at the nominees, the constitutional and statutory requirements relating to the offices in question and suitability of the nominees for the appointment proposed, having regard to whether the nominees' abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the offices in question. Furthermore, the Committee examined the nominees' academic credentials, relevant professional training and experience, knowledge of sector issues and personal integrity in accordance with section 6(7) and (8) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F.

In holding the approval hearings, the Committee observed that the nominees demonstrated deep understanding of political parties and the roles of Registrar and Assistant Registrar of Political Parties. Further, that the nominees possess the requisite abilities, academic qualifications and professional experience required for persons nominated to serve as Registrar and Assistant Registrar of Political Parties.

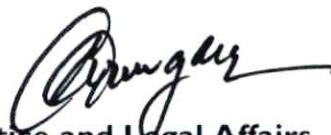

The Committee, therefore, recommends that this House—

- (i) approves Mr. John Cox Lorionokou for appointment as Registrar of Political Parties; and
- (ii) approves Ms. Agatha Wanjiku Wahome for appointment as Assistant Registrar of Political Parties.

The Committee wishes to thank the Offices of the Speaker and of the Clerk of the National Assembly for the technical support accorded to it during the exercise. The Committee further extends its appreciation to the nominees for their cooperation during the parliamentary approval process. The Committee also appreciates the DCI, EACC, HELB, KRA, ODPP, ORPP and Maseno University for providing references and background checks relating to the suitability of the nominees. Finally, I acknowledge and appreciate the Honourable Members of the Committee who sat for long hours and made useful contributions towards the preparation and production of this Report.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs and pursuant to Article 124(4)(b) of the Constitution, section 8(1) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 7F and the provisions of Standing Order 199(6) of the National Assembly Standing Orders, it is now my duty and privilege to present to the House the Report of the Departmental Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs on the Approval Hearings of Nominees for Appointment as Registrar of Political Parties and Assistant Registrar of Political Parties.

31. Article 77 of the Constitution outlines that a full-time State officer must not participate in any other gainful employment and that any appointed State officer must not hold office in a political party.

(d) Leadership and Integrity

36. The Committee, in determining the suitability of the nominees, was also guided by the provisions on leadership and integrity as outlined under Chapter Six of the Constitution. 37. In addition, the Committee considered section 10 of the Leadership and Integrity Act, Cap. 185C in particular which provides that:

- “A State officer shall, to the best of their ability—*

 - (b) carry out the duties in a transparent and accountable manner;*
 - (c) keep accurate records and documents relating to the functions of the office; and*

On political party membership

On his professional experience

55. The nominee submitted that he has the requisite experience of over fifteen years in public administration and management having served as a County Elections Manager in Kisumu, Elgeyo Marakwet and Trans Nzoia Counties where he was responsible for overseeing staff, planning and budgeting operations for the IEBC. He further highlighted that his experience in Kisumu County was particularly challenging, equipping him to be a diligent and decisive leader.

On regulation of political party nominations

On deregistration/suspension of political parties

He further stated that consistent enforcement of compliance is necessary in dealing with the issue of briefcase political parties.

On visibility of ORPP countrywide

61. Noting that the ORPP only has presence in twelve out of forty-seven counties in the country, the nominee underscored the need to reinforce presence of the ORPP in all counties to further public awareness on political parties' affairs.

On utility of Political Parties Liaison Committee (PPLC)

62. The nominee submitted that during his tenure as a Senior Elections Officer at IEBC, he interacted with PPLCs and observed that when properly organized and compliant with the law, PPLCs play a critical role in resolving local-level issues, as demonstrated in Nakuru during the boundary delimitation.

On proposed establishment of Independent Political Parties Regulatory Commission (IPPRC)

63. The nominee noted that, although the National Dialogue Committee proposed replacing the ORPP with the IPPRC to strengthen political parties, he believed that the replacement may not be necessary. In his view, the ORPP has been effective so far and should instead be strengthened.

3.1.3 Committee Observations on the Suitability of the Nominee

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: ACADEMIC REFERENCE FOR MR. LORIONOKOU COX JOHN

This is a reference letter for Mr. Lorionokou Cox John in support of his application for to be a registrar of political parties. I therefore declare that I have known Mr. Cox for a period of 3 years as a student in the school of social sciences in Mount Kenya University.

Mr. Cox did well in his Masters course work studies and I found him reasonably conscientious student who delivered above and beyond the work required in order to complete designated task. He has excellent verbal communication skills and has over the years developed reasonable written communications skills.

Mr. Cox has a potential to become a civil servant because he is dedicated and a hardworking, and given his qualities and motivation, I would not hesitate to recommend that his application for the Job be favorably considered.

REF: RECOMMENDATION FOR JOHN COX

I met and worked with John Cox between September 1999 and February 2002 while working with National Council of Churches of Kenya (NCCCK) as District Peace Coordinator in West Pokot. John volunteered his services to NCCCK project that was working on community conflict resolution and peace building initiatives. He worked as a community mobilizer, translator and community peace building facilitator. John accompanied me in most of community activities planned by NCCCK within West Pokot and neighbouring Turkana and Marakwet districts which ranged between 5-10 community activities. Due to his commitment to his work, NCCCK supported training of John and other community peace facilitators on facilitation skills, conflict resolution and peace building skills including community participation methodologies. During these trainings, John was identified as one of the best participants due to his articulation of concepts and issues discussed. At one point, John was hired temporarily as a full time community peace facilitator which meant that he was accountable for achieving agreed results.

During the period I interacted with John, I noticed that he is highly committed to what he undertakes. He has drive for results and is great in self initiatives and provided great ideas that NCCCK took on board to improve the project. John is a person of high integrity and was not compromised on principles that promote integrity. His interpersonal, teamwork and communication skills are great and I found it easy to work with communities where John accompanied me. In addition, he was able to communicate difficult cultural issues and other ideas in an articulate and precise way to my senior colleagues at NCCCK and also to Provincial Administrative Officers in these districts. John is also reliable as he keeps his side of commitment and delivers results as agreed. And just to add is that I noticed that John did a lot of volunteer work in his community.

I would highly recommend John for any position in any public related office as he is committed, focused and self-driven worker.

Yours Faithfully,

Catherine Mumbi Kimotho

Dear John,

Greetings to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ whom we both serve. I hope this correspondence finds you in good health.

We get such good reports about the COPE mission in West Pokot. You are doing an excellent job on behalf of all the children. I can't imagine where the students are coming from, but am thankful we are being given the opportunity to help 770 Pokot children learn in a Christian environment.

We are all looking forward to seeing you. I know your agreement to come to the USA to help Barb O'Donohue with fund raising is a sacrifice. The Board appreciates your willingness to leave your family and come here for a few months. You have done this before and will most likely be asked to do it again. Your presence in this country is an encouragement to all the churches and organizations that support COPE.

The schedule is going to be pretty hectic so I hope you are well-rested. The schedule is as follows:

25 March	Arrive in Chicago
25 March	Trivia night for COPE

Re: Visit to America - Passport # B070243

Dear John,

Greetings to you in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ. I hope this letter finds you and your family well. Congratulations on the birth of your second daughter. Please give our warmest greetings to your wife, Dinah and your first-born, Chepengat. Your family is growing well.

Per our phone conversation, the COPE Board would like you to return to America. When you were here in 2002, you proved to be a powerful inspiration and source of encouragement to the COPE supporters in America. In addition, your fund-raising skills were obvious. Therefore, we believe it is time for you to return.

The purpose of your trip to America would be multi-purpose: visiting all the supporting churches to inform them of the progress being made with the Nursery School, Primary School, shamba, Adult Education program and Jesus film tour; campaign for increased giving from the churches, civic groups and individuals currently supporting COPE; meet with the Board to discuss policies and performance standards. All in all, we think you will be required in America for approximately three (3) months. We realize this will be a burden for your wife and children, but it has been 2^{1/2} years since you were here and there have been many changes on both sides of the pond.

Barbara O'Donohue is returning to America mid-November and will begin the year-end fund raising. We are hoping you will be able to join her to continue the process the first quarter of 2004. She will be returning to Kenya the end of March or beginning of April so the two of you may be able to travel together.

COPE will pay for your plane fare to America and back to Kenya. We will also provide for your living expenses while you are working for COPE in the USA. Your regular wages will continue to be sent to Kenya so that your family will have financial support in your absence. It is my understanding that you and Barb are discussing who will assume your responsibilities while you are here. Joseph Lobong was one name mentioned as well as Peter Lokite. I do not remember either of these men so will trust your judgment.

The attached list indicates the places you will be visiting. Tony Billingsley is scheduling visits and will keep you informed by e-mail as dates are confirmed. Please let us know what we need to do to make your trip here as easy as possible for you and your family. We are all looking forward to seeing you again, brother. It has been too long.

Sincerely,

Paul E. Boatman

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: AGATHA WANJIKU WAHOME

Greetings of peace.

We write to recommend the above mentioned who is one of our dedicated Christians in our church. Over the past two years, I have had the privilege of working closely with her in my role as the parish priest at Nkoroi Catholic Parish, and I can attest to her unwavering dedication, capability, and integrity.

Agatha is not only a committed member of our church community but has also taken on a vital role in supporting and mentoring the children who serve at the altar. Her leadership, organizational acumen, financial stewardship, and analytical insight have significantly contributed to the growth and cohesion of our children. She works seamlessly with fellow religious leaders, demonstrating a collaborative spirit and adaptability that enriches the entire ministry.

Her involvement spans planning annual activities, managing budgets, and overseeing the execution of the group's programs, all of which play a crucial role in nurturing the children into responsible, ethical, and community-minded individuals. Agatha's influence extends beyond logistics; she helps shape future leaders and citizens through her example and guidance.

I am confident that Agatha will bring the same level of excellence and commitment to any endeavor she undertakes. Do not hesitate to contact me in case of further information.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Fr. Boniface Kimondolo O.

Dear Clerk,

RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Agatha Wanjiku Wahome, with whom I had the pleasure of working with at the Independent Electoral & Boundaries Commission (IEBC) for a period of nine years. Throughout this period, Agatha consistently demonstrated exceptional professionalism, integrity, and dedication in her role across various election-related projects.

Agatha is a reliable and resilient officer whose calm demeanor and focused approach enable her to perform effectively even under pressure. Her contributions to electoral operations were particularly impactful during the verification of presidential results in the 2013 and 2017 general elections. In the October 2017 Fresh Presidential Election (FPE), she served as a project team leader responsible for finance and procurement, where her leadership and organizational skills were instrumental to the success of the election.

She also played a key role in supervising the Okoa Kenya Constitutional amendment popular initiative in 2016, while also identifying critical risks and procedural gaps. Her supervision not only enabled provision of a report on the initiative, but also contributed to the development of procedures that laid the foundation for legal regulations governing referenda. Additionally, Agatha actively participated in cascaded electoral training programs, particularly in financial and taxation matters, further demonstrating her commitment to capacity building and compliance.

Her passion for upholding the rule of law and ensuring regulatory adherence is truly commendable. I have no hesitation in recommending Agatha Wanjiku Wahome for any position requiring a dependable, principled, and highly capable professional.

Yours Sincerely,
