COLONY AND PROTECTORATE OF KENYA

ORDINANCE No. 1 of 1953

Assented to in Her Majesty's name this fifth day of February, 1953.

E. BARING,
Governor.

AN ORDINANCE TO ALTER THE INCIDENCE OF RATES MADE UNDER THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT (RATING) ORDINANCE AND TO EFFECT CERTAIN MINOR AMENDMENTS IN THAT ORDINANCE

5th February, 1953

Date of commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Local Government (Rating) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1953, and shall be read and construed as one with the Local Government (Rating) Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance.

Short title.

Cap. 137.

2. Section 2 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor—

Repeal and replacement of section 2 of the principal Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

“Commissioner for Local Government” means the Commissioner for Local Government appointed under the provisions of the Municipalities Ordinance;

Cap. 136.

“improvements” in relation to land means all work actually done or material used on, in or under land by the expenditure of capital or labour by any owner or occupier of such land, nevertheless in so far only as the effect of such work or material used is to increase the value of the land, and the benefit thereof is unexhausted at the time of valuation; but shall not include machinery, whether fixed to the soil or not; nor shall it include work done or material used on or for the benefit of such land by the Crown or by any statutory public body unless such work has been paid for by the contribution of the owner or occupier of such land for that purpose:

Provided that the payment of rates or taxes shall not be deemed to be a contribution within the meaning of this definition;

“land” includes the value of any improvements thereon, therein or thereunder;

Cap. 136

“local authority” means a Municipal Council or Municipal Board constituted by or under the Municipalities Ordinance;

“Mayor” means the Mayor or Deputy Mayor or the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman of the local authority;

“Member” means the Member of the Executive Council of the Colony for the time being responsible for Local Government;

“Municipality” means the area under the control and jurisdiction of a local authority;

“occupier” means any person in actual occupation of rateable property without regard to the title under which he occupies;

“person” includes a company, corporation or partnership;

“rateable owner” has the meaning assigned to it by section 26 of this Ordinance;

“rateable property” includes all land as above defined, save and except—

(a) land occupied by buildings used primarily for public worship and by the necessary curtilage;

(b) land used for crematoria, burial or burning grounds;

(c) land used exclusively for the purposes of any charitable or educational institutions supported mainly by endowments or voluntary contributions;

(d) land laid out and used for the purpose of sport and controlled in accordance with rules or regulations approved by the local authority:

Provided that land used as a sports ground conducted for profit or as a racecourse shall not be entitled to the benefit of this exception;

(e) land held by the Crown;

Local Government (Rating)

“Town Clerk” and “Town Treasurer” mean the persons for the time being lawfully acting respectively in the capacities of Town Clerk and Town Treasurer for the municipality;

“time of valuation” means such date, within a period of eighteen months prior to the commencement of the financial year for which such valuation roll is to come into operation, as may be determined by resolution of the local authority and approved by the Member, as the date at which all valuations shall be deemed to have been made for the purposes of a valuation roll prepared in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 3 of this Ordinance;

“unimproved value” in relation to any land means the sum which the freehold in possession therein, if unencumbered by any mortgage or other charge thereon, might be expected to realize at the time of valuation if offered for sale on such reasonable terms and conditions as a bona fide seller might be expected to impose and if the improvements, if any, thereon or appertaining thereto had not been made. The unimproved value of land shall include any value due to any licence, privilege or concession attached to the site for the time being;

“value of improvements” in relation to any land, means the added value which the improvements give to such land at the time of valuation irrespective of the cost of the improvements:

Provided that the added value shall in no case exceed the amount that should reasonably be involved in bringing the site value of the land to its improved value as at the time of valuation, such improved value being the value of such land together with any improvements therein, thereon or thereunder, if valued together as a whole under the provisions of section 6 of this Ordinance.

3. Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in the following respects—

(a) by re-numbering that section as sub-section (1) of section 6;

(b) by deleting the words “any rateable property in” appearing in the first proviso to sub-section (1) (as now renumbered);

Amendment of section 6 of the principal
Ordinance.

- (c) by deleting the further proviso appearing in that sub-section (1) and substituting therefor the following proviso—

Provided further that where any land is held by the rateable owner subject to a restriction as to or limitation upon the user or enjoyment thereof and such restriction or limitation is certified by the Member to be in the public interest, such land shall be valued as if the freehold in possession thereof were subject to an enforceable restriction or limitation of the same nature.;

- (d) by adding thereto the following new sub-section as sub-section (2) thereof—

(2) The Member may, for the purposes of this Ordinance, issue certificates in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, and any such certificate shall be conclusive for all such purposes.

4. Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed.

5. Section 12 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended in the following respects—

(a) by inserting the words “who has appeared before or who has submitted his objections in writing to a Valuation Court pursuant to sub-section (7) of section 9 of this Ordinance” immediately after the words “It shall be lawful for any person” appearing at the commencement of sub-section (1);

(b) by substituting the words “against the decision of the Valuation Court in respect of” for the words “against the decision the the Valuation Court in respect of” appearing in sub-section (2).

6. Section 26 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor—

26. (1) The person (in this Ordinance referred to as the “rateable owner”), who, at the date when a rate be-shall be liable for payment of the amount of such rate.

Cap. 160.
Cap. 155.
Cap. 159.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1) of this section the expression "registered" means registered in any register of titles or title deeds maintained under the Registration of Titles Ordinance, the Crown Lands Ordinance or the Land Titles Ordinance, as the case may be.

(3) Where more than one such leasehold or other interest as is referred to in sub-section (1) of this section subsist in the same property, that sub-section shall be deemed to refer to the leasehold or other interest by virtue of which the lessee, or person having such interest, is entitled to immediate possession of such property, or would be so entitled if no leasehold or other interest, not being such a leasehold or other interest as is referred to in sub-section (1) of this section, subsisted in the property.

(4) Where joint owners or tenants in common of rateable property are liable for payment of a rate they shall be jointly and severally liable therefor.

(5) In the case of the absence from the Colony of the rateable owner or any person liable for payment of any rate any person receiving the rents or profits of, or being in charge or control of, the rateable property shall be liable for payment of such rate.

Consequential and minor amendments to the principal
Ordinance.

7. The provisions of the principal Ordinance specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Ordinance shall have effect subject to the amendments set out in relation thereto respectively in the second column of that Schedule.

Transitional provisions.

8. (1) Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect—

- (a) the previous operation of the principal Ordinance or anything done or suffered thereunder;
- (b) the validity and operation in all respects of any valuation roll which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of the principal Ordinance and be signed and certified pursuant to section 11 thereof before the 1st day of July, 1953;
- (c) the like validity and operation of any addition to, or amendment of, such a valuation roll, which results from or represents any interim valuation, revaluation, correction or apportionment made, in accordance with the provisions of section 13 of the principal Ordinance, at any time before the first valuation roll prepared under and in accordance with the provisions of the principal Ordinance as amended by this Ordinance comes into operation.

(2) Any such valuation roll as is referred to in paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of this section may be prepared and completed, and any such additions or amendments as are referred to in paragraph (c) of that sub-section may be made, and the like rights, remedies and proceedings may be had, enforced or instituted under or in respect of any such valuation roll, additions or amendments, as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply to any valuation roll which shall be deemed, under the provisions of sub-section (7) of section 15 of the principal Ordinance, to have come into operation before the 1st day of July, 1953.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE INCREASE OF RENT (RESTRICTION) ORDINANCE, 1949

Date of commencement.

By Notice

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Increase of Rent (Restriction) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1953, and shall come into force on such date as the Governor may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint.

No. 22 of 1949.

(2) This Ordinance shall be read and construed as one with the Increase of Rent (Restriction) Ordinance, 1949, hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance.

section 1 (2).

2. Sub-section (2) of section 1 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding at the end thereof a new proviso as follows—

“Provided that this Ordinance shall cease to apply to any business premises, wheresoever situate in the Colony, with effect from the 25th day of December, 1954.”

Amendment of
section 2 (1).

3. (1) The definition of “standard rent” in sub-section (1) of section 2 of the principal Ordinance is amended as

(a) by deleting the words “equal to a sum” appearing in sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (A) thereof;

(b) by adding to sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (A) thereof a proviso as follows—

“Provided that where the premises were or are erected after the 1st day of January, 1953, “standard rent” means a rent assessed by the Board not exceeding the sum of ten per centum per annum of the market cost of construction of the premises at the date of completing such construction plus five per centum per annum of the market value of the land at the date of completing such construction;”;

Increase of Rent (Restriction)

(c) by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph as follows—

“For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that where in this definition reference is made to the assessment of any rent by the Board, or to the determination of any sum by the Board, such assessment or, as the case may be, such determination shall, within the limits imposed by the definition, be at the absolute discretion of the Board and shall, for the purposes of section 7 of this Ordinance, be deemed to be a question of fact.”.

(2) Sub-section (1) of section 2 of the principal Ordinance is further amended by inserting therein, immediately following the definition of “dwelling house”, a new definition as follows—

“‘erect’, with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, means, in relation to a building, complete the construction of such building;”.

4. Paragraph (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 2 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the word “similar” appearing therein the word “comparable”. Amendment of section 2 (2).

5. Section 5 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows— Amendment of section 5.

(a) by substituting for the words “to fix” appearing at the beginning of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) thereof the words “to fix in the case of any premises, at its discretion and in accordance with the requirements of justice;”;

(b) by inserting at the beginning of paragraph (f) of sub-section (1) thereof the words “subject to the provisions of section 16 of this Ordinance;”;

(c) by deleting the words “of which, but for the provisions of this Ordinance, the landlord could have recovered possession”, appearing in paragraph (g) of sub-section (1) thereof;

(d) by substituting for paragraph (h) of sub-section (1) thereof the following—

“(h) to allocate to any suitable tenant at such rent as the Central Board or the Coast Board, as the case may be, may fix, any place of residence which without good cause has been left unoccupied for a period exceeding one month, and by order to direct the landlord, and any person who has entered into occupation of such place of residence subsequently to the allocation thereof as aforesaid, to deliver up possession of such place of residence to the tenant to whom the same has been allocated as aforesaid on or before such date as may be specified in the order;”;

(e) by substituting for paragraph (i) of sub-section (1) thereof the following—

“(i) where the landlord fails to carry out any repairs for which he is liable, to order the landlord to carry out such repairs, and, if the landlord fails to carry out such repairs within the time specified in the order, then, without prejudice to any penalty to which the landlord may be liable under this Ordinance, to have the required repairs carried out and to recover the cost thereof either from the landlord or by requiring the tenant to pay the rent to the Central Board or the Coast Board, as the case may be, for such period as may be required to defray the cost of such repairs, and the receipt of such Board shall be a good discharge for any rent so paid;”;

(f) by deleting the proviso to paragraph (o) of sub-section (1) thereof;

(g) by adding at the end of sub-section (1) thereof a new paragraph as follows—

“(p) at any time, of its own motion, or for good cause shown on an application by any landlord or tenant, to re-open any proceedings in which it has given any decision, determined any question, or made any order, and to revoke, vary or amend such decision, determination or order:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to prejudice or affect the right of any person under section 7 of this Ordinance to appeal to the Supreme Court from any such decision, determination or order as aforesaid, or from the revocation, variation or amendment of any such decision, determination or order:

And provided that the powers conferred on the Board by this paragraph shall not be exercised in respect of any decision, determination or order while an appeal therefrom is pending or in a manner inconsistent with or repugnant to the decision of the appellate court on such an appeal.”;

(h) by adding at the end thereof a new sub-section, to be numbered (5), as follows—

“(5) Where, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (i) of sub-section (1) of this section, the Board is entitled to recover any sum of money from any person, the Board may make an order directing that person to pay such sum of money to the Board:

Provided that no such order shall be enforced under section 32 of this Ordinance unless and until, in addition to filing a certified copy thereof in the court, the Board also serves notice of such filing on the person against whom such order is made:

And provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of this Ordinance, an appeal from any such order shall lie to the Supreme Court.”.

6. Sub-section (4) of section 6 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words “(k) and (l) of sub-section (1)” appearing therein the words “(k), (l) and (p) of sub-section (1)”.

Amendment of section 6 (4).

7. The principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for section 8 thereof the following—

Amendment of section 8.

“8. (1) It shall be the duty of the landlord of any premises which are let for the first time after the commencement of this Ordinance, or of which, if let before the commencement of this Ordinance, the rent has not been determined by the Board, to apply to have the rent of such premises determined by the Board.

Duty of landlord of premises let.

(2) Applications under sub-section (1) of this section shall be made—

(a) in the case of premises which are let for the first time after the commencement of this Ordinance, as soon as possible after the premises are so let; and

(b) in the case of premises let before the commencement of this Ordinance, but of which the rent has not been determined by the Board, forthwith on the coming into force of this section in its present form.

(3) If any landlord to whom this section applies fails to comply with any of the provisions thereof, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(4) Nothing contained in section 216 of the Criminal Procedure Code shall operate to preclude the trial of offences under this section by a subordinate court whenever the charge or complaint relating thereto be laid.”.

Amendment of section 9 (5).

8. Sub-section (5) of section 9 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words “such order in the matter” appearing therein the words “such order in the matter, being an order which it is by this Ordinance empowered to make.”.

Amendment of section 13 (1).

9. Section 13 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) thereof the following—

“(a) (i) where the premises were erected before the 1st day of January, 1953, but after the 31st day of December, 1945—

(A) in the case of a dwelling-house, by an amount not exceeding ten per centum of the standard rent; and

(B) in the case of business premises, by an amount not exceeding twenty per centum of the standard rent;

(ii) where the premises were erected before the 1st day of January, 1946, but after the prescribed date, by an amount not exceeding twenty per centum of the standard rent;

Increase of Rent (Restriction)

No. 8

(iii) where the premises were erected before the prescribed date, by an amount not exceeding thirty-five per centum of the standard rent:

Provided that where such rent has previously been increased under the provisions of this Ordinance or of any Ordinance in force before the commencement of this Ordinance, the increase permitted shall be limited to such sum as is required to make the total increase up to the percentage increase now permitted by this paragraph;”.

10. Sub-section (2) of section 15 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the proviso thereto the following—

Amendment of section 15 (2).

“Provided that where the rent of any premises is increased, under and by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 13 of this Ordinance, on account of an increase in rates or of the imposition of rates not previously payable, such increase in rent shall be payable by the tenant,

- (i) if the notice in writing referred to in sub-section (1) of section 13 of this Ordinance is served on him by the landlord on or before the date on which the increase in rates became operative, or the rates become payable, as the case may be, with effect from such date; and
- (ii) if the said notice is not served on him before such date, with effect from the date of service on him of such notice by the landlord:

Provided further that where, by virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any law in force before the commencement of this Ordinance, the landlord has increased the rent of any premises on account of an increase in rates or of the imposition of rates not previously payable, the landlord may, on letting such premises to a new tenant, include in the rent payable by such new tenant any such increase as aforesaid.”.

11. Section 16 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows—

Amendment of section 16.

- (a) by substituting for the words “one month’s notice to quit” appearing in paragraph (j) of sub-section (1) thereof the words “three months’ notice to quit”;

- (b) by substituting for the words "and imposing such reasonable conditions as the Board may think necessary" appearing in paragraph (k) of sub-section (1) thereof the words "and imposing such other reasonable conditions, whether relating to the matters aforesaid or to the provision or availability of alternative accommodation for the tenant or to the payment of compensation by the landlord to the tenant or otherwise, as the Board or the court, as the case may be, may think fit";
- (c) by substituting for the words "the landlord is the owner" appearing at the beginning of paragraph (l) of sub-section (1) thereof the words "the landlord is the owner, or was prior to the prescribed date the lessee,";
- (d) by deleting the words "or the tenancy is for a term certain", appearing in paragraph (n) of sub-section (1) thereof;
- (e) by adding at the end of sub-section (1) thereof a new paragraph as follows—
- “(p) the application for recovery of possession of the premises is made by a person who, having been the tenant of the premises, has been unlawfully dispossessed thereof by the landlord, and any order made in such circumstances may include an order for compensation to be paid by the landlord to any tenant of the premises dispossessed thereof by such order.”;
- (f) by substituting for the words "more than one dwelling-house" appearing in sub-section (4) thereof the words "more than one place of residence".

Amendment of section 18.

12. Section 18 of the principal Ordinance is amended—

- (a) by deleting the words "or give" appearing in sub-section (1) thereof;
- (b) by substituting for the words "requiring, taking or giving" appearing in sub-section (2) thereof the words "requiring or taking";

- (c) by adding thereto a new sub-section, to be numbered (4), as follows—

“(4) Notwithstanding any rule of law or of practice to the contrary, in any prosecution for an offence under this section no person shall be deemed to be an accomplice or to be unworthy of credit, neither shall the uncorroborated evidence of any person be held to be insufficient to support a conviction, merely by reason of the fact that such person, whether before or after the coming into force of this section in its present form, paid, gave or offered, or agreed or attempted to pay or give, any such fine, premium or other like sum, or pecuniary consideration, as aforesaid to the person charged or to any other person.”

- 13. Section 25 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows— Amendment of section 25.

- (a) by substituting for the words “do any act” appearing in sub-section (1) thereof the words “and no person other than a landlord shall without lawful authority, do any act”;
- (b) by substituting for the word “landlord” appearing in sub-section (2) thereof the word “person”.

- 14. Section 34 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding to sub-section (2) thereof a new paragraph as follows— Amendment of section 34.

“and (e) the circumstances and manner in which a tenant may, notwithstanding any contractual obligation, elect to pay and pay to the Board rent due to his landlord; the manner in which rent so paid may be claimed from the Board by the landlord or, if not so claimed, may be disposed of by the Board; and the amount of commission which the Board may deduct from rent so paid to it.”

Assented to in Her Majesty's name this twentieth day of March, 1953.

E. BARING,
Governor.

Local Government Loans

“local authority” means a municipal council or municipal board constituted under the provisions of the Municipalities Ordinance, the district commissioner administering a township, a district council constituted under the provisions of the Local Government (District Councils) Ordinance, an African district council established under the African District Councils Ordinance, 1950, the council of a county, county district, or county division constituted under the provisions of the Local Government (County Councils) Ordinance, 1952;

Cap. 136.

Cap. 140.

No. 12 of 1950.

No. 30 of 1952.

“Member” means the Member of the Executive Council of the Colony for the time being responsible for Local Government;

“Member for Finance” means the Member of the Executive Council of the Colony for the time being responsible for Finance;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Member;

“statutory securities” means any securities in which trustees are for the time being authorized by law to invest trust moneys, and any security created by a local authority other than securities transferable by delivery.

3. (1) There is hereby established a Local Government Loans Authority which shall be a body corporate by that name with perpetual succession and a common seal, and which shall exercise the duties and have the powers conferred upon it by this Ordinance.

Establishment and constitution
Government
Loans Authority

(2) The Authority shall consist of—

- (a) the Member, who shall be Chairman of the Authority;
- (b) a person to be appointed by the Member for Finance;
- (c) the Commissioner for Local Government;
- (d) the Local Government Inspector; and
- (e) such other persons as the Member may from time to time appoint.

(3) In the case of his absence from, or inability to attend any meeting of the Authority an officer mentioned in paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of sub-section (2) of this section may be represented at such meeting by a deputy nominated by such officer, and any such deputy shall be deemed to be a duly appointed member of the Authority for the purposes of such meeting.

(4) Every member of the Authority appointed under paragraph (e) of sub-section (2) of this section shall hold office during the Member's pleasure and any person appointed under paragraph (b) of that sub-section shall hold office during the pleasure of the Member for Finance.

(5) The Authority shall have power to enter into contracts and to hold and dispose of property both moveable and immoveable, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

Meetings and
Authority.

4. (1) In the absence of the Member from any meeting of the Authority a person shall be chosen, by the members present at the meeting, from their number, to preside at such meeting.

(2) At all meetings of the Authority three members, of whom not less than two are persons other than persons appointed under paragraph (e) of sub-section (2) of section 3 of this Ordinance, shall form a quorum.

(3) The Member, or other person acting as chairman of any meeting of the Authority, shall have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, shall also have a casting vote; a decision of the majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of the Authority shall be deemed to be the decision of the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall have power to act notwithstanding a vacancy among the members thereof, and all acts done at any meeting of the Authority shall, notwithstanding that it was afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of a person purporting to be a member of the Authority, be as valid as if that defect had not existed.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this section the Authority shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(6) The seal of the Authority shall be authenticated by the signatures of the Member and the Commissioner for Local Government and such seal shall be officially and judicially noticed.

(7) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of the Authority may be signified under the hand of the Commissioner for Local Government.

(8) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner for Local Government to carry into effect the decisions of the Authority.

5. (1) The Authority shall keep such capital, revenue and other accounts as the Member for Finance may from time to time require, and such accounts together with a balance sheet shall be audited annually by the Director of Audit appointed under the Audit Ordinance, 1952.

Accounts and report by Authority.

No. 14 of 1952.

(2) The Authority shall, as soon as practicable after the 31st day of December in every year, submit to the Member a report upon the administration of the affairs of the Authority and the working of the Fund during the preceding year together with the accounts and balance sheet duly audited in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section.

(3) Every such report and all such accounts and balance sheets as are furnished to the Member under this section shall be laid by the Member upon the table of the Legislative Council as soon as may be after they are submitted to him.

6. (1) There is hereby established a Local Government Loans Fund under the control of the Authority, consisting of such securities and moneys and applicable to such purposes as are provided for by this Ordinance.

Establishment
Government
Loans Fund.

(2) There shall, by virtue of this Ordinance and without further assurance, become vested in the Authority the right of the Government to demand, sue for and recover, and give receipts for, and the benefit of all securities for such loans made to local authorities by the Government out of the public revenues of the Colony as may be approved from time to time by Resolution of the Legislative Council to the extent to which such loans, at the date of the commencement of this Ordinance, remain outstanding; and all moneys received by the Authority on account of every such loan shall be carried to the Fund.

(3) There shall also be paid to the Authority and carried to the Fund—

(a) all such moneys as may from time to time be voted or appropriated by the Legislative Council for the purpose of providing loans to local authorities;

(b) all repayments of principal or interest made by any local authority on account of any loan referred to in sub-section (2) of this section;

- (c) all repayments of principal or interest made by any local authority on account of any loan made by the Authority under the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (d) all such moneys as may from time to time be borrowed by the Authority in exercise of the powers conferred by this Ordinance;
- (e) all such moneys as may from time to time become due upon any investment made by the Authority in exercise of the powers conferred by this Ordinance.

(4) Every such loan as is referred to in sub-section (2) of this section shall be deemed for the purposes of sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Ordinance to be a loan made by the Authority under this Ordinance.

(5) The Authority may from time to time incur and meet out of the Fund all such administrative and other expenses as may be necessary or desirable for the efficient discharge of its functions under this Ordinance.

Loans by the Authority and repayments thereof.

(Ordinance No. 59 of 1954.)

(2) The Authority may from time to time make to a local authority advances of moneys required for the proper discharge of the functions of the local authority.

(3) The Authority may from time to time make loans to the Central Housing Board appointed under the provisions of section 12 of the Housing Ordinance upon such terms and conditions as may be directed by the Member for Finance.

Cap. 142.

(4) Every loan made by the Authority under this Ordinance to a local authority shall bear interest at such rate and shall be repaid at such time and in such manner as the Authority may determine.

8. All moneys borrowed by a local authority from the Authority and all such loans as are referred to in sub-section (2) of section 6 of this Ordinance shall be charged indifferently on all the rates and revenues of the local authority.

Charge of loan on rates and revenues of local authority.

9. (1) If any local authority having power to levy rates or taxes or impose and collect dues or cesses shall neglect to pay any moneys due to the Authority in respect of any loan granted under this Ordinance, the Governor in Council may, at any time after the expiry of sixty days from the date on which such moneys become due and payable, forthwith impose and levy a rate or tax of sufficient amount which may be imposed and levied by the local authority, and impose and recover any dues or cesses which may be imposed and recovered by the local authority.

(2) For the purpose of this section the Governor in Council shall have all the powers vested in the local authority for imposing, levying and recovering rates upon all rateable property and improvements thereon within its jurisdiction and for imposing, levying and recovering taxes and for imposing and recovering such dues and cesses as aforesaid.

(3) The Governor in Council in making an estimate of the rate or tax to be levied or of the dues or cesses to be imposed for the purpose of paying any sum due to the Authority as aforesaid, may add such sum as the Governor in Council thinks sufficient for defraying, and may defray thereout, all costs, charges and expenses, including remuneration to any officer or other person employed, incurred in the execution of the powers conferred by this section or otherwise by reason of the default in payment of the sum due to the Authority as aforesaid.

(4) If, after payment out of the proceeds of any such rate or tax or dues or cesses of the sum due to the Authority as aforesaid and of the expenses of and incidental to the imposition, levy and recovery of such rate or tax or dues or cesses, there remains any balance, such balance shall be paid over to the local authority whose default led to the exercise by the Governor in Council of his powers under this section.

10. Upon all money due from a local authority to the Authority being fully paid the Authority shall, when required, give to the local authority a receipt in writing for the same, and such further sufficient discharge (if any) as may seem to the Authority to be necessary, and upon such receipt being given the rates and revenues of the local authority shall be released from the charge created by section 8 of this Ordinance.

Discharge of security on repayment of the loan.

11. Where a loan is made by the Authority to meet any expenditure of a local authority which is chargeable to a particular account, there shall be debited to that account all sums required for repayment of the principal of the loan, or for payment of interest thereon.

Charge of service of loan to particular account.

Borrowing by the Authority.

12. (1) The Authority may, with the consent of the Member for Finance, borrow such sums as may be required by the Authority in exercise of the powers conferred by this Establishment and application of sinking funds.

12A. (1) The Authority may from time to time, and shall whenever so directed by the Minister for Finance, establish and maintain such sinking funds as may be necessary or desirable for the efficient discharge of its functions under this Ordinance.

(2) The Authority shall apply all moneys for the time being comprised in a sinking fund maintained under sub-section (1) of this section in redemption of the borrowing by the Authority in respect of which such sinking fund is maintained, and, pending such application, any such moneys may be—

(a) invested in manner provided by section 12B of this Ordinance; or

(b) subject to the approval of the Minister for Finance, applied in the exercise of the powers conferred by section 7 of this Ordinance.

Stock
Regulations.

Investment of surplus moneys.

12B. The Authority may from time to time invest any moneys for the time being in the Fund which are not immediately required for the discharge of its functions under this Ordinance in any investment for the time being authorized by any law in force in the Colony for the investment of trust moneys, and any such investments may from time to time be varied or transposed.

(Ordinance No. 59 of 1954). the application or non-application of the Ordinances in the Colony relating to stamp duties (subject to the provisions of sections 14 and 16 of this Ordinance) and to cheques, and for the disposal of unclaimed dividends.

Provisions as to local bonds.

14. For the purposes of any borrowing by the Authority by means of an issue of local bonds under this Ordinance the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say, the bonds shall—

(a) be secured upon all the ~~property and~~ revenues of the Authority;

and 59/54.

- (b) bear interest at such rate as the Authority may determine at the time of issue of the bonds;
- (c) be issued in denominations of one hundred, two hundred, four hundred, one thousand and two thousand shillings and multiples of two thousand shillings;
- (d) be issued for periods of not less than three years;
- (e) be exempt from all stamp duties.

15. A trustee, as defined in the Trustees Ordinance, may invest any trust funds in his hands, whether at the time in a state of investment or not, in any stock or local bonds issued by the Authority under this Ordinance.

Stock and bonds to be trustee securities. Cap. 36.

16. Transfers of any stock or local bonds issued by the Authority under this Ordinance shall be exempt from all stamp duties.

Transfers of stock and bonds to be exempt from stamp duty.

17. If at any time hereafter an Ordinance is passed which appears to Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to alter any of the provisions affecting any such stock as aforesaid to the injury of the holder thereof, or to involve a departure from the original contract in regard to such stock, that Ordinance may properly be disallowed.

Certain Ordinances may properly be disallowed

18. (1) If at any time any interest due on any stock remains unpaid for three months after demand in writing, the person entitled thereto may, without prejudice to any other remedy, apply to the Supreme Court of Kenya for a receiver to be appointed, and the court may, if it thinks fit, appoint a receiver on such terms as the court thinks fit.

Appointment of receiver.

(2) The court may confer on the receiver any of the powers of collecting, receiving and recovering the revenues of the Authority which are conferred upon the Authority by this Ordinance and any of the powers of imposing and levying rates and taxes and imposing and recovering dues and cesses which are conferred on the Governor in Council by this Ordinance.

Regulations.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance the Member may make regulations prescribing anything required to be prescribed by this Ordinance and generally for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance.

Savings.

20. Nothing in this Ordinance shall—

- (a) in any way prejudice or affect the rights of Her Majesty the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, or of any body or bodies politic or corporate or other person or persons excepting only such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from or under them;
- (b) prejudice or affect the priority of any security for a loan created by any local authority before the date of the commencement of this Ordinance.

Repeal of Cap.
141 and
amendment of Ordinances.

21. (1) The Local Government (Loans) Ordinance is hereby repealed.

(2) The Ordinances specified in the first column of the Schedule to this Ordinance are amended in the manner specified in the second column of that Schedule.

(2) In determining for the purposes of this Ordinance whether—

- (a) any class of product is a scheduled class of product;
- (b) any article is a scheduled article; or
- (c) any article is a specified article, regard shall be had to the normal trade usage in relation thereto.

PART II—PROMOTION AND DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRY BY MEANS OF INDUSTRIAL LICENSING

Duties of Council in relation to
licensing.

3. (1) With the object of effecting on an East African basis the orderly promotion and development of industries manufacturing or seeking to manufacture for sale scheduled articles in East Africa, it is hereby declared that it shall be the duty of the Council to consider and deal with all applications relating to industrial licensing made under this Ordinance in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) The Council may, subject to the provisions of section 7 of this Ordinance, in its discretion grant or refuse any application made under the provisions of this Ordinance, and in considering any such application the Council shall, in addition to any other matters, have regard to—

- (a) the capital, technical skill, and raw materials available to the applicant;

- (b) the siting, or proposed siting, of any factory in relation to the availability of power, fuel, labour, transport, raw materials, land, and water;
- (c) the potential production of, and the potential demand for, both within and without the East African Territories, the scheduled articles in respect of which the application is made in so far as, in the opinion of the Council, such production and demand is likely to affect the undertaking in respect of which the application is made;
- (d) the interests and conditions of service of the labour employed or to be employed by the applicant;
- (e) the interests of the potential consumers of the scheduled articles in respect of which the application is being made;
- (f) the general promotion and development of industries and the avoidance of uneconomic competition.

4. (1) All applications and other documents which, under this Ordinance, are intended for consideration by the Council, shall be lodged with the Registrar; and the Registrar shall forward such applications and documents to the Council and shall also forward copies thereof to the Government of each of the East African Territories. Duties of Registrar.

(2) All acts or decisions of the Council shall be signified through the Registrar.

(3) In the exercise of its duties under this Ordinance the Council may give orders to the Registrar, who shall give effect to such orders.

PART III—OPERATION OF INDUSTRIAL LICENSING

5. (1) From and after the applicable date and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Ordinance no person, other than a person carrying on a cottage industry, shall in the Colony— Industrial licensing.

- (a) manufacture for sale any scheduled article; or
- (b) erect, establish, or operate, any factory for the manufacture for sale of any such article, except under and in accordance with the conditions of an industrial licence issued or deemed under section 24 of this Ordinance to have been issued in that behalf under the provisions of this Ordinance, and any person desirous of being granted such a licence under this Ordinance shall make application therefor in the appropriate form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

(2) The Governor may, on the advice of the Council and with the consent signified by resolution of the Legislative Council, by order amend the First Schedule to this Ordinance:

Provided that where any order under the proviso to sub-section (5) of this section has been made in respect of any scheduled article, no order under this sub-section deleting that article from the First Schedule shall be made during the additional period specified in such first-mentioned order for which the article is to remain a scheduled article.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) but without prejudice to the application of sub-section (5) of this section no article in respect of which a licence has been issued and is valid shall be deleted from the First Schedule before the expiration of twenty years from the commencement of this Ordinance.

(4) For the purpose of this section—

(a) where a scheduled article is manufactured in the course of, and solely for the purpose of, manufacturing a specified article, then the scheduled article so manufactured shall be deemed not to have been manufactured for sale;

(b) where a scheduled article is manufactured in the course of the manufacture for sale of an article other than a scheduled article, then the scheduled article so manufactured shall be deemed to have been manufactured for sale.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Ordinance, upon the expiration of twenty years from its commencement all articles falling within any class of product then contained in the First Schedule shall cease to be scheduled articles:

Provided that the Governor may, on the advice of the Council and with the consent signified by resolution of the Legislative Council, at any time prior to the expiry of such period of twenty years by order declare that any article contained in the First Schedule shall remain a scheduled article for such additional period as may be specified in such order: and any licence granted in respect of such article shall, as from the expiry of such period of twenty years, have effect subject to the provisions of the law in force on the expiry of such period.

6. (1) An application for the grant, transfer, or variation, of an industrial licence under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be made to the Council. Applications.

(2) Such application shall be made in quadruplicate on the appropriate form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

(3) Where the appropriate form specifies a fee, such fee shall be forwarded with the application; and if such fee is not so forwarded the Registrar shall return the application.

7. (1) Where any person, other than a person carrying on a cottage industry, on the applicable date was in East Africa— Applications relating to existing industries.

(a) manufacturing for sale any scheduled article; or

(b) operating any factory for the manufacture for sale of any such article, then, on such person making application for a licence in respect of such article, the Council shall grant such application and the provisions of this Ordinance in relation to the publication of applications and the lodging of objections thereto shall not apply to any such application:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall apply only in respect of the scheduled article which the applicant was so manufacturing for sale on the applicable date or in respect of which he was so operating any factory.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5 and of sub-section (1) (a) of section 23 of this Ordinance, any person to whom the provisions of this section apply shall not be guilty of an offence under such sub-section (1) (a) if he makes application for a licence within two months of the commencement of this Ordinance.

(3) Save as is provided in sub-section (1) of this section, all the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to any application made under that sub-section and to the person making the application and, in particular, the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11 of this Ordinance shall apply.

Publication of applications.

8. Every application made under the provisions of section 6 of this Ordinance shall be published by the Registrar in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance in one issue of the Gazette of the East Africa High Commission and in two issues, within a period not exceeding six weeks of the Gazettes of each of the East African Territories.

Objections.

9. (1) Any person having a financial interest in the East African Territories who claims that in respect of any industry, commerce, or trade in which he is concerned, he is liable to be injuriously affected by the grant of any application published in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of this Ordinance may not later than thirty days from the date of the last publication effected in accordance with such provisions, lodge an objection with the Registrar.

(2) Any objection lodged with the Registrar under sub-section (1) of this section shall be in writing and shall set out the grounds upon which the objector claims that he is liable to be injuriously affected by the grant of such application.

(3) A copy of any objection lodged with the Registrar under sub-section (1) of this section shall be served by post by the objector on the applicant and the objection itself shall be certified accordingly.

Council to hold an inquiry.

10. (1) The Council shall, as soon as practicable, meet for the purpose of inquiring into any application made under this Ordinance.

(2) The date, time and place of such inquiry shall be notified by the Registrar in writing to the applicant and to the objector, if any.

(3) The Council shall investigate and consider every application and objection, if any, and shall hear, record the substance of, and consider, all relevant evidence and matters submitted by or on behalf of the applicant and objector, if any.

(4) At an inquiry held under the provisions of this section the applicant shall be entitled to be present or be represented during the whole hearing.

(5) Save with the express consent of the applicant an objector shall not be entitled to be present or be represented at the hearing of an application held under the provisions of this section except during the hearing of evidence of independent expert witnesses and witnesses giving evidence in rebuttal of his objection.

(6) Save as provided in sub-sections (4) and (5) of this section the procedure at any inquiry held under the provisions of this section shall be within the discretion of the Council.

(7) The Council may in its discretion at any stage of any inquiry under this section adjourn such inquiry for the purpose of obtaining further or better evidence or information.

11. (1) Upon the conclusion of an inquiry held under the provisions of section 10 of this Ordinance the Council shall, having regard to the provisions of section 3, but subject to the provisions of section 7 and of Part IV of this Ordinance, consider whether the application is to be granted or refused. Council to make decision.

(2) Any licence granted by the Council—

(a) shall specify the scheduled articles in respect of which the licence is granted;

(b) shall be subject to such conditions as the Council may think fit to impose; and

(c) shall be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance in force at the time of such grant.

(3) Subject to the provisions of Part IV of this Ordinance, the decision of the Council shall be by majority as provided in the East African Industrial Council Order, 1948. High Commission Notice No. 31 of 1948.

(4) The Council shall forward to the Registrar a copy of its decision, and, if such decision is that the application for the licence be refused, the grounds upon which such decision is based shall be specified therein.

12. Upon receipt by him of a decision made by the Council, the Registrar shall—

(a) if such decision is that a licence be granted, issue a licence, in respect of such scheduled articles and subject to such conditions as the Council may have specified, in the appropriate form set out in the Third Schedule to this Ordinance;

Action by Registrar on receipt of decision from Council.

- (b) if such decision is that a licence be refused, notify the applicant in writing of such decision and the grounds upon which such refusal is based;
- (c) if such decision is that any other action be taken, take such action accordingly; and
- (d) in any of the above-mentioned cases if there is an objector, notify the objector accordingly.

Transfer of a licence.

13. A licence may be transferred upon application being made in the appropriate form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

Application for transfer of a licence.

14. An application for the transfer of a licence shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance; and the Council may, in its discretion, grant or refuse the application and may, if the application is granted, attach conditions to the licence and, where conditions are already attached to the licence which is sought to be transferred, may add further conditions thereto and vary or delete existing conditions.

licence.

15. (1) The conditions attached to a licence granted under the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance may be varied upon application being made by the licensee in the appropriate form set out in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance.

(2) An application for the variation of the conditions of a licence shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance; and the Council may, in its discretion, grant or refuse the application and may, if the application is granted, subject to the approval of the applicant add further conditions thereto and vary or delete existing conditions.

Revocation of licences.

16. (1) If, in the opinion of the Council, a licensee has—

- (a) failed to comply with any condition attached to his licence; or
- (b) failed or ceased to manufacture for sale any specified article, or to operate any factory for the manufacture for sale of such specified article, in respect of which the licence is granted; or
- (c) failed to maintain a minimum level of production of such specified articles, the Council may, in its discretion, call upon him to show cause why his licence should not be revoked; and for such purpose the Council may hold such inquiry as it may think fit.

(2) If a licensee who has under sub-section (1) of this section been called upon to show cause why his licence should not be revoked fails to do so, or fails to do so to the satisfaction of the Council, the Council may revoke such licence from such date as the Council may decide or may make such other order, including variation of the licence or the conditions thereof, as it may think fit.

(3) Where any declaration has been made under section 17 of this Ordinance on the application of any licensee whose licence is revoked under the provisions of this section, then the Council may direct that such declaration shall cease to have effect from the date on which such revocation takes effect.

PART IV—SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO DECLARATIONS

17. (1) Any applicant for a licence or any licensee may apply to the Council for a declaration that, subject to the provisions of section 7 of this Ordinance, no other licence to manufacture for sale any scheduled article, or to erect, establish, and operate a factory for the manufacture for sale of any such article, covered by the licence of the applicant shall be granted during such period not exceeding five years from the date of such declaration, as the Council may determine and the Council may make such a declaration.

Application for declaration in respect of scheduled articles.

(2) Any declaration made under sub-section (1) of this section may, on the application of the licensee made either before or after the expiry of the declaration or any renewal of it, be renewed by the Council for a further period not exceeding five years from the date of the expiry of the declaration or any period for which it has been renewed.

(3) An application for a declaration or the renewal of a declaration under this section shall be dealt with in all respects as if it were an application for the grant of a licence under this Ordinance.

(4) Where the Council is considering an application under this section, the decision shall be by majority, so, however, that in respect of the Colony the declaration shall only be operative if the majority of the representatives appointed to the Council from the Colony vote in favour of making the declaration.

Conditional
licences.

18. (1) Notwithstanding the fact that a declaration has been made under section 17 of this Ordinance, the Council may, with the consent in writing of the licensee on whose application such declaration has been made, in its discretion grant or refuse an application for a conditional licence in respect of any scheduled articles comprised within any such declaration.

(2) Every application for a conditional licence shall have attached to it the consent in writing of the licensee on whose application a declaration has been made under section 17 of this Ordinance together with the conditions, if any, on which such licensee has so consented but shall otherwise be made and dealt with in all respects as if it were an application for the grant of a licence under the provisions of this Ordinance.

(3) Where a conditional licence is granted, then, during the period of its validity in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) of this section—

- (a) it shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 21 of this Ordinance, be subject to the conditions, if any, referred to in sub-section (2) of this section; and
- (b) it shall be subject to such other conditions as the Council may attach thereto in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this Ordinance; and
- (c) it shall not, save with the consent in writing of the licensee who consented to its grant, be transferable; and
- (d) it shall, save as is otherwise in this section provided, be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(4) A conditional licence shall be valid only during the currency of the declaration which gave rise to the grant of the conditional licence and a period of three months thereafter:

Provided that the Council may on the application of the holder of such conditional licence and pending the determination of any application for a licence, extend the validity thereof for such further period, not exceeding three months, as the Council may think fit.

PART V—APPEALS

19. (1) There shall be established an appeal tribunal under the name of the Industrial Licensing Appeal Tribunal, which shall consist of a Chairman and six other persons, who shall be appointed by the High Commission by notice published in the Gazette of the High Commission; and the Chairman of the Appeal Tribunal shall be either a person holding or who has held judicial office in the East African Territories or an advocate of not less than seven years' standing entitled to practise before any of the courts of the East African Territories.

Industrial
Licensing Appeal Tribunal.

(2) The High Commission may, from time to time, remove all or any of the persons appointed under sub-section (1) of this section and appoint others in the stead of such of them as may be removed, die, resign, or depart from East Africa.

(3) The Appeal Tribunal shall determine every appeal made to it under the provisions of section 20 of this Ordinance and may hear evidence, and the applicant and any objector shall have the right to appear before the Appeal Tribunal or to be represented.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Part and of the rules contained in the Fourth Schedule the Appeal Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

20. (1) Any applicant, objector, or licensee who is aggrieved by a decision of the Council under the provisions of this Ordinance may, within the time and in the manner set out in the rules contained in the Fourth Schedule to this Ordinance and on payment of the prescribed fee, appeal against such decision to the Appeal Tribunal and the decision of the Appeal Tribunal thereon shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned by any proceedings in any court.

Appeals.

(2) Where an applicant, objector, or licensee under this section succeeds in his appeal, the Appeal Tribunal may direct that the whole or any portion of the prescribed fee shall be refunded to him.

21. The decision of the Appeal Tribunal under the provisions of section 20 of this Ordinance shall be notified to the Registrar who shall notify all parties to the appeal of the decision, and if such decision is—

Decision of Appeal Tribunal

(a) that a licence shall be granted, the Registrar shall issue the licence subject to such conditions as the Appeal Tribunal may, after consultation with the Council, direct to be attached thereto;

- (b) that the licence shall be refused, the Registrar shall notify the applicant accordingly or, if the licence has already been issued, shall notify the licensee that the licence has been revoked with effect from the date of the decision of the Appeal Tribunal;
- (c) that any other action shall be taken, such action shall accordingly be taken.

PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS

Rules and orders.

22. (1) The Governor may, on the advice of the Council—

- (a) by order, amend the Second and Third Schedules to this Ordinance;
- (b) make regulations generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, and, in particular, for controlling and regulating cottage industries.

(2) The High Commission may by rules amend the Fourth Schedule to this Ordinance.

Offences and penalties.

23. (1) Any person who—

- (a) contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 5 of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance and shall on conviction therefor be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or in default of payment of such fine, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months; and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding four thousand shillings in respect of each day on which the offence continues after conviction as aforesaid, or in default of payment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months;
- (b) knowingly makes any false statement in any application made, or at any inquiry held, under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance and shall on conviction therefor be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings, or in default of payment of such fine, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months.

(2) Where a person convicted of an offence against this Ordinance is a company, every director of the company and every officer of the company concerned in the management thereof, shall be guilty of the like offence, unless he proves that the act constituting the offence took place without his knowledge or consent.

24. The Industrial Licensing Ordinance is hereby repealed:

Repeal and saving.
Cap. 276.
Ord. 59 of 1949.
Ord. 49 of 1950.

Provided that—

- (a) any appointments made under the provisions of the Ordinance hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been made under this Ordinance and shall continue in force until other provision is made by virtue of this Ordinance;
- (b) all licences, conditional licences and declarations granted or made under the provisions of the Ordinance hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been granted or made under this Ordinance and shall continue to remain in force accordingly subject to the provisions of this Ordinance;
- (c) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Ordinance or in any declaration made under the provisions of the Ordinance hereby repealed and continued in force under the provisions of this section, the Council may, on the application of any person specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Ordinance grant a licence to such person in respect of any scheduled articles comprised within such declaration:

Provided further that—

- (i) no such licence shall be granted unless such person makes application therefor within two months of the commencement of this Ordinance;
- (ii) the provisions of this Ordinance, other than those of Part IV thereof, shall apply to any application made under this paragraph and to the person making the application, and in particular, the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11 of this Ordinance shall apply;
- (iii) the Council in granting the licence and exercising the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 11 of this Ordinance shall have due regard to the position of any licensee on whose application any such declaration was made.

Ordinance.

5. Section 42B of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

- (a) by renumbering the section as section 43A;
- (b) by substituting for the word and figures "section 52", appearing in sub-section (1) thereof, the words and figures "paragraph (22) of section 59";

(c) by deleting sub-sections (2) and (3) thereof and substituting therefor the following new sub-section as sub-section (2)—

(2) (a) A Council, having established a fund, may after receiving a report from a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries or a Fellow of the Faculty of Actuaries in Scotland appointed by such Council and subject to the approval of the Member, agree with any employing authority to admit employees of such employing authority to membership of the fund with retrospective effect, and may amend any rules made under sub-section (1) of this section to enable such rules to be applied to any such employing authority and to any employee of such employing authority admitted to membership of the fund.

(b) A Council may arrange with any other local authority administering a fund for the admission, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed, of any employee of such Council to participate in the benefits of such fund:

Provided that sub-section (1) of this section shall cease to apply to a Council, any of whose employees have been admitted under this sub-section to membership of a fund with regard to those employees as from the date of such admission.

(d) by renumbering sub-section (4) thereof as sub-section (3) and by adding the following new sub-sections as sub-sections (4) and (5) thereof—

(4) Any rules made under this section may operate retrospectively within the limits prescribed by the rules as regards contributions by the officers, servants and Council and as regards the calculation of the pension or other payment.

Municipalities

(5) In this section the expression "employing authority" means any local authority or association of local authorities of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, and any local authority of the Trust Territory of Tanganyika, the Protectorate of Uganda, or the Protectorate of Zanzibar which is empowered to enter into an agreement under paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) of this section.

6. Section 60 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding thereto the following new sub-section as sub-section (3) thereof—

Amendment of section 60 of the principal Ordinance.

(3) Where the Council is unable to ascertain the name and address of the owner of such building, the owner of the land upon which the building stands shall, upon being required in writing so to do by the Council, within twenty-eight days of the date of service of such requirement, furnish the Council with full particulars of the name and address of the owner of such building, and if the owner of the land shall without reasonable excuse fail to furnish the said particulars within the time prescribed or if he shall in furnishing the said particulars make any statement which proves to be false he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings, and if he shall thereafter continue to withhold the said particulars he shall be liable to a further fine not exceeding thirty shillings for every day during which such offence shall continue.

7. Section 67 of the principal Ordinance is amended by renumbering the section as sub-section (1) thereof and by adding thereto the following new sub-section—

Amendment of section 67 of the principal Ordinance.

(2) If any person shall require a supply of electricity or water from the Council to premises occupied or about to be occupied by him and shall have previously quitted other premises at which electricity or water has been supplied to him by the Council without paying all charges for electricity or water and all other sums due to the Council in respect of the supply thereof or in respect of any advances made under the provisions of section 61 or 63 of this Ordinance, the Council may refuse such person a supply of electricity or water, or if such supply has already been provided may forthwith cut off such supply, and for that purpose may cut or disconnect any pipe, wire, line or other work through which the electricity or water may be supplied, and may, until such charges or other sums together with the cost (if any) incurred by the Council in cutting off such supply of electricity or water is fully paid, but no longer, discontinue the supply thereof to such person.

Amendment of section 96 of the principal Ordinance.

8. Sub-section (6) of section 96 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

(a) by deleting the semi-colon at the end of sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) thereof and by adding thereto the following words—and a sum of which is equivalent to one-third of any payment made by the Council or Board with the approval of the Member by way of contribution in respect of any such officer to a pension, provident or benevolent fund under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (22) of section 59 of this Ordinance;

(b) by deleting the semi-colon at the end of sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (b) thereof and by adding thereto the following words—and a sum which is equivalent to one-half of any payment made by the Council or Board with the approval of the Member by way of contribution in respect of any such officer to a pension, provident or benevolent fund under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (22) of section 59 of this Ordinance;

9. There shall be inserted immediately after section 101 of the principal Ordinance the following new sections—

Insertion of new sections 101A and 101B into the principal Ordinance.

Establishment of capital fund.

101A. (1) The Council may in accordance with regulations to be made by the Council with the approval of the Member, establish a capital fund for the purpose of defraying capital expenditure and reducing outstanding debts. Such regulations may make provision for any matters incidental to the establishment and administration of the capital fund.

(2) The Council shall keep a separate account of the transactions of the capital fund and the provisions of sections 102 to 107 (inclusive) of this Ordinance shall apply to such account.

101B. (1) The Council may in accordance with regulations to be made by the Council with the approval of the Member establish a consolidated loans fund for the purpose of centralizing all loans transactions of the Council. Such regulations may make provision for any matters incidental to the establishment and administration of the consolidated loans fund.

Establishment of consolidated loans fund.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Ordinance, By-laws, Rules or Regulations the Council may pay into the consolidated loans fund established under the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section any moneys forming part of any provident, superannuation, reserve, capital, capital reserve, renewals, repairs, depreciation, insurance, contingency or other fund of the Council (hereinafter referred to as "the lending fund") and not for the time being required and such moneys shall be deemed to be moneys borrowed by the Council and shall be used accordingly subject to the following conditions—

- (a) the moneys so used shall be repaid to the lending fund as and when required for meeting the obligations for which the said fund was established; and
- (b) there shall be paid out of the consolidated loans fund to the lending fund an amount equal to the interest on any moneys so used and for the time being not repaid at such rate per centum per annum as may be determined by the Council to be equal as nearly as may be to the average rate of interest payable by the Council on their current borrowings.

(3) The Council shall keep a separate account of the transactions of the consolidated loans fund and the provisions of sections 102 to 107 (inclusive) of this Ordinance shall apply to such account.

10. There shall be inserted immediately after section 133 of the principal Ordinance the following new section—of loans.

- (a) lend, or grant, money to any local authority, for the purpose of enabling the authority to exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by this Ordinance;
- (b) make loans to any company, society, or individual person for the purpose of enabling such company, society or individual person to acquire land and construct thereon approved dwellings or to carry out approved schemes;

- (c) construct dwellings, carry out approved schemes and lay out and provide services for approved schemes;
- (d) acquire any land, building, estate or interest therein for any of the purposes of this Ordinance;
- (e) maintain any land, building, estate or interest therein for any of the purposes of this Ordinance;
- (f) appoint and employ on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine such officers and servants as it may deem necessary.

(2) Every loan made by the Board under this Ordinance shall bear interest at such rate as the Board may from time to time prescribe.

(3) The Board in considering the propriety of making a loan to any company, society or individual person, shall have regard to the financial position of the company, society or individual person and, the sufficiency of the security for the repayment thereof.

Charge of loan on rates and revenues of local authority.

8. All loans made to a local authority by the Board shall be charged indifferently on all the rates and revenues of the local authority.

Powers in relation to rate where default made.

9. (1) If any local authority having power to levy rates or taxes or impose and collect dues or cesses shall neglect to pay any moneys due to the Board in respect of any loan granted under this Ordinance, the Governor in Council may, at any time after the expiry of sixty days from the date on which such moneys become due and payable, forthwith impose and levy a rate or tax of sufficient amount which may be imposed or levied by the local authority and impose and recover any dues or cesses which may be imposed and recovered by the local authority.

(2) For the purpose of this section the Governor in Council shall have all the powers vested in the local authority for imposing, levying and recovering rates upon all rateable property and improvements thereon within its jurisdiction and for imposing, levying and recovering taxes and for imposing and recovering such dues and cesses as aforesaid.

(3) The Governor in Council in making an estimate of the rate or tax to be levied or of the dues or cesses to be imposed for the purpose of paying any sum due to the Board as aforesaid, may add such sum as the Governor in Council thinks sufficient for defraying and may defray thereout, all costs, charges and expenses, including remuneration to any officer or other person employed, incurred in the execution of the powers conferred by this section or otherwise by reason of the default in payment of the sum due to the Board as aforesaid.

(4) If, after payment out of the proceeds of any such rate or tax or dues or cesses of the sum due to the Board as aforesaid and of the expenses of and incidental to the imposition, levy and recovery of such rate or tax or dues or cesses, there remains any balance, such balance shall be paid over to the local authority whose default led to the exercise by the Governor in Council of his powers under this section.

10. Where a loan is made by the Board to meet any expenditure of a local authority which is chargeable to a particular account, there shall be debited to that account all sums required for repayment of the principal of the loan, or for payment of interest thereon.

Charge of service of loan to particular account.

11. Any local authority may—

Powers of local authorities.

(a) out of loans or grants made to it from the Housing Fund—

(i) acquire land, construct approved dwellings and carry out approved schemes within the area of its jurisdiction;

(ii) with the approval of the Board acquire land and construct approved dwellings or carry out approved schemes outside its area of jurisdiction;

(b) sell or let on such conditions as may be specified by the Board any dwellings constructed by it:

Provided that all moneys received by the local authority from the sale of any dwelling shall be appropriated to the reduction or extinction of any existing debt incurred for the construction of such dwelling.

12. Any local authority may, out of any loan or grant made to it from the Housing Fund make a loan to any company, society or individual person for the purpose of enabling such company, society or individual person—

Loans by local authorities for the construction of dwellings.

(a) to acquire land within the area of jurisdiction of such local authority and construct thereon approved dwellings; or

(b) to carry out therein an approved scheme :

Provided that no such loan shall exceed such proportion of the estimated cost of the land and dwellings or scheme as the Board may determine either generally or specially.

Repayment of loans.

13. (1) Every loan made under this Ordinance shall be repayable by such instalments as the Board or the local authority, as the case may be, shall specify and within a period not exceeding forty years or such other period as may be prescribed by the Member.

(2) Where a loan has been made repayable within a period less than the full period allowed by sub-section (1) of this section, the Board or the local authority, as the case may be, if the repayment of the loan with interest is in its opinion sufficiently secured, may extend the period for the repayment thereof to a period not exceeding the said full period from the date of the loan.

Security for loans.

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, every loan made to a company, society or individual person shall be secured by a first mortgage or charge over the land on which the dwelling is to be constructed or is situate or, as the case may be, over the land acquired for the approved scheme together with all the buildings and improvements on such land, and on such further security or on any other security, as the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, may require.

(2) The Board may prescribe the form of such first mortgage or charge and the affixation of the seal of the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, to any mortgage or charge purporting to be made under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be conclusive evidence that the same is in the prescribed form.

Loan may be made notwithstanding non-registration of title, etc.

15. (1) Any loan may be made notwithstanding that the land in respect of which the loan is made has not been surveyed or that such a map or plan of the land as any officer concerned with the registration of the title to or the title deeds of such land is bound to accept for the purpose of registering any dealing with the land is not, for the time being registered or available for registration.

(2) Upon making such a loan the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, may require the execution of such documents as will ensure—

- (a) that the loan will, immediately upon the issue or completion of such grant, lease, purchase or other acquisition as aforesaid, become secured as a first mortgage or charge upon the land in favour of the Board or local authority;
- (b) that pending the creation of such first mortgage or charge, no mortgage or charge of the land which would or might rank in priority thereto shall be created.

16. Upon all money due upon any loan being fully paid, the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, shall, when required, give to the local authority, company, society or individual person as aforesaid a receipt in writing for the same, and such further sufficient discharge (if any) as may be necessary, and upon such receipt being given the rates and revenues of the local authority or the land mortgaged or charged, as the case may be, shall be released from the charge created by section 8 of this Ordinance, or the first mortgage or charge, as the case may be.

Discharge of security and repayment of loan.

17. The rate of interest payable on a loan made by a local authority shall not exceed the rate of interest which the local authority is liable to pay in respect of the money from which the loan has been made by more than one-half per centum, and such loans or instalments thereof shall bear interest from the date of issue.

Rate of interest on loans.

18. (1) If an individual person to whom, or a company or society to which, a loan has been made—

Remedies in respect of loans.

- (a) fails to pay any amount due in respect of the principal or interest of the loan; or
- (b) has not applied the whole or any part of the loan to the specific purpose for which it was made; or
- (c) fails to make such progress as the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, considers reasonable with an approved dwelling or approved scheme; or
- (d) fails to comply with any condition on which the loan or any part thereof was made; or
- (e) becomes bankrupt, or is placed in liquidation, the Board or the local authority, as the case may be, may either proceed to recover the amount outstanding on account of the loan together with all interest due thereon, by action in a competent court or may by an officer authorized in writing by it and without obtaining any judgment or order of any court, enter upon and take possession of the land and premises on which the loan is secured, using force, if necessary for that purpose; and may thereupon sell, by public auction or after public tender, the said land and premises and transfer it to the purchaser and give a good and valid title thereto notwithstanding that such land and premises may have been mortgaged or charged in favour of some other person:

Provided that—

- (i) if the land and premises are so mortgaged or charged the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, shall transmit to the second or subsequent mortgagee or chargee at his last known abode or office or place of business three weeks before the date fixed for the sale, notice by prepaid registered post of such its intention in order that such mortgagee or chargee may redeem the loan, if he so desires;
 - (ii) except in the event of the bankruptcy of the person, or the liquidation of the company or society as aforesaid, the Board, or the local authority, as the case may be, shall before exercising its power of entry and sale hereunder, give three months' notice by prepaid registered letter addressed to such individual person at his last known place of abode or office or business, or to such company or society at its office or place of business, of its intention as aforesaid.
- (2) If any such dwelling is not completed the Board or the local authority, as the case may be, may in its discretion complete the same before such sale. The proceeds of such sale shall be applied in payment of all sums due to the Board or the local authority, including the cost of completing any such dwelling and of the sale; and the balance (if any) shall be paid to the individual person to whom, or the company or society to which, the loan was made or to any other person who is the legal representative thereof or is otherwise entitled to receive such balance.
- (3) The Board or a local authority may itself purchase any land and premises sold by public auction as aforesaid and take transfer of any dwelling sold as aforesaid and treat the same as if it had been constructed by the Board or by the local authority under this Ordinance, and no stamp duty or registration charges shall be payable on transfer to the Board or to the local authority.

(4) Any officer having any duties in connexion with the registration of the title to or the title deeds of any such land and premises as aforesaid shall make all the necessary entries in his registers and sign all documents necessary to give effect to this section.

words "Minister for the time being responsible for local government".

(Ordinance No. 42 of 1960, s. 5, with effect from 6-12-60) local authority which is inconsistent with the conditions of approval specified by the Board in respect of any dwelling or scheme, shall, in so far as it is inconsistent, not apply to the approved dwelling or scheme.

dwellings may be exempted from by-laws, etc.

20. Whenever it appears to the Governor in Council, and after a local inquiry in public by an officer appointed by the Governor for that purpose at which the local authority and other parties interested shall be entitled to be heard, that the provision made in the area of any local authority for the needs of persons ordinarily employed within that area for normal requirements is inadequate or unsuitable, the Governor in Council may, by written notice, require that local authority within such time as may be stated in the notice, to make such provision for the housing of such persons as the Governor in Council may specify.

Governor's powers where inadequate or unsuitable accommodation provided for Africans.

21. (1) Upon the failure of a local authority within the time fixed in any notice given under section 20 of this Ordinance or within any extension of that time granted by the Governor in Council to comply with any requirement notified under that section, the Member may, after written notice to the local authority, carry out such works and do all such things as may be necessary to give effect to that requirement; and for that purpose the Member is hereby authorized to exercise all such rights, powers and authorities as might have been exercised by the local authority in that behalf.

Member's powers upon failure of local authority to comply with requirements made under section 20.

(2) Any expenditure reasonably incurred by the Member under this section in excess of revenue derived from the exercise of the powers vested in him may be recovered in the manner provided by section 9 of this Ordinance.

Additional duties of the Board.

22. (1) The Board may, and shall when required by the Member or the local authority, inquire into and report to the Member or the local authority, on the necessity or otherwise of the provision of dwellings in the area of any local authority.

(2) The Board shall advise and assist in the preparation of proposals for dwellings and schemes.

Borrowing by the Board.

23. The Board may, with the consent of the Member, borrow any moneys which it requires for the purpose of exercising its functions under this Ordinance in such amount and upon such conditions as the Member may sanction.

Power of Member to make regulations.

24. The Member may from time to time make regulations for prescribing anything which may require to be prescribed under this Ordinance, and for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Ordinance, and such regulations may be expressed to apply throughout the Colony or any specified or defined portion thereof. Such regulations may provide penalties for any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith not exceeding a fine of ten thousand shillings or imprisonment for two years, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Powers of entry
of premises.

25. (1) Any member of the Board, any officer or servant of a local authority generally or specially authorized by such local authority, and any person likewise authorized by the Member may, at any hour reasonable for the proper performance of the duty, enter upon any land or building in respect of which a grant or loan has been made or undertaken to be made under this Ordinance to make any inspection or to perform any work or to do anything which he is required or authorized to do under regulations made under this Ordinance.

(2) Any person who fails to give or refuses access to any person mentioned in or authorized under sub-section (1) of this section or obstructs or hinders him in the execution of his duties under the regulations made under this Ordinance or who prevents any servant or workman of a local authority from entering any such land or dwelling for the purpose of complying with any requirements under the regulations made under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

26. The provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in substitution for any provisions of any other law which are not in conflict or inconsistent with this Ordinance, and if the provisions of any law are in conflict with or inconsistent with this Ordinance the provisions of this Ordinance shall prevail.

Provisions of this Ordinance
in relation to other laws.

27. Nothing in this Ordinance shall—

Savings.

(a) in any way prejudice or affect the rights of Her Majesty the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, or of any body or bodies politic or corporate or other person or persons, excepting only such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from or under them.

(b) prejudice or affect the priority of any security for a loan created by any local authority before the date of the commencement of this Ordinance.

22. There shall be inserted in the principal Ordinance next after section 111 thereof the following new sections—

111A. Where damage or loss has been occasioned to any land consequent upon the entry upon, or the resumption of, land under any of the provisions of sections 106, 107, 108, 109 and 110 of this Ordinance or of sections 23 to 28 inclusive of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, and any part of such damage or loss is proved to have been occasioned by the severance of the land or by injury or destruction of trees, bushes or shrubs planted thereon, or by reason of the fact that the land so resumed has, before the date of notice of such resumption, been cleared or otherwise developed for the purpose of cultivation, a reasonable sum by way of compensation shall be paid in respect of any damage or loss incurred as aforesaid notwithstanding that compensation is not otherwise payable under the provisions of any of the aforesaid sections:

Provided that any compensation so paid for injury or destruction of such trees, bushes or shrubs, or for loss incurred by reason of such clearance or development having been carried out, shall not exceed, on the one hand, the market value of such trees, bushes or shrubs, and, on the other hand, the expense directly incurred in such clearance or development.

111B. (1) Where any land is entered and resumed for the purpose of constructing or re-aligning—

(a) any railway line, station or siding, the following provisions relating to fencing shall apply—

(i) if such land is at the date of notice of such entry and resumption completely enclosed by a fence, the Commissioner for Transport shall at his own expense, on the request of the owner or occupier of such land, erect and maintain a fence on each side of that portion of such railway line which traverses such land or part thereof, together with such gates, stiles or other devices as may be necessary to give reasonable access to such land;

Responsibility for fencing on entry for construction of railway or road.

(ii) if such land is at any time after the date of such entry and resumption completely enclosed by a fence, the Commissioner for Transport shall, on the request of the owner or occupier of such land, pay half the cost of erecting and maintaining a fence on each side of that portion of such railway line which traverses such land or part thereof, together with such gates, stiles or other devices as may be necessary to give reasonable access to such land;

(b) any public road, if such land is at the date of notice of such entry and resumption completely enclosed by a fence, or so enclosed except for that portion which abuts on the land reserved for such entry and resumption, the Road Authority shall, on the request of the owner or occupier of such land, erect a fence on each side of that portion of such public road which traverses or abuts on such land or part thereof, together with such gates, stiles or other devices as may be necessary to give reasonable access to such land. The cost of erecting any such fences, gates, stiles or other devices as aforesaid shall be borne by the Road Authority, but the cost of the repair and maintenance thereof shall be borne by the owner or occupier of the land.

(2) Any claim by the owner or occupier of such land for work to be done or money paid in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall, in default of agreement, be referred to arbitration in the manner required by section 174 of this Ordinance.

111c. Where any holding of land is entered and part thereof resumed for the purpose of constructing or realigning a road, any compensation payable under this Ordinance in respect of such resumption shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to any increased value given to such holding by reason of such construction or re-alignment.

Betterment to be set off against compensation for land taken for roads.

23. Section 137 of the principal Ordinance is amended by deleting the words "by a Government or licensed surveyor, and countersigned" where they occur in sub-sections (1) and (2) thereof, and in the marginal note to sub-section (1) thereof.

Amendment of section 137 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 158 of the principal Ordinance.

24. Section 158 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words "Commissioner, Director of Surveys or deputy director" the words "Commissioner or the Director of Surveys".

Repeal and replacement of section 168 of the principal Ordinance.
Power to enter land in execution of duty.

25. There shall be substituted for section 168 of the principal Ordinance the following section—

168. (1) The Commissioner or any person authorized by him in writing in that behalf may at all reasonable times and after giving reasonable notice (save as hereinafter provided) enter with any necessary assistants, servants, conveyances and appliances upon any land or premises sold, leased or occupied under licence and may do all such acts thereon as are necessary or incidental to the exercise of the powers or the performance of the duties granted or imposed by this Ordinance, or as may be prescribed in any grant under this Ordinance or the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902 :

Provided that a valuer or land ranger duly appointed and authorized under the provisions of section 5 of this Ordinance entering such land or premises between sunrise and sunset shall not be required to give such notice but shall, if required by the owner or occupier thereof, produce and show the authority under which he claims to enter or has entered such land or premises.

(2) Whenever the exercise or performance of the powers or duties referred to in sub-section (1) of this section render it necessary or desirable so to do, the Commissioner or his duly authorized officers shall be empowered together with his or their other assistants, servants, conveyances and appliances as aforesaid to go upon and encamp on any uncultivated site, not being within one quarter of a mile of a dwelling house, on or in the vicinity of the land or premises in respect of which the powers or duties are being exercised or performed, and shall be allowed access with their servants to the nearest available source of potable water.

(3) Any person who wilfully obstructs, interferes with, or impedes any officer or person in the exercise of his powers under this section, or in the performance of his duties, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

26. Section 172 of the principal Ordinance is repealed.

Repeal of section 172 of the principal Ordinance.

27. Sub-section (1) of section 175 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

Amendment of section 175 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) by substituting for the words "The Governor in Council shall have power from time to time to make rules for the purposes of this Ordinance" the words "The Governor in Council shall have power to make rules generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may make provision—";

(b) by substituting for the words "imposing any reasonable charges for surveys or for computing the work of licensed surveyors, or for", where they occur in paragraph (i) thereof, the word "prescribing".

28. There shall be inserted in the principal Ordinance next after section 177 thereof the following new section—

Insertion of new section 178 in the principal Ordinance.

178. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 177 of this Ordinance or in the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance or in any grant, lease or licence under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902—

Special provisions relating to land held under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902. Cap. 1.

(a) the provisions of paragraph (d) of section 14, and of section 29, of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, shall cease to have effect; and

(b) the provisions of sections 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 111A and 111B of this Ordinance shall apply in relation to the entry upon and resumption for public purposes of all land the subject of a grant, lease or licence under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, in substitution for the provisions of sections 23 to 28 inclusive of that Ordinance:

No. 21 of 1953.

Provided that any person who holds any land as owner, lessee, or occupier under licence, under the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, may within twelve months of the date of coming into operation of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Ordinance, 1953, by notice in writing addressed to the Commissioner of Lands, elect that the provisions of sections 23 to 28 inclusive of the Crown Lands Ordinance, 1902, shall continue to apply in relation to the resumption of any such land, and upon giving such notice as aforesaid those provisions shall continue to apply. The Commissioner of Lands shall cause the fact of such election to be duly endorsed on the registered title of such landholder.

Amendment of Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Schedules to the principal Ordinance.

29. The principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words "Survey Records Office, Department of Lands, Mines and Surveys, Nairobi" wherever they appear in the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Schedules thereto the words "Survey Records Office, Survey Office, Nairobi".

Amendment of the Sixth Schedule to the principal Ordinance.

30. The principal Ordinance is amended by deleting the description of boundaries under the sub-heading "ISIOLO" in the Sixth Schedule thereto and by substituting the following—

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

- 1—Short title.
2—Interpretation.

SECTION

- 3—Power to adapt enactments.
4—Supplementary powers as to orders.

AN ORDINANCE TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE DISCHARGE OF THE STATUTORY FUNCTIONS OF EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OF THE COLONY CONSEQUENT UPON ANY REDISTRIBUTION OF THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF SUCH MEMBERS OR UPON ANY ALTERATION OF THE STYLE OR TITLE OF ANY SUCH MEMBER

17th August, 1953

Date of commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Ex-Officio Members of Executive Council (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 1953. Short title.
2. In this Ordinance the expression "Member" means an Ex-Officio Member of the Executive Council of the Colony. Interpretation.
3. (1) Where in any Ordinance or in any part or provision of any Ordinance reference is made to any particular Member and, at any time after the commencement of the Ordinance, a transfer of or change in all or any of the subjects, matters or departments for which such Member is responsible occurs or the style or title of such Member is altered, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by order, to declare that any such reference as aforesaid shall be construed as a reference to such Member as may be specified in the order, or, where reference is made to different Members in different parts or provisions of the Ordinance, to declare that any one or more of such references shall be construed as a reference to such Member, and that any other of such references shall be construed as a reference to such other Member, as may be specified in the order. Power to adapt enactments.

(2) Where an order is made under this Ordinance, the Ordinance in relation to which the order is made shall thereafter be read and construed in all respects as if the same were amended in conformity with the terms of the order; and where such Ordinance contains a definition of the expression "Member" or "the Member" which is inconsistent with the terms of the order, the definition shall, to the extent of such inconsistency, cease to have effect.

Supplementary powers as to orders.

4. (1) Where an order purports to be made under this Ordinance it shall be taken by all courts to be conclusive evidence that such a transfer or change as aforesaid has occurred or, as the case may be, that such alteration as aforesaid has been made.

(2) An order made under this Ordinance in relation to any other Ordinance may be expressed to have effect retrospectively from any date specified therein, not being a date prior to the commencement of such other Ordinance or prior to such transfer, change or alteration as aforesaid, and, if so expressed shall have effect accordingly.

(3) An order made under this Ordinance may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order thereunder made in like manner and subject to the like conditions.

(4) No provision in any Ordinance passed before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be construed as limiting the powers conferred by this Ordinance.

(5) No order made under this Ordinance shall contain any provision which is in any respect inconsistent with or repugnant to any Instructions which have been, or may hereafter be, passed by Her Majesty under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the Governor, and any such order shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency or repugnancy, be void and of no effect.

Cap. 155.

5. The principal Ordinance is amended by adding thereto, immediately after section 30 thereof, the following new section—

30A. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, the Bank may, at any time advance money to a farmer—

(a) to whom the Governor has, in exercise of the powers conferred by the Crown Lands Ordinance, agreed to grant or lease land for use for agricultural purposes;

(b) who has contracted to purchase or otherwise acquire, from any person, land for use for agricultural purposes.

(2) Any such advance shall be made for the purpose of enabling the farmer to discharge any stand premium or purchase-money, or balance thereof, as the case may be, due from him under or in respect of such grant, lease, purchase or other acquisition as aforesaid or for the purpose of enabling him to effect any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (g) of section 21 of this Ordinance.

(3) An advance may be made by the Bank in pursuance of the powers conferred by this section notwithstanding that the land in respect of which the advance is made has not been surveyed or that such a map or plan of the land as the Registrar is bound to accept for the purpose of registering any dealing with the land is not, for the time being registered or available for registration.

(4) Upon making any such advance the Bank may require the execution of such documents as will ensure—

(a) that the advance will, immediately upon the issue or completion of such grant, lease, purchase or other acquisition as aforesaid, become secured as a first charge upon the land in favour of the Bank;

(b) that pending the creation of such first charge, no mortgage of the land which would or might rank in priority thereto shall be created;

(c) that the Government will indemnify the Bank against all losses, costs or expenses which may be sustained or incurred by the Bank in respect of the advance.

(5) The Member of the Executive Council for the time being responsible for Finance may execute on behalf of the Government any document necessary for indemnifying the Bank in pursuance of paragraph (c) of sub-section (4) of this section.

6. Section 31 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words "five thousand pounds", where those words twice appear in sub-section (3) thereof, the words "seven thousand five hundred pounds".

Amendment of section 31 of the principal Ordinance.

7. Section 48 of the principal Ordinance is amended by deleting sub-section (2) thereof.

Amendment of section 48 of the principal Ordinance.

8. Section 49 of the principal Ordinance is amended by deleting the words "Notice of the extinguishment of any advance shall be published in the Gazette as soon as possible after the date of such extinguishment." which appear therein.

Amendment of section 49 of the principal Ordinance.

9. Section 73 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

Amendment of section 73 of the principal Ordinance

(a) by substituting for sub-sections (1), (2) and (3), appearing therein, the following new sub-section—

(1) Such fees, costs and expenses shall be charged and payable in respect of advances and applications for advances under the provisions of this Ordinance as the Board may, from time to time, with the consent of the Governor in Council, prescribe by regulations made under this Ordinance and any such regulations may provide for—

- (a) scales of application fees and valuation fees based on the amount of the advance for which application is made;
- (b) reduced scales of application fees and valuation fees where the application is for a short-term advance;
- (c) the basis upon which travelling expenses incurred by any valuation officer employed by the Board in or about any valuation for the purpose of an advance are to be calculated;
- (d) the refund or partial refund of the application fee where an application for an advance is refused;
- (e) the reduction of the application fee where an amount less than applied for is advanced;

- (f) a scale of conveyancing costs and fees for the preparation and completion of mortgages or securities and discharges thereof;
 - (g) the time and mode of payment of all such fees, costs and expenses;
- (b) by renumbering sub-sections (4) and (5) as sub-sections (2) and (3) thereof.

Repeal of Second and Third Schedules to the principal Ordinance.

10. The Second and Third Schedules to the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed:

Provided that the Scale of Application Fees and the Scale of Costs and Fees therein respectively contained shall be deemed to be scales prescribed by regulations made by the Board with the consent of the Governor in Council under section 73 of the principal Ordinance as hereby re-enacted until such Scale of Application Fees and Scale of Costs and Fees are replaced by scales so prescribed and except so far as the same are inconsistent with any scales so prescribed.

(1) Where in any Ordinance reference is made to any area and, at any time or times after the Ordinance comes into effect, any one or more of the following events occur by virtue of any Proclamation or other instrument made in exercise of the powers conferred by the Kenya Colony and Protectorate (Boundaries) Order in Council, 1921, or otherwise, namely—

Effect of change of boundaries, etc.

- (a) the name of the area or of any part thereof is altered;
- (b) the boundaries thereof are altered;
- (c) the area or any part thereof is incorporated in any one or more other areas,

Sub. Leg. Vol. V p. 379.

then nothing contained in any such Proclamation or other instrument shall be deemed to affect such reference as aforesaid and every such reference shall for the purposes of the Ordinance be deemed to be and to continue to be a reference to the area as constituted, named, defined or bounded prior to such alteration or incorporation as aforesaid.

- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - “area” includes any province, extra-provincial district, district or other place;
 - “Ordinance” includes any subsidiary legislation.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into effect on the 1st day of August, 1953, and to have had effect for all purposes from that date.

8. There shall be substituted for section 48 of the principal Ordinance the following section—

48. Where any Ordinance has been amended it shall be lawful for the Government Printer, with the authority of the Attorney General, to print copies of the Ordinance with all the additions, omissions, substitutions and amendments effected by the amending Ordinance or Ordinances, and all copies purporting to be so printed shall, until the contrary is shown, be deemed to be authentic copies of the Ordinance as so amended.

ORDINANCE No. 34 of 1953

Assented to in Her Majesty's name this twenty-seventh day of October, 1953.

E. BARING,
Governor.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE OIL PRODUCTION ORDINANCE

27th October, 1953

Date of
commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Oil Production (Amendment) Ordinance, 1953, and shall be read and construed as one with the Oil Production Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance. Short title.
Cap. 171.

2. Section 2 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects— Amendment of section 2 of the principal
Ordinance.

(a) by substituting for the definition of "Commissioner of Mines", the following—

"Commissioner" means the Commissioner (Mines and Geology) appointed under the Mining Ordinance; Cap. 168.

(b) by deleting the definitions of "prospecting" and "salt licks";

(c) by adding, in their appropriate alphabetical order, the following new definitions—

"explore" means to explore for oil in such manner as may be authorized by an exploration licence;

"exploration licence" means a licence to explore for oil granted under this Ordinance;

"lease" means a lease to mine for oil granted under this Ordinance;

"lessee" means a lessee under a mining lease;

"licence" means an exploration licence or a prospecting licence as the case may require, and "licensee" has a corresponding meaning;

"prospect" means to prospect for oil in such manner as may be authorized by a prospecting licence;

“prospecting licence” means a licence to prospect for oil granted under this Ordinance;

“salt lick” means a deposit of salt or other mineral regularly used as a salt lick by cattle or other stock;

“to mine” means intentionally to win oil in such manner as may be authorized by a mining lease.

3. There shall be substituted for the expression “Commissioner of Mines”, wherever that expression occurs in the principal Ordinance, the expression “Commissioner”.

4. There shall be substituted for the words and figures “Mining Ordinance, 1912”, wherever those words and figures appear in the principal Ordinance, the words “Mining Ordinance”.

5. There shall be substituted for section 3 of the principal Ordinance the following new section—

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, this Ordinance shall extend to all land situate within the Colony and Protectorate including that part of the sea bed off the coasts of the Colony and Protectorate, and the sub-soil thereunder, whereof the natural resources, by right, treaty, grant, usage, sufferance or other lawful means, appertain to Her Majesty or are subject to Her Majesty’s jurisdiction or control; and the Governor may grant licences to explore or prospect for oil and leases to mine for oil over or in respect thereof or any part thereof.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section and except as is provided in this sub-section, nothing contained in this Ordinance or contained in or implied by any licence or lease shall be deemed to authorize the licensee or lessee—

(a) to enter upon or occupy or exercise any rights whatsoever in respect of the surface or the sub-soil of any land comprised in the licence or lease being—

(1) the site of a burial ground or place of worship;

(2) land which the Governor may in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (4) of Substitution of “Commissioner” for “Commissioner of Mines” throughout Ordinance.

Substitution of “Mining Ordinance” for “Mining Ordinance, 1912” throughout Ordinance.

Replacement of section 3 of the principal Ordinance.

Oil Production (Amendment)

this section declare to be required for any public purpose;

- (3) land which prior to the grant of the licence or lease has been dedicated or set apart for any public purpose, except with the consent of the Governor;
 - (4) a salt lick, except with the consent of the Governor;
 - (5) land which is the site of, or land situate within fifty yards of, any building, reservoir or dam owned by the Government, except with the consent of the Governor;
 - (6) land situate within any municipality, urban district or township, except with the consent of the owner and occupier of the surface thereof and the consent either of the Governor or of the municipal, urban or township authority;
 - (7) the site of a public street, road or highway, except with the consent either of the Governor or of the municipal, urban or township authority or other person or body having control of such street, road or highway;
 - (8) the site of a railway, or land reserved for the purpose of a railway or situate within fifty yards of any railway, except with the consent of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration as defined by the East African Railways and Harbours Act;
- (b) to enter upon or occupy or exercise any rights whatsoever in respect of the surface of any land comprised in the lease or licence, being—
- (1) land in respect of which any right of prospecting or mining for minerals has been granted prior to the grant of the licence or lease, except with the consent of the person enjoying such right;
 - (2) the site of a licensed or Government aerodrome or Government landing ground or land within one thousand yards of the boundaries thereof, except with the consent of the Governor;

High Commission Acts
(Cap. 3)

Cap. 278.

- (3) the site of a Government rifle range, except with the consent of the Governor;
- (4) the foreshore, between high and low water marks at ordinary spring tides, within the boundaries of any municipality, urban district or township, except with the consent either of the Governor or of the municipal, urban or township authority;
- (5) land situate within any trading centre within the meaning of the Trading Centres Ordinance, except with the consent of the Governor:

Provided that in the case of a licence, subject to the terms and conditions of his licence, the licensee may explore or prospect upon the surface only of any such lands as are described in sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) inclusive of this paragraph and for that purpose enter thereon and make geological, geophysical, topographic and hydrographic examinations thereof, causing as little damage as possible in so doing and making good any damage caused forthwith upon the completion of such examinations.

(3) The Governor may in or by any licence or lease, or document varying the same, authorize the licensee or lessee to enter upon, occupy and exercise rights of exploration, prospecting or mining for oil over or in respect of the surface or the sub-soil of any such lands as are described in paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) of this section or to enter upon or occupy or to exercise such rights as aforesaid over or in respect of the surface of any such lands as are described in paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of this section, but save in so far as any licence or lease or any such document as aforesaid expressly grants such authority by reference to this sub-section every licence and lease shall be deemed, notwithstanding anything therein contained or implied, to be subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of this section.

(4) The Governor may at any time and from time to time during the subsistence of any licence or lease declare any land comprised in such licence or lease to be land required for a public purpose:

Provided that—

- (i) no such declaration may be made in respect of any land or lands exceeding, or exceeding in the aggregate, five per centum of the land comprised in the licence or lease; and
- (ii) if the licensee or lessee shall within thirty days of being notified of any such declaration satisfy the Governor that the declaration will interfere substantially with the operations or proposed operations of the licensee or lessee under his licence or lease, he shall be entitled to require the Governor to declare other land or other lands, being part of the land comprised in the licence or lease, to be required for such public purpose and thereupon the Governor shall modify the declaration accordingly.

6. The principal Ordinance is amended by inserting therein, immediately after section 3 thereof, the following new sections—

3A. Where any licensee or lessee intends to explore, prospect or mine upon, or in any manner to disturb, the surface of any private land, he shall give not less than forty-eight hours' notice of such intention to the occupier, and if practicable to the owner, of such land and shall, if required by the owner or occupier, give security in such sum and by such means as the Commissioner may direct for meeting any compensation payable under the provisions of section 3B of this Ordinance.

3B. (1) Whenever, in the course of any exploring, prospecting or mining operations carried on by any licensee or lessee, any disturbance of the rights of the owner or occupier of any private land, or damage to any such land, or to any crops, trees, buildings, stock or works therein or thereon, is caused, the licensee or lessee shall be liable on demand to pay to the owner or occupier such compensation as is fair and reasonable having regard to the extent of the disturbance or damage and to the interest of the owner or occupier in the land.

(2) If any such licensee or lessee as aforesaid shall fail to pay compensation, when demanded, under subsection (1) of this section or if any owner or occupier shall be dissatisfied with the amount of any compensation Insertion of new sections 3A and 3B in the principal Ordinance.

Notice in respect of private land.

Payment of compensation to owners or occupiers of private land.

offered to him thereunder, such owner or occupier may within six months of the date on which such demand or offer as aforesaid is made, take proceedings before a court of competent jurisdiction for the determination and recovery of the compensation (if any) properly payable under the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section:

Provided that where the owner or occupier is an African, a Somali or an Arab, the district commissioner of the district in which land affected is situate shall, if the African, Somali or Arab so desires, determine the amount of compensation (if any) so payable and make an award for the payment thereof; any such award shall be subject to review by a magistrate of the first class upon an application by either party filed within the period of thirty days from the date of such award and the magistrate may upon any such review, confirm, quash or vary the award, subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court whose decision shall be final, and for the purposes of any such appeal the decision of the magistrate shall be deemed to be a decree within the meaning of the Civil Procedure Code.

Cap. 5.

(3) Any sum payable under any such award as aforesaid shall be paid by the licensee or lessee to the person entitled thereto upon the expiration of the period of thirty days from the date of the final award.

(4) Any award made by virtue of the provisions of this section shall be enforceable as if it were a decree of a competent court.

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

7. Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is amended by substituting for the words "the granting of licences or leases to prospect and mine for oil", appearing therein, the words "the granting of licences and leases to explore, prospect and mine for oil".

Amendment of section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

8. Section 8 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

(a) by substituting for the words "that His Majesty's Government shall have the right of pre-emption", appearing in paragraph (a) thereof, the words "that the Governor shall, in time of war or national emergency, have the right of pre-emption";

Date of commencement.

By Notice

WHEREAS The Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company, Limited, a limited liability company incorporated in the United Kingdom and having its registered office at St. Helen's Court, London, has under consideration a project for the construction and operation, at considerable expense, of an oil refinery and ancillary works in the Coast Province and, for that purpose, of securing a lease or leases of, inter alia the lands hereinafter described:

AND WHEREAS it is in the public interest that the said Company, or an associate, should be enabled to construct and operate an oil refinery and ancillary works in the Colony:

AND WHEREAS accordingly it is expedient that the said lands should be vested in the Crown, subject to payment of compensation therefor, and that the Governor should be empowered to grant a lease or leases thereof to the said Company or its associate, with power to construct and operate an oil refinery and ancillary works as aforesaid:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to make provision for giving effect to the foregoing purposes under the authority of the Legislative Council:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, by and with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Land Acquisition (Mombasa Oil Refinery) Ordinance, 1953, and shall come into operation on such day as the Governor may by notice in the Gazette appoint. Short title and commencement.

2. In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

“ancillary purposes” includes, subject to the provisions of the East African Railways and Harbours Act and of the East African Posts and Telecommunications Act, the construction or provision of docks, slips, quays, wharves, piers, warehouses, buildings, yards and structures deemed by the Company to be necessary or useful for the purpose of accommodating, storing, loading, discharging, handling, importing or exporting goods, materials and commodities of any kind, and the construction or provision of railways, tramways, bridges, ferries, canals, roads, ways, pipelines, telegraphs, telephones and other means of transport or communication, and the construction or provision of housing and facilities for the recreation or welfare of employees of the Company; East Africa High Commission Acts, Cap. 3 and Cap. 4.

“appointed day” means the day appointed by the Governor under section 1 of this Ordinance;

“appropriate Registrar” means the Registrar of Titles, the Registrar of Crown Lands, or the Registrar of Coast Land Titles, appointed for the purposes of the Registration of Titles Ordinance, the Crown Lands Ordinance, or the Land Titles Ordinance, as the case may require; Cap. 160.
Cap. 155.
Cap. 159.

“appropriate Register” means the Register maintained under the provisions of the Registration of Titles Ordinance, the Crown Lands Ordinance or the Land Titles Ordinance, as the case may require; Cap. 160.
Cap. 155.
Cap. 159.

“Her Majesty” includes Her Heirs and Successors;

“lease” means any tenancy however created;

“meeting” in relation to the Legislative Council, has the meaning for the time being assigned to it by the Standing Orders of the Legislative Council;

“scheduled lands” means the lands described in the First Schedule to this Ordinance;

“the Company” means, as the case may from time to time require, The Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company, Limited, as aforesaid, or such other Company, incorporated in the Colony, as the Governor may deem to be an associate of The Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company, Limited, aforesaid.

Vesting of the
in the Crown.

Cap. 155.

3. (1) Immediately upon the appointed day the scheduled lands shall, by virtue of this Ordinance, vest in Her Majesty absolutely, freed and discharged from all estates, rights, titles, interests, encumbrances, claims and demands whatsoever, and such land shall be deemed to be Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Ordinance, and Her Majesty shall be deemed in law to be in actual possession thereof to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

(2) As soon as may be after the appointed day, the appropriate Registrar shall cause to be entered in the appropriate Register, in respect of each piece or parcel of land forming part of the scheduled lands, a memorandum of the vesting thereof in Her Majesty by virtue of this Ordinance.

Lease of scheduled lands
to the Company.

4. (1) At any time after the appointed day, the Governor may, on behalf of Her Majesty, grant a lease or leases of all or any part of the scheduled lands to the Company with authority to do all or any of the following acts and things thereon—

(a) to construct and operate an oil refinery and any ancillary works;

(b) to extend or alter the refinery or any ancillary works;

(c) to carry out ancillary purposes.

(2) Every such lease shall be granted at such premium and rent and shall be for such period and subject to such terms and conditions as the Governor may deem expedient. The lease may be made assignable to any company, incorporated in the Colony, which the Governor may deem to be an associate of The Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company, Limited.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall—

(a) be deemed to exempt any lease granted under the provisions of this Ordinance from chargeability to stamp duty under the provisions of the Stamp Ordinance or the Company from liability to payment of any such stamp duty; Cap. 259.

(b) affect the provisions of section 328 of the Companies Ordinance. Cap. 288.

(4) Every such lease shall be deemed for the purposes of the Crown Lands Ordinance to be a lease granted under the provisions of that Ordinance. Cap. 155.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, every person interested in the scheduled lands, or any part thereof, shall be entitled to compensation in respect of the vesting thereof in Her Majesty by virtue of the provisions of section 3 of this Ordinance. Compensation to persons interested in the scheduled lands.

(2) All such compensation shall be payable out of the public funds of the Colony.

(3) The provisions of those sections of the Indian Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as applied to the Colony, which are specified in the First Column of the Second Schedule to this Ordinance shall apply for the purposes of compensating persons interested in the scheduled lands as aforesaid and for regulating all matters connected with the compensation payable under this Ordinance to the persons interested as aforesaid and for those purposes the aforesaid sections of the said Act shall be deemed to be incorporated in and form part of this Ordinance in the same manner as if they were enacted in the body thereof, subject, however, to the following provisions—

(a) in their application and incorporation as aforesaid, sections 3, 8, 9, 14, 19, 23, 24, 25, 26, 28, 31, 34 and 54 of the said Act shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 8 of this Ordinance, be deemed respectively to be modified in the manner specified in respect of each such section in the Second Column of the Second Schedule to this Ordinance;

(b) every reference in any of the aforesaid sections of the said Act applied and incorporated herein as aforesaid to the provisions of any Act or law in force in India shall be deemed to be a reference to such comparable Ordinance or other law as may, for the time being, be in force in the Colony.

(4) The Governor shall appoint a person, by name or office, to be the Collector for the purposes of those provisions of the Indian Land Acquisition Act, 1894, which are applied and incorporated herein as aforesaid.

Authority to Company to operate oil refinery and exemption from liability for nuisance.

6. Subject to the grant of a lease to the Company under the provisions of this Ordinance and to the terms and conditions of any such lease, the Company is hereby authorized to construct and use upon the scheduled lands an oil refinery and ancillary works and to carry on all operations incidental to an oil refinery and ancillary works, and the Company is hereby exonerated from liability for nuisance in respect of such construction and use and all such operations as aforesaid except in so far as any nuisance is caused, or contributed to, by any negligence in the construction or use of such refinery or ancillary works or in the carrying on of such operations as aforesaid.

No actions maintainable against the Crown, etc.

7. No action, suit or proceeding of any kind shall be brought by any person against the Crown or the Governor or against the Government or any department thereof, or against any officer of the Government as such, in respect of the construction, use or operation of an oil refinery or ancillary works on the scheduled lands, or in respect of any matter or thing done or omitted to be done by the Company under this Ordinance or any lease granted to the Company thereunder.

Power to declare other lands to be scheduled lands.

8. (1) The Governor may, at any time before the expiration of ten years from the appointed day, declare any other lands for the time being within the Mombasa District or the Kwale District of the Coast Province to be scheduled lands for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Where any such other lands are, at the date of a declaration made by the Governor under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, unalienated Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Ordinance, no compensation shall be payable under this Ordinance in respect of the vesting thereof in Her Majesty, but all the provisions of this Ordinance with the exception of the provisions of section 5 thereof shall apply thereto:

Provided that in relation to such other lands the appointed day for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be the date of such declaration as aforesaid.

(3) Where any such other lands are not, at the date of the declaration made by the Governor under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, unalienated Crown land as aforesaid, compensation shall be payable under this Ordinance in respect of the vesting thereof in Her Majesty and all the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply thereto:

Provided that—

“(i) the draft of every such declaration shall be laid before the Legislative Council and shall be approved by resolution of the Legislative Council before the same is submitted to the Governor and, if the Legislative Council resolves that the draft be not so submitted, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, but without prejudice to the laying before the Legislative Council of a new draft;”

Ord 41/55
~~be approved with modifications, it shall come into effect on such day but subject to such modifications;~~

(ii) in relation to such other lands—

“(a) the appointed day for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be the date of such declaration as aforesaid; and”

(Ordinance No. 41 of 1955, s. 2.)
 Land Acquisition Act, 1894, which are applied by and incorporated in this Ordinance to the date of the publication of a declaration under section 6 of that Act shall be deemed for the purposes of such application and incorporation, to be references to the day on which the declaration made under this section in respect of such other lands comes into effect as aforesaid.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Governor necessary so to do, he may by order, from time to time, provide for compulsorily vesting in the Company all such easements or other rights in, under or over, or in respect of, any lands other than the scheduled lands as appear to him to be necessary or desirable for facilitating the operations of any oil refinery or ancillary works which may for the time be upon the scheduled lands, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, such easements or rights may comprise easements or rights—

- (a) of support or withdrawal of support;
- (b) of ways of access or conveyance of any material;
- (c) of ventilation or drainage;
- (d) of the use or occupation of any land for the purpose of the erection of any buildings or structure;
- (e) of obtaining water supplies or disposing of water or other liquid matter;
- (f) of discharging into rivers, streams or watercourses of any liquid or solid matter, whether such discharge results in pollution or not;
- (g) of placing any waste materials on any land;
- (h) of overhead ways or pipes or other means of conveyance of any material and the use and occupation of the surface or the underground of any land for the purpose of supporting or maintaining any such overhead ways, pipes or other means of conveyance.

(2) Any order made under this section shall provide for the payment of compensation by the Company in such cases and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order or determined thereunder, in respect of loss suffered as the result of the acquisition or exercise of easements or rights under the order.

(3) No Order shall be made under this section in relation to land which is unalienated Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Ordinance or in relation to any land forming part of the Native Lands, without prejudice however, to the right of the Governor on behalf of Her Majesty to grant to the Company any easement or exclusive right over any land which is unalienated Crown land as aforesaid under the powers conferred by sub-section (6) of this section.

“(4) The draft of every order made under this section shall be laid before the Legislative Council and shall be approved by resolution of the Legislative Council before the same is submitted to the Governor and, if the Legislative Council resolves that the draft be not so submitted, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, but without prejudice to the laying before the Legislative Council of a new draft; and every order made under this section shall come into effect on the date of such order.”

(Ordinance No. 41 of 1955, s. 3.)

(5) As soon as may be after an order made under this section comes into effect, the appropriate Registrar shall cause a memorandum of the Order to be entered in the appropriate Register in respect of each piece or parcel of land affected by the Order.

(6) The Governor may on behalf of Her Majesty at any time grant to the Company any such easement or other right as is referred to in sub-section (1) of this section in, under or over, or in respect of any unalienated Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Ordinance, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit. Cap. 155.

10. Save as herein expressly provided nothing in this Ordinance shall in any way prejudice or affect any rights of Her Majesty in any respect, or of any body politic or corporate or of any other person. Savings of the rights of the Crown, bodies corporate and other persons

Assented to in Her Majesty's name this twenty-seventh day of October, 1953.

E. BARING,
Governor.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE AFRICAN DISTRICT COUNCILS, ORDINANCE, 1950

27th October, 1953

Date of
commencement.

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.
No. 12 of 1950.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the African District Councils (Amendment) Ordinance, 1953, and shall be read and construed as one with the African District Councils Ordinance, 1950, hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance.

Insertion of new section 4A
in the principal Ordinance.

2. There shall be inserted, immediately after section 4 of the principal Ordinance, the following new section—

Alteration of corporate name of Council.

4A. (1) The Governor may at any time and from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, alter, or declare, the corporate name of any African District Council established or deemed to have been established under this Ordinance.

(2) An order made under this section shall have effect from the date of the Order or from such date as may be specified therein and may be expressed to have effect retrospectively and where so expressed shall have effect and be deemed for all purposes to have had effect accordingly.

(3) A change of name made under this section shall not affect any rights or obligations of any Council, authority or person, or render defective any legal proceedings, and any legal proceedings may be commenced or continued as if there had been no change of name.

Insertion of new section 19A in the Ordinance.

3. There shall be inserted, immediately after section 19 of the principal Ordinance, the following new section—

Joint Boards for making loans, etc.

19A. (1) Where a Council is desirous of acting jointly with the Government in making or guaranteeing loans to, or guaranteeing credit afforded to, Africans, African Companies, African Co-operative Societies or other African corporate bodies in pursuance of powers conferred on it by the Member under section 21 of this Ordinance, the Governor may, by order, constitute a Joint Board and direct that, so long as the order remains in force, the Board shall have and may exercise, subject to such limitations and conditions (if any) as may be specified in the order, the Council's powers aforesaid.

(2) A Board so constituted shall be a body corporate in such name as may be specified in the order constituting the Board with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(3) Every such Board shall consist of an equal number of representatives appointed by the Council and the Governor respectively and of a Chairman appointed by the Governor; the Chairman of the Board shall be entitled to both a deliberative and a casting vote, and in the absence or inability to act of the Chairman, the Board shall elect one of its number to act as Chairman and any member of the Board so acting shall have both a deliberative and a casting vote.

(4) An order constituting a Joint Board under this section—

(a) may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of this section, provide for regulating the appointment and term of office of members of the Board, for regulating the meetings and proceedings of and the execution of documents by or on behalf of, the Board, and for regulating the finances, investments, accounts and executive and administrative functions of the Board;

(b) may contain such other provisions (including provision for the transfer of property and liabilities, and for the adjustment of accounts and apportionment of liabilities) as appear to the Governor to be expedient for enabling the Board to exercise its functions.

(5) The Governor may at any time by order revoke an order constituting a Joint Board, and may in any such order of revocation provide for the dissolution of the Board and for winding up the affairs of the Board and for distributing, transferring or otherwise disposing of the property and liabilities thereof, and for all matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Amendment of section 21 of the principal Ordinance.

4. Section 21 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

- (a) by renumbering paragraphs (38) and (39) thereof as paragraphs (40) and (41) respectively; and
- (b) by adding the following new paragraphs numbered as (38) and (39) respectively—

Power to make loans, etc.

- (38) whether on its own behalf or jointly with the Government, make or guarantee loans to, or guarantee any credit afforded to, Africans, African Companies, African Co-operative Societies and other African corporate bodies, for such terms and conditions and with or without security, as the Member may generally or in any particular case approve; for the purposes of this paragraph a Company, Co-operative Society or other corporate body shall be deemed to be an African Company, African Co-operative Society or other African corporate body if, at the time of the making of the loan, the majority of the shareholders or members of, or persons liable in the event of a winding up to contribute to the assets of, the Company, Co-operative Society or other corporate body, are Africans, or the objects of the Company, Co-operative Society or other corporate body are, in the opinion of the Member, for the benefit of Africans or any particular class or description of African;

Power to allocate funds or make grants to Joint Boards.

- (39) allocate funds or make grants of money to any Joint Board constituted under section 19A of this Ordinance;

Replacement of section 30 of the principal Ordinance.

5. There shall be substituted for section 30 of the principal Ordinance the following new section—

Power to levy and recover rates and taxes and penalty for non-payment of taxes.

30. (1) A Council may, in respect of each financial year, by resolution impose all or any one or more of the following rates and taxes—

- (a) a rate on immovable property;
- (b) a tax on each adult male African;
- (c) a tax on each African woman having independent means;
- (d) a graduated tax based on the income of each African.

(2) Every such resolution as aforesaid shall specify the financial year to which the same relates and shall also specify the date on which the rate or tax shall become due and payable, being a date falling within the financial year to which the resolution relates and not earlier than the expiration of six weeks from the date on which the resolution is passed, and every such rate or tax shall become due and payable on such specified date.

(3) Any such resolution as aforesaid which imposes a tax under paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of sub-section (1) of this section may also provide that any African who fails to pay the whole amount of any tax due from him or her within three months of the date on which the tax is due and payable as aforesaid shall be liable, in addition to the payment of such tax, to a penalty of one-half of such amount, and any such penalty shall be deemed to be a tax lawfully imposed under this section and be recoverable accordingly.

(4) A rate on immovable property may be imposed either generally in respect of all immovable property or in respect of immovable property in any specified locality or of any specified description.

(5) Any tax which a Council is empowered to impose under paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of sub-section (1) of this section may be related either generally to the whole of the area under the jurisdiction of the Council or specially to any specified district within such area.

(6) Any African who fails to pay the whole of any rate or tax due from him or her within three months of the date on which the rate or tax is due and payable as aforesaid may be called upon by any court of competent jurisdiction to show cause why the same should not be recovered by distress, and if such African fails to show cause as aforesaid the court may order such rate or tax, together with any court costs ordered under sub-section (7) of this section, to be recovered by distress:

Provided that where it appears to the court that recovery of such rate or tax by distress would be ruinous to such African or to his or her family, or that he or she has no property or no property the whereabouts whereof can be ascertained, whereon distress may be levied, or where other sufficient reason appears to the court, the court may, if it thinks fit, instead of or after issuing a warrant of distress, commit him or her to prison or to a detention camp for a period not exceeding three months, unless the amount of such rate or tax and all expenses of the commitment and conveyance to prison, to be specified in the warrant, are sooner paid.

(7) Where proceedings are taken under the provisions of sub-section (6) of this section for the recovery of any rate or tax, the court may order the person in default to pay such sum not exceeding six shillings by way of court costs as the court in its discretion may determine.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (6) of this section, whenever in proceedings for the recovery of any tax imposed under this Ordinance any person liable to pay such tax proves to the satisfaction of the court that he or she is without sufficient means to pay the whole or any portion of such tax, the court may adjourn the hearing in order that the Council to which the tax is due may consider whether or not it should exercise the powers conferred by section 52A of this Ordinance.

(9) The proceeds of any rate or tax imposed, and any costs recovered, under this section shall be paid into and form part of the revenues of the Council.

Cap. 27.

(10) The provisions of section 216 of the Criminal Procedure Code shall not apply to any proceedings instituted for the recovery of any rate or tax due and payable under this Ordinance.

No. 65 of 1951.

(11) For the purposes of this section an African Court established or deemed to have been established under the African Courts Ordinance, 1951, shall be a competent court.

Amendment of section 32 of the principal Ordinance.

6. There shall be substituted for sub-section (4) of section 32 of the principal Ordinance the following sub-section—

(4) The proceeds of any rate imposed under this section shall be paid into and form part of the revenues of the Council.

7. Section 44 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects—

Amendment of section 44 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) by adding to the marginal note to the section the words “and debts due from the Council”;

(b) by substituting for sub-sections (2) and (3) thereof the following new sub-sections—

(2) Where the Member is satisfied that a decree for the payment of money has been made by a competent court against a Council in favour of any person, or that for other good and sufficient reason, money is due from and payable by a Council to any person, and the Council refuses or fails to make due payment, he may order that such payment be made from such funds, and that any rate necessary to produce the sum required shall be imposed upon and collected from the adult male African inhabitants or the area in respect of which the Council is established.

(3) The proceeds of any rate imposed under this section shall be paid into and form part of the revenues of the Council.

ORDINANCE No. 38 of 1953

(2) Vehicle records maintained by the Registrar or licensing officer shall be open for inspection by any police officer, any collector of Customs and the Chairman of the Transport Licensing Board, who shall be entitled to copy any entry in such records free of charge.

(3) Any person who satisfies the Registrar that he has reasonable cause therefor shall be entitled on payment of the prescribed fee to a copy of any entry in such vehicle records.

6. (1) No person shall possess a motor vehicle or trailer, other than a vehicle exempted from the provisions of this Part of the Ordinance, unless such vehicle is registered under the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) Application for the registration of any vehicle shall be made to a licensing officer on the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) A licensing officer, before he registers any motor vehicle or trailer may verify all the particulars in the form of application and may, if he thinks fit, send the vehicle to an inspector for examination in order to satisfy himself that the vehicle is in a fit and proper condition for the purpose for which it is intended to be used and to conform in all respects to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(4) If any application is made to register any commercial vehicle or trailer the load capacity of which has not been declared by the manufacturers of the chassis, a licensing officer shall not register the vehicle or trailer until an inspector has determined its load capacity. Such determination shall be final.

8. The person in whose name a vehicle is registered shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the owner of the vehicle. Owner of a vehicle.

9. (1) No motor vehicle or trailer the ownership of which has been transferred by the registered owner shall be used on a road for more than fourteen days after the date of such transfer unless the new owner is registered as the owner thereof. Change of ownership.

(2) Upon the transfer of ownership of a motor vehicle or trailer the registered owner thereof shall, within seven days from the date of such transfer, inform the Registrar on the prescribed form of the name and address of the new owner and deliver to the new owner the registration book in respect of such vehicle. The new owner shall, after inserting particulars of the change of ownership, forward the registration book with the prescribed fee to the Registrar, whereupon the vehicle shall be registered in the name of the new owner:

Provided that where in any case the registered owner of a vehicle has failed to comply with the provisions of this subsection the Registrar, on being satisfied that such registered owner has died or has left the Colony or cannot be traced or refuses to comply with the provisions of this sub-section, may on payment of the prescribed fee cause the vehicle to be registered in the name of the new owner.

(3) Sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to a change of possession consequent on a contract of hiring where the period of hiring does not exceed three months, or where the registered owner continues to employ and pay the driver of the vehicle.

(4) Application for registration of a new owner may be made before the actual transfer of the vehicle, but the registration of a new owner shall not be effective until the registration book has been surrendered to and re-issued by the Registrar.

(5) Sub-sections (1), (2) and (4) of this section shall not apply to any change of possession of a vehicle which occurs by reason of the vehicle being lawfully seized under a hire-purchase agreement, but in such event the following provisions shall apply—

(a) the registered owner or his representative shall, within fourteen days of the seizure, deliver the registration book to the person who has seized the vehicle, and inform the Registrar in writing of the change of possession;

(b) such person shall, within fourteen days of receiving the registration book, apply to the Registrar to be registered as the owner thereof in place of the registered owner, and shall on payment of the prescribed fee be registered accordingly.

(6) On the registration of a new owner, the Registrar shall make the necessary alterations to the registration book, and shall deliver the amended registration book to the new registered owner. The Registrar, if he thinks fit, may issue a new registration book.

10. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Ordinance a licensing officer shall not register a motor vehicle unless the owner of the vehicle satisfies him—

Registration of motor vehicles exported or imported unlawfully prohibited.

(a) that the vehicle has been lawfully exported from its country of origin or the country in which it was last registered, and that such owner is in possession of any export permit in relation to the export of such vehicle required by the law of the country of origin or of last registration; and

(b) that the vehicle has been lawfully imported into the Colony.

11. The Governor in Council may, by notice in the Gazette, exempt any vehicle, class or description of vehicle from the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance.

Vehicles may be exempted from registration.

12. (1) No motor vehicle or trailer registered under this Ordinance or driven under the authority of a general dealer's licence shall be used on a road unless there is fixed thereto in the prescribed manner the prescribed number of identification plates of the prescribed design and colour on which shall be inscribed the identification mark of the vehicle or of the general dealer's licence:

Vehicles to carry identification plates.

Provided that identification plates used under the authority of a general dealer's licence may be suspended from the vehicle and not fixed.

(2) In place of the plate or plates referred to in subsection (1) of this section the identification mark of a vehicle may be painted on the vehicle, but the design and colour of such mark shall in all respects conform to the requirements prescribed for the fixed plates and the mark shall be in the position prescribed for fixed plates. For all other purposes of this Ordinance and any regulations made thereunder such a painted mark shall be deemed to be an identification plate.

13. The owner of a vehicle shall, when requested by a police officer, produce for inspection, either immediately to such police officer or within five days of such request being made at a police station nominated by such owner, the registration book issued in respect of such vehicle.

17. (1) A licensing officer shall issue a licence only if he is satisfied—

- (a) that the vehicle is duly registered;
- (b) that the particulars in the registration book are correct; and
- (c) that the vehicle is insured against third party risks in accordance with the provisions of the Motor Vehicles Insurance (Third Party Risks) Ordinance;
- (d) that the licence in respect of such vehicle has not been cancelled under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 55 of this Ordinance.

Cap. 233.

(2) Before issuing a licence in respect of any motor vehicle of a class prescribed for the purposes of this sub-section, the licensing officer shall examine the motor vehicle and the driver and shall be satisfied that the motor vehicle is in a fit state to be driven and that the driver is fit to drive the motor vehicle.

with the First Schedule to this Ordinance.

19. (1) A vehicle licence, not being a dealer's general licence, may be issued for— Duration of licence.

- (a) one year; or
- (b) three-quarters of a year; or
- (c) half a year; or
- (d) a quarter of a year; or
- (e) one calendar month:

Provided that licences under paragraph (e) of this sub-section shall be issued only at the absolute discretion of the licensing officer.

(2) Licences shall continue in force from the date of issue thereof until—

- (a) in the case of a yearly licence, the following thirty-first day of December;
- (b) in the case of a licence for three-quarters of a year, the following thirtieth day of September, or if issued on or after the first day of April, the following thirty-first day of December;
- (c) in the case of a half-yearly licence, the following thirtieth day of June or thirty-first day of December, whichever shall first ensue, or if issued between the first day of April and the thirtieth day of June, the following thirtieth day of September;
- (d) in the case of a quarterly licence, the following thirty-first day of March, thirtieth day of June, thirtieth day of September or thirty-first day of December, whichever shall first ensue;
- (e) in the case of a monthly licence, the last day of the month for which the licence was issued.

(3) The holder of a vehicle licence, other than the holder of a dealer's general licence, shall, on surrendering it for cancellation to the Registrar, be entitled to a refund of one-fifteenth part of the annual fee payable, in respect of the vehicle for which the licence is issued, for each complete calendar month remaining in the period for which the licence was issued:

Provided that where the refund of fee, calculated in accordance with the provisions of this sub-section, includes part of a shilling, the refund shall exclude such part of a shilling.

Licence to be carried on vehicle.

20. No vehicle which is required to be licensed shall be used on a road unless the licence, which shall be legible and in no way defaced, is carried on the vehicle in the prescribed manner.

Duplicate licences.

21. If a vehicle licence is lost, defaced, mutilated, or rendered illegible, the Registrar shall issue a duplicate licence on payment of the prescribed fee:

Provided that any licence which has been lost and is subsequently found shall forthwith be returned to the Registrar for cancellation.

New licence to be applied for in certain circumstances.

22. (1) The holder of a vehicle licence shall apply for a new licence—

- (a) where he desires to use the vehicle for any purpose not authorized by the licence; and
- (b) where the vehicle is so altered that a higher duty or a duty of a different class is required.

(2) A new licence under this section shall not be issued until the old licence has been surrendered and in respect of every such new licence there shall be deducted from the fee payable therefor a rebate calculated in like manner as is provided in sub-section (3) of section 19 of this Ordinance.

Dealer's general licence.

23. (1) The Registrar may issue to a dealer in, or manufacturer or repairer of, motor vehicles, upon application in the prescribed form and upon payment of the prescribed fees, such number of dealer's general licences, as the applicant may require, and with each such licence shall issue two identification plates.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sections 24, 25, 26 and 27 of this Ordinance, and to any other conditions which may, from time to time, be prescribed, the holder of a dealer's general licence shall use the said licence only in respect of vehicles in his possession; and shall not use more than one such vehicle under the authority of one licence at any one time.

24. (1) No vehicle shall be used on any road under the authority of a dealer's general licence— Use of dealer's general licence.

- (a) to convey passengers or goods for profit or reward;
- (b) to carry or convey any goods whatsoever except such load as may be necessary for the purpose of testing the motor vehicle or trailer, and no such load, and no part thereof, shall be removed from the motor vehicle or trailer at any time between the departure from and the return to the loading place of the motor vehicle or trailer, save in the case of an accident;
- (c) except with the permission in writing of the Registrar, for any purpose other than—
 - (i) for proceeding to or returning from any inspection, examination or test as provided for by this Ordinance;
 - (ii) for proceeding from the premises of a dealer to a railway station or wharf for entraining or shipment, or from a train or ship to such premises; or
 - (iii) for test or trial during or after completion, construction, assembly or repair; or
 - (iv) for test or trial by or on behalf of an intending purchaser, or for proceeding to or from the place where the purchaser intends to keep it; or
 - (v) for proceeding to or from a public weighbridge for the purpose of its weight being ascertained or to or from a place for registration;
 - (vi) for exportation to any territory in East Africa, the Sudan, or the Belgian Congo;
 - (vii) for proceeding from the premises of a dealer to the premises of a purchaser or of another dealer or manufacturer;

(viii) for towing a motor vehicle which while being driven upon a road has become unable to proceed under its own power from the place where it has broken down to a place for repair or storage;

(ix) for proceeding to or returning from a workshop in which a body is to be or has been fitted to the motor vehicle or where the motor vehicle is to be or has been painted or repaired;

(x) for proceeding to or returning from an exhibition of motor vehicles.

(2) In any proceedings under this section the burden of proving the fact of an accident for the purposes of sub-section (1) (b) of this section, shall lie on the person charged.

(3) No vehicle shall be used on any road under the authority of a dealer's general licence unless the holder of the licence, or a person duly authorized by him, accompanies such vehicle.

(4) Not more than two persons, in addition to the driver, shall be carried within or upon any such vehicle, and such persons shall be limited to a prospective purchaser and his agent or a member of his family, or in the case of a vehicle proceeding to or from an accident, two mechanics.

(5) Upon the issue of a dealer's general licence the Registrar shall also supply to the person to whom such licence is issued a book in a form approved by the Registrar in which the holder of such licence shall on each occasion and before such licence is used complete in duplicate the entries for which provision is therein made. One copy of such entries shall remain in the book and the other copy shall be carried with the vehicle during the whole of the journey to which such entries relate, and shall be produced at any time during such journey by the driver for inspection upon demand made by any Police officer or Licensing Officer or inspector.

(6) Every such book shall be produced at all reasonable ~~the words "Police or Licensing Officer"~~ the words "police officer, licensing officer or inspector".

∟ If any person is convicted of an offence under this section in a case where a licence fee under this Part of this Ordinance is payable and has not been paid, the court may, whether or not any other penalty is imposed, impose a fine (which shall be disposed of in the same manner as the fee payable on the licence) of an amount equivalent to the fee unpaid, and the payment of such fine shall operate in satisfaction of any civil debt due under section 27A of this Ordinance.

(Ordinance No. 14 of 1958, s. 4, with effect from 20-6-58)

PART IV—DRIVING LICENCES

29. (1) No person shall drive any class of motor vehicle on a road unless he is the holder of a valid driving licence or a provisional licence endorsed in respect of such class of vehicle.

(2) No person who owns or who has charge of a motor vehicle of any class shall cause or permit any person to drive such motor vehicle unless such person is the holder of a valid driving licence or a provisional licence endorsed in respect of that class of motor vehicle.

(3) No person shall be entitled to more than one driving licence, but a driving licence may be endorsed to permit the holder to drive one or more classes of motor vehicle.

(4) Driving licences shall be issued by a licensing officer and shall expire on the 31st December each year, but any such licence may, on production thereof and on payment of the prescribed fee, be renewed.

(5) In the event of any change of circumstances which affects the accuracy of any particulars declared under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of section 30 of this Ordinance, or which would operate to prevent the grant of a driving licence under that section, the holder of the driving licence shall forthwith inform the Registrar of such change.

30. (1) A licensing officer shall not grant an applicant a driving licence endorsed in respect of any class of motor vehicle unless the applicant—

(a) satisfies the licensing officer that he has passed a test of competence to drive that class of motor vehicle conducted under the provisions of section 38 of this Ordinance, or that he holds a certificate of competency for that class of motor vehicle issued under the provisions of the Traffic Ordinance (Chapter 232 of the Revised Edition), or is the holder of a valid driving licence for that class of motor vehicle granted by a competent authority in some part of Her Majesty's dominions where such driving licences are granted only after a prescribed test has been passed or is the holder of an international driving permit;

(b) makes a declaration in the prescribed form as to whether or not he is suffering from any such disease or physical disability as may be specified in the form, or any other physical disability which would be likely to cause the driving by him of a motor vehicle, being a vehicle of such class as he would be authorized by the licence to drive, to be a source of danger to the public;

(c) is able to read, with glasses, if worn, a motor vehicle identification plate at a distance of twenty-five yards.

(2) If it appears to a licensing officer that there is reason to believe an applicant for any driving licence is suffering from disease or physical disability likely to cause the driving by him of a motor vehicle, of the class or classes in respect of which the application for a licence is made, to be a source of danger to the public, he may refuse to grant such application unless the applicant—

(a) produces a certificate from a medical practitioner, stating that in the opinion of such medical practitioner the applicant is physically fit to drive the class or classes of motor vehicle in question; and

(b) undergoes and passes a driving test.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Registrar or a Licensing Officer to grant a licence, may, after giving to the Registrar notice of his intention so to do, appeal to a magistrate of the first or second class, who shall after considering the grounds for such refusal make such order as he thinks fit, and any order so made shall be binding on the Registrar.

31. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 30 of this Ordinance a licensing officer may grant an applicant for a driving licence a provisional licence endorsed in respect of any class or classes of motor vehicle which if he held a driving licence he would be entitled to drive in order that the applicant may learn to drive such class or classes of vehicle.

Provisional
driving licence.

(2) Whenever the driving licence of any person has been cancelled or suspended a licensing officer may, on application, so soon as the period of cancellation or suspension is over, grant to such person a provisional licence endorsed in respect of any class or classes of vehicle which if he held a driving licence he would be entitled to drive with a view to such person passing any necessary test.

(3) Provisional licences shall be valid for three months only but may, in the discretion of the licensing officer, be renewed for further periods of three months on payment of the prescribed fee for granting a provisional licence.

(4) Any person holding a provisional licence driving a motor vehicle shall comply with all such conditions as shall be prescribed.

Driving licence not to be granted to persons under certain ages.

32. (1) No driving licence or provisional licence shall be granted to any person—

(a) under the age of sixteen years;

(b) under the age of eighteen years, except in respect of motor-cycles;

(c) endorsed in respect of motor-omnibuses unless he is—

(i) over the age of twenty-one years; and

(ii) has for not less than two years held a licence endorsed in respect of motor-cars or commercial vehicles:

Provided that any person who satisfies the licensing officer that he has, before the coming into operation of this Ordinance, been in possession of a licence authorizing him to drive a motor vehicle in Kenya shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 30 of this Ordinance, notwithstanding the provisions of this section, be entitled to receive a licence in respect of the same class or description of vehicles which he is by such licence authorized to drive.

(2) If the applicant for a driving licence fails to produce his birth certificate the opinion of the licensing officer shall be conclusive as to a person's age.

Applications for driving licences, and to drive further class of vehicle.

33. (1) Applications for driving licences and provisional licences shall be made to a licensing officer on the prescribed form, accompanied by the prescribed fee, and the particulars required in such form shall be signed by the applicant.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 29 of this Ordinance, any person holding a driving licence endorsed in respect of any class of motor vehicle who wishes his licence endorsed in respect of another class or classes of motor vehicles shall apply to a licensing officer on the prescribed form accompanied by the prescribed fee, and the particulars and declarations in such form shall be signed by the applicant.

34. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance the Governor in Council may make rules prescribing special terms and conditions for the issue of driving licences to members of Her Majesty's Forces for the purpose of driving service vehicles while on duty and he may in such rules order that such licences shall be issued without the payment of any fee.

(2) The signature of the licence holder shall also be affixed to the licence.

(3) No person shall use a mutilated, or defaced driving licence or provisional licence.

(4) A driving licence issued to any person who is suffering from any disease or disability to whom under the provisions of section 30 of this Ordinance a licence has been granted shall be subject to such restrictions or conditions as may be decided by the Licensing Officer. Such restrictions or conditions shall be entered on the licence which shall not be valid unless such conditions or restrictions are complied with by the holder thereof.

Duplicate
licences.

37. If a driving licence or provisional licence is lost, defaced or mutilated, the Registrar shall, upon application being made on the prescribed form and upon payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the holder a duplicate licence or provisional licence:

Provided that where any licence or provisional licence which has been lost is subsequently found the holder shall forthwith deliver up to the licensing officer such duplicate.

(3) The Registrar shall restore a driving licence revoked under sub-section (1) of this section to the person in question under the following conditions—

(a) in the case of a licence revoked under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of this section if he satisfies the Registrar by means of a certificate from a medical practitioner that he is suffering from no disease or physical disability likely to cause the driving by him of a motor vehicle, of the class or classes in respect of which his licence was issued, to be a source of danger to the public; and

(b) in the case of a licence revoked under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of this section if he passes the prescribed test for the class or classes of motor vehicle in respect of which his licence was originally granted.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the revocation of a licence under the provisions of this section may, after giving to the Registrar notice of his intention so to do, appeal to a magistrate of the first or second class, who shall, after considering the grounds for such revocation, make such order as he thinks fit, and any order so made shall be binding on the Registrar.

40. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on first conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and on each subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment. Penalties.

PART V—DRIVING AND OTHER OFFENCES RELATING TO THE USE OF VEHICLES ON ROADS

41. (1) No person shall drive, or, being the owner or person in charge of a vehicle, cause or permit any other person to drive, a vehicle on a road at a speed greater than the speed specified in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance as the maximum speed for that class of vehicle. Speed of motor vehicles.

(2) Every vehicle which is subject to a speed limit under the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall have painted or affixed to the rear thereof, as close to the rear number plate as possible, and in such a manner as to be conspicuous to any person within twenty-five feet of the rear of such vehicle a mark in the prescribed form indicating its maximum speed.

(3) No person shall drive, or, being the owner or person in charge of a vehicle, cause or permit any other person to drive any vehicle at a speed exceeding thirty miles per hour on any road within the boundaries of any Trading Centre, Township or Municipality:

Provided that it shall be lawful for a Highway Authority to permit any vehicle, other than a vehicle which is subject to a speed limit of thirty miles per hour or less under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 41 of this Ordinance to exceed thirty miles per hour on any road:

Provided also that any such Highway Authority shall erect and maintain traffic signs as prescribed so as plainly to indicate to drivers entering or leaving such roads or areas where the thirty mile per hour speed limit restriction begins and ends.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (3) of this section it shall be lawful for the Highway Authority—

(i) to impose on any road such lower limit of speed as it considers necessary in circumstances when, by reason of repairs, reconstruction or damage to the road or condition of the road, any lower limit of speed is necessary for the public safety or to prevent damage to the road, provided that such lower limit shall be imposed only for such period as is necessary to carry out repairs or reconstruction or until the condition of the road is satisfactory;

(ii) to impose on any road or area such lower limit of speed as may be necessary for the safety of the public having regard to the width of streets, nature of traffic or general development of the area:

Provided that in any case whilst such lower limit is in force under the provisions of this sub-section indication of the maximum speed permitted shall be given by prescribed traffic signs erected and maintained so as plainly to indicate to drivers entering or leaving such restricted road where the lower speed limit begins and ends.

(5) The provisions of this section or of this or any other Ordinance, imposing a speed limit on motor vehicles, shall not apply to any vehicle on an occasion when it is being used for fire brigade, ambulance or police purposes, if the observance of such provisions would be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion.

42. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of section 41 of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand. Penalties, etc

(2) A first or second conviction for an offence under this section shall not render the offender liable to be disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence for a longer period than, in the case of a first conviction, one month, or in the case of a second conviction, three months:

Provided that if the offender has been convicted of reckless or dangerous driving within the three years immediately preceding the date of his conviction for an offence under this section, such previous conviction shall be treated for the purposes of this sub-section as if it had been a conviction for an offence under this section.

(3) A person charged with the offence of driving a motor vehicle of any class or description on a road at a speed greater than the maximum speed allowed, shall not be liable to be convicted solely on the evidence of one witness to the effect that in the opinion of the witness the person charged was driving the vehicle at such greater speed.

43. (1) Any person who, when driving or attempting to drive, or when in charge of a motor vehicle on a road or other public place, is under the influence of drink or a drug to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings five thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding eighteen months or to both such fine and imprisonment. Driving when
drink.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, unless the court for special reason thinks fit to order otherwise, and without prejudice to the power of the court to order a longer period of disqualification, be disqualified for a period of six months from the date of conviction, for holding or obtaining a licence.

Prohibition of drinking when driving or in charge of a public service vehicle.

44. (1) Any person who, when driving or in charge of, or during any period of duty in connexion with the driving of a public service vehicle, drinks any intoxicating liquor, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings four thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Causing death by driving or obstruction.

44A. Any person who causes the death of another by driving a motor vehicle on a road recklessly or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, or by leaving any vehicle on a road in such a position or manner or in such a condition as to be dangerous to the public, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition and use of the road and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction therefor to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years.

amount of traffic which is actually at the time, or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment, and the court shall order particulars of any such conviction to be endorsed on any driving licence held by the person convicted.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for reckless or dangerous driving the court shall exercise the power conferred by Part VIII of this Ordinance of ordering that the offender shall be disqualified for holding or obtaining a driving licence for such period as it thinks fit, unless the court having regard to the lapse of time since the date of the previous or last previous conviction or for any other special reason thinks fit to order otherwise, but this provision shall not be construed as affecting the right of the court to exercise the power aforesaid on a first conviction.

(3) Where a person is convicted of aiding, abetting, counselling, procuring, or inciting the commission of an offence under this section, and it is proved that he was present in the vehicle at the time, the offence of which he is convicted shall for the purpose of the provisions of this Ordinance relating to disqualification for holding or obtaining driving licences, be deemed to be an offence in connexion with the driving of a motor vehicle.

46. Upon the trial of a person who is charged with manslaughter in connexion with the driving of a motor vehicle by him, if the court is satisfied that such person is guilty of an offence under section 45 of this Ordinance, he may be found guilty of such offence whether or not the requirements of section 48 of this Ordinance have been satisfied as regards that offence.

Power to convict for reckless or dangerous driving on trial for manslaughter.

47. (1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle on a road without due care and attention or without reasonable consideration for other persons using the road shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction for a first offence to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand, and for a second or subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

Careless driving.

(2) A first or second conviction for an offence under this section shall not render the offender liable to be disqualified for holding or obtaining a licence for a longer period than in the case of a first conviction, one month, or in the case of a second conviction, three months:

Provided that if the offender has been convicted of reckless or dangerous driving within the three years immediately preceding the date of his conviction for an offence under this section such previous conviction shall be treated for the purposes of this sub-section as if it had been a conviction for an offence under this section.

(3) Where any person is charged with an offence under section 45 of this Ordinance, and the court considers that the evidence is such as to justify a conviction under this section but not under section 45, the court may convict such person of an offence against this section whether or not the requirements of section 48 of this Ordinance have been satisfied as regards that offence.

48. Where a person is prosecuted for an offence under any of the sections of this Ordinance relating respectively to the maximum speed at which motor vehicles may be driven,

Warning to be given before prosecution.

- (d) when any person in charge of any cattle raises his hand or in any manner gives a signal to stop forthwith stop his vehicle and keep it stationary for as long as it is reasonably necessary.

50. (1) No vehicle shall be allowed to remain in any position on any road so as to obstruct or to be likely to obstruct or cause inconvenience or danger to other traffic using the road and, save where the contrary is expressly provided in this Ordinance, every vehicle on a road, when not in motion, shall be drawn up as close to the side of the road as possible. Obstruction.

(2) The driver of any vehicle shall, in case of a breakdown, remove such vehicle from the road as soon as possible and until so removed the vehicle shall be placed as close to the side of the road as possible. If the vehicle remains on the road between the hours of 6.45 p.m. and 6.15 a.m. its position shall be clearly indicated by a light or lights visible to drivers of vehicles approaching from either direction.

(3) Any person who leaves any vehicle on a road in such a position or manner or in such a ~~condition as to cause or be~~ ^{“five thousand shillings or} ~~to imprisonment for a period not exceeding eighteen months”.~~ ^{” to imprisonment for a period not exceeding eighteen months”.}
 (Ordinance No. 14 of 1958, s. 6, with effect from 20-6-58)
~~imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.~~ Ord. 14/58

51. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person, without the written consent of the highway authority and of the Commissioner of Police, to promote or take part in any race or trial of speed between vehicles on a road. Racing,
or trial of speed.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, unless the court for special reasons thinks fit to order otherwise, and without prejudice to the power of the court to order a longer period of disqualification, be disqualified for a period of twelve months from the date of conviction for holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

52. (1) No vehicle shall be used on a road unless such vehicle and all parts and equipment thereof, including lights and tyres, comply with the requirements of this Ordinance, and such parts and equipment shall at all times be maintained in such a condition that the driving of the vehicle is not likely to be a danger to other users of the road or to persons travelling on the vehicle. Condition of vehicles.

(2) No motor vehicle the weight or dimensions of which laden or unladen exceeds the maximum weight or dimensions provided for such vehicles by Rules made under this Ordinance shall be used on a road.

Limitation of loads.

53. (1) No vehicle shall be used on a road with a load greater than the load specified by the manufacturer of the chassis of the vehicle or than the load capacity determined by an inspector under the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) No vehicle shall be used on a road if it is loaded in such a manner as to make it a danger to other persons using the road or to persons travelling on the vehicle. Should any load or part of a load fall from any vehicle on to a road such fact shall be prima facie evidence that the vehicle was loaded in a dangerous manner until the contrary is proved to the satisfaction of the court.

(3) For the purpose of this section persons travelling on a vehicle shall be deemed to be part of the load.

Exemptions.

54. (1) A highway authority may grant a permit subject to such conditions as may be specified therein—

(a) for the use on a road of a vehicle the weight or dimensions of which exceeds the maximum weight or dimensions provided for by Rules made under this Ordinance;

(b) for the carriage by a vehicle on a road of any specified load which it is unlawful to place on the vehicle under the provisions of any Rules made under this Ordinance.

(2) Every permit granted under the provisions of this section shall be in writing and shall be carried on the vehicle in question whenever such vehicle is being used under the authority of such permit.

Penalty.

55. (1) Any person who drives or uses on a road a vehicle in contravention of the provisions of sections 52 or 53 of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings three thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding nine months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1) of this section any person who is shown to the satisfaction of the court to be responsible for the maintenance of the vehicle, and any person who is shown to the satisfaction of the court to have been responsible for the loading of the vehicle shall be deemed to have used the vehicle on the road.

(3) In any case where a motor vehicle or trailer is twice or more times, in a period of twelve months, the subject of a successful prosecution under any of the provisions of sections 52 or 53 of this Ordinance the court may order the Registrar to suspend the licence of such vehicle for a period of six months. The Registrar shall thereupon suspend the licence of such vehicle for such period and the owner of the vehicle shall return the licence of the vehicle to the Registrar, who in no case shall issue another licence in respect of such vehicle until the termination of the period of suspension. No vehicle licence shall be returned or new licence granted in respect of a vehicle whose licence has been so suspended unless an inspector certifies that the vehicle is fit in all respects for use upon the road.

(4) When a vehicle licence has been suspended under sub-section (3) of this section no refund of licence fee shall be made.

56. (1) No person in a motor vehicle shall molest or obstruct the driver of such motor vehicle while it is in motion.

Obstructing driver of a motor vehicle.

(2) In no motor vehicle shall passengers be carried in such numbers or in such a position as to be likely to interfere with the safe driving of such motor vehicle. In the event of a contravention of the provisions of this sub-section the driver and the person in charge of the motor vehicle shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) No person driving a motor vehicle shall be in such a position that he cannot control the same or obtain a full view of the road and traffic ahead.

57. (1) It shall not be lawful for more than one person in addition to the driver to be carried on any two-wheeled motor cycle, nor shall it be lawful for any such one person to be so carried otherwise than sitting astride the motor cycle and on a proper seat securely fixed to the motor cycle behind the driver's seat.

Restrictions on pillion riding

(2) If any person is carried on any such motor cycle in contravention of the provisions of this section, the driver of the motor cycle shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

58. (1) Except for the purpose of testing or repairing a motor vehicle no person shall ride or be carried on the footboard, tailboard, steps, mudguards, canopy, roofing or elsewhere on the outside of any vehicle.

Riding in a dangerous position.

(2) No person shall ride or be carried on any load upon a vehicle if such a proceeding is unsafe by reason of the insufficiency of space available for such person to stand or sit or by reason of the position in which he is carried or the height or arrangement of the load.

Restrictions on persons being towed.

59. No person otherwise than with lawful authority or reasonable cause, shall take or retain hold of, or get on or off, a motor vehicle or trailer while in motion on any road.

Causing damage to a motor vehicle.

60. No person shall throw any object at any vehicle or at any person in or on such vehicle, nor shall he place any object on any road nor by any means impede the progress of any vehicle whereby injury or damage might be caused to such vehicle or any person.

Tampering with motor vehicle.

61. No person shall, without the knowledge or permission of the owner, or without reasonable excuse, get on to a motor vehicle or trailer or attempt to manipulate any of the levers, the starter, brakes or machinery of such a vehicle, or in any way tamper with a motor vehicle or trailer while it is standing on a road or parking place.

Taking motor vehicle without consent.

62. (1) If any person, whether employed by the owner or not, shall take and drive away any motor vehicle without the consent of the owner thereof or other lawful authority, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding nine months, or to a fine not exceeding shillings three thousand or to both such imprisonment and fine:

Provided that if the court is satisfied that the accused acted in the reasonable belief that he had lawful authority, or in the reasonable belief that the owner would, in the circumstances of the case, have given his consent, if he had been asked therefor, the accused shall not be liable to be convicted of an offence.

(2) If, in any prosecution for stealing a motor vehicle, the court is of opinion that the defendant is not guilty of stealing the motor vehicle, but was guilty of an offence under this section, the court may find him guilty of an offence under this section.

(3) In addition to any penalty specified in this section, the court may order that the convicted person shall pay to the owner of the motor vehicle such sum as represents fair compensation for any damage sustained by the owner of the motor vehicle.

63. No person shall—

motor vehicles.

- (a) leave unattended on a road any motor vehicle with the engine running;
- (b) quit any vehicle without having taken due precautions against its moving along the road from its stationary position.

64. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, where no penalty is specifically provided, on first conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and on each subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment. Penalties.

PART VI—REGULATION OF TRAFFIC

65. (1) The Member shall as soon as may be after the commencement of this Ordinance prepare a code (in this section referred to as the "highway code") comprising such directions as appear to him to be proper for the guidance of persons using roads and may from time to time revise the highway code by revoking, varying, amending or adding to the provisions thereof in such manner as he thinks fit. Issue by Member of directions for guidance of users of roads.

(2) The highway code and any alterations proposed to be made in the provisions thereof shall be laid before the Legislative Council, and if a resolution of the Legislative Council is passed within thirty days of their being so laid, that such code be revoked or amended in accordance with such resolution, such code shall be deemed to be revoked or amended accordingly, but without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered by virtue thereof.

(3) A failure on the part of any person to observe any provisions of the highway code shall not of itself render that person liable to criminal proceedings of any kind, but any such failure may in any proceedings (whether civil or criminal, and including proceedings for an offence under this Ordinance) be relied upon by any party to the proceedings as tending to establish or to negative any liability which is in question in those proceedings.

regulate traffic

66. Without prejudice to any powers or duties of the police under this Ordinance or any other Ordinance it shall be the duty of the police—

(a) to regulate all traffic and to keep order and prevent obstruction in all roads, parking places and other places of public resort;

(b) to divert traffic temporarily, to restrict or close and deny public access to any road, parking place or other place of public resort, where any emergency or any assembly or other event appear to render advisable such a course.

Traffic signs.

67. (1) Subject to and in conformity with such general or other directions as may be given by the Member a highway authority may cause or permit traffic signs to be placed on or near a road.

(2) Traffic signs shall be of the prescribed size, colour and type except where the Member authorizes the erection or retention of a sign of another character.

(3) After the commencement of this Ordinance no traffic signs shall be placed on or near any road except under and in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any notice in respect to the use of a bridge:

Provided also that a Highway Authority or police officer of or above the rank of Inspector may authorize the erection of any traffic sign for any special purpose for a period not exceeding seven days and such traffic sign shall be deemed to be lawful even though it does not conform to the requirements of this section.

(4) All traffic signs shall be deemed to have been lawfully erected until the contrary is proved.

(5) A highway authority may by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of any land on which there is any traffic sign or any object which so closely resembles a traffic sign that it might reasonably be taken to be such a sign to remove it, and if any person fails to comply with such a notice the highway authority may effect the removal, do as little damage as may be, and may recover summarily as a civil debt from the person so in default the expense incurred in so doing:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in the case of any sign or object so long as its retention is expressly authorized by the highway authority.

68. (1) It shall be lawful for the highway authority, or its authorized representative for the purpose of preventing damage being caused to any road or for the purpose of carrying out any works which it may consider necessary or desirable in connexion with the maintenance or improvement of any road, to close the whole or any part of such road to all vehicles or any particular type of vehicles at any time for any period it may think fit.

Closure of roads.

(2) It shall not be lawful for the driver or person in charge of a vehicle to drive or haul the vehicle or cause it to be driven or hauled over any bridge on or near which a conspicuous notice has been placed to the effect that such bridge is insufficient to carry traffic in excess of a specified weight, unless the gross weight of such vehicle and any trailer attached thereto is less than the weight specified or unless he has obtained the consent in writing of the highway authority.

(3) It shall not be lawful for the driver or person in charge of any vehicle to drive or haul the vehicle or cause it to be driven or hauled over any portion of a road which is closed to traffic and where a conspicuous notice is displayed to the effect that the road is closed, unless he has received the permission in writing of the highway authority.

69. If any injury to a bridge or road be caused through any contravention of this Ordinance it shall be lawful for the highway authority to make good such injury and to recover the cost thereof from the owner of the vehicle, and the certificate of the highway authority of the amount of the cost of making good such injury shall be conclusive evidence of the amount payable by such owner.

bridges.

Duty to stop and report.

No. 39

Duty to stop and report.

70. (1) If, in any case, owing to the presence of a motor vehicle on a road, an accident occurs whereby injury or damage is caused to any person, vehicle, dog or cattle, the driver of the motor vehicle shall stop, and if required to do so by any person having reasonable grounds for so requiring, give his name and address, and also the name and address of the owner and the identification marks of the vehicle.

(2) Any other person in the vehicle at the time of the accident shall also, if required to do so, give his name and address.

(3) If in the case of any such accident as aforesaid, the driver of the motor vehicle for any reason does not give his name and address to any such person as aforesaid, or if any injury has been caused to any person, dog or cattle, the driver shall report the accident at a police station or to a police officer as soon as reasonably possible, and in any case within twenty-four hours of the occurrence thereof.

(4) The owner of a motor vehicle shall supply the police with all information necessary for the identification of a driver involved in an accident.

(Ordinance No. 52 of 1959, s. 9, with effect from 31-12-59)

vehicle in connexion with which the accident arose, and for that purpose may enter at any reasonable time any premises where the vehicle is, and if any person obstructs such police officer in the performance of his duty under this section, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Inspection of vehicle involved in accident

Penalty.

72. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on first conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and on each subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART VIII—SUSPENSION, CANCELLATION AND ENDORSEMENT OF DRIVING LICENCES

Powers of the Court.

73. (1) Any court before which a person is convicted of any offence in connexion with the driving of a motor vehicle may—

(a) if the person convicted holds a driving licence or provisional driving licence suspend the licence for such time as the court thinks fit, or cancel the licence and declare the person convicted disqualified for obtaining another licence for a stated period;

Traffic

- (b) if the person convicted holds a driving licence suspend the licence until such time as the person passes a driving test under the provisions of section 38 of this Ordinance;
- (c) if the person convicted does not hold a driving licence or provisional driving licence, declare him disqualified for obtaining a licence for a stated period;
- (d) limit any suspension, cancellation or disqualification imposed under this section to the driving of a motor vehicle of the same class or description as the vehicle in relation to which the offence was committed;
- (e) if the person convicted holds a driving licence order that particulars of the conviction be endorsed thereon;

(2) In any case where a court disqualifies a person for obtaining a driving licence until he has passed a driving test a licensing officer shall issue such person on application and on payment of the prescribed fee with a provisional driving licence.

(3) An order disqualifying a person from obtaining a driving licence shall be deemed to be an order disqualifying him from obtaining either a driving licence or provisional driving licence.

74. An appeal shall lie against any order made by a court under section 73 of this Ordinance in the same manner as against a conviction, and the court making the order or the court to which the appeal lies may suspend the operation of the order pending the determination of the appeal.

Right of appeal.

75. (1) In any case where a court under any provisions of this Ordinance has ordered the suspension of a driving licence or provisional driving licence, the licence shall be deemed to be cancelled in respect of the class or classes of motor vehicles in respect of which the order was made.

Cancellation of driving licence.

(2) On the application of any person for a new driving licence endorsed in respect of any class or classes of motor vehicles in respect of which the applicant's licence has been cancelled, the licensing officer shall treat such person as if he was applying for a driving licence in respect of such class or classes of motor vehicles for the first time and shall in no circumstances issue him with a driving licence until he has passed the prescribed test.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 30 of this Ordinance, the possession of a driving licence or certificate of competency issued by a competent authority shall not, in any case, exempt an applicant for a driving licence from passing the prescribed driving test, if such applicant has been disqualified for holding or obtaining a driving licence.

Production of
for endorsement.

76. Every person who is convicted before any court of an offence in connexion with the driving of a motor vehicle, shall, if he holds a driving licence or provisional driving licence, produce such licence within such time as the court may direct for the purpose of endorsement.

Custody of licence while suspended or cancelled.

77. (1) Where a court orders particulars to be endorsed on a driving licence or provisional driving licence held by any person, or where by a conviction or order of a court such a licence is cancelled, the court shall send notice of this conviction or order to the Registrar and, in a case where a person's licence is cancelled, shall also on the production of the licence for the purpose of endorsement retain it and forward it to the Registrar.

(2) Where the suspension, cancellation or disqualification to which a person has become subject is limited to the driving of a motor vehicle of a particular class or description, the Registrar to whom that person's licence has been forwarded under this section shall forthwith after the receipt thereof issue to that person a new licence on which there shall be indicated in the prescribed manner the class or description of vehicle which the holder of the licence is thereby authorized to drive.

Fraudulent
application for driving licence.

78. If any person who under the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance is disqualified for holding or obtaining a driving licence or provisional driving licence applies for or obtains a licence while he is so disqualified, or if any person while he is so disqualified drives a motor vehicle or, if the disqualification is limited to the driving of a motor vehicle of a particular class or description, drives a motor vehicle of that class or description, on a road or if any person who has been refused a licence applies for or obtains a licence without disclosing such refusal, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding nine months or to a fine not exceeding shillings three thousand. A licence obtained by any person disqualified as aforesaid shall be of no effect.

79. On the issue of a driving licence or provisional driving licence to any person, the particulars endorsed on any previous licence held by him shall be inserted in the new licence, unless he has previously become entitled under the provisions of section 81 of this Ordinance to the issue of a licence free from endorsement.

Particulars of endorsement to be inserted in new licence.

80. If any person whose driving licence or provisional driving licence has been ordered to be endorsed, and who has not previously become entitled under the provisions of section 81 of this Ordinance to have a licence issued to him free from endorsement, applies for or obtains a licence without giving particulars of the order, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months. Any licence so obtained shall be of no effect.

Applying for licence without disclosing endorsement.

81. Where a person in respect of whom an order has been made under this Part of this Ordinance requiring the endorsement of any licence or provisional driving licence held by him, has during a continuous period of three years or upwards since the order was made had no other such order made against him, he shall be entitled, at any time, on application and subject to the payment of the prescribed fee and to the surrender of any subsisting permit to have issued to him a new licence free from endorsement:

Issue of new licence free from endorsement.

Provided that in reckoning the said period of three years any period during which the person was by virtue of the order disqualified for holding or obtaining a permit shall be excluded.

PART IX—OFFENCES BY DRIVERS OF VEHICLES OTHER THAN MOTOR VEHICLES AND OTHER ROAD USERS

Driving when under influence of drink.

82. Any person who when driving or attempting to drive, or when in charge of a vehicle, other than a motor vehicle, on a road or other public place is under the influence of drink or a drug to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Reckless driving.

83. Any person who on any road or in any public place drives any vehicle, other than a motor vehicle, recklessly or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the nature, condition, and use of the road, and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings one thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Careless driving.

84. Any person who on any road or in any public place drives a vehicle, other than a motor vehicle without due care or attention, or in such a manner as to be an annoyance to the public, shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

Carelessness
of animals.

85. Any person driving or conducting any cattle, dog, or other animal who, on any road, fails to exercise reasonable care to keep it or them under proper control, or allows such cattle, dog or animal to become a danger or annoyance to the public, shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

Restrictions on riding bicycles.

86. (1) Not more than one person shall be carried in addition to the rider on any bicycle, nor shall any such one person be so carried otherwise than sitting on a carrier securely fixed to the bicycle or on a step especially fitted to carry a passenger.

(2) No person shall carry on a bicycle a load which because of its size or the manner in which it is carried is likely to be a danger to other persons using a road.

(3) Any person contravening the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

PART X—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS AS TO ROADS

87. (1) No owner or person in charge of a vehicle drawn by animals shall allow an animal which is of materially defective vision to be used for drawing such vehicle on a road.

Offences in connexion with roads.

(2) No person shall do any of the following on a road—

(a) wilfully or negligently lead or drive any animal or vehicle on a footpath or in a road drain;

(b) play any games to the annoyance, inconvenience or danger of persons using the road;

(c) wilfully obstruct the free passage of persons or vehicles passing along the road;

(d) drive or conduct any vehicle drawn by animals without having reins to guide the animals, unless a person leads the animals in such a manner as to have proper control over them;

(e) when driving a vehicle, sleep whilst such vehicle is in motion;

(f) permit any cattle to be at large without being under such efficient control as to prevent their damaging the road;

(g) outspan any animals from a wagon or cart.

88. (1) Every person who, without the written permission of the highway authority—

Encroachment on and damage to roads.

(a) encroaches on a road or on any land reserved therefor at the side or sides thereof by making or erecting any building, fence, ditch, advertisement sign, or other obstacle, or by digging thereon or by planting or sowing any tree, shrub, or seeds thereon;

(b) leaves on a road any timber, stones or other material so as to obstruct or endanger persons using the road;

(c) digs up, removes or alters in any way the soil or surface of a road, or of any land reserved therefor at the side or sides thereof, or if done for the purpose of moving a vehicle without immediately thereafter making good the damage;

- (d) wilfully fills up, alters or obstructs any ditch or drain, whether on a road or contiguous thereto, made by or under the control of the highway authority, to carry water off the road or to keep it from flowing on to the road;
- (e) allows any sludge or any filthy or noisome matter to flow from any building or land in his occupation on to a road or into any ditch or drain made by the highway authority;
- (f) causes or allows any timber, sledge, plough or other heavy material, vehicle or implement not wholly raised, above the ground on wheels, to be dragged on a road;
- (g) pitches any tent, booth or stall on a road;
- (h) makes any fire on any road;

shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Highway Authority to remove anything whatsoever which has been placed or erected on a road or land reserved therefor in contravention of this section.

Prohibition on use of tracked vehicles, etc

89. (1) No person shall use or cause or permit to be used on any road any vehicle or trailer having ribbed, spudded or spiked wheels or fitted with chain or crawler type metal track, provided that this sub-section shall not apply—

- (a) where such wheels or tracks are fitted with special rims or street plates which would ensure an even contact with the road surface;
- (b) to any road set aside by a highway authority for the use of ox-drawn vehicles;
- (c) in any case where the highway authority has given permission in writing for the use of such a vehicle and such permission is carried on the vehicle to which it relates.

(2) No person shall use or cause or permit to be used on any road any ox-drawn vehicle not fitted with pneumatic tyres except on a road set aside for ox-drawn vehicles or on a road where no alternative road in a reasonably usable condition exists for ox-drawn vehicles.

(3) No person shall use or cause or permit to be used on any road which has a bituminous surface any vehicle the wheels of which are fitted with non-skid chains or any device of a similar kind for a similar purpose.

90. (1) The highway authority shall not be liable for any loss or damage which may be caused to any person or property through the condition of a road or the failure of a road to sustain the weight of a vehicle.

Non-liability of highway authority for damage.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect the right of the highway authority or of any person to recover compensation from the owner or driver of any vehicle for any loss, damage or injury which may be sustained by the highway authority or such person by the use of a vehicle.

91. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

Penalty.

PART XI—PUBLIC SERVICE VEHICLES

92. (1) No person shall own, or drive, or be in charge of any public service vehicle on a road, unless there is in force in relation to such vehicle a public service vehicle licence issued under this part of this Ordinance.

Unlicensed public service vehicle.

(2) Any person who is convicted of an offence under this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand.

93. (1) Application for the licensing of any motor vehicle as a public service vehicle shall be made by the registered owner of such vehicle. Such application shall be made to a licensing officer on the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner.

Application for public service vehicle licence.

(2) No public service vehicle licence shall be issued in respect of any motor vehicle—

(a) other than to the registered owner of such vehicle;

(b) which is not registered and licensed under Parts II and III of this Ordinance;

- (c) which does not comply with the provisions of this Ordinance as to construction, equipment and use;
- (d) which is intended to be used as an omnibus unless the owner of such vehicle is in possession of a valid Road Service Licence in respect thereof issued under the provisions of the Transport Licensing Ordinance and unless such vehicle complies with any conditions attached to such licence;
- (e) which is intended to be used as a taxicab unless such vehicle has been registered as a taxicab under the provisions of any by-laws in force in a Municipality or Township;

(g) which has not previously been so licensed, or the construction of which has been altered or modified in any way since it was last so licensed, and which is intended to be used as an omnibus, unless the owner of the vehicle has obtained in respect thereof a certificate of fitness in the prescribed form signed by the certifying officer, and has paid the prescribed fee.

(Ordinance No. 52 of 1959, s. 10, with effect from 31-12-59) have been complied with shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, issue such licence as may be prescribed.

(2) Public service vehicle licences shall be issued for a period not exceeding twelve months and shall expire on the 31st of December each year unless previously cancelled or withdrawn.

(3) Where any public service vehicle licence is cancelled or withdrawn for any reason during the period of its validity no refund of licence fee shall be made in respect of the unexpired period of such licence.

(4) Every licence issued under the provisions of this section shall be carried on the vehicle to which it relates in the prescribed manner.

(5) A public service vehicle licence shall not be transferred or assigned to any other person or vehicle;

(6) Whenever the holder of any public service vehicle licence ceases to be the owner of the vehicle specified in the licence he shall forthwith return such licence to the Registrar and the vehicle shall from the date of such change of ownership, cease to be licensed as a public service vehicle.

(7) If any public service vehicle licence is lost, or becomes illegible, the owner of the vehicle to which such licence relates shall where the licence is illegible forthwith apply to the Registrar on the prescribed form for a duplicate thereof and shall return it to the Registrar. The Registrar shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a duplicate licence. Where any public service vehicle licence which has been lost is subsequently found, the holder of a duplicate public service vehicle licence issued under the provisions of this sub-section shall forthwith deliver up to the Registrar such duplicate.

95. (1) A person shall not drive or act as the conductor of a public service vehicle on a road unless he is licensed for the purpose under this Part of this Ordinance and a person shall not employ or permit any person who is not so licensed so to do.

Drivers' and conductors
licences

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to any person who has hired a public service vehicle for the purpose of driving such vehicle himself and whose passengers, if any, are not carried for hire or reward, nor to any driver or conductor of a public service vehicle which is not carrying passengers.

(2) A person shall be disqualified for obtaining a licence to drive, or a licence to act as the conductor of, a public service vehicle unless he is, in the case of a licence to drive, over the age of twenty-one years, and in the case of a licence to act as a conductor, over the age of eighteen years.

(3) Upon application being made in the prescribed manner and upon the prescribed form the Registrar, if he is satisfied that the information given in the application form is correct, and that the applicant—

(a) for a public service vehicle driver's licence is the holder of a valid driving licence in respect of that class or classes of vehicles for which a public service vehicle driver's licence is required;

(b) is not disqualified under the provisions of any Ordinance from holding or obtaining a driving licence, public service vehicle driver's or conductor's licence as the case may be;

(c) fulfils and complies with such other conditions as may be prescribed and is not disqualified by reason of age, shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee, issue such licence:

Provided that no licence to drive or act as the conductor of a public service vehicle shall be issued to any person unless such person has been granted a certificate by a police officer not below the rank of Assistant Superintendent to the effect that he is a fit and proper person to hold such a licence.

(4) A licence to drive, or a licence to act as the conductor of, a public service vehicle shall be valid for two years from the date of issue unless it is previously cancelled, suspended or revoked under the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance. Where any such licence is cancelled, suspended or revoked for any reason, no refund of licence fee shall be payable in respect of any unexpired period of the licence.

(5) A person licensed as a driver or conductor of a public service vehicle shall not drive or act as a conductor of such vehicle on a road without wearing the prescribed badge; provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to any person who hires a motor vehicle for the purpose of driving such a vehicle himself and whose passengers, if any, are not carried for hire or reward nor to any driver or conductor of a public service vehicle which is not carrying passengers.

(6) In the event of any public service vehicle driver's or conductor's licence or badge, becoming lost or rendered illegible, the holder thereof shall forthwith apply to the Registrar on the prescribed form which shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee, for a duplicate thereof. Where any original licence or badge is found after being lost the duplicate thereof, if any, shall forthwith be returned to the Registrar.

Power to cancel or suspend, etc.

96. (1) Any licence issued under the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance may be cancelled at any time by the Registrar if he is satisfied that by reason of the conduct of the holder of such licence or the condition of any vehicle in respect of which the licence is issued, such cancellation would be in the public interest. Upon receipt of a notice of such cancellation, the licence holder shall forthwith deliver up such licence to the Registrar.

(2) Any court before which a person is convicted of any offence under this Part of this Ordinance or any offence relating to the construction, equipment, condition or use of a public service vehicle, may—

(i) if the person convicted holds a licence issued under this Part of this Ordinance, cancel such licence and declare the person convicted disqualified for holding or obtaining another such licence for a stated period and any licence so cancelled shall be surrendered to the court which shall forward it to the Registrar;

- (ii) if the person convicted is not the holder of any licence under this Part of this Ordinance, declare him disqualified for obtaining such a licence for a stated period and shall in such case notify the Registrar of such order, and shall—

- (i) if the person convicted holds a licence to drive or act as the conductor of a public service vehicle endorse the details of such conviction on the licence within such time as the court may direct for the purpose of endorsement;

- (ii) if the person convicted is not the holder of such a licence order the Registrar to endorse such details on any such licence subsequently issued to such person.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the refusal or failure to grant or by the suspension or cancellation of a licence under this Part of this Ordinance or by any limitation imposed thereon by the Registrar or by a Police Officer may appeal in writing to a magistrate of the first or second class whose decision shall be final and any such licence shall continue in force during the period of its validity until the appeal has been disposed of.

97. (1) The Registrar shall in respect of any public service vehicle determine the maximum number of passengers, whether sitting or standing, and the weight of baggage or goods allowed to be carried at any time on such vehicle or on any vehicle of a similar class or description:

Numbers of passengers and loads.

Provided that such determination shall have regard to the provisions of this Ordinance with regard to construction, seating capacity and weight.

(2) If any public service vehicle carries more persons, baggage or goods than it is licensed to carry, the driver, conductor and the owner of such vehicle shall each be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two thousand:

Provided that the owner shall not be guilty as aforesaid if such offence is committed without his knowledge or consent and if he took all reasonable precautions to prevent it.

(3) No person who is requested by the owner, driver or conductor of a public service vehicle not to enter the vehicle, shall enter or attempt to enter the vehicle when it is carrying the full number of persons it is licensed to carry. Any person disobeying such a request shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) "owner" shall include the owner and the agent of such owner;
- (b) a child, who is under the apparent age of five years and who does not occupy a seat, shall not count as a person;
- (c) any two children, each of whom is over the apparent age of five years and under the apparent age of twelve years, shall count as one passenger.

Recovery of and non-payment of fares.

98. (1) Where, at any place on its scheduled route, a motor omnibus is, by reference to the relevant timetable, more than four hours late, owing to a breakdown or any fault or neglect of the owner, his servants or agents, any passenger who has paid his fare may elect to alight from the motor omnibus, and recover that proportion of the fare paid by him in respect of the uncompleted portion of his journey.

(2) Where a fare is recoverable under sub-section (1) of this section, it shall be the duty of the person who received the fare to repay it to the passenger on demand. Any person failing so to repay a fare shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred in addition to being ordered to repay the fare, and the amount of the fare shall be recoverable as a fine.

(3) Any person who fails to pay any sum due from him by way of fare for accommodation in a public service vehicle shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

(4) Upon any conviction for an offence under this section the magistrate may in addition to the imposition of a fine, make an order for the payment of any sum due by the offender by way of fare and may further, if he thinks fit, award costs and compensation against the offender in respect of any loss of time incurred by the owner, driver or conductor of the vehicle in attending the court.

99. (1) No person shall cause or permit any private hire car to ply for hire on any taxi rank, road, car park or other public place. Regulation of public service vehicles.

(2) No person shall own, drive or be in charge of any taxicab unless such vehicle is painted in such colour or colours or is permanently marked in such manner as may be prescribed, and no vehicle, not being a taxicab, shall be painted or marked in the manner prescribed for a taxicab.

(3) The owner of every taxicab and private hire vehicle shall keep or cause to be kept, a record in the prescribed form of every separate period of hire of such vehicle. Such record shall be made available for inspection by the police on demand; provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to any taxicab in respect of any journey which is wholly within the boundaries of the Municipality or Township in which it is registered.

(4) The Highway Authority may, after consultation with the officer in charge of the police in the area concerned, appoint stopping places where omnibuses may set down and pick up passengers and no driver of an omnibus shall stop his vehicle to set down or pick up passengers on any road where stopping places have been provided other than at such stopping places.

(5) No person shall drive or permit to be used a public service vehicle in a dirty or neglected condition.

100. No person shall, for the purpose of obtaining passengers for any public service vehicle make any noise or sound any instrument, or do anything which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, inconvenience or danger to the public.

101. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Part of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, where no penalty is specifically provided, to a fine not exceeding shillings two hundred.

PART XII—GENERAL

102. (1) It shall be lawful for any police officer in uniform to stop any vehicle and for any police officer, licensing officer or inspector— Inspection of vehicles.

(a) to enter any vehicle;

- (b) to drive or cause any vehicle to be driven;
- (c) upon reasonable suspicion of any offence against the provisions of this Ordinance, to order and require the owner of any vehicle to bring the vehicle to him, for the purpose of carrying out any examination and test of any vehicle with a view to ascertaining whether the provisions of this Ordinance are being complied with or with a view to ascertaining whether any vehicle is being used in contravention of this Ordinance.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with any instruction or order given under the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings five hundred.

Removal of vehicles from road.

103. (1) Where any vehicle is found in use on a road in contravention of the provisions of this Ordinance, or where any vehicle has been left on any road or other public place in such circumstances as to make it appear that such vehicle has been abandoned or should be removed to a place of safety, or where any vehicle has been left on a road in a position which causes or is likely to cause danger to other road users and the owner or driver cannot readily be found it shall be lawful for any police officer or any Inspector to take the vehicle or cause the same to be taken to a police station or other place of safety by such method, route and under such conditions as he may consider necessary having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(2) Where under the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section it is considered necessary to have a vehicle towed, transported, driven or otherwise removed, or where it is considered necessary to carry out emergency repairs or to adjust or off-load any part of the load of such vehicle, any expense incurred thereby shall be payable by the owner of the vehicle and no such vehicle shall be released from the police station or other place of safety until either—

- (a) such expenses have been paid to the person to whom they are due; or
- (b) such person certifies in writing that he is willing to allow the vehicle to be removed before he receives such expenses due to him.

(3) A police officer or Inspector who orders the removal of a vehicle under the provisions of this section shall not be held liable for any damage to or loss of any item from such vehicle during its removal to or detention at a police station or other place of safety.

(4) Any police officer, licensing officer or Inspector, if he is of the opinion that any vehicle is being used in contravention of section 52 or section 53 of this Ordinance or in contravention of any rules relating to the construction, use and equipment of vehicles may by order prohibit the use of such vehicle, under such conditions and for such purposes as he may consider necessary for the safety of the public or to ensure that such vehicle does comply with the aforementioned provisions. Any such order shall remain in force until the repairs specified therein have been satisfactorily completed and the vehicle has been certified as complying with the aforesaid conditions with respect to construction, use, equipment and weight.

(5) Any person who permits the use of, or drives, any vehicle in respect of which any prohibition or restriction is in force other than in conformity with any conditions or for such purpose as may have been specified shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings four thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(6) Any order issued under the provisions of this section shall be in writing.

(7) Where any vehicle is required to be examined and tested for the purpose of being certified as complying with the provisions of this Ordinance the fee, if any, shall be paid by the owner of the vehicle.

(8) Any person who fails to comply with any instruction or order given under the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings five hundred.

104. It shall be lawful for any police officer to detain at a police station or other place of safety any vehicle which has been removed from a road or other public place under the provisions of section 103 of this Ordinance until such inquiries have been made by the police as they may think necessary in the circumstances of the case.

Detention of vehicles.

No. 39

Certificate of inspector to be admissible in evidence.

105. (1) If in any proceedings under this Ordinance any question arises as to whether a vehicle does or does not comply with any provisions of this Ordinance, the certificate of an inspector to the effect that he has examined the vehicle and as to the result of his examination may be read as evidence although the inspector is not called as a witness.

(2) The court, if it thinks fit, may summon and examine the inspector as to the subject matter of his certificate.

Certified extract from records to be admissible in evidence.

106. In any proceedings under this Ordinance an extract from the records of registered vehicles, certified under the hand of a licensing officer, may be received in evidence although the licensing officer is not called as a witness, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein set forth.

Owner or other person to furnish name and address of driver of vehicle.

107. The owner of any vehicle and any other person who is able to provide such information shall, as soon as reasonably possible and in any case within seven days after having received a verbal or written request for such information, give such information as he may be required by a police officer to give as to the identity of the driver of such vehicle.

Owner to keep list of drivers employed.

108. (1) Any person who employs any other person to drive a motor vehicle shall keep a written record of the name, address and driving licence number of such other person. Such record shall be preserved for a period of six months after the date that such person ceases to be employed as a driver and shall be made available to any police officer on demand.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings five hundred.

Verification of facts.

109. Any person to whom any application is made for anything to be done under this Ordinance may require any facts stated in the information to be verified to his satisfaction.

Giving false information.

110. Any person who makes any statement which to his knowledge is false or in any respect misleading in connexion with any information lawfully demanded or required under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings four thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment, and if such statement is made to any person in connexion with an application for any licence or permit the court convicting such person may also order that such licence or permit be not granted for a stated period.

111. (1) Any person who fraudulently imitates, alters, mutilates, destroys, or uses, or fraudulently lends or allows to be used by any other person any licence, document, plate or mark issued or prescribed under this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding shillings four thousand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Fraudulent
of documents.

(2) A police officer may take possession of any licence, document, plate or mark relating to any suspected offence, under this section.

112. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any Ordinance contained it shall be lawful for a court to accept the particulars of endorsements on any licence issued in compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance as prima facie evidence of previous convictions recorded against the holder thereof.

Endorsement of licence
of conviction.

113. (1) Notwithstanding the requirements of or provisions in any Ordinance contained it shall be lawful for any police officer to serve, either personally or by registered post, upon any person who is reasonably suspected of having committed any offence in connexion with the driving or use of any vehicle which is punishable only by a fine or by a fine and imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, a notice in the prescribed form requiring such person to attend court in answer to the charges stated thereon, at such place and on such date and time (not being less than ten days from the date of such service) as shown on such notice or to appear by advocate or to enter a written plea of guilty:

Notice to attend court.

Provided that—

- (i) such notice shall be served not later than fourteen days from the date upon which the offence is alleged to have been committed;

“transferring” includes letting on hire, giving, lending, and parting with possession, and the expressions “transfer”, “transferee”, and “transferor” shall be construed accordingly.

3. The Commissioner of Police shall, by notice in the Gazette, appoint a chief licensing officer to perform the duties and exercise the powers imposed and conferred by this Ordinance, and may appoint any number of licensing officers who shall be subject to the directions of the chief licensing officer. Appoint-ment of licensing officers.

(Ordinance No. 4 of 1960, s. 3, with effect from 9-1-60)

PART I—REGULATION OF PURCHASE, POSSESSION, MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS

Penalty for purchasing, etc., firearms or ammunition without firearm certificate.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, no person shall purchase, acquire or have in his possession any firearm or ammunition unless he holds a firearm certificate in force at the time.

(2) If any person—

(a) purchases, acquires or has in his possession any firearm or ammunition without holding a firearm certificate in force at the time, or otherwise than as authorized by such a certificate, or, in the case of ammunition, in quantities in excess of those so authorized; or

(b) fails to comply with any condition subject to which a firearm certificate is held by him, he shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, for each offence be liable on conviction, if the offence was committed in a scheduled area, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings or to both such imprisonment and fine, and, if the offence was committed elsewhere, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding four thousand shillings or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) In this section the expression "scheduled area" means any area for the time being specified in the Schedule to this Ordinance.

(4) The Governor may by order published in the Gazette from time to time add to, vary or amend the Schedule to this Ordinance.

Grant, etc., of
certificates.

5. (1) An application for the grant of a firearm certificate shall be made in the prescribed form to the licensing officer ~~for the area in which the applicant resides~~ and shall state such particulars as may be required by the said form.

(2) The firearm certificate shall be granted by the licensing officer if he is satisfied that the applicant has a good reason for purchasing, acquiring or having in his possession the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the application is made, and can be permitted to have in his possession that firearm or ammunition without danger to the public safety or to the peace:

Provided that a firearm certificate shall not be granted to a person whom the licensing officer has reason to believe to be

Ord. 4/60.

1953 / ~~the end thereof the words~~ " , or who has not satisfied a licensing officer that he will at all times keep the prohibited firearm, or any other firearm, in safe custody and in a safe condition and take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the firearm is not lost or stolen and is not at any time available to any person not lawfully entitled to possess the same"; Ord. 4/60.

(3) ~~be in the prescribed form and shall specify the conditions (if any) subject to which it is held, the nature and number of firearms to which it relates, and, as respects ammunition, the quantities authorized to be purchased and to be held at any one time thereunder.~~

(4) A firearm certificate shall, unless previously revoked or cancelled, continue in force for one year from the date when it was granted or last renewed, but shall be renewable for a further period of one year by ~~the~~ licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder resides~~, and so from time to time, and the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to the renewal of a firearm certificate as they apply to the grant of a firearm certificate.

(5) ~~appear therein, the words "A license granted to any time by notice in writing to the holder of a firearm certificate, the holder subject to which a firearm certificate is held, may be varied from time to time by the licensing officer for the area in which the holder resides, and so from time to time, and the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to the renewal of a firearm certificate as they apply to the grant of a firearm certificate."~~
 (5) ~~any time by notice in writing to the holder
 of a firearm certificate, the holder subject to which a firearm certificate is held, except such of them as may be prescribed, and may by the notice require the holder to deliver up the firearm certificate to him within fourteen days from the date of the notice for the purpose of amending the conditions specified therein.~~

(6) A firearm certificate may also, on the application of the holder thereof, be varied from time to time by ~~the~~ licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder for the time being resides.~~

(7) A firearm certificate may be revoked by ~~the~~ licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder resides if—~~

- (a) the licensing officer is satisfied that the holder is prohibited by or under this Ordinance from possessing a firearm to which the firearm certificate relates, or is of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or is otherwise unfitted to be entrusted with such a firearm; or
- (b) the holder fails to comply with a notice under subsection (5) of this section, requiring him to deliver up the firearm certificate.

(8) In any case where a firearm certificate is revoked by a licensing officer, he shall by notice in writing require the holder to surrender the firearm certificate, and if the holder fails to do so within fourteen days from the date of the notice, he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings:

Provided that, where an appeal is brought against the revocation, this sub-section shall not apply to that revocation unless the appeal is abandoned or dismissed, and shall in that case have effect as if for the reference to the date of the notice there were substituted a reference to the date on which the appeal was abandoned or dismissed.

(9) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the grant of a firearm certificate under this section, or the variation or renewal of a firearm certificate, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Fees in respect
certificates.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, there shall be payable on the grant of a firearm certificate, and on the renewal of a firearm certificate, and on any variation of a firearm certificate which increases the number of firearms to which such firearm certificate relates, and on the replacement of a firearm certificate which has been lost or destroyed, such fees as may be prescribed:

Provided that, where a firearm certificate is varied as aforesaid and renewed or replaced at the same time, no fee shall be payable on the variation.

(2) No fee shall be payable on the grant, to any responsible officer of a rifle club, miniature rifle club or cadet unit approved for the purpose by the ~~Chief Secretary~~ Minister, of a firearm certificate in respect of firearms or ammunition to be used solely for target practice or drill by the members of the club or unit, or on the variation or renewal of a firearm certificate so granted.

(3) No fee shall be payable on the grant, variation or renewal of a firearm certificate if the licensing officer is satisfied that the firearm certificate relates solely to, and, in the case of a variation, will continue when varied to relate solely to—

(a) a firearm or ammunition which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of a ship; or

(b) a signalling apparatus, or ammunition therefor, which the applicant requires as part of the equipment of an aircraft or aerodrome; or

Ord. 4/60.

(c) a slaughtering instrument or ammunition therefor, which the applicant requires for the purpose of the slaughter of animals.

7. (1) The following provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in section 4 of this Ordinance.

Exemptions from holding a firearm certificate.

(2) A person carrying on the business of a firearms dealer and registered as such under this Ordinance, or a servant of such a person, may, without holding a firearm certificate, purchase, acquire or have in his possession a firearm or ammunition in the ordinary course of that business.

 rank of Assistant Superintendent a permit for the purpose in the prescribed form, remove a firearm from or to a ship, or a signalling apparatus from or to an aircraft or aerodrome, to or from such place and for such purpose as may be specified in the permit.

(7) A person carrying a firearm or ammunition belonging to another person holding a firearm certificate relating thereto may, without himself holding a firearm certificate, have in his possession that firearm or ammunition under instructions from and for the use of that other person for sporting purposes only.

(8) A member of a rifle club, miniature rifle club or cadet unit approved by the ^{the} Chief Secretary under and for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 6 of this Ordinance, may, without holding a firearm certificate, have in his possession a firearm and ammunition therefor when engaged as such a member in, or in connexion with, drill or target practice.

(9) Any person may, without holding a firearm certificate, use a miniature rifle not exceeding 0.22 calibre, and ammunition suitable therefor, at a miniature rifle range or shooting gallery.

(10) Any person may, without holding a firearm certificate, have a firearm in his possession at an athletic or other sporting meeting for the purpose of starting races at that meeting.

Ord. 4/60. (11) (a) A person who has obtained from ^a the licensing officer ~~for the area in which he resides~~ a permit for the purpose in the prescribed form may, without holding a firearm certificate, have in his possession a firearm and ammunition therefor in accordance with the terms of the permit. No such permit shall be issued in respect of, or be valid for, a period exceeding three months.

(b) A permit under this sub-section shall not be granted to any person in respect of any firearm or ammunition unless the licensing officer is satisfied that such person would, on application, be granted a firearm certificate in respect of such firearm or ammunition.

" (c) A permit under this sub-section may at any time be revoked by ^a the licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder resides~~ if the licensing officer is satisfied that the holder would not, on application, be granted a firearm certificate in respect of such firearm or ammunition.

Firearms

No. 40
Ord. 4/60.

(12) (a) A person who has obtained from ^athe licensing officer ~~for the area in which he resides~~ a permit for the purpose in the prescribed form may, without himself holding a firearm certificate, acquire otherwise than by way of gift, and have in his possession, in accordance with the terms of the permit, a firearm or ammunition which is of a class or description specified in the permit and which belongs to another person who holds a firearm certificate relating thereto.

(b) A permit under this sub-section shall not be granted in respect of, or be valid for, a period exceeding one year, but shall be renewable by ^athe licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder resides~~ for a further period not exceeding one year, and so on from time to time.

(c) A permit under this sub-section shall not be granted or renewed in respect of any class or description of firearms or ammunition unless the licensing officer is satisfied that the applicant or holder, as the case may be, can be permitted to have in his possession any firearm or ammunition of such class or description without danger to the public safety or to the peace, or if the licensing officer has reason to believe that the applicant or holder is prohibited by or under this Ordinance from possessing a firearm, or is of intemperate habits or unsound mind, or is for any reason unfitted to be entrusted with any firearm of such class or description as aforesaid.

(d) A permit under this sub-section may be revoked by ^athe licensing officer ~~for the area in which the holder resides~~, either wholly or in respect of any class or description of firearms or ammunition to which it relates, if the licensing officer is satisfied that the holder would not, by reason of the provisions of paragraph (c) of this sub-section, be granted, as at the date of such revocation, a renewal of the permit, or, as the case may be, a renewal thereof in respect of such class or description of firearms or ammunition as aforesaid.

(13) Where a licensing officer revokes a permit under sub-section (11) or (12) of this section, he shall by notice in writing require the holder of the permit to surrender it, and if the holder fails to surrender it within fourteen days from the date of the notice, he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings:

Provided that where an appeal is brought against the revocation, this paragraph shall not apply to that revocation unless the appeal is abandoned or dismissed, and shall in that case have effect as if for the reference to the date of the notice there were substituted a reference to the date on which the appeal was abandoned or dismissed.

(14) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or any other person, the grant or renewal of a permit under this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Power to refuse firearm certificate or permit unless firearm or ammunition produced for inspection and marking.

8. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any of the foregoing sections of this Ordinance, a licensing officer may refuse to grant, renew or vary a firearm certificate, or to grant a permit under sub-section (11) of section 7 of this Ordinance, unless and until any firearm to which such firearm certificate or permit will, if granted, renewed or varied, relate is produced to him for his inspection and for marking, if necessary, in accordance with the requirements of sub-section (2) of this section.

(2) No firearm certificate, and no permit under sub-section (11) of section 7 of this Ordinance, shall be granted, or, as the case may be, varied or renewed, in respect of a firearm unless such firearm bears a mark or number of identification or is first marked with such a mark or number by, or under and in accordance with the directions of, the licensing officer.

Prohibition of manufacture of firearms and ammunition

Ord. 4/60.

9. (1) No person shall manufacture any firearm or ammunition in the Colony save on behalf of the Government and at a place established or designated for the purpose by, and in accordance with instructions to be issued by, the ~~Chief~~ ^{Minister} Secretary.

(2) In this section, the word "manufacture", in relation to firearms or ammunition, does not include the repair of firearms or ammunition, the conversion into a firearm of anything which has the appearance of a firearm but is so constructed as to be incapable of discharging any missile through the barrel thereof, or the alteration, or substitution or replacement of any component part, of a firearm.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Production of and accounting for firearms and ammunition

10. (1) Any police officer, customs officer or licensing officer may demand from any person whom he believes to be in possession of a firearm or ammunition, the production of any firearm certificate or of any permit granted under subsection (11) or subsection (12) of section 7 of this Ordinance at or before such time, at such place and to such police officer, customs officer or licensing officer as he may specify.

(2) Such demand may be made orally or in writing.

(3) If any person upon whom a demand is so made fails to produce any certificate or permit granted to him or to allow the officer to read the same, or to show that he is entitled by virtue of this Ordinance to have the firearm or ammunition in his possession without holding a firearm certificate or permit, the officer may seize and detain the firearm or ammunition, and may require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address.

(4) If any person upon whom a demand is so made fails, without reasonable cause, to produce any certificate or permit granted to him, or to allow the officer to read the same, or refuses so to declare his name and address, or fails to give his true name and address, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings.

Registration of firearms dealers.

13. (1) For the purposes of this Ordinance, the chief licensing officer shall keep in the prescribed form a register of firearm dealers in which, subject as hereinafter provided, he shall cause to be entered the name of every person who applies to be registered as a firearms dealer and furnishes the prescribed particulars: Ord. 4/60

Provided that—

- (i) the licensing officer shall not register an applicant who is prohibited to be registered by order of a court made under section 19 of this Ordinance; and
- (ii) the licensing officer may refuse to register an applicant if he is satisfied that the applicant cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace.

(2) On the registration of an applicant as a firearms dealer ~~in any area~~ there shall be payable such fee as may be prescribed.

~~Provided that no fee shall be payable if the licensing officer for the area in which the applicant has applied to be registered is satisfied that the only place of business in respect of which the application is made—~~

- ~~(i) has become situated in that area by reason of an alteration in the boundary of the area and was previously registered in the register for another area; or~~
- ~~(ii) is one to which the applicant proposes to transfer the business previously carried on by him at a place entered in the register for another area.~~

(3) If the licensing officer, after giving reasonable notice to any person whose name is on the register, is satisfied that that person—

- (a) is no longer carrying on business as a firearms dealer; or
- ~~(b) has ceased to have a place of business in the area; or~~

Amended. Ord. 4/60.

(c) cannot be permitted to continue to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace, he shall cause the name of that person to be removed from the register.

(4) The licensing officer shall also cause the name of any person to be removed from the register if that person so desires.

(5) If any person, for the purpose of procuring the registration of himself or any other person as a firearms dealer, makes any statement which he knows to be false, he shall, for each offence, be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

14. (1) The licensing officer shall grant or cause to be granted to any person who is registered as a firearms dealer under section 13 of this Ordinance a certificate of registration. Certificates of registration.

(2) On or before the first day of January in each year, every person for the time being registered as a firearms dealer in any area shall—

(a) surrender to the licensing officer for that area his certificate of registration; and

(b) apply in the prescribed form for a new certificate of registration; and

(c) pay such fee as may be prescribed, and thereupon the licensing officer shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 13 of this Ordinance, grant him a new certificate of registration.

(3) If any such person as aforesaid fails to comply with all or any of the requirements of sub-section (2) of this section on or before the first day of January in any year, the licensing officer shall by notice in writing require him to comply therewith, and, if he fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, or within such further time as the licensing officer may in special circumstances allow, shall cause his name to be removed from the register.

(4) In any case where a licensing officer causes the name of any firearms dealer to be removed from the register, he shall by notice in writing require the dealer to surrender his certificate of registration, and if the dealer fails to do so within twenty-one days from the date of the notice he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings:

012. 14/60.

Provided that—

- (i) where an appeal is brought against the removal, this sub-section shall not apply to that removal unless the appeal is abandoned or dismissed, and shall in that case have effect as if for the reference to the date of the notice there were substituted a reference to the date on which the appeal was abandoned or dismissed;
- (ii) until the dealer surrenders his certificate of registration in accordance with the provisions of this sub-section, or, if he fails so to surrender his said certificate, until the expiration of the aforesaid period of twenty-one days, the dealer shall be deemed to be registered as a firearms dealer for the purpose only of disposing of the stock in hand of his business.

Registration of places of business of firearms dealers.

Ord. 4/60.

15. (1) The prescribed particulars which a person applying to be registered ~~in any area~~ as a firearms dealer under section 13 of this Ordinance is required to furnish shall include particulars of every place of business at which he proposes to carry on business ~~within the area~~ as a firearms dealer, and the licensing officer ~~for that area~~ shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter in the register every such place of business.

" (2) Every person registered as a firearms dealer ~~in any area~~ who proposes to carry on business as such at any place of business ~~in that area~~ which is not entered in the register, shall notify the licensing officer ~~for that area~~ and furnish him with such particulars as may be prescribed, and the licensing officer shall, subject as hereinafter provided, enter that place of business in the register.

(3) A licensing officer, if he is satisfied that any place of business notified to him by any person under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of this section, or any place entered as the place of business of any person in the register of firearms dealers, is a place at which that person cannot be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace, may refuse to enter that place of business in the register or remove it from the register, as the case may be.

(4) If—

- " (a) any person, being a registered firearms dealer, has a place of business which is not entered on the register ~~for the area in which that place is situated,~~ and

Ord. 4/60.

he shall, for each offence, be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

16. (1) No person shall sell or transfer to any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer, any firearm or ammunition unless that other person produces a firearm certificate authorizing him to purchase or acquire it or shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to purchase it, or, as the case may be, to acquire it by means of such transfer, without holding such a certificate:

Restrictions on sale, repair, etc., of firearms and ammunition.

Provided that this sub-section shall not prevent—

(i) a person parting with the possession of a firearm or ammunition, otherwise than in pursuance of a contract of sale or hire or by way of gift or loan, to a person who shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding a firearm certificate; or

~~(ii) the delivery of a firearm or ammunition by an approved carrier or a warehouseman, or a servant of an approved carrier or a warehouseman, in the ordinary course of his business or employment as such.~~

Deleted - Ord. 4/60.

(2) Every person who sells, lets on hire, gives or lends a firearm or ammunition to any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer, shall, unless that other person shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to purchase or, as the case may be, to hire, accept as a gift or borrow the firearm or ammunition without holding a firearm certificate, comply with any instructions contained in the certificate produced, and in the case of a firearm shall, within forty-eight hours from the transaction, send by registered post notice of the transaction to the licensing officer ~~by whom the certificate was issued.~~

(3) No person shall undertake the repair, test or proof of a firearm or ammunition for any other person in the Colony, other than a registered firearms dealer as such, unless that other person produces or causes to be produced a firearm certificate authorizing him to have possession of the firearm or ammunition, or shows that he is by virtue of this Ordinance entitled to have possession of the firearm or ammunition without holding such a certificate.

(4) If any person—

(a) contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section; or

(b) with a view to purchasing or acquiring, or procuring the repair, test or proof of, a firearm or ammunition produces a false firearm certificate or a firearm certificate in which any false entry has been made, or personates a person to whom a firearm certificate has been granted, or makes any false statement;

he shall, for each offence, be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Register of transactions in firearms and ammunition.

17. (1) Every person who by way of trade or business deals in, sells or transfers firearms or ammunition shall provide and keep a register of transactions, and shall enter or cause to be entered therein such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) Every such entry shall be made within twenty-four hours after the transaction to which it relates took place, and, in the case of a sale or transfer, every such person as aforesaid shall at the time of the transaction require the purchaser or transferee to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the register.

(3) Every such person as aforesaid shall on demand allow any police officer ^{or Licensing Officer} to enter and inspect all stock in hand, and shall on request by any such police officer ^{or Licensing Officer} produce for inspection the register so required to be kept as aforesaid.

(4) If any person—

(a) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section; or

(b) knowingly makes any false entry in a register required to be kept under this section; or

(c) knowingly furnishes any false particular of identification of himself or any other person,

Ord. 4/60

he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to the sale of firearms or ammunition by auction in accordance with the terms of a permit issued under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 12 of this Ordinance.

18. (1) Every registered firearms dealer shall maintain at each of his places of business a suitable enclosed store for the safe custody of firearms and ammunition in his possession.

Storage and safe custody of firearms and ammunition.

(2) Each such store as aforesaid shall be, and be maintained constantly, secure to the satisfaction of the licensing officer for the area in which it is situated, and shall have only one means of entry thereto which shall be provided with two locks of which master-keys shall be delivered to, and retained by, the licensing officer.

(3) Every person having in his possession any firearm or ammunition shall keep the same at all times securely and in safe custody and in a safe condition, and shall take all reasonable precautions to ensure that such firearm or ammunition is not lost or stolen and is not at any time available to any person not lawfully entitled to possess the same.

(4) If any person fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding ~~two~~ ^{five} thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Ord. 4/60.

19. Where a registered firearms dealer is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance, or against any law for the time being in force in the Colony relating to customs in respect of the import or export of firearms or ammunition, the court may order—

Powers of court in case of offences by registered firearms dealers

- (a) that the name of the registered firearms dealer be removed from the register; and
- (b) that neither the dealer nor any person who acquires the business of that dealer, nor any person who took part in the management of the business and was knowingly a party to the offence, shall be registered as a firearms dealer; and

(c) that any person who, after the date of the order, knowingly employs in the management or conduct of his business the dealer convicted of the offence, or any person who was knowingly a party to the offence, shall not be registered as a firearms dealer or, if so registered, shall be liable to be removed from the register; and

(d) that any stock in hand of the business shall be disposed of by sale or otherwise in accordance with such directions as may be contained in the order:

Provided that a person aggrieved by an order made under this section may appeal against the order in the same manner as against the conviction, and the court may, if it thinks fit, suspend the operation of the order pending the appeal.

Penalty for taking in pawn firearms or ammunition.

20. (1) No person shall take any firearm or ammunition in pawn from any other person.

(2) If any person contravenes the provisions of this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Provisions as to converting imitation firearms into firearms.

21. (1) No person other than a registered firearms dealer shall convert into a firearm anything which, though having the appearance of being a firearm, is so constructed as to be incapable of discharging any missile through the barrel thereof.

(2) If any person contravenes any of the foregoing provisions of this section he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Loss of firearms or ammunition to be reported.

22. Any person having possession of a firearm or ammunition, whether or not he holds a firearm certificate therefor or is entitled to have possession thereof without holding a firearm certificate, shall, if such firearm or ammunition be lost, stolen or destroyed, report such loss, theft or destruction as soon as possible after its occurrence to the police officer in charge of the nearest police station, and if he fails to do so, shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

23. (1) Any person aggrieved by a refusal of a licensing officer to grant him a firearm certificate under section 5 of this Ordinance or to vary or renew a firearm certificate, or by the revocation of a firearm certificate, or by a refusal of a licensing officer to grant him a permit under sub-section (11) of section 7 of this Ordinance, or by the revocation of such a permit, or by a refusal of a licensing officer to grant him a permit under sub-section (12) of section 7 of this Ordinance or to renew such a permit, or by the revocation of such a permit, or by the refusal of a licensing officer to register him as a firearms dealer, or by the removal of his name from the register of firearms dealers by a licensing officer, or by the refusal of a licensing officer to enter a place of business in the register of firearms dealers under section 15 of this Ordinance or by the removal of any such place of business from the register, may appeal to the Governor in Council, whose decision shall be final. Appeals under Part I.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be lodged within fourteen days after the date on which the appellant first received notice, whether written or oral, of the decision by which he is aggrieved.

(3) On an appeal under this section the Governor in Council may either dismiss the appeal or give such directions as he may think fit to the licensing officer from whose decision the appeal has been lodged, as respects the firearm certificate

24. (1) This Part of this Ordinance applies to all firearms as defined in section 2 of this Ordinance and to all safety, toy and alarm pistols and rifles which are capable of being converted into, or have the appearance of, lethal barrelled weapons, or which can be used or adapted for the discharge of any noxious liquid, gas or similar thing, except—airguns, air-rifles, air-pistols and safety, toy and alarm pistols which are not of a type declared by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, to be specially dangerous or potentially dangerous.

(Ordinance No. 4 of 1960, s. 14, with effect from 9-1-60)

25. Nothing in this Part of this Ordinance shall relieve Saving. any person using or carrying a firearm from the obligation to take out a licence to kill game under any law for the time being in force relating to such licences.

26. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person, other than a person in the service of the Crown acting in his capacity as such or a person authorized in writing in that behalf by the Minister or a person of a class for the time being authorized in that behalf by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, to sell, transfer, purchase, acquire, or have in his possession—

- (a) any firearm which is so designed or adapted that if pressure is applied to the trigger missiles continue to be discharged until the pressure is removed or until the magazine containing the missiles is empty; or
- (b) any weapon of whatever description designed or adapted for the discharge of any noxious liquid, gas or similar thing; or
- (c) any ammunition containing, or designed or adapted to contain, any such noxious thing; or
- (d) any firearm or ammunition specified, or of a class or type specified, by the Minister by notice in the Gazette; or
- (e) any accessory or attachment, of a kind specified by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, which is designed or adapted for use with or as part of a firearm.

(Ordinance No. 4 of 1960, s. 15, with effect from 9-1-60)

(1) of this section, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) An authority given under this section shall be subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, and, if any person authorized thereby fails to comply with any such condition, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(4) The ~~Chief Secretary~~ ^{Minister} may at any time, if he thinks fit, revoke any individual authority given by him to any person under this section, by notice in writing requiring that person to deliver up the authority to such person as may be specified in the notice within fourteen days from the date of the notice, and if that person fails to comply with that requirement, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

No. 40

Ord. 4/60.

(5) An authority given by the ~~Chief Secretary~~ Minister under this section to any class of persons may at any time be revoked or varied by the Chief Secretary by notice in the Gazette.

(6) The foregoing provisions of this section shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other provisions of this Ordinance or any other Ordinance relating to the sale, transfer, purchase, acquisition or possession of firearms or ammunition, but a licensing officer—

(a) shall not refuse to grant or renew, and shall not revoke, a firearm certificate in respect of a firearm, weapon or ammunition such as is referred to in sub-section (1) of this section if the applicant is for the time being authorized as aforesaid to have possession of that firearm, weapon or ammunition; and

(b) shall not refuse to enter in the register of firearms dealers the name of a person for the time being authorized as aforesaid to sell or transfer a firearm, weapon or ammunition such as aforesaid, or remove the name of such a person from the register, on the ground that he cannot be permitted to carry on, or to continue to carry on, business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace, and where any authority to purchase, acquire or have possession of a firearm, weapon or ammunition is revoked under this section, the firearm certificate relating to that firearm, weapon or ammunition shall be revoked or varied accordingly by the licensing officer by whom it was granted.

27. (1) No person shall import or export any firearm or ammunition into or from the Colony save under and in accordance with the terms of an import or export permit, as the case may be, issued by an authorized officer:

Importation and exportation of firearms and ammunition.

Provided that where any firearm or ammunition, not being a firearm or ammunition the importation of which is for the time being prohibited under sub-section (2) of this section, is imported into the Colony for the personal use of the owner thereof but without an import permit under this section having been previously obtained authorizing the importation thereof, such importation shall not be deemed to contravene the provisions of this section if such firearm or ammunition on importation is left in customs control until an import permit under this section is obtained in respect of the importation thereof.

(2) No person shall import or export into or from the Colony any firearm or ammunition, or any firearm or ammunition of a class or type, of which the importation or exportation, as the case may be, is for the time being prohibited by the ~~Chief Secretary~~ ^{Minister} by order published in the Gazette.

Ord.
14/60.

(3) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2) of this section, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(4) An authorized officer may, at his discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, refuse to grant any import or export permit under this section, and shall refuse to grant any such permit authorizing—

(a) the importation or exportation of any arms or munitions of war unless the Governor in Council shall have sanctioned such importation or exportation; or

(b) the importation or exportation of any firearm or ammunition of which the importation or exportation, as the case may be, is for the time being prohibited under sub-section (2) of this section.

(5) Import and export permits under this section shall be in the prescribed forms and there shall be payable in respect thereof such fees as may be prescribed.

(6) An authorized officer may, without assigning any reason therefor, revoke any import or export permit granted under this section at any time before the firearms or ammunition to which it relates have been imported or exported, as the case may be, in pursuance thereof.

(7) If any person makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring, whether for himself or for any other person, the issue of an import or export permit under this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(8) For the purposes of this section, the expression "authorized officer" means a police officer or customs officer authorized by the Commissioner of Police in writing to grant import and export permits under this section.

section, no person shall remove or transport, (Ord. 4/60) removed or transported, any firearm or ammunition from one place to another in the Colony, whether for the purpose of export from the Colony or otherwise, save under and in accordance with a removal permit issued by the licensing officer for the area from which such firearm or ammunition is to be removed or transported.

Removal and transportation of firearms and ammunition within the Colony.

Ord. 4/60

(2) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, or makes any statement which he knows to be false for the purpose of procuring for himself or any other person, the issue of a removal permit under this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

(3) No removal permit shall be issued under this section authorizing the removal or transport of firearms or ammunition by road from one area to another, save with the general or specific authority of the Commissioner of Police.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to—

- Ordn. 4/60.
- (a) a person carrying on the business of an approved carrier, or ^{an approved} servant of such a person, in respect of the removal or transportation of any firearms or ammunition in the ordinary course of that business;
- (b) the holder of a firearm certificate, or of a permit under sub-section (11) of section 7 of this Ordinance, in respect of the carriage with him and in accordance with the terms of the firearm certificate or permit of any firearm or ammunition to which the firearm certificate or permit relates;
- (c) any person, not being a registered firearms dealer, in respect of the carriage with him of any firearm or ammunition which he is entitled by virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance to have in his possession without holding a firearm certificate; or
- (d) the removal or transport by a registered firearms dealer of any firearm or ammunition in his possession in the ordinary course of his business as such from one of his places of business to another ~~in the same area~~, or from or to his own place of business to or from the place of business of another registered firearms dealer ~~in the same area~~.

(5) A permit issued under this section may at any time be revoked by the licensing officer who issued the same, and such licensing officer shall not be compelled to assign any reason for such revocation.

(6) In this section, "firearm" and "ammunition" mean respectively a firearm and ammunition to which Part I of this Ordinance applies.

30. Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, a licensing officer may, at his discretion, grant with or without conditions, refuse, suspend or revoke transit permits for the importation to, removal within, transportation across, and exportation from, the Colony of any firearms or ammunition in transit through the Colony to any place outside the Colony, and the importation, exportation, removal, transportation and possession of any such arms or ammunition under and in accordance with the terms of any such transit permit shall be lawful and shall not constitute any offence under this Ordinance.

(2) If any person contravenes any provision of this section, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Carrying firearm while drunk or disorderly.

33. Any person who is drunk, or who behaves in a disorderly manner, while carrying a firearm to which Part I of this Ordinance applies shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Penalty for use and possession of firearms or imitation firearms in certain cases.

34. (1) If any person makes or attempts to make any use whatsoever of a firearm or imitation firearm with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detention of himself or any other person, he shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding fourteen years; and where any person commits any such offence in respect of the lawful apprehension or detention of himself for any other offence committed by him, he shall be liable to the penalty provided in this sub-section in addition to any penalty to which he may be sentenced for that other offence.

(2) A firearm or imitation firearm shall, notwithstanding that it is not loaded or is otherwise incapable of discharging any shot, bullet or other missile, be deemed to be a dangerous weapon or instrument for the purposes of the Penal Code.

(3) In this section, the expression "imitation firearm" means anything which has the appearance of being a firearm, whether it is capable of discharging any shot, bullet or other missile or not.

Cap. 24.

Appeals under Part II.

35. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by the refusal of an authorized officer to issue to him an import or export permit under section 27 of this Ordinance, or by the revocation of any such permit, or by the refusal of a licensing officer to issue to him a removal permit under section 29 of this Ordinance, or by the revocation of any such permit, or by the refusal of a licensing officer to grant him a transit permit under section 30 of this Ordinance, or by the imposition of any condition attached to any such permit, or by the suspension or revocation of any such permit, may appeal to the Governor in Council, whose decision shall be final.

(2) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 23 of this Ordinance shall apply mutatis mutandis to appeals under this section.

PART III—GENERAL

36. (1) Where any person—

- (a) is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance or is convicted of an offence for which he is sentenced to imprisonment, or to detention of any description in an approved school or other place of detention; or
- (b) has been ordered to be subject to Police supervision, or to enter into recognizance to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour a condition of which is that the offender shall not possess, use or carry a firearm, or is subject to a probation order containing a requirement that he shall not possess, use or carry a firearm,

Prohibition of convicted persons for possessing firearms or ammunition; forfeiture of firearms and ammunition; and cancellation of firearm certificates.

the following provisions shall apply—

- (i) the court before whom such person is convicted or by whom the order is made may make such order as to forfeiture or disposal of any firearm or ammunition which was found in his possession or in respect of which the offence of which he is convicted was committed or which was used in the commission of such offence as the court thinks fit, and may cancel any firearm certificate or permit under sub-section (11) or (12) of section 7 of this Ordinance held by the person convicted;
- (ii) in the case of a person convicted, or convicted and sentenced, as mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-section, the court before whom he is convicted may order that such person shall not, at any time during such period, not exceeding ten years from the date of his release, as may be specified in the order, have in his possession any firearm or ammunition or, as the case may be, any firearm or ammunition of a class or description specified in the order.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, no person who is subject to the supervision of the Police, or is subject to a recognizance to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour a condition of which is that he shall not possess, use or carry a firearm, or is subject to a probation order containing a requirement that he shall not possess, use or carry a firearm, shall, at any time during which he is so subject as aforesaid, have a firearm or ammunition in his possession.

(3) Subject to the provisions of any other law for the time being in force under which a condition or requirement such as is referred to in sub-section (2) of this section is imposed or made, a person prohibited by the said sub-section from having in his possession a firearm or ammunition may apply to the Governor in Council for exemption from such prohibition, and if the application is granted, the provisions of the said sub-section shall not apply to that person.

(4) The Governor in Council may, in his absolute discretion, grant or refuse any such application for exemption as aforesaid, and shall not be required to assign any reason for the refusal of any such application.

(5) No person shall sell or transfer a firearm or ammunition to, or repair, test or prove a firearm or ammunition for, any person whom he knows, or has reasonable ground for believing, to be prohibited by this section or by any order made thereunder from having a firearm or ammunition in his possession.

(6) Where a court cancels a firearm certificate or permit under this section—

Ord. 4/60.

(a) the court shall cause notice to be sent to the ^{chief} licensing officer ~~by whom the firearm certificate or permit was granted~~; and

(b) the licensing officer shall by notice in writing require the holder of the firearm certificate or permit to surrender it; and

(c) if the holder fails to surrender the firearm certificate or permit within fourteen days from the date of the last-mentioned notice, he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings.

(7) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of sub-section (6) of this section, if any person contravenes any provision of this section or of any order made thereunder, he shall for each offence be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

37. (1) A court, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Ordinance has been, is being, or is about to be committed, may grant a search warrant authorizing a police officer or other person therein named—

Search warrants and disposal of firearms and ammunition seized.

- (a) to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and
- (b) to seize and detain any firearm or ammunition which he may find on the premises or place, or on any such person, in respect of which or in connexion with which he has reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Ordinance has been, is being, or is about to be committed; and
- (c) if the premises are those of a registered firearms dealer, to examine any books relating to the business.

(2) A court shall have power, on the application of a police officer, ^{or licensing officer} or customs officer, to order any firearm or ammunition seized and detained under this Ordinance to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

Ch. 4/60.

(3) Any firearm or ammunition in the hands of the Police or in customs control and unclaimed for a period in excess of six months may, if the owner thereof is unknown or cannot be traced or fails, when required, or is not entitled under this Ordinance or any other law for the time being in force in the Colony, to take possession thereof, be disposed of at any time after the expiration of the period aforesaid in such manner as the Commissioner of Police may direct, and no compensation shall be payable to any person in respect of any firearm or ammunition so disposed of as aforesaid.

38. Any police officer may at all reasonable times enter upon any premises with a view to ascertaining whether or not the provisions of this Ordinance or of any rules made thereunder are being complied with, and may inspect such premises and any firearm or ammunition, book, account, register, document or thing found therein, and may require any person appearing to be in control thereof or employed therein to give such information as such police officer may require in order to ascertain whether or not the provisions of this Ordinance or of any rules made thereunder are being complied with.

Penalty for obstructing a police officer.

39. Any person who obstructs a police officer in the exercise of any of the powers conferred on him by or under section 37 or section 38 of this Ordinance, or who fails to give to such police officer any information which he is lawfully required by such police officer under the said section to give to him, shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Arrest without warrant.

40. Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having committed an offence against this Ordinance.

Jurisdiction.

Service of documents, notices, etc.

42. Save where otherwise expressly by this Ordinance provided, any demand or notice required or authorized by this Ordinance to be made of or given to any person shall be served either—

(a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is addressed; or

(b) by sending it by registered post addressed to that person at his last known postal address; or

(c) in the case of a registered firearms dealer, by delivering it to him at any place of business in respect of which he is registered or by sending it by registered post addressed to him at his last known postal address.

AN ORDINANCE TO MAKE PROVISION FOR BORROWING THE SUM OF TWO MILLION POUNDS FROM THE COLONIAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION AND FOR THE APPROPRIATION, APPLICATION AND REPAYMENT THEREOF

Date of commencement.

31st December, 1953

ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Specific Loan (Colonial Development Corporation) Ordinance, 1953.

Interpretation.

2. In this Ordinance—

“Accountant General” means the officer for the time being acting as Accountant General of the Colony;

“Corporation” means the Colonial Development Corporation established by section 1 of the Overseas Resources Development Act, 1948, of the United Kingdom;

11 and 12
Geo. 6. c. 15.

“the Loan” means the moneys authorized by this Ordinance to be borrowed from the Corporation by the Governor;

“Member” means the Member of the Executive Council for the time being responsible for Finance.

3. The Governor is hereby authorized to borrow from the Corporation, either at one time or by instalments, the sum of two million pounds.

Authority to raise the Loan

4. The Loan and all interest and other charges thereon are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenues and funds of the Colony.

The Loan to be a charge on general revenues and funds of the Colony.

5. No other charge on the general revenues and funds of the Colony ranking in priority to the charge created by section 4 of this Ordinance shall be created except with the prior consent of the Corporation:

No other loan to rank in priority to the Loan.

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall prevent the creation of a charge or charges on the general revenues and funds of the Colony ranking pari passu with the charge created by section 4 of this Ordinance.

6. The Loan shall be appropriated to and applied for the purposes of the Housing Ordinance, 1953, and no other purposes.

Application of the Loan. No. 17 of 1953.

7. (1) The terms and conditions upon and subject to which the Loan shall be borrowed shall be such as may be agreed between the Member and the Corporation consistently with the provisions of this Ordinance, and such agreement may provide for—

Terms and conditions of the Loan.

(a) the creation of and the issue to the Corporation of bonds for securing the Loan, in such form, in such amounts not being less than ten thousand pounds each issued at such times and made subject to such terms and conditions as, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, may be agreed between the Member and the Corporation; and

(b) the conversion of the said bonds, when required by the Corporation, into stock or other securities.

(2) Any such agreement as aforesaid may be executed by the Member on behalf of the Governor.

8. (1) The Accountant General shall keep a register in which all bonds issued under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be registered, and in which all transfers, and transmissions thereof shall be registered.

Accountant General to keep register of bonds.

(2) Such register or a copy of any entry therein certified by the Accountant General, or a person nominated by him for the purpose, shall be prima facie evidence of the title of any person to any bond of which he is entered in the register as the holder.

Transfer of bonds.

9. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be transferable by an instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Accountant General, and any endorsement upon any such bond purporting to record the transfer or transmission thereof or any dealing therein certified by the Accountant General, or a person nominated by him for the purpose, shall be prima facie evidence of the transfer, transmission or dealing.

Closing of register.

10. (1) The Accountant General may, for a period not exceeding fourteen days previous to each payment of interest on any bonds registered under the provisions of this Ordinance, close the register of those bonds as regards transfers upon giving not less than seven days' notice of such closing; such notice shall be published in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating in the Colony.

(2) The persons who on the day of such closing are registered as bond holders shall, as between themselves and their transferees, be entitled to the interest then next payable on the bonds.

Appropriation out of the general revenues of sums to meet interest when due.

11. So long as any portion of the Loan remains outstanding the Governor shall from time to time appropriate out of the general revenues and funds of the Colony such sums as are required to meet all payments becoming due under the terms and conditions of the agreement referred to in section 7 of this Ordinance and shall authorize the Accountant General to make such payments on the days on which the same fall due.

No notice of trust to be received or registered.

12. No notice of any trust in respect of any bond shall be entered in the register or be receivable by the Accountant General.

Exemption from stamp duty.

13. No stamp duty shall be payable in respect of any interest, warrant or transfer of a bond.
