CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

This report contains proceedings of the Departmental Committee on Administration and Internal Security on the hearing of Hon. Ahmed Abdisalan Ibrahim, nominee for appointment as Principal Secretary, National Government Co-ordination, Office of the Prime Cabinet Secretary as requested by H.E. the President and communicated to the House by the Speaker on Thursday, 20th March 2025.

The Hon. Speaker vide a communication made on Wednesday, 26th March 2025 conveyed to the House the Message from H.E. the President and subsequently referred the name of the nominee, curriculum vitae, and the report of the Public Service Commission on his recruitment to the Departmental Committee on Administration and Internal Security for approval hearing. While referring to the Committee, the Speaker directed that the Committee undertake the vetting exercise within twenty-eight (28) days pursuant to Section 8 of the Public Appointments Parliamentary Approval Act (Cap. 7F). The Speaker further directed the Clerk of the National Assembly to notify the nominee and the public by placing adverts in two newspapers of nationwide circulation and the Parliamentary Website of the time and place of holding the approval hearings.

In compliance with Article 118 (b) of the Constitution and section 6 (4) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F), the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the print media on Thursday, 27th March 2025 informing the public of the nomination, date, time and place of the approval hearing. He also invited the public to submit memoranda by way of written statements on oath (affidavit) on the suitability of the nominees in conformity with section 6 (9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F). The memoranda were to be received on or before Thursday, 3rd April, 2025 by 5.00 pm. At the close of the submission deadline, the Committee had not received any memorandum for or against the nominee's suitability.

The Clerk of the National Assembly also wrote to Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA), Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), Directorate of Criminal Investigations (DCI), Higher Education Loans Board (HELB), and the Office of the Registrar of Political Parties (ORPP) seeking references and background checks relating to the suitability of the nominee.

The nominee appeared before the Committee on Friday, 4th April 2025 for approval hearing. The Committee examined his suitability based on the criteria set out in Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F). In addition, the Committee examined his academic credentials, relevant experience, knowledge of sector issues and on leadership and integrity. The Committee paid due regard to the procedure used to arrive at the nominees; constitutional and statutory requirements relating to the office in question and suitability of the nominee for the appointment, having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the State Department.

Committee Recommendation

The Committee having held approval hearing of the nominee regarding his suitability, observed that due process was followed in the recruitment process as provided for under Article 155(3) (b) of the Constitution and the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval Act) (Cap. 7F). The Committee therefore recommends that the National Assembly APPROVES the nomination of Hon. Ahmed Abdisalan Ibrahim, nominee for appointment as Principal Secretary, National Government Co-ordination, Office of the Prime Cabinet Secretary.

Acknowledgement

The Committee registers its appreciation to the Office of the Speaker, Office of the Clerk of the National Assembly, Office of the Director, Departmental Committees and the Committee Secretariat for the logistical support extended during the vetting process.

In addition, the Committee thanks the nominee for his cooperation during the vetting process. Finally, the Committee appreciates KRA, EACC, DCI, HELB and ORPP for providing references and background checks relating to the suitability of the nominees.

I acknowledge and appreciate Members of the Committee for their patience, sacrifice and commitment which enabled the Committee complete the task within the required timelines.

On behalf of the Departmental Committee on Administration and Internal Security, and pursuant to Article 155(3)(b) of the Constitution and Section 8 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F) and provisions of Standing Orders 45(4) and 199(6), it is my pleasant duty to present the Report of the Committee on the approval hearing of Hon. Ahmed Abdisalan Ibrahim, nominee for appointment as Principal Secretary, National Government Co-ordination, Office of the Prime Cabinet Secretary.

CHAPTER TWO

2 BACKGROUND INFORMATION

2.1 Legal Framework

7. Article 155 of the Constitution provides that:

155. (1) There is established the office of Principal Secretary, which is an office in the public service.

(2) Each State department shall be under the administration of a Principal Secretary.

(3) The President shall—

(a) nominate a person for appointment as Principal Secretary from among persons recommended by the Public Service Commission; and

(b) with the approval of the National Assembly, appoint Principal Secretaries.

(4) The President may re-assign a Principal Secretary.

(5) A Principal Secretary may resign from office by giving notice, in writing, to the President.

8. In this consideration, H.E. the President nominated 14 persons for appointment as Principal Secretaries to various State Departments. The President nominated the Hon. Ahmed Abdisalam Ibrahim for appointment as Principal Secretary, National Government and Coordination, Office of the Prime Cabinet Secretary

9. The Departmental Committee on Administration and Internal Security was assigned the role of conducting the vetting of the aforesaid nominee

10. The following Articles of the Constitution statutes/provisions were paramount to the Committee as it executed this mandate:

- i. The Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F);
- ii. The Public Service Commission Act (Cap.185) on recommendation for appointment of Principal Secretaries;
- iii. Article 10 of the Constitution on the national values and principles of governance;
- iv. Chapter 6 of the Constitution on leadership and integrity;
- v. Article 77 of the Constitution on restriction on activities of State Officers;
- vi. Article 78 of the Constitution on Dual Citizenships;
- vii. Article 118 of the Constitution on Public Participation;
- viii. Article 232 of the Constitution on values and principles of public service;
- ix. The Leadership and Integrity Act (Cap. 182);
- x. The Public Service (Values and Principles) Act (Cap. 185A); and
- xi. The Public Officer Ethics Act (Cap. 185B).

The Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F)

11. Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F), provides for issues which the relevant House of Parliament (in this case, the National Assembly) is supposed to consider in relation to any nomination. These issues include:
- i. the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;*
 - ii. any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and*
 - iii. the suitability of the nominee for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which nomination is being made.*
12. During the approval hearing, Section 6 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F) provides that:
- i. An approval hearing shall focus on a candidate's academic credentials, professional training and experience, personal integrity and background (section 6(7), PAPAA);
 - ii. The criteria specified in the Schedule shall be used by a Committee during an approval hearing for the purposes of vetting a candidate (section 6(8), PAPAA);
 - iii. Any person may, prior to the approval hearing, and by written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated (section 6(9), PAPAA); and
 - iv. A candidate may, at any time, by notice in writing addressed to the Clerk, withdraw from the approval process and the candidate's nomination shall end (section 6(10), PAPAA).

The Public Service Act (Cap. 185)

13. Section 47 (2) of the Public Service Act (No. 10 of 2017) provides qualifications that one must have to be eligible for appointment as a Principal Secretary. These are:
- i. be a citizen of Kenya;
 - ii. hold a degree from a university recognised in Kenya;
 - iii. has at least ten (10) years relevant professional experience, five (5) years of which should have been in a leadership position or at a top management level in the public service or private sector;
 - iv. possess general knowledge of the organisation and functions of Government;
 - v. demonstrates an understanding of the goals, policies and developmental objectives of the nation;
 - vi. has demonstrable leadership and management capacity including knowledge of financial management and strategic people management; and
 - vii. meets requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution.

Article 10(2) of the Constitution on national values and principles of governance

14. Article 10(2) of the Constitution provides for the national values and principles of governance which include patriotism, national unity, sharing and devolution of power, the rule of law, democracy and participation of the people; human dignity, equity, social justice, inclusiveness, equality, human rights, non-discrimination and protection of the marginalised; good governance, integrity, transparency and accountability; and sustainable development.

Chapter 6 of the Constitution (Leadership and Integrity)

15. Article 73 of the Constitution provides that the authority assigned to a State officer (a Principal Secretary being a state officer under Article 260 of the Constitution) is a public trust to be exercised in accordance to the Constitution, demonstrate respect for the people, bring honour to the nation and dignity to the office and promote public confidence in the integrity of the office. Also, the State officer shall have the responsibility to serve the people, rather than the power to rule them.
16. The guiding principles of leadership and integrity are listed as selection based on personal integrity, competence and suitability, objectivity and impartiality in decision making, selfless service based solely on the public interest, accountability and discipline and commitment in service to the people.

Article 77 of the Constitution (Restriction on activities of State officers)

17. Article 77 of the Constitution provides that a full-time State officer shall not participate in any other gainful employment and that any appointed State officer shall not hold office in a political party.

Article 78 of the Constitution on citizenship and leadership

18. Article 78 of the Constitution states that a person is not eligible for election or appointment to a State office unless the person is a citizen of Kenya. It also provides that a State officer or a member of the defence forces shall not hold dual citizenship.

Article 118 of the Constitution on public access and participation

19. Article 118 of the Constitution provides that:
1. Parliament shall:
 - a) conduct its business in an open manner, and its sittings and those of its committees shall be in public; and
 - b) facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its committees.
 2. Parliament may not exclude the public, or any media, from any sitting unless in exceptional circumstances the relevant Speaker has determined that there are justifiable reasons for the exclusion.

Article 232 of the Constitution on Values and Principles of Public Service

20. Article 232 of the Constitution provides for the values and principles of public service which include high standards of professional ethics; efficient, effective and economic use of resources; responsive, prompt, effective, impartial and equitable provision of services; involvement of the people in the process of policy making; accountability for administrative acts; transparency and provision to the public of timely, accurate information; fair competition and merit as the basis of appointments and promotions; representation of Kenya's diverse communities; and affording adequate and equal opportunities for appointment, training and advancement, at all levels of the public service of men and women; the members of all ethnic groups; and persons with disabilities.

The Leadership and Integrity Act (Cap. 182)

21. The Leadership and Integrity Act provides a number of obligations to a state officer. These are, among others: to respect and abide by the Constitution and the law, public trust, performance of duties in an honest and accountable manner, professionalism, financial integrity, not to engage in activities that amount to abuse of office, not misuse public resources, accepting gifts that may compromise the officer's duties, wrongful or unlawful acquisition of property, conflict of interest e.t.c.

The Public Service (Values and Principles) Act

22. Section 5 of the Public Service (Values and Principles) Act provides that a public officer shall maintain high standards of professional ethics, including, being honest; displaying high standards of integrity, transparency, accountability, respect to others, objectivity, patriotism, observance of rule of law.

The Public Officer Ethics Act (Cap 185B)

23. The Public Officer Ethics Act provides for obligations to be carried out by a public officer. These include professionalism, carrying out duties in accordance with the law, prohibition from unjust enrichment, avoiding conflict of interest, not using office as a venue for soliciting or collecting harambees; not acting for foreigners; care of property; political neutrality, not practicing nepotism or favouritism, giving impartial advice, conducting private affairs in a way that maintains public confidence, bar from sexual harassment, submission of declaration of income, assets and liabilities once every two years (section 26). (Applies in future after appointment)

2.2 Qualifications for appointment as Principal Secretary

24. In conducting the Approval Hearing, the Committee was guided by Article 155 (3) (b) of the Constitution, Section 47(2) of the Public Service Commission Act and the provisions of Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F).

2.3 Message from H.E. the President

3.1.7 Other issues under consideration

55. To examine suitability or otherwise of the nominee, the Committee engaged the nominee in the following thematic areas to determine his knowledge of the sector:

Suitability and experience of the nominee in the State Department for National Government Coordination

56. The nominee informed the Committee that he had vast experience in both the public and non-Government organisation. Having been a Member of Parliament, member of various Parliament Committees a policy advisor and a manager in various ranks in the Red Cross Society has made him acquire perseverance, resilience, decision making and coordination skills, that will make him useful in the State Department.

57. The nominee further informed the Committee that he did a Publication on Kenya Inter Agency Rapid Assessment Mechanism (KIRA) and this was awarded as the best paper with outstanding impact as it is being used for disaster rapid response to date in most vulnerable counties.

Impact of the Red Cross Society's Experience on Government

58. The nominee explained that the experience at the Red Cross Society helped him gain skills in rapid lifesaving interventions that have made him resilience and acquire coordination skills.

Establishment and Mandate of State Department for National Government Coordination

59. The nominee stated that the State Department is a functional department headed by the Secretary, the State Department is unique since it helps addressing the bottlenecks that exists in the government and ensures that there is improvement and efficiency in service delivery in the government

60. He added that the platform has already been formed which is the National Development Committee (NDC). The nominee further indicated that if approved he will be the Secretary of the Committee. There are several clusters based on the Bottom-Up Economic Transformation Agenda. The nominee further explained that the projects that have stalled will soon be reviewed.

His First 100 Days in Office

61. The nominee informed the committee that he will improve coordination and communication between government agencies. This has impeded collaboration among the government departments and has led to inefficiency. The nominee further noted that there will be teams that will be on the field to make progressive report, and prepare action letters, which will be presented to the National Development Committee. With these interlinkages there will be improvement in communication efficiency and service delivery.

Bottom-Up Agenda Transformation Agenda

62. The nominee submitted that in the five pillars of Bottom- Up Transformation Agenda he will work with different agencies to ensure that the objectives are achieved. He further added that the NDC was working on 51 projects and that they were derived from the Fourth Medium Term Plan (MTP4)

63. The nominee further stated that there was need support the pillars through the Bottom-Up Agenda enablers. He promised to work closely with treasury to ensure financial allocation is according to priorities in the Bottom- UP.

On Pending Bills

64. The nominee noted that there was need for special consideration to ensure that the issue of pending bills is well addressed in both Counties and National Government.

Overlap of Duties/ Government Delivery Unit (GDU) and the State Department

65. The nominee noted that there was no overlap of duties and that the two complement each other. He further reiterated that some staff in the Department had been seconded from the Government Delivery Unit.

66. The nominee further explained that the expected Executive Order 3 will shed more light on the specific roles of the State Department.

Net worth

67. The nominee submitted that he was worth Kshs. 105 million, consisting of residential properties, undeveloped land, livestock, and motor vehicles.

Pro Bono

RE: CONFIRMATION OF AUTHENTICITY OF DEGREE CERTIFICATES FOR PERSONS NOMINATED FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE POSITIONS OF PRINCIPAL SECRETARIES

The National Assembly is in receipt of a notification of fourteen persons for appointment as Principal Secretaries by His Excellency the President.

As you are aware, the National Assembly is required to approve the nominees for appointment in accordance with the provisions of Article 132 (2) (d) of the Constitution and the Public Appointment (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F).

Article 124(4) (a) of the Constitution provides that “when a House of Parliament considers any appointment for which its approval is required under the Constitution or an Act of Parliament, the appointment shall be considered by a Committee of the House”

In view of the foregoing, and in accordance with Standing Order 216(5) (f) as read with the Second Schedule to the National Assembly Standing Orders, the relevant Departmental Committee of the National Assembly is mandated to consider, for approval by the House, appointment under Articles 132 (2) (d).

Further, pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Public Appointment (Parliamentary Approval) Act (Cap. 7F), Committees are mandated to consider whether the nominees meet all Constitutional and Statutory requirements relating to the office in question.

In this regard, Mr. Ahmed Abdisalan Ibrahim of ID No. 20865145 indicated that he holds a degree certificate of BSc, Information Sciences awarded by Kenya Methodist University in 2006.

In order to assist the relevant Committees in the consideration of the suitability of the nominee for the appointment to the position, this is to request you to confirm the authenticity of the certificate cited.

The Committee requests that you provide your response to the office of the Clerk of the National Assembly on or before Thursday, 3rd April 2025.

You may send soft copies of the responses to the office of the Clerk of the National Assembly via cna@parliament.go.ke.

PROFILE

ahmedabdiibrahm@gmail.com

I am a seasoned and proactive leader with over 20 years of experience in public administration, peace and conflict advocacy, and regional management. My background includes managing operations as a Regional Manager for the Kenya Red Cross, serving as a Member of Parliament in the Kenyan National Assembly, and participating in the formulation of policies and strategies to improve organizational effectiveness.

My expertise lies in leadership and team building, strategic and tactical planning, community mobilization and capacity building, conflict resolution, disaster management, and monitoring and evaluation. I possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, enabling me to interact effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds. I am passionate about promoting equality, integration, and a conflict-free environment to make a positive difference in society.

Currently, I am pursuing a master's in Strategic management at Kenyatta University. I hold a Bachelor of Science in Information Science from Kenya Methodist University, an executive certification in public policy program from Strathmore University and a Diploma in Library Science and Information Studies from the Technical University of Kenya. I also acquired an international certification of Management Leadership Skills Development at Redr UK.

As a Member of Parliament for Wajir-North Constituency, I chaired the House Audit Committee, served on the Departmental Committee of Transport, Public Works & Housing, and was a member of the House Selection Committee. I excel in law-making and policy formulation, disaster management, conflict resolution, community mobilization, team building, coordination, and networking. I have successfully managed projects and implemented development initiatives that have improved the lives of Kenyan citizens.

My strengths also lie in building partnerships, strategic management, resource mobilization, financial management, and operations management. I have successfully established networks with government agencies, political leaders, donors, and non-governmental organizations. I have developed various proposals for fundraising, raised grants, and managed the overall operational, budgetary, and financial responsibilities of the Region.

As a purpose-driven leader, I have mentored and motivated teams to deliver innovative solutions to challenges and optimize operations. I possess excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, able to visualize and solve complicated problems and make informed decisions. I am skilled in building accountability, designing and implementing standards of accountability for the organization, and setting high standards of performance.

My excellent communication and interpersonal skills enable me to effectively give presentations to audiences and work with others outside the line of formal authority to achieve organizational goals and identify and solve problems. I am skilled in change management, planning and implementing change initiatives, supporting innovation and creativity, and encouraging staff to accept and resolve challenges. Lastly, I remain flexible to achieve constantly changing and sometimes opposing demands.
