- (2) Questions relating to matters which are under the control of a statutory body must be restricted to those matters for which a Minister is made responsible by law or which affect the general policy of that statutory body.

Questions to Chairpersons and the Commission

27. (1) Questions may be asked of Committee Chairpersons relating to a Bill, motion or other public matter connected with the business of the House for which the Committee is responsible.
- (2) Questions may be asked of the Commission relating to the administration or other Commission matters.

Notice of urgent questions

28. (1) A question shall not be asked without notice unless it is of an urgent nature relating either to a matter of public importance or the arrangement of business, questions without notice shall only be asked with the prior leave of the Speaker.
- (2) Notice of a question shall be given by delivery of the written question to the Office of the Clerk at least three days (exclusive of any Saturday and Sunday or public holiday) before the day on which the sitting commences at which the Member proposes to ask the question.

(3) The Clerk shall ensure that the notice delivered to him or her under subrule (2) of this rule is communicated to the person required to answer it as soon as is practicable from the date of delivery and the person asking the question shall be informed of the communication.

(4) The Speaker shall determine the admissibility of a question; in accordance with rule 30.

(5) If the Speaker is of the opinion that any question, of which a member has given notice to the Clerk or which a Member has sought leave to ask without notice, infringes any of the conditions set out in this rule, the Speaker may direct that it be printed or asked with such alterations as he or she shall direct, or that it be returned to the Member concerned as being inadmissible.

(6) Where the Speaker has refused to admit any question under this rule, the Member bringing the question is entitled to appeal, in writing to the Business Committee for a decision.

(7) There shall be a Question Record book to be kept by the Clerk which shall be open for inspection by Members and in which shall be recorded-

(a) all questions submitted by Members;

- (b) questions admitted by the Speaker and the time of their transmission to the person to answer the question;
- (c) questions not admitted and the reasons for their rejection;
- (d) answers given to the question, and the form of answer;
- (e) questions which have received no answers.

(8) A Member who desires an oral answer to a question shall mark it with 'oral reply'.

(9) Answers to questions not so marked shall be communicated in writing to Members and shall be printed in the official report.

Order of oral questions to be determined by lot

29. (1) The order in which questions for oral answers shall be placed on the list of questions shall be determined by lot under the direction of the Speaker.

(2) Not more than three questions for oral answers shall be asked by a Member at any one sitting.

(3) The answer for any question remaining on the Order Paper after the time allocated for questions has passed shall be printed in the Official Report.

(4) No question, other than an urgent question provided for under subrule (1) of rule 28 submitted less than six days before the end of a Meeting shall be admitted for oral answers.

(5) Answers to late questions referred to in subrule (4) may be communicated in writing to Members.

Conditions for admissibility of questions

30. Questions must comply with the following conditions-

(a) a question shall not include the names of persons or statements of fact unless they are necessary to make the question intelligible, and in the case of statements of fact, can be authenticated by the Member concerned, or contain charges which the Member asking the question is not prepared to substantiate;

(b) a question shall not contain any arguments, expression of opinion, inferences, imputations, epithets or controversial, ironical or offensive expressions or hypothetical cases;

(c) no question shall be asked which raises an issue already decided, or which has been answered substantially, during the current Session;

- (d) a question shall not be asked regarding proceedings in a Committee which have not been tabled before the House by a report from the Committee;
- (e) a question shall not solicit the expression of an opinion or the solution of an abstract legal case or a hypothetical proposition;
- (f) a question shall not be asked as to the character or conduct of any person except in his or her official capacity;
- (g) a question shall not refer to more than one subject and shall not be of excessive length;
- (h) a question shall not be asked the answer to which is readily available in official publications;
- (i) a question shall not be asked on the character or conduct of persons whose conduct may only be challenged on a substantive motion;
- (j) a question shall not reflect on a decision of a court of law or be so drafted as to be likely to prejudice a case under trial;
- (k) a supplementary question shall be subject to the same rules of order as an original question;

Manner of asking and answering questions

31. (1) At question time, the Speaker shall call successively each Member in whose name a question stands on the Order Paper;
- (2) The Member called upon shall rise and read out the number assigned to the question standing in his or her name on the Order Paper.
- (3) In the absence of the Member asking the question, any Member authorised by the Member may, with the Speaker's prior permission, read the number of the question on behalf of the absent Member.
- (4) The answer to any question shall be printed and a copy of it supplied to the Member asking it, not less than fifteen minutes before the time fixed for the sitting at which the question is to be answered, and the answer shall be read by the Member to whom the question is addressed or by the Member acting for the Member to whom the question is addressed.
- (5) Without prejudice to the right to answer a question, no Member shall address the House upon any question, nor in asking the question shall any argument or opinion be offered.

(6) When any question has been asked and answered, no debate on it shall be permitted.

Supplementary questions

32. As soon as a question is answered in the House, any Member, beginning with the member who asked the question, may, without notice, ask a supplementary question for the further elucidation of any matter of fact regarding the answer which has been given; supplementary questions shall arise directly from the answer to the original question and shall not be used to introduce matters not included in the original answer to the question.

PART VII

STATEMENTS BY MINISTERS

Statements by Ministers

33. (1) A Minister may make a statement at the appropriate time on the sequence of business prescribed by rule 18 (Order of Business) with the prior permission of the Speaker whether for the purpose of explaining Government policy or action upon any matter.

(2) No debate shall follow from the statement but elucidatory questions may, with the permission of the Speaker, be asked of the Minister making the statement.

PART VIII

STATEMENTS BY MEMBERS AND PERSONAL EXPLANATIONS

Statements by Members and Personal explanations

34. (1) With the leave of the Speaker, a Member may make a statement on any matter of urgent public importance relating to the functions of the House or to explain a matter of a personal nature at the time appointed, under rule 18; but no controversial matter may be brought forward in the statement nor may debate arise upon a personal explanation.
- (2) Any statement other than a personal explanation may be commented upon by other Members for a limited duration of time not exceeding thirty minutes.
- (3) Unless the situation warrants otherwise any proposed statement and personal explanations under this rule shall be submitted to the Speaker in writing by 11.00 a.m. on the day on which it is to be made.

PART IX

MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS TO MOTIONS

Notice of motions

35. Subject to the provisions of rule 36 no motion shall be moved unless the Member moving it has given written notice of the same to the Speaker and the Clerk not less than three days previous to the sitting at which it is intended to move the motion.

Oral notice of Motions

36. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of rule 35 a Member may, with leave of the Speaker, give oral notice of a motion during a sitting but the motion shall not be placed on the Order of Business until three clear days have elapsed since the notice was given, unless the Speaker is of the opinion that it is in the public interest that it should be placed on the Order of Business prior to the expiration of three days in which case, the Speaker may direct that it be placed on the Order of Business at such time as he or she thinks convenient.
- (2) Any oral notice of a motion shall be reduced into writing and handed to the Clerk before notice is given to the House.

Amendment of notices of motion

37. The Speaker may permit the Member to move in amended form, without notice, a motion of which notice has been given if in the opinion of the Speaker the amendment does not materially alter any principle embodied in the motion of which notice has been given.

Motions without Notices

38. (1) The following motions may be moved without notice-
- (a) any motion by way of amendment to a question already proposed by the Speaker;
 - (b) an adjournment motion for purposes of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance;
 - (c) any motion for the adjournment of a debate;
 - (d) any motion for the suspension of the Rules of Procedure;
 - (e) any motion for the withdrawal or re-admission of strangers;
 - (f) any motion for the reference of a Bill to a Committee;
 - (g) any motion for the House to resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole House;
 - (h) any motion made when the House is in Committee;
 - (i) any motion for the approval of a report of the Committee of Supply;

- (j) any motion made in accordance with the provisions of the rules governing the procedure as to Bills;
- (k) any motion certified by the Speaker to be a matter of emergency;
- (l) any motion, notice of which has been dispensed with in accordance with rule 8;
- (m) any motion raising a question of privilege; and
- (n) any motion for closure of debate under Rule 60.

(2) A member may move a motion without notice in the following manner –

“Mr. Speaker/Chairperson I rise to move that the House/Committee considers the following motion without notice under (subrule (1) of this rule”.....)

Seconding of motions

39. (1) In the House, the question upon a motion or amendment shall not be proposed by the Speaker nor shall the debate on the same commence unless the motion or amendment has been seconded.

(2) In Committee, a seconder shall not be required.

Amendments to motions

40. (1) When any motion is under consideration in the House or in a Committee of the House, an amendment may be proposed to the motion if it is relevant to the motion.
- (2) Any amendment may be proposed to the amendment if it is relevant to that amendment.
- (3) Any amendment moved and seconded in the House shall be required by the Speaker to be put into writing by the Mover and delivered to the Clerk.
- (4) No amendment shall be permitted if, in the opinion of the Speaker it substantially alters the principle of the question proposed.
- (5) Any amendment to the motion which a Member wishes to propose under this rule may be moved and seconded at any time after the question upon the motion has been proposed by the Speaker and before it has been put by the Speaker at the conclusion of the debate upon the motion.
- (6) When the amendment has been disposed of, the Speaker shall again propose the question upon the motion as amended, as the case may require, and after any further debate which may arise on it, shall put the question for decision.

- (7) Where two or more amendments are proposed to be moved to the same motion, the Speaker shall call upon the Movers in the order in which their amendments relate to the text of the motion, or in case of doubt, in such order as he or she shall decide.
- (8) Any amendment to an amendment which a Member wishes to propose shall be moved and seconded at any time after the question upon the original amendment has been proposed by the Speaker, and before it has been put by the Speaker at the conclusion of the debate on the original amendment.
- (9) The provisions of subrule (7) of this rule shall apply to the discussion of the amendments to amendments, with the substitution for the word "motion" throughout, of the words "original amendment."
- (10) When every amendment to an amendment has been disposed of, the Speaker shall either again propose the question upon the original amendment, or shall propose the question upon the original amendment as amended, as the case may require.
- (11) Upon any amendment to delete any of the words of a motion, the question to be proposed by the Speaker shall be "That the following words ... be deleted from the question."

- (12) Upon any amendment to insert words in, or add words at the end of a motion, the question to be proposed by the Speaker shall be "That the following words ... be inserted (or added)."
- (13) Upon an amendment to delete words and insert or add other words instead, a question shall first be proposed "That the following words... be deleted from the question", and if the question is agreed to, the question shall then be proposed "That the following words, ... be there inserted (or added)."
- (14) If the first question is negated, no further amendment may be proposed to the words which were to be deleted.
- (15) If an amendment is moved to an amendment upon which the Speaker has proposed the question, the last-mentioned amendment shall be dealt with as if it were the original motion until all amendments to it have been disposed of.

Withdrawal of Motions

41. (1) A motion or an amendment to the motion may be withdrawn at the request of the Mover, by leave of the House or Committee, before the question is put on the motion or the amendment.
- (2) A motion or an amendment withdrawn under this rule may be proposed again, if, in case of a motion, notice as required by these Rules is given.

- (3) If the question has been proposed on an amendment to a motion, the original motion may not be withdrawn until the amendment to the motion has been disposed of.

Manner of debating motions

42. (1) When a motion has been moved and seconded in the House the Speaker shall propose the question on the motion in the same terms as the motion, and debate may then take place upon that motion and may continue for a period not exceeding one hour.
- (2) The Speaker may at the beginning of any debate specify the period that each member contributing to a debate may be given.
- (3) The Speaker may call upon the Mover to reply at the end of the period allocated for debate and immediately the Mover has concluded his or her reply, shall put the question to the House.

SPECIALISED MOTIONS

Adjournment Motion: Definite matter of urgent public importance

43. (1) Any Member may move the adjournment Motion for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance, and if-

- (a) not less than five other Members rise in their places in support; and
 - (b) the Speaker rules that the matter is a definite matter of urgent public importance; the Speaker shall appoint a time on the same day when the motion may be moved.
- (2) A Member desiring to move the adjournment under sub-rule (1) shall, if possible, before the commencement of the day's sitting, submit to the Speaker the terms in writing of the matter which he or she desires to be discussed.
- (3) In determining whether a matter should have urgent consideration, the Speaker shall have regard to-
- (a) the extent to which it concerns the administrative responsibilities of the Government or could come within the scope of Ministerial action; and
 - (b) the probability of the matter being brought before the House within a reasonable time by other means.
- (4) The right to move a motion under this rule is subject to the following conditions-

- (a) the matter proposed for discussion must be one that calls for immediate and urgent consideration;
- (b) not more than one such motion may be made at any one sitting;
- (c) not more than one matter can be discussed on the same motion;
- (d) the motion must not revive debate on a matter which has already been discussed in the same Session under this rule;
- (e) the motion must not raise a question of privilege;
- (f) the debate under the motion must not raise any question which according to these Rules, can only be debated on a substantive motion under notice;

(5) Any proceeding which has been postponed under this rule shall be exempted from rule 18(b) for a period of time equal to the duration of the proceedings upon a motion under this rule, and may be resumed and proceeded with at or after the time fixed for the adjournment of the House.

Motion for adjournment of debate

44. (1) Any Member may at any time move for the adjournment of debate on a matter before the House.

(2) Unless it appears to the Speaker that the Motion is an abuse of the Rules of the House or an infringement of the rights of any Member, the Speaker shall put the question on the motion without debate.

(3) If the motion is carried, debate on the subject shall be adjourned to a date appointed by the speaker.

Debate interrupted by adjournment of the House

45. Any debate interrupted by a motion under rule 44 shall, on coming again before the House or a Committee of the House, be resumed at a point where it was interrupted as if it were a continuous debate; and any member whose speech was interrupted has the right to speak first on the resumption, but if he or she does not avail himself or herself of that right, his or her speech shall be taken to have been completed.

Half Hour motions

46. (1) On any day on which the Order Paper contains the item Half-Hour Motions, the Speaker shall interrupt business thirty-minutes before the conclusion of business or at the conclusion of business before that time, call upon the Member in whose name the item stands to move the Half-Hour Motion.

(2) On the interruption of business under subrule (1) of this rule, the closure may be moved, and if it is so moved or if proceedings under rule 60 (closure of debate) are already in progress at the time of interruption, the Speaker shall not interrupt the business until the question consequent upon the moving of the closure and any further question relating to it has been decided.

(3) If business is interrupted for a half-hour Motion and at that hour a division is in progress, the Speaker shall not interrupt business until he has declared the determination of the House on the division.

(4) The right to move the motion shall not be allotted to more than one Member for each Sitting and at the stated end of the sitting or the conclusion of the debate before that time the Speaker shall put the question on the motion without allowing a division.

(5) Where the member is called upon, the sitting shall be subject to the provisions of rule 57 (Interruptions of debate) and debate may proceed for not more than thirty minutes.

Motion with regard to settlement of financial matters: article 93 of the Constitution.

47. Parliament shall not proceed on any motion, including any amendment to a motion, that in the opinion of the person presiding makes provision for any of the purposes set out in rule 99 unless the motion is introduced by a member or a Minister on behalf of the President.

Motions to amend Rules

48. (1) A Member may move that any of these Rules be amended by giving not less than five days notice.
- (2) The notice of any motion for the amendment of any of these Rules shall be accompanied by a draft of the proposed amendment.
- (3) When the motion has been proposed and seconded, it shall stand referred to the Committee on Rules, Privileges and Discipline, and no further proceedings shall be taken on it until that Committee has reported on it.

Debate of matters relating to national security

49. (1) No member shall move any motion or introduce any matter the discussion of which touches on National security unless the member has first obtained the leave of the Speaker.
- (2) Where a member applies for leave to move any motion or introduce any matter under subrule (1) of this rule, the Speaker shall refer the application to the Committee on Defence and Internal Affairs and the Committee shall as soon as practicable, indicate to the Speaker its recommendation on the matter.
- (3) When considering an application under sub-rule (2), the Committee may sit in camera.
- (4) If any question arises during a debate whether or not a matter touches on national security the question shall be determined by the Speaker whose decision shall be final.
- (5) Where a member raises a matter touching on national security while holding the floor, the Speaker shall draw his or her attention to this rule and require the member to comply with the requirements of this rule.

PART X
RULES OF DEBATE

Time and manner of speaking

50. (1) A Member desiring to speak shall rise and address the Chair and shall do so only after catching the Speaker's eye.
- (2) When the Speaker rises during the proceedings in the House or when the Chairperson rises during the proceedings in a Committee of the whole House, every other Member shall rise.
- (3) By the indulgence of the Speaker, a Member unable conveniently to stand by reason of sickness or disability, may be permitted to speak while sitting.
- (4) The Speaker shall be referred to as Mr/Madam/ Speaker.
- (5) A Minister shall be referred to by his or her Ministerial title.
- (6) Every other Member shall be referred to as "Honourable" together with the name of his or her constituency or the group or body represented by the Member, that is, "the Honourable Member for ..."

(7) Where an Honourable Member has already been described as referred to in subrule (6) in a speech, he or she may be further referred to as "My Honourable Friend" or "The Honourable Gentleman, Lady or Member".

(8) No Member shall speak more than once to any motion except-

(a) in a Committee; or

(b) in explanation, as prescribed in subrule (9) of this rule; or

(c) in the case of the mover of a substantive motion wishing to reply;

but any Member may second a motion or an amendment by rising in his or her place and saying "Mr /Madam/Speaker, I beg to second the motion (or amendment)" without prejudice to his or her right to speak at a later period of the debate.

(9) A Member who has spoken to a motion may again be heard for the purpose of explaining some material part of his or her speech which has been misunderstood, or vindicating his or her character or conduct if it has been impugned, but he or she must not in the process introduce new matter.

(10) Subject to rule 40 the mover of the motion shall be called upon to speak his or her motion before any other member."

(11) The Speaker may, on the commencement of the proceedings of the day or on any motion, announce the time limit he or she is to allow each member contributing to debate and may direct a member to take his or her seat who has spoken for the period given.

Close of debate

51. (1) No Member may speak on any question after it has been put by the Speaker, that is, after the voices of both Ayes and Noes have been given on it.

Contents of speeches

52. (1) Reference shall not be made to any matter on which judicial decision is pending in such a way as may, in the opinion of the Speaker, prejudice the interest of any party to the action.
- (2) It is out of order to use offensive, abusive, insulting, blasphemous or unbecoming words or to impute improper motives to any Member or to make personal allusions.
- (3) It is out of order to attempt to reconsider any specific question upon which the House has come to a conclusion during the current Session, except upon a substantive motion for rescission.
- (4) The speech of a Member must have reference to the subject matter under discussion.

contributing to debate and may direct a member to take his or her seat who has spoken for the period given.

Close of debate

51. (1) No Member may speak on any question after it has been put by the Speaker, that is, after the voices of both Ayes and Noes have been given on it.

Contents of speeches

52. (1) Reference shall not be made to any matter on which judicial decision is pending in such a way as may, in the opinion of the Speaker, prejudice the interest of any party to the action.
- (2) It is out of order to use offensive, abusive, insulting, blasphemous or unbecoming words or to impute improper motives to any Member or to make personal allusions.
- (3) It is out of order to attempt to reconsider any specific question upon which the House has come to a conclusion during the current Session, except upon a substantive motion for rescission.
- (4) The speech of a Member must have reference to the subject matter under discussion.

(5) The conduct of the Speaker, Members, the Chief Justice and Judges of the Courts of Judicature shall not be raised, except upon a substantive motion, and, in any amendment, question to a Member or remarks in a debate on a motion dealing with any other subject, any reference to the conduct of persons mentioned is out of order.

Scope of debate

53. (1) Debate upon any motion or amendment to a motion or upon any Bill, part of a Bill or amendment to a Bill, shall be relevant to the matter being debated.

(2) When an amendment to a motion or to a Bill proposes to leave out words and insert or add other words instead of them, debate upon the question to leave out words may include both the words to be left out and those proposed to be inserted or added.

(3) On an amendment proposing only to leave out words or to insert or add words, debate shall be confined to the omission, insertion or addition of words respectively.

(4) In any debate on an amendment to a motion, the Speaker may, in his or her discretion, direct that the debate on the amendment may include debate on the matter of the motion where, in his or her opinion, the matter of the amendment is not conveniently separable from the matter of the motion.

(5) When the Speaker gives a direction under subrule (4), any Member who has already spoken to the motion may, in speaking to the amendment, speak only to a new matter raised by the amendment.

Newspapers, periodicals not to be read in the House

54. Subject to these Rules, Members shall not read newspapers or periodicals or books in the Chamber of the House except matters in them directly connected with the business of the House.

Reading of speeches by Members

55. (1) A Member shall not read his or her speech, but may read extracts from written or printed documents in support of his or her argument and may refresh his or her memory by reference to notes.

(2) The Speaker may, in exceptional circumstances, permit a Member to read his or her speech.

Speaker not to participate in debate

56. The Speaker shall not take part in any debate before the House, but may give guidance to the House on any matter before it.

Interruptions of debate

57. (1) Debates may be interrupted-
- (a) by a point of order being raised;
 - (b) by a matter of privilege suddenly arising;
 - (c) upon a point of information or elucidation or clarification;
 - (d) upon a point of procedure
- (2) Where a Member rises on a point of Procedure or order the Member holding the floor shall immediately resume his or her seat.
- (3) Where a point of Procedure or order has been raised, except by leave of the Speaker, no other Member shall rise until the Speaker has decided upon the matter.
- (4) Where a Member interrupts debate on a point of Procedure the Member shall state the rule of procedure he or she deems to have been breached by the Member holding the floor before subjecting the Member to the Speaker's ruling.

- (5) A Member may rise on a point of information or elucidation or clarification based on a matter raised by a member holding the floor but may only proceed with the point if the member holding the floor is willing to give way and resume his or her seat and if the Member wishing to interrupt is called upon to do so by the Speaker.
- (6) Where effect has been given to the decision on the point of procedure or order, the Member who was speaking is entitled to proceed with his or her speech unless the decision prevents him or her.
- (7) When giving leave to interrupt debate the Speaker shall follow the following precedence:
 - (a) Points of Procedure;
 - (b) Points of Order;
 - (c) Points of information, or Elucidation; or clarification.

Motion that a Member be no longer heard

58. If a Member persists in irrelevance or tedious repetitions or uses objectionable words and on being called to order fails to retract or explain the words and offer an apology to the satisfaction of the Speaker, any Member may, with the consent of the Speaker, move that the Member using the objectionable words be no longer heard, and the question on that motion shall be put forthwith without amendment or debate.

Anticipation

59. (1) It is out of order to anticipate a Bill by discussion of a motion dealing with the subject matter of the Bill on a day prior to that appointed for the consideration of that Bill.
- (2) It is out of order to anticipate a Bill or a motion by discussion of any matter directly relating to the subject matter of the motion prior to the date appointed for the consideration of the Motion.
- (3) In determining whether a discussion is out of order on the ground of anticipation, the Speaker shall have regard to the probability of the subject matter in anticipation being brought before the House within a reasonable time.

Closure of debate

60. (1) After a question has been proposed in the House or in a Committee of the whole House and debated, a Member may move "That the question be now put", and, unless it appears to the Speaker that the motion is an abuse of the rules of the House or an infringement of the rights of any Member, the question "That the question be now put" shall be put forthwith and decided without amendment or debate.

(2) If the question of closure is agreed to by a majority, the motion which was being discussed when the closure motion was moved shall be put forthwith without further discussion.

Dress Code

61. All Members shall dress in a dignified manner that is to say-
- (a) a pair of trousers, jacket, shirt and tie or a Safari Suit for male members;
 - (b) a suit, a jacket, blouse and skirt, dress or Busuti for lady members; or
 - (c) military attire for members of the armed forces; and

62. During a sitting -
- (a) all Members shall enter or leave the House with decorum;

- (b) no Member shall cross the floor of the House or move around unnecessarily;
- (c) while a Member is speaking, all other members shall be silent and shall not make unseemly interruptions;
- (d) when a Member has finished his or her observation he or she shall resume his or her seat;
- (e) no Member shall without the consent of the Speaker, bring into the House anything other than papers, books or other documents directly connected with the business of the House;
- * (f) no member shall bring into the House any camera, arms or weapon, tape recorder, transistor radio, mobile telephone, or other electronic device.
- (g) clapping shall not be permitted in the House;

PART X1

ORDER IN THE HOUSE

Chair to be heard in silence

63. When the Speaker addresses the House, any member then standing shall immediately resume his or her seat and the Speaker shall be heard in silence.

Decision of the Speaker or Chairperson

64. The Speaker or the Chairperson of a Committee shall be responsible for the observance of the Rules or Order in the House and Committee respectively and his or her decision upon any point shall not be open to appeal and shall not be reviewed by the House except upon a substantive motion made after notice.

Order in the House and Committees

65. (1) The Speaker, or the Chairperson, after having called the attention of the House or the Committee to the conduct of a Member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition either of his or her own arguments, or of the arguments made by other Members in the debate, may direct the Member to discontinue his or her speech.

- (2) The Speaker, or Chairperson shall order any Member whose conduct is grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the House or Committee for the remainder of that day's sitting; and the Clerk or the Serjeant-at-Arms shall act on such orders as he or she may receive from the Speaker or Chairperson to ensure compliance with this rule.

Suspension of Members

66. (1) If the Speaker, or the Chairperson of any Committee considers that the conduct of a Member cannot be adequately dealt with under sub rule (2) of rule 65, he or she may name the Member.
- (2) Where a Member has been named, then-
- (a) in the case of the House, the Speaker shall suspend the Member named from the service of the House; or
- (b) in the case of a Committee of the Whole House, the Chairperson shall forthwith leave the Chair and report the circumstances to the House and the Speaker shall suspend the Member named from the service of the House.
- (3) Where a Member has been named by a Chairperson of a Committee, the chairperson shall, with the consent of the Committee suspend the Member named from its service and report at the next sitting of the House.
- (4) If a Member is suspended, his or her suspension on the first occasion in a Session shall be for the next three sittings excluding the sitting in which he or she was suspended; on the second occasion in a Session, for the next seven sittings excluding the sitting in which he or she was suspended, and on the third and any subsequent occasion during the same Session, for the next twenty eight sittings of the House excluding the sitting in which the Member was suspended.

(5) Notwithstanding the number of days a Member has been suspended, the suspension shall cease at the end of the Session in which he or she was suspended unless the House otherwise orders.

(6) Where a Member who has been suspended under this rule from the service of the House refuses to obey the direction of the Speaker when summoned under the Speaker's orders by the Sergeant-at-Arms to obey such direction, the Speaker shall call the attention of the House to the fact that recourse to force is necessary in order to compel obedience to his or her direction, and the Sergeant At Arms shall be called upon to eject the Member from the House.

Powers of the Speaker to adjourn House or suspend sitting

67. In the case of grave disorder arising in the House the Speaker may adjourn the House without question put, or suspend the sitting till a time to be named by the Speaker.

Defamatory statements to be investigated by Committee on Rules, Privileges and Discipline.

68. (1) Whenever in the opinion of the Speaker or person presiding in a Committee a statement made by a Member is prima facie defamatory of any person, the person presiding shall refer the matter for inquiry to the Committee on Rules, Privileges and Discipline which shall report its findings to the House not later than twenty one days after the matter is referred to it.

(2) Where the Committee reports to the House that the statement made by the Member is defamatory of any person, the Member who made the statement shall, within seven days after that report, render an apology at the bar of the House, the terms of which shall be approved by the Committee and communicated to the person who was defamed.

(3) Where a Member refuses to render an apology in accordance with subrule (2) of this rule, the Speaker, upon the circumstances of the matter being reported to him or her by the Chairperson of the Rules, Privileges and Discipline Committee shall suspend that Member for the duration of the Session unless the House otherwise orders.

A Member suspended to withdraw from precincts

69. A Member who is ordered to withdraw under subrule (2) of rule 65 or who is suspended from the service of the House by virtue of subrule (5) of rule 66 or subrule (3) of rule 68 shall immediately withdraw from the precincts of the House until the end of the suspension period.

PART X11

VOTING IN THE HOUSE

Questions to be decided by majority: article 89 of the Constitution.

70. (1) Except as otherwise prescribed by the Constitution, or any law consistent with the Constitution, all questions proposed for decision of Parliament shall be determined by a majority of votes of the Members present and voting.
- (2) The Speaker or the Chairperson of a Committee shall have neither an original nor a casting vote and if upon any question before the House the votes are equally divided, the motion shall be lost.
- (3) A Deputy Speaker shall not, while presiding, retain his or her original vote.

Declaration of personal interest in any matter before the House

71. (1) A Member who is a party to, or is a partner in a firm which is a party to any contract with Government shall, in any proceedings in the House relating to the contract, declare his or her interest or that of the firm in it and shall not vote on any question relating to that contract.

(2) A Member having any interest in any matter before the House shall declare the nature of his or her interest in the matter and shall not vote on any question relating to that matter.

(3) If a Member fails to declare his or her interest under subrule (1), a Member may raise the matter in the House and the Speaker may order that the first-mentioned Member shall not vote on the contract and may refer the conduct of that Member to the Rules, Privileges and Discipline Committee.

(4) The Committee may, after investigation, recommend to the House such action on the matter as it may consider appropriate.

Ex-officio Members of Parliament

72. A Vice-President or a Minister who by virtue of article 78 of the Constitution, is an ex-officio Member of Parliament, shall not vote in the House.

Voice Voting

73. When the question has been put by the Speaker or the Chairperson, the votes shall be taken by voices of "Ayes" and "Noes" and the result shall be declared by the Speaker or the Chairperson.

Secret vote

74. There shall be secret voting in the House in respect of-
- (a) a Bill for an Act of Parliament to amend any provision of the Constitution;
 - (b) the election or removal of a person holding office under the Constitution or under a law made under the Constitution;
 - (c) the election or removal of a Parliamentary Commissioner;
 - (d) the censure of a Minister or the Vice-President;
 - (e) any other matter if the House so decides upon a motion.

Division

75. (1) Where after the Speaker or the Chairperson has announced the results of the voting under rule 73, immediately, forty or more members stand in their places signifying their disapproval of the outcome of the vote, the Speaker or Chairperson shall order for a division.
- (2) Where a division has been ordered, the lobbies shall be cleared for the purpose.
- (3) The Speaker or the Chairperson shall direct the "Ayes" into the lobby on his or her right and the "Noes" into the lobby on his or her left and appoint two tellers for each lobby and one for those who abstain to count the votes.

- (4) The tellers shall take positions by the rear doors to the respective lobbies and all Members shall enter the lobbies by those rear doors and shall leave there by the fore doors back to the Chamber.
- (5) The Members shall have their names recorded as they pass through the rear doors.
- (6) After the lapse of a reasonable period from his or her original direction, the Speaker shall direct that the rear doors giving access to the division lobbies from the Chamber be closed.
- (7) A Member is not obliged to vote, and any Member who does not wish to vote shall not enter a division lobby while a division is in progress.
- (8) A record shall be made of the names of members who abstain.
- (9) When all Members wishing to vote have left the division lobbies the tellers shall return to the Chamber and shall report the number of those who have voted in their respective lobbies and those who have abstained to the Speaker or the Chairperson, who shall then declare the results of the division.
- (10) The rear doors giving access to the lobbies from the Chamber shall then be unlocked.

(11) In the case of confusion or error occurring in the course of a division concerning the numbers recorded which cannot otherwise be corrected, the Speaker or the Chairperson shall direct the House or the Committee, as the case may be, to proceed to another division.

(12) For the purposes of this rule, unless the context otherwise requires “fore doors” means those doors on the sides of the Chamber nearest to the Speaker.

“rear doors” means those doors on the sides of the Chamber furthest from the Speaker.

Division by Speaker

76. The Speaker or the Chairperson may at his or her discretion, order for a division.

Incapacity to pass through the lobbies

* 77. Members who are incapacitated by some physical infirmity or disability shall for purposes of a division be counted and recorded in the House.

Voting in error

78. If a Member states that he or she voted in error or that his or her vote was counted wrongly, he or she may, immediately before the Speaker has announced the figures and before the Speaker declares the results of the division, move to have his or her vote correctly recorded.

Equality of Votes

79. If the numbers in a division are equal the motion shall be considered lost.

PART X111

VOTES OF CENSURE AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

80. The House may pass a resolution for the removal of the President from office, or pass a vote of no confidence in the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker or pass a vote of censure against a Minister as prescribed by the Constitution or pass a resolution for the censure of the Vice President or for the removal of a Parliamentary Commissioner.

Removal of the President Under Article 107 of The Constitution

81. (1) The President may be removed from office by a resolution of Parliament on grounds prescribed under Article 107 of the Constitution.
- (2) A motion for a resolution for the removal of the President shall be initiated by a notice in writing to the Speaker, signed by not less than one third of all the Members of Parliament indicating their intention of moving a motion for a resolution for the removal of the President on grounds of either -

- (a) abuse of office or wilful violation of the oath of allegiance and the Presidential oath or any provision of the Constitution; or
- (b) misconduct or misbehaviour; or
- (c) physical or mental incapacity.

(3) A member who is desirous of moving a motion for the removal of the President shall notify the Clerk in writing of his or her intention, citing the grounds for the proposed motion and giving detailed particulars supporting such ground.

(4) The Clerk shall, within three days upon receipt of the Notice of a motion under sub rule (3) notify Parliament by causing the Notice, grounds and particulars supporting the grounds of the proposed motion to be pinned on the Members' Notice Board.

(5) The clerk shall on the date and time of pinning the Notice of motion on the members' Notice Board also cause to be prepared a list of all Members of Parliament with an open space against each name for purposes of appending of signatures which list shall be entitled "SIGNATURES IN SUPPORT OF THE NOTICE OF A MOTION TO REMOVE THE PRESIDENT."

(6) The list in sub rule (5) shall be deposited with the Sergeant At Arms during a period of ten working days from the date of deposit of the list with the Sergeant At Arms for purposes of Members appending their signatures thereon.

(7) After one third of the Members have appended their signatures on the list signifying support for the proposed motion, the Sergeant At Arms shall, with immediate effect forward the list to the Clerk who shall immediately and at any rate not later than twenty four hours transmit the notice of motion, the grounds and all supporting particulars and signatures to the Speaker.

(8) Any signature appended to the Notice shall not be withdrawn.

(9) For purposes of a notice for a resolution based on grounds under paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-rule (2), the Speaker shall within twenty four hours of receipt of the Notice and accompanying particulars forward the same to the President and a copy of the same to the Chief Justice.

(10) Within seven days from receipt of the notice, the Chief Justice shall constitute a Tribunal of three Supreme Court Justices to investigate the allegations contained in the Notice and establish whether there is a prima facie case for the removal of the President.

(11) The President shall be entitled to appear in person or by a representative of his or her choice before the Tribunal.

(12) The Chief Justice shall, within twenty four hours of the determination of the Tribunal's sittings transmit the Tribunal's findings to the Speaker who shall cause the report to be tabled before Parliament within twenty four hours after its receipt.

(13) If the Tribunal's finding is that there is a prima facie case for the removal of the President, the Speaker shall after the tabling of the report cause the motion to be formally moved and the report shall be committed to a Select Committee.

(14) On the tabling of the report by the Select Committee a debate shall ensue.

(15) The Mover of the motion shall be entitled to a closing speech at the end of the debate.

(16) If Parliament passes the motion by not less than two thirds majority of all the voting Members of Parliament, the President shall cease to hold office.

(17) If the Tribunal finds there is no prima facie case made against the President the Speaker shall reports the finding to Parliament and no debate shall ensue on the matter.

(18) For purposes of a resolution based on ground cited in subrule (2) (c), the Speaker shall within twenty four hours of receipt of the notice and particulars supporting it, transmit the same to the President and a copy thereof to the Chief Justice.

(19) The Chief Justice shall within seven days after receipt of the Notice, and in consultation with the professional head of medical services in Uganda, constitute a medical Board comprising five qualified and eminent Medical Specialists to examine the President in respect to the alleged incapacity.

(20) Within twenty four hours of the Constitution of the Medical Board, the Chief Justice shall inform the President and request him or her to submit himself or herself for examination by the Board within seven days.

(21) The Medical Board shall on examination of the President, report its findings to the Speaker, who shall lay the same on the table within twenty four hours of its receipt.

(22) If the Board finds that the President is by reason of the physical or mental incapacity unable to perform the functions of the office of the President, the Speaker shall within fourteen days of receipt of the report cause a formal motion for the removal of the President to be moved and the report shall be committed to a Select Committee.

(23) After the expiry of seven days referred to in sub-rule (14) the President refuses or fails to submit himself or herself for examination by the Board, the Chief Justice shall report the same to the Speaker who shall report to Parliament and cause a formal motion for a resolution for the removal of the President to be moved within fourteen days after the receipt of the report.

(24) The President is entitled to appear in person and be heard and to be assisted or represented by a lawyer or other expert or person of his or her choice during the proceedings of the Select Committee relating to the Motion for his or her removal.

(25) If Parliament passes the motion for the removal of the President by not less than two thirds majority of all the voting Members of Parliament, the President shall cease to hold office.

(2) Proceedings of the Committee of the whole House shall be under the Chairmanship of the Speaker acting as Chairperson of the Committee of the whole House.

(3) When consideration of all Bills referred to a Committee of the Whole House have been completed, or at any time when the Committee desires to report that they are unable to complete the business before them at the current sitting, any Member may move "That the House resume and that the Committee do report to thereto"

(4) The question shall then be put on the motion without amendment or debate and, upon the motion being agreed to, the House shall resume under the Speaker and the Member who moved the motion shall report to the House how far the Committee of the whole House has considered the Bill.

(5) On resumption of proceedings, any business which the Committee of the whole House has reported that it has been unable to complete, shall be placed on the Order of Business for a subsequent sitting in accordance with rule 17 (Procedure of Government Business).

Procedure in Committee of the Whole House on a Bill

108. (1) When the House resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole House, the Clerk shall call the number of each clause or sub clause if any, of the Bill in succession for consideration of the Committee of the whole House.

(2) If no amendment is proposed on the clause, or all proposed amendments have been disposed of, the Chairperson shall propose the question "That the clause (or the clause as amended) stand part of the Bill".

(3) Where in case of a clause called -

(a) the Chairperson is satisfied that there has been sufficient debate on it; or

- (b) all Members who wish to speak on it have spoken; the Chairperson shall put the question to the Committee for its decision.
- (4) The Committee of the Whole House shall consider proposed amendments by the Committee to which the Bill was referred and may consider proposed amendments, on notice, where the amendments were presented but rejected by the relevant Committee or where, for reasonable cause, the amendments were not presented to the relevant Committee.
- (5) The Chairperson may accept for consideration minor amendments proposed on the floor without notice and may refuse to propose the question upon any amendment of which less than one day's notice has been given.
- (6) If any proposed amendment refers to or is not intelligible without a subsequent amendment, notice of the subsequent amendment must, unless the Chairperson otherwise permits, be given before or when the first amendment is moved, so as to make the series of amendments intelligible.
- (7) Rule 42 (Manner of debating motions and amendments to motions) shall apply to the discussion of amendments to Bills, with the substitution of the word "clause" for the word "motion" throughout; and any amendment proposed to such an amendment shall be dealt with before a decision is taken on the original amendment.

* (8) Where two or more amendments are proposed on the same clause, the Chairperson shall call upon the movers in the order in which their amendments relate to the text of the clause, and the amendment which in the opinion of the Chairperson departs furthest from the text under discussion shall be debated and disposed of first.

(9) Where two or more proposed amendments to any clause seek to attain the same objective but in different ways, or the wording of the amendments differs, sponsors of the amendments may be required by the Chairperson to discuss their amendments and to reconcile them or agree on compromise amendments that will be acceptable to their sponsors.

(10) No amendment shall be moved which is inconsistent with any clause already agreed upon or any decision taken by the Committee of the whole House, and the Chairperson may, at any time during the discussion of a proposed amendment, withdraw it from the consideration of the Committee if in his or her opinion the discussion has shown that the amendment contravenes this sub-rule.

(11) When every amendment to an amendment has been disposed of, the Chairperson shall either again propose the question upon the original amendment, or shall propose the question upon the original amendments as amended.

(12) A clause may be postponed unless a decision has already been taken upon it.

(13) Postponed clauses shall be considered after the remaining clauses of the Bill have been considered.

(14) The final question to be proposed shall be "That the Clause (as amended) be added to the Bill".

(15) Schedules shall be disposed of in the same way as clauses and any proposed new Schedule shall be considered after the Schedules to the Bill have been disposed of.

(16) An amendment, new clause or new Schedule may be withdrawn at the request of the mover by leave of the Committee of the Whole House before the question has been put on it.

(17) If the question has been proposed on an amendment to an amendment to a clause or Schedule, the original amendment, may not be withdrawn until the amendment to it has been disposed of.

(18) When every clause and Schedule and proposed new clause or Schedule have been disposed of, the preamble, if there is one, shall be considered and the question put "That this preamble (as amended) be the preamble to the Bill."

(19) No amendment to the preamble shall be considered which is not made necessary by a previous amendment to the Bill.

(20) If any amendment to the title of the Bill is made necessary by an amendment to the Bill, it shall be made at the conclusion of the proceedings detailed above, but no question shall be put that the title (as amended) stand part of the Bill or shall any question be put upon the enacting formula.

Procedure in Select Committee on a Bill

109. (1) A Select Committee on a Bill shall be subject to the provisions of Part XXVI (Operation of Committees Generally) that are relevant to Select Committees; but before reporting the Bill to the House, it shall go through the Bill as provided in rule 108 (Procedure in Committee of the Whole House on a Bill).

(2) When a Bill has been substantially amended in a Select Committee the whole text of the Bill as amended shall be printed as part of the report of the Select Committee.

(3) After consideration of the Bill by the Committee the Chairperson shall lay the report of the Committee on the Table at the time specified in rule 18 (Order of business) and the Speaker shall appoint the time for the consideration of the report

PART XX

RECOMMITTAL AND THIRD READING OF A BILL

Report of Committee after Committee Stage

110. Immediately a Committee of the Whole House has reported, the House may proceed to the Third Reading of any Bill reported.

Third Reading and passing of Bills

111. The House shall proceed to the Third Reading of a Bill upon a motion "That the Bill be read a Third Time and do pass".

Recommittal of Bill reported from Committee of the Whole House

112. (1) If any Member desires to delete or amend any provision contained in a Bill as reported from a Committee of the whole House he or she may, at any time before a Member moves the Third Reading of the Bill, move that the Bill be recommitted either wholly or in respect only of some particular amendment or amendments.
- (2) No notice of a motion for recommittal is required, and if the motion is agreed to, the Bill shall stand so recommitted and shall proceed in accordance with subrule (1) of rule 103 to resolve itself into a Committee to consider the business recommitted.
- (3) When the whole Bill has been recommitted, the Committee shall go through the Bill as provided in rule 104 (Procedure in Committee of the Whole House on a Bill).
- (4) When the Bill has been recommitted in respect only of some particular clause, amendment or amendments, the Committee shall consider only that amendment or those amendments and any amendment which may be moved to them; unless the Chairperson in his or her discretion, is satisfied that the clause, amendment or amendments proposed are substantial and it is necessary or desirable, to reconsider the whole Bill as provided in sub rule (3) of this rule.

(5) At the conclusion of the proceedings in Committee of a Bill recommitted either wholly or in respect only of some particular clause, amendment or amendments, the Member in charge of the Bill may move "That the House do resume and the Committee of the Whole House do report thereto" and the question on it shall be put without amendment or debate.

(6) If the motion is agreed to, the House shall resume and Member in charge of the Bill shall report to the House and the House may then proceed to the Third Reading of the Bill.

Proceedings on Bills reported from Select Committee

113. (1) When a Bill has been reported from a Select Committee, the House shall proceed to consider the Bill as reported from the Select Committee upon a motion "That the report of the Select Committee be approved".

(2) If the motion is agreed to without amendment, the House may proceed to the Third Reading of the Bill as reported from the Select Committee.

(3) Upon a motion to approve the report of a Select Committee on a Bill, any Member may propose an amendment to add, at the end of the motion, the words "Subject to the recommittal of the Bill (either wholly or in respect only of some particular amendment or amendments) to a Committee of the whole House, and if that motion is agreed to with the amendment, the Bill shall stand so recommitted.

(4) The House may then, upon a motion made in accordance with subrule (1) of rule 107 (Committee of the Whole House) resolve itself into a Committee to consider the business so recommitted.

(5) The Committee of the Whole House upon a Bill, or a part or clause of a Bill recommitted after having been reported from a Select Committee, shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of subrules (2) or (3) and (4) as the case may require, of rule 112 (Recommittal of Bill reported from Committee of the whole House), and the conclusion of its proceedings and the remaining proceedings on the Bill shall be subject to subrules (3) and (4) of that rule.

Withdrawal of Bills

114. The Member in charge of a Bill may, at any time give notice that he or she wishes to withdraw a Bill subject to the approval of the House.

(2) Whenever the House grants its approval for withdrawal, the Bill shall stand withdrawn save that the same Bill may be re-introduced after re-publishing it in the Gazette.

(3) Should the House withhold its approval, the Bill shall proceed in the House under the guidance of the Chairperson of the relevant Committee.

PART XXI

DELAYS WITH BILLS

Delays with Bills

115. (1) Subject to the Constitution, no Bill introduced in the House shall be delayed for more than two months in any Committee.
- (2) Where a delay as described in subrule (1) has taken place, the House shall proceed to deal with the Bill immediately.

Petitions by particular persons to be heard when a Bill affects their interest

116. (1) Where individual rights or the property of any particular person, association or corporate body may be peculiarly affected by a Bill, a petition from any party so interested may be presented to the House in accordance with rule 21 (Petitions) at any time before the Bill has been read a Second time.
- (2) If the Speaker is of the opinion that any Bill in respect of which a petition has been lodged may have any object described in subrule (1), he or she shall, immediately the Bill has been read a Second time, direct that it be committed to a Select Committee.

(3) Any petition connected with the Bill which has been duly presented to the House shall stand referred to that Committee and any person on whose behalf the petition was presented may be heard before the Committee either in person or by Counsel.

Bills returned by President (Under Article 91 of the Constitution)

117. (1) When a Bill passed by the House is returned to the House by the President with a message requesting that the House should reconsider the Bill or any specific provision of it or any such amendments as are recommended in his or her message, the Speaker shall read the message of the President, or if the House is not in Session direct that it be published in the Gazette.

(2) The Bill as passed by the House and returned by the President for consideration shall thereafter be laid on the Table by any Minister in the case of Public Bill or in any other case by any member and the Speaker shall refer the Bill to the relevant Committee and the Committee shall consider the recommendations and report to the House within two weeks.

(3) On the day on which the motion for consideration is set down in the order of Business which shall, unless the Speaker otherwise direct, be not less than two weeks from the receipt of the notice, the person giving notice may move that the amendments be taken into consideration.

(4) The debate on the motion under this rule shall be confined to consideration of matters referred to in the message of the President or to any suggestion relevant to the subject matter of the amendment recommended by the President.

(5) An amendment relevant to the subject matter of an amendment recommended by the President may be moved but no further amendment shall be moved to the Bill unless it is consequential upon, incidental or alternative to, an amendment recommended by the President.

(6) When all the amendments have been disposed of, the member giving notice of the motion under this rule may move that the Bill as originally passed by the House be passed again or passed as amended, as the case may be.

(7) When the Bill is passed again by the House with or without amendment as the case may be, it shall be transmitted to the President indicating whether it is returned with or without amendment.

(8) The Clerk shall certify on a Bill transmitted to the President under Sub-rule 8 the following. "This Bill which was passed by the House and returned by Your Excellency the President for reconsideration has been passed again with or without amendment by the House on the day of 200

DatedDay of 200....."

(9) Where the President returns the same Bill twice under clause (3) of article 91 of the Constitution these Rules shall, subject to the necessary modifications and to such other modifications as the Speaker may direct, apply.

PART XXII
