1. Hon. John Olago Aluoch, CBS
2. Hon. Janet Meriana Teiyaa
3. Sen. Masitsa Naomi Shiyonga

The names were committed to the Select Committee on National Government Constituencies Development Fund for vetting.

The Committee undertook approval hearings on Thursday, 7th September 2023 in compliance with the Constitution, the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015, the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 and the National Assembly Standing Orders.

I take this opportunity to thank all Members of the Committee for their dedication to duty, the offices of the Speaker and that of the Clerk of the National Assembly for according the Committee the necessary logistical and technical support during the approval hearings. Further, the Committee wishes to thank all the stakeholders who facilitated the approval hearings.

On behalf of Members of the Select Committee on National Government Constituencies Development Fund and pursuant to Standing Order 199 and section 50(5) (d) of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015, it is my pleasure and duty to table to the House the Committee's Report on the approval hearing of Hon. John Olago Oluoch,

Hon. Janet Marania Teiyaa and Sen. Masitsa Naomi Shiyonga as Board of Directors to the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Board.

Hon. Musa Sirma Cherutich, CBS, M.P.

Chairperson

Committee on National Government Constituencies Development Fund

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In line with the provisions of Section 15 of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015, Sections 3 and 5(1) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011, the Cabinet Secretary for the National Treasury and Economic Planning vide a letter reference TNTP/SDP/4/52/(39) dated 16th August 2023, submitted the names of the following persons for appointment as directors to the Board of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund:

- (i) Hon. John Olago Oluoch, CBS
- (ii) Hon. Janet Marania Teiyaa
- (iii) Sen. Masitsa Naomi Shiyonga

The Speaker conveyed the Message to the House on Tuesday, 22nd August 2023 and subsequently, committed the names of the nominees to the Select Committee on National Government Constituencies Development Fund for approval hearing.

The Committee carried out the approval hearings in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011, the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015 and the National Assembly Standing Orders.

In compliance with Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution and Section 6 (4) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary approval) Act, 2011, the Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the Nation and Standard newspapers on Wednesday, 30th August 2023.

In the advertisement, the general public was notified of the nomination, submission of memoranda on the suitability of the nominees pursuant to Section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 and the date, place and time for the approval hearing that was undertaken on Thursday, 7th September 2023 in Committee Room on 5th Floor. Continental House, Parliament Buildings starting from 10.00 a.m.

The nominees were also notified through the same advertisement to submit clearance certificates from the following agencies: the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, the Kenya Revenue Authority, the Higher Education Loans Board, the Directorate of Criminal Investigations and Office of the Registrar of Political Parties.

By close of business on Tuesday, 5th September 2023, the Committee had not received any memoranda contesting or in support of the suitability of any of the nominees.

The Committee undertook the approval hearings for the three nominees on Thursday, 7th September 2023 and observed that they met the threshold for appointment as directors to the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Board as stipulated in Section 15 (1) (e) of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015 and Section 8(2) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011.

The Committee therefore recommends that the House APPROVES the nomination of Hon. John Olago Oluoch, CBS, Hon. Janet Marania Teiyaa and Sen. Masitsa Naomi Shiyonga for appointment as Board of Directors of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund.

- (e) seven other persons, three of whom shall be of the opposite gender and at least one shall be a person with disability, qualified in matters relating to finance, accounting, engineering, economics, community development, public affairs, project management, education, security or law appointed by the Cabinet Secretary with the approval of the National Assembly; and
- (f) the Chief Executive Officer who shall be an ex-officio member without a right to vote.

II) Functions of the Board

6. The functions of the Board are provided for under section 16 of the NG-CDF Act, 2015 as follows:
- (a) to consider project proposals submitted by various constituencies in accordance with the Act, approve for funding those project proposals that are consistent with the Act and disburse funds to the respective constituency operations account with respect to the approved projects;
 - (b) to ensure timely and efficient disbursements of funds to every Constituency;
 - (c) to ensure efficient management of the Fund;
 - (d) to co-ordinate the implementation of inter-constituency projects;
 - (e) to receive and address complaints that may arise from the implementation of the Fund;
 - (f) to encourage best practices in the implementation of projects;
 - (g) to administer the funds and assets of the Board in such a manner and for such purpose as shall promote the best interest of the Board in accordance with the Act to ensure efficient management of the fund; and
 - (h) to perform such other duties as the Board may deem necessary from time to time for the proper management of the Fund.

3.0 LEGAL FRAMEWORK OF THE APPROVAL HEARINGS

7. In considering the nominees for appointment as Board Directors of NG-CDF the Committee took into account the provisions of the Constitution, the NG-CDF Act, 2015, the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 and the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012.

3.1 Constitutional and statutory requirements in Parliamentary Approval of Public Appointments

8. Chapter 6, Article 10, Article 118, and Article 124(4) of the Constitution, the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011, the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012; the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015 provide a framework for the conduct of parliamentary approval of public appointments

3.1.1 The Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011

9. Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 provides for issues which the National Assembly is supposed to consider in relation to any nomination. These include:
 - (a) the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;
 - (b) any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and
 - (c) the suitability of the nominee for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which the nomination is being made.
10. In addition, Section 6 of the same Act provides direction on the conduct of approval hearings. These include:
 - a) An approval hearing shall focus on a candidate's academic credentials, professional training and experience, personal integrity and background as per Section 6(7).

- b) The criteria specified in the Schedule shall be used by a Committee during an approval hearing for the purposes of vetting a candidate as per Section 6(8).
 - c) Any person may, prior to the approval hearing, and by written statement on oath (affidavit), provide the Clerk(s) with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated as per Section 6(9).
 - d) A candidate may, at any time, by notice in writing addressed to the Clerk, withdraw from the approval process and the candidate's nomination shall lapse as per Section 6(10).
- 11. The period for consideration of nomination is prescribed in the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011. Section 8(1) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 provides that the Committee shall consider the nomination and table the report to the House for debate and decision within twenty-eight (28) days from the date on which the notification of nomination was given.
- 12. Section 9 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 stipulates that where the House does not meet the prescribed timelines, the nominees shall be deemed to have been approved.
- 13. Pursuant to Section 6(8) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011 the criteria for vetting is comprehensively contained in the Questionnaire in the Schedule to the Act. The Questionnaire allows the Committee to obtain information on, among other things:
- a) Name of the nominee to enable the Committee to ascertain the regional background and ethnicity of the nominee.
 - b) Gender of the nominee to enable the Committee to ascertain the gender of the nominee. This is to ensure compliance with Article 27(8) that requires the State to take measures to ensure that no more than two-thirds of members of appointive bodies shall be of the same gender.

- c) Age of the nominee to enable the Committee to ascertain compliance with the provisions of Article 55 of the Constitution on the inclusion of the youth in public appointments.
- d) Nationality of the nominee to enable the Committee to ascertain the nationality of the nominee. This is to ensure compliance with Article 78 of the Constitution which requires certain State officers to be Kenyan Citizens. However, it is worth noting that members to the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Board are not State officers under Article 260 of the Constitution.
- e) Educational background of the nominee.
- f) The employment record of the nominee.
- g) Honours or awards given to the nominee.
- h) Membership of the nominee to professional bodies.
- i) Public office and political affiliations held by the nominee —to enable the Committee to ascertain whether the nominee holds office in a political party. This is to ensure compliance with Article 77(2) of the Constitution which precludes appointed State officers from holding office in a political party.
- j) Information on whether the nominee has been removed from office under Article 75 of the Constitution which prohibits a State officer who has been removed from office under Article 75 (3) of the Constitution from holding any other State office.
- k) Nominee's finances.
- l) Outside commitments that the nominee intends to undertake while in office (if appointed). Article 77(1) of the Constitution prohibits a full-time State officer from participating in any other gainful employment.
- m) Tax compliance status of the nominee.
- n) Potential conflict of interest—Article 75(1) of the Constitution bars State officers from engagements or associations that may give rise to conflict between official or public duties and personal interests.
- o) Whether a nominee has been charged in a court of law in the past three years; and
- p) Whether a nominee has been adversely mentioned in a report of Parliament or a Commission of Inquiry in the past three years.

q) The Questionnaire is largely formulated based on Constitutional and statutory requirements for State officers and other considerations that are of importance to make a determination on the suitability of a nominee.

3.1.2 Chapter Six on Leadership and Integrity

14. The Committee, in determining the suitability of the nominees, took into consideration the provisions on leadership and integrity outlined under Chapter Six of the Constitution. In particular, the Committee took cognizance of the following provisions-

- 1) Article 73(2) of the Constitution provides that the guiding principles of leadership and integrity include-
 - (a) Selection on the basis of personal integrity, competence and suitability, or election in free and fair elections.
 - (b) Objectivity and impartiality in decision making, and in ensuring that decisions are not influenced by nepotism, favouritism, other improper motives or corrupt practices.
 - (c) Selfless service based solely on the public interest demonstrated by—
 - (i) Honesty in the execution of public duties;
 - (ii) The declaration of any personal interest that may conflict with public duties;
 - (iii) Accountability to the public for decisions and actions; and
 - (iv) Discipline and commitment to service to the people.
- 2) Article 75(1) of the Constitution requires a State officer, whether in public or private life, to behave in a manner that avoids conflict between personal interest and public official duties. Article 75(3) of the Constitution prohibits a State officer who has been removed from office under that Article from holding any other State office.
- 3) Article 77(1) of the Constitution prohibits a full-time State officer from participating in any other gainful employment.

- 4) Article 77(2) of the Constitution prohibits an appointed State officer from holding office in a political party.
- 5) Article 78 (1) of the Constitution disqualifies persons who are not Kenyan citizens and persons holding dual citizenship from appointment as State officers.

3.1.3 Article 10(2) of the Constitution on national values and principles of governance

15. Article 10 (2) of the Constitution provides for the national values and principles of governance which include patriotism, national unity, sharing and devolution of power, the rule of law, democracy and participation of the people; human dignity, equity, social justice, inclusiveness, equality, human rights, non-discrimination and protection of the marginalised; good governance, integrity, transparency and accountability; and sustainable development.

2.1.4 Article 118 of the Constitution

16. Article 118 of the Constitution obligates Parliament to conduct its business in an open manner, and that its sittings and those of its committees shall be in public; and that Parliament shall facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its committees. It also provides that Parliament may not exclude the public, or any media, from any sitting unless in exceptional circumstances the relevant Speaker has determined that there are justifiable reasons for the exclusion

2.1.5 Article 124(4) of the Constitution on parliamentary approval of public appointments

17. Article 124(4) of the Constitution provides that when a House of Parliament considers any appointment for which its approval is required under the Constitution or an Act of Parliament, the appointment shall be considered by a committee of the relevant House; the committee's recommendation shall be tabled in the House for approval; and the proceedings of the committee and the House shall be in public.

3.1.6 The Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012

18. Article 73 (2) of the Constitution provides that the guiding principles of leadership and integrity include –

- (a) selection on the basis of personal integrity, competence and suitability, or election in free and fair elections;
- (b) objectivity and impartiality in decision making, and in ensuring that decisions are not influenced by nepotism, favouritism, other improper motives or corrupt practices;
- (c) selfless service based solely on the public interest, demonstrated by —
 - (i) Honesty in the execution of public duties; and
 - (ii) The declaration of any personal interest that may conflict with public duties.
- (d) Accountability to the public for decisions and actions; and
- (e) Discipline and commitment in service to the people.

19. In addition, Section 10 of the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012 provides that a State officer shall, to the best of their ability:

- (a) carry out the duties of the office efficiently and honestly;
- (b) carry out the duties in a transparent and accountable manner;
- (c) keep accurate records and documents relating to the functions of the office; and
- (d) report truthfully on all matters of the organization which they represent.

3.1.7 National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015

20. Section 15 (1) (e) of the NG-CDF Act, 2015 provides that the NG-CDF Board shall consist of seven other persons, three of whom shall be of the opposite gender and at least one shall be a person with disability, qualified in matters relating to finance, accounting, engineering, economics, community development, public affairs, project management, education, security or law.

21. Pursuant to section 15(1) (e) of the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015 and the above matrix table, the Committee was able to infer that;

- a) In terms of age, all nominees are above the youth bracket and as such the National Government Constituencies Development Fund Board does not have a youth member.
- b) In terms of gender, section 15 (1) (e) requires that the Cabinet Secretary shall ensure that three of the seven persons appointed by the Cabinet Secretary shall be of the opposite gender. The Board as currently constituted and in addition to the nominees will have an equal number of both male and female until the vacancy left by Dr. Isabel Waiyaki who resigned is filled.
- c) In terms of professional qualification, section 15 (1) (e) provides for qualifications in matters; finance, accounting, engineering, economics, community development, public affairs, project management, education, security or law. Hon. Aluoch holds a Bachelor of Laws and as such meets the professional requirements. Hon. Janet Teiyaa holds a training in Accounting Technician. Sen. Naomi Shiyonga holds a certificate in monitoring and evaluation which falls under project management. In addition, all nominees are former Member of Parliaments who are qualified in matters community management and public affairs.
- d) In terms of disability, section 15 (1) (e) provides that out of the seven people one shall be a person with disability. Hon. Janet Teiyaa and Ms. Maria Lekoloto are a registered persons with disability as such the Board will be properly constiuted.

4.0 THE APPROVAL HEARINGS

22. The National Assembly was required to conduct an approval hearing of each nominee to ascertain his or her suitability for the position proposed and make an appropriate recommendation.

4.1.1 Notification to the Nominees

23. By letters dated 29th August, 2023 Ref: NA/DAA&OSC/NG-CDF/2023/(32,33 and 34) the Clerk of the National Assembly, pursuant to Section 6(3) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval), 2011, notified the nominees of the date, time and venue for the approval hearing. Vision for the Board

39. The nominee informed the Committee that if approved for appointment he will endeavour to develop a strategic direction for the Board that will be people centric and focused on community support through adequate public participation.

40. Functional assignment as provided in the Constitution

The nominee underscored the importance of understanding the provisions of the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution on distribution of functions and where such functions are not expressly provided then they are treated as National Government functions and eligible for funding from the NG-CDF. He further informed on the need for a framework for determining such functions to avoid duplication of functions with the County Governments.

41. Current allocation to the NG-CDF

The nominee appreciated the current Fund allocation of 2.5% of the National Government share of revenue as allocated by the Division of Revenue Act annually. He noted that the societal impact attributed to the Fund in various sectors including education, security and environment and that there is need to increase the allocation to 5% to improve socio-economic development across the country.

Supreme Court Judgment on the constitutionality of the Fund

The nominee reiterated that the Fund is a National Government Fund that is utilized to support implementation of National Government functions and there is need to protect its existence. He noted that there is an apparent need to entrench the Fund into the Constitution to protect it from further litigation.

42. Cross-cutting issues such as climate change

The nominee informed the Committee that climate change is a reality and should be addressed through a multi-agency approach. That government agencies including the NG-CDF should prioritize climate resilient practices in the implementation of projects and programmes.

The National Government Constituencies Development Fund is established under the National Constituencies Development Fund Act, 2015 (NG-CDF Act, 2015) to provide mechanisms for supplementing implementation of the National Government Development Agenda at the Constituency level. Section 15(2) of the NG-CDF Act, 2015 mandates the Cabinet Secretary, National Treasury and Economic Planning to appoint Board members upon approval by the National Assembly. Currently there are four vacant positions in the Board.

Section 15(1) – (4) of the NG-CDF Act, 2015 states that: -

- (1) The Fund shall be administered by a Board of Directors which shall consist of—
 - a) the Principal Secretary in the Ministry for the time being responsible for matters relating to national economic policy and planning or a designated alternate, not being below the level of Director of Planning;

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
RECEIVED

It also noted that more than 20 Heads of State would join some 30,000 delegates at the coming Africa Climate Summit 2023, which will be held in Nairobi next week to explore climate change adaptation, resilience and solution strategies for Africa and the world.
On security, the Cabinet pointed out that remarkable progress had been made as a result of the part of the ongoing digitisation of government services to improve service delivery and reduce inefficiencies.

It, however, regretted the recent total failure of the power grid that led to a nationwide black-out on Saturday last week. As a result, the Cabinet has ordered a review of the country's power distribution system to ensure that such an incident does not happen again.
