EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ON THE STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS (EXEMPTION FROM EXPIRY) REGULATIONS, 2022

(L.N. No. 218 of 2022)

PART I

Name of the Statutory Instrument:	The Statutory Instruments (Exemption from Expiry) Regulations, 2022
Name of the Principal Act:	The Statutory Instruments Act, 2013
Enacted Pursuant to:	Section 21(2) of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013
Name of the Ministry/Department:	Office of the Attorney-General and Department of Justice
Published on:	29 th November, 2022
Tabled on:	30 th November, 2022

PART II

1. The purpose of the Statutory Instrument

The purpose of the Statutory Instruments (Exemption from Expiry) Regulations, 2022 is to provide for the extension of the operation of statutory instruments made under the Acts of Parliament in operation on or before the 25th January, 2013 for a period of twelve months, with effect from the 25th January, 2023, being ten years from the date on which the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 came into force.

2. Legislative Context

(1) Section 21(1) of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013, states that a statutory instrument shall be automatically revoked on the day that is ten years after the date that the instrument came into operation unless it is sooner repealed or expires, or a regulation is made exempting the instrument from expiry.

- (2) Section 21(2) confers the power to make a regulation exempting an instrument from expiry, in consultation with the Committee on Delegated Legislation, on the Cabinet Secretary responsible for the regulation-making authority.
- (3) By virtue of section 27(2), all statutory instruments in force on the commencement of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 are deemed to have been made under the Act. Consequently, all statutory instruments in force on or before the 25th January, 2013, are scheduled to be automatically revoked on the 24th January, 2023. This affects a total of 1,764 Legal Notices (Please see "ANNEX I").

3. Policy background

- (1) In recognition of the fact that section 21(2) of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 anticipates that individual Cabinet Secretaries are required to make regulations, in consultation with the Committee on Delegated Legislation, to exempt statutory instruments made under the laws they administer from automatic expiry, the Attorney-General issued an advisory to all Cabinet Secretaries advising them to conduct urgent consultations with the Committee in respect of the affected statutory instruments with a view to seeking exemptions from expiry on or before the deadline.
- (2) However, taking into account the period remaining before the automatic revocation of statutory instruments begins, the recent transitions in the Government after the General Election, the responsibilities of the Attorney-General with regard to the process of law revision and the volume of affected statutory instruments, we are approaching the Committee on Delegated Legislation on behalf of all Cabinet Secretaries, to seek a possible extension of all the affected statutory instruments for the following reasons:
 - (a) Section 2 of the Revision of the Laws Act (Cap. 1) defines "Laws of Kenya" as the revised edition of the Laws of Kenya prepared and published under the Revision of the Laws Act. Section 4(c) states that the Laws of Kenya includes such subsidiary legislation in force as the Attorney-General thinks fit to include therein.
 - (b) Cap. 1 confers extensive powers of law revision on the Attorney-General which include the compiling of the revised editions of the Laws of Kenya including revised editions of subsidiary legislation made under any Act of Parliament (section 6); the preparation and publication of an Annual Supplement of the revised Laws of Kenya (section 7); and the rectification of formal errors in any Act of Parliament that forms part of the Laws of Kenya (section 13).
 - (c) With regard to the preparation of the Annual Supplement of the Laws of Kenya, the Attorney-General has the power, under section 8, to omit laws or parts of laws which have been repealed expressly or by necessary implication, or which have expired, or which have become spent or have had their effect.

- (d) In light of the issues stated in paragraphs (b) and (c):
- (i) the stated object of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 at section 4(e), which is to establish mechanisms to ensure statutory instruments are periodically reviewed and, if they no longer have a continuing purpose, repealed, is clearly superfluous as there is and always has been a legal framework for the objective in Cap. 1; and
 - (ii) the stated purpose of Part V of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013, at section 20(c) and (d) which provide for the automatic expiry of statutory instruments and appear to shift responsibility of law revision to regulation-making authorities and the agencies under them, contradicts the Attorney-General's powers under Cap. 1 in this regard.
- (e) We must however, point out that our Office has faced severe challenges in the execution of the mandate owing mainly to lack of resources. Although the function is currently delegated to the National Council for Law Reporting which has better technical abilities, law revision still has a huge backlog. Currently, our Office, in collaboration with the Council, is working on the 24th Annual Supplement to the Laws of Kenya which is a consolidated revision of the 392 Acts listed in "ANNEX II" together with all the statutory instruments made thereunder.
- (f) The proposed Statutory Instruments (Exemption from Expiry) Regulations, 2022 are critical in guarding against the loss of any part of the Laws of Kenya which still have a continuing purpose and will provide sufficient time to finalise the compilation of the Annual Supplement and harmonization of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013 and Cap. 1, which is clearly necessary.
- (g) Even as we have advised Cabinet Secretaries to submit individual requests for the extension of subsidiary legislations, we are conscious of the fact that none of them has access to revised editions of the Laws of Kenya, that they do not have the ability to compile an authentic list of revised editions of subsidiary legislations and consequently, are unable to approach Parliament with certainty in respect of any requests for exemptions from automatic revocation, hence our instant request for a blanket extension on their behalf.

4. Consultations within Government and outcome

In view of the extensive number of affected Acts of Parliament and the statutory instruments made thereunder, this Office has issued advisories to Ministries on the automatic expiry of statutory instruments, the implications of such expiry, and the steps needed to be taken in respect hereof. Cabinet Secretaries are also aware of the current efforts by this Office intended achieve the objective of the proposed Regulations.

4. Financial implications

There shall be no financial implications on the Government by the proposed Regulations and no expenditure of public funds shall be incurred in implementing the tariff.

5. Impact

- (a) Impact on Fundamental Rights and Freedoms: The Statutory Instruments (Exemption from Expiry) Regulations, 2022 are necessary in order to ensure the continued operation of statutory instruments with a continuing purpose that are necessary for the enjoyment and protection of fundamental rights and freedoms.
- (b) Impact on private Sector: The Regulations will ensure regulatory and administrative certainty and continuity in respect of any statutory instruments that affect the operations of private sector entities.
- (c) Impact on Public Sector: The Regulations will ensure that Ministries, Departments, Agencies and State Organs continue to operate in accordance with the existing regulatory and administrative frameworks established by statutory instruments with a continuing purpose.

6. Monitoring and review

The Office of the Attorney-General and Department of Justice shall continue to facilitate the finalization of the revision of the Laws of Kenya to ensure that our stakeholders have access to revised editions of the Laws of Kenya.

7. Request to the National Assembly

The National Assembly is invited to:

- (a) note the contents of this Explanatory Memorandum; and
- (b) approve the Statutory Instruments (Exemption from Expiry) Regulations, 2022.

Hon. J.B.N. Muturi, EGH
ATTORNEY GENERAL
