CHAIRPERSON'S FOREWORD

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 250(2) of the Constitution, Section 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, No. 33 of 2011 and Section 11 of the National Gender and Equality Commission Act, No. 15 of 2011, His Excellency the President of the Republic of Kenya wrote to the Speaker of the National Assembly on 16th November, 2021 submitting the names of nominees, namely, Mrs. Caroline Naikena Lentupuru and Mr. Thomas Okoth Koyier for appointment to the position of Member of the National Gender and Equality Commission (NGEC).

Pursuant to Section 6(1) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act and Standing Orders 45(1) and 216(5)(f), the Honourable Speaker on 25th November 2021 notified the House of the Message from His Excellency the President and referred the matter to the Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare Committee for vetting.

On 26th November 2021, the Clerk of the National Assembly notified the general public through the Parliamentary website and local dailies that the approval hearings would take place on Tuesday, 7th December, 2021.

Further, in compliance with Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution and Section 6 (9) of the Parliamentary Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No.33 of 2011), the Clerk of the National Assembly invited interested members of the public to submit affidavits on the suitability or otherwise of the nominees for appointment to the office. By close of business on Friday, 3rd December, 2021, the Clerk had not received any memoranda contesting suitability of the nominees for appointment to the Commission.

The nominees appeared before the Committee for the approval hearing on Tuesday, 7th December 2021 as invited by the Committee. The Committee subsequently considered and unanimously recommended approval of the nominees.

May I take this opportunity to thank the Speaker and the Clerk of the National Assembly for the logistical and technical support accorded to the Committee at all times. I also wish to express my gratitude to the Honourable Members of the Committee for their resilience and devotion to duty, which made the vetting exercise successful. May I also, on behalf of the Committee, appreciate the media for covering the Committee proceedings thereby enhancing transparency and accountability.

On behalf of the Committee and pursuant to the provisions of Article 124(4)(b) of the Constitution, Section 8 (2) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act No. 33 of 2011 and provisions of Standing Orders 45(4) and 199 (6) of the National Assembly Standing Orders, it's my pleasant privilege to present to the House the Committee's Report on the approval of the two (2) nominees namely: Mr. Thomas Okoth Koyier and Mrs. Caroline Naikena Lentupuru.

HON. JOSEPHAT KABINGA WATHAYU, OGW, M.P.

9. Following the occurrence of the vacancies at the National Gender and Equality Commission, and in exercise of powers conferred on His Excellency the President of the Republic of Kenya by Article 250(2)(b) of the Constitution and Section 11(6) of the National Gender and Equality Commission Act as read together with Sections 3 and 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, the President vide a letter dated 16th November 2021 (Annexure I) conveyed to the Speaker of the National Assembly a notification containing names and curriculum vita of Mr. Thomas Okoth Koyier and Mrs. Caroline Naikena Lentupuru for consideration and approval by the National Assembly.

3.2 Committal to the Committee for Vetting

10. Pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 42(1) and 45(1) of the National Assembly Standing Orders, the Honourable Speaker, on 25th November 2021 conveyed to the House the message from His Excellency the President and referred it to the Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare for consideration.

3.3 Public Participation

11. Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution and Section 6(9) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, No 33 of 2011 obligates Parliament to facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its Committees.

12. On 26th November 2021, the Clerk of the National Assembly through a newspaper advertisement in the daily newspapers (The Daily Nation and the Standard) (Annexure 2) invited the public to submit memoranda by way of affidavits on the suitability of the nominees to hold the positions they had been nominated for. By close of business on Friday, 3rd December, 2021, the Committee had not received any memoranda contesting the suitability of nominees for appointment to office.

3.4 Notification of Vetting to the Nominees and the General Public

13. In accordance with Sections 6 (3) and 6(4) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, No. 33 of 2011 and National Assembly Standing Order 45(3), the Committee notified the nominees and the general public vide an advertisement in the daily newspapers of 26th November, 2021 that the approval hearings would be conducted on Tuesday, 7th December 2021 starting at 9.30 a.m. in the Mini Chamber, County Hall, Parliament Buildings.
14. The Committee also by way of letters addressed to each of the nominees dated 26th November, 2021 invited them for the approval hearings on Tuesday, 7th December 2021 as specified above.

3.5 Compliance with Chapter Six of the Constitution

15. Vide letters dated 26th November 2021, the Clerk of the National Assembly requested for information regarding the nominees from the following agencies: the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), the Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA), the Directorate of Criminal Investigation (DCI), the Higher Education Loans Board (HELB) and the Registrar of Political Parties (RPP).
16. The information requested sought to establish the status of the nominees on matters relating to integrity, tax compliance, criminal record, higher education loan repayment status and political parties affiliation.
17. Both nominees obtained the requisite clearances from the relevant institutions as evidenced by the responses from the clearing institutions. (Annexure 3)

3.6 Compliance with Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act

18. Section 7 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, No. 33 of 2011 requires the Committee to take into consideration the following issues during the approval process –
- (i) the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;
 - (ii) any Constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question;
 - (iii) the suitability of the nominee for appointment proposed with due regard as to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meets the needs of the body to which the nomination is made.

3.6.1 Procedure used to arrive at the Nominees

19. Article 250 (2) of the Constitution provides that the chairperson and each member of a commission and holder of independent office shall be identified and recommended for appointment in a manner prescribed by national legislation, approved by the National Assembly and appointed by the President.
20. Section 11 of the NGEC Act further provides that the President shall convene a selection panel for the purpose of selecting suitable candidates for appointment as the chairperson or member of the Commission.
21. The selection panel considers applications, interviews and shortlists persons qualified for appointment as chairperson and members of the Commission, and then submits the names of the selected candidates to His Excellency the President for nomination. In this regard, on 28th September 2021, the President appointed the Selection Panel for the selection of Nominees for appointment as Members of the National Gender and Equality Commission. The panel comprised of Architect Phillip Kungu (Chairman), Dr Joyce Nyabuti, Mr William Karari, Ms Lucy Karume, Ms Catherine Wameyo, Mr Hedwig Nyalwal and Prof Rose Odhiambo and Ms Mary Wairagu.

22. On 13th October 2021, the Selection Panel vide newspaper advertisements and the Ministry of Public Service website invited interested persons to apply for the two vacant positions of the NGEC. 210 applicants expressed interest in the positions.
23. The Panel received two hundred and ten (210) applications out of which it shortlisted twenty-four (24) and subsequently recommended the following six (6) candidates to His Excellency the President for nomination of two (2) candidates –

	Candidate	Score (%)
1)	Mrs. Caroline Lentupuru	81.2%;
2)	Dr. Purity Kithiru Gitonga	77.6%
3)	Ms Grace Nyamongo	74.6%
4)	Dr. Phitalis Were Masakwe (PWD)	74.2%
5)	Ms. Mabruki Amani Mabruki	73.6%
6)	Mr. Tom Okoth Koyier	71%

24. H.E. the President, vide letter Ref. OP/CAB1/31A dated 16th November, 2021 nominated Mrs. Caroline Lentupuru and Mr. Tom Okoth Koyier and submitted their names for vetting the National Assembly.
25. The Committee noted that the nominations had been made in the manner prescribed in the Constitution and the NGEC Act.

3.6.2 Constitutional or Statutory Requirements relating to the Office in Question

i) Regional Representation and Ethnic Diversity

26. Article 250 (4) of the Constitution requires appointments to Commissions and independent offices to take into account the national values referred to in Article 10 and the principle that the composition of the Commissions and independent offices, taken as a whole, shall reflect the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya.

27. Article 10(2) of the Constitution provides for the national values and principles of governance as including –
- (a) patriotism, national unity, sharing and devolution of power, the rule of law, democracy and participation of the people;
 - (b) human dignity, equity, social justice, inclusiveness, equality, human rights, non-discrimination and protection of the marginalized;
 - (c) good governance, integrity, transparency and accountability; and
 - (d) sustainable development.
28. Further, Section 11 (13) of the NGEC Act provides that in shortlisting, nominating or appointing persons as chairperson and members of the Commission, the selection panel the National Assembly and the President is required to ensure that not more than two-thirds of the members are of the same gender, shall observe the principle of gender equity, regional and ethnic balance and shall have due regard to the principle of equal opportunities for persons with disabilities.
29. The Committee considered the list of nominees proposed for appointment as members of the National Gender and Equality Commission and noted that the appointment reflects the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya as required by Article 250 (4) of the Constitution and also takes into account representation of persons living with disability. The current Commissioners are Dr. Joyce Mwikali Mutinda from Machakos County (Chairperson), Dr. Murithi J. Chomba Munyi from Meru County (Vice Chairperson) and Hon. Priscilla Nyokabi Kanyua from Nyeri County.
30. The two nominees hail from Baringo and Homa Bay Counties.
- ii) The Two-thirds Gender Principle
31. Article 27(8) of the Constitution requires the State to take legislative and other measures to implement the principle that not more than two-thirds of the members of elective or appointive bodies are of the same gender.
32. The Committee observed that the nomination of the two nominees will ensure gender balance in the Commission. The current Commission comprises of two women and a man.

The appointment of the nominees will ensure that the two-thirds gender principle is observed.

iii) Persons with Disabilities

33. Article 232 (1)(i) of the Constitution obligates the state to ensure adequate and equal opportunities for appointment, training and advancement, at all levels of the public service, of men and women, the members of ethnic groups and persons with disabilities. Article 54(2) also requires the State to ensure progressive implementation of the principle that at least five per cent of the members of the public in elective and appointive bodies are persons with disabilities.
34. Further, Section 11 (3) of the NGEC Act further provides that the appointment process take into account the principle of equal opportunities for persons with disabilities.
35. The Committee observed that none of the nominees is a person living with disability but the Commission as currently constituted has taken into account the interests of the persons living with disability. The Commission's Vice Chairperson is a person living with disability.

iv) Youth

36. Article 55 (b) of the Constitution requires the State to take measures, including affirmative action programmes to ensure that the youth have opportunities to associate, be represented and participate in political, social, economic and other spheres of life.
37. The Committee observed that whereas the Constitution requires the State to take affirmative action measures to ensure that youth have opportunities to associate, be represented and participate in political, social, economic and other spheres of life, it does not provide for a threshold to be applied in making public appointments.
38. The Committee also noted that the nominees and the current Commissioners are all above the age of thirty-five.

v) Leadership and Integrity

39. While determining the suitability of the nominees to be appointed as members of National Gender and Equality Commission, the Committee took into account the provisions of leadership and integrity as provided for by Chapter 6 of the Constitution. Most importantly, the Committee took note of the following Constitutional provisions –

40. Article 73(2) states THAT –

“The guiding principles of leadership and integrity include: -

- a) Selection on the basis of personal integrity, competence and suitability, or election in a free and fair election;*

- c) Selfless service based solely on the public interest demonstrated by: -*
- d) honesty in the execution of public duties; and*
- e) the declaration of any personal interest that may conflict with public duties*
- f) Accountability to the public for decisions and actions; and*
- g) Discipline and commitment in service to the people.*

41. Article 75(1) provides THAT –

A state officer shall behave, whether in public and official life, in private life, or in association with other persons in a manner that avoids-

- (a) Any conflict between personal interests and public official duties;*
- (b) Compromising any public or official interest in favour of personal interest; or*
- (c) Demeaning the office, the officer holds*

42. Article 75 (3) of the Constitution prohibits any person who has been dismissed or otherwise removed from public office from subsequently holding any other public office.

43. Article 77 provides restriction on activities of state officers as follows-

- (1) A full time State Officer shall not participate in any other gainful employment;*
- (2) Any appointed State Officer shall not hold office in a political party;*
- (3) A retired State Officer who is receiving pension from public funds shall not hold more than two concurrent remunerative positions as chairperson, director or employee of –*
 - (a) A company owned or controlled by the state*
 - (b) A State organ*

(4) A State Officer shall not receive remuneration from public funds other than contemplated in clause (3)

44. Article 78 of the Constitution disqualifies persons who are not Kenya Citizens and persons holding dual citizenship from appointment as state officers.

45. The Committee noted that all the nominees met the leadership and integrity requirements set out in Chapter Six (6) of the Constitution and other relevant laws.

vi) Qualifications under the National Gender and Equality Commission Act

46. Section 10(2) provides the qualifications for appointment of members as follows-

(2) A person shall be qualified for appointment as a member of the Commission if the person—

(a) holds a degree from a university recognized in Kenya;

(b) has knowledge and at least ten years' experience in matters relating to any of the following fields—

(i) law;

Potential Conflict of Interest

19) On potential conflict of interest, the nominee informed the Committee that potential conflict of interest might arise from relatives seeking employment at the NGEC or tender contracts and gifts award. To address this, the nominee informed the Committee that should it arise, she intends to register the conflict of interest with the Commission and recuse herself from the recruitment process of any of her relatives.

20) She also committed to take the following action:-

- (i) Declare to NGEC Commissioners and management;
- (ii) Register the interest in the conflict-of-interest register;
- (iii) Explain the nature of the conflict to ensure that it is understood;
- (iv) Withdraw participation in the recruitment process; and
- (v) On gifts, she will declare the same, and if the value is above Kshs. 20,000, she will surrender to the Commission.

Pro-Bono/Charity Work/ Donation to Charity

21) The nominee listed the following charity work and donations:-

- (i) Volunteering in identifying and linking bright and needy girls to high school scholarships supporting 103 girls so far. Time spent on this is approximately seven weeks per year since 2011;
- (ii) Supporting 2 underprivileged run-away girls with counselling, accommodation and payment of school fees since May 2021;
- (iii) Identification of a development partner and proposal and writing for Water Resources Osmosis Plant, a community water project in Kailer Village, for clean water at a cost of Kshs. 10million. Time spent is approximately three hours weekly since 2020;
- (iv) Support in settling, comforting and meeting the basic needs of the internally displaced people from Mukutani area who were displaced by cattle rustlers during the Mukutani massacre in 2017.
- (v) Payment of college fees of approximately Kshs. 54,000 for a needy student in a teacher's training college in 2016.
- (vi) Contribution of Kshs. 80,000 to support three (3) pastors in their bible courses training in 2016;

- (viii) Proposal writing to a US-based organisation to supply 18 sewing machines to needy women in the community who needed the machines to support their livelihood.

- (ix) Proposal writing to Huru International and transporting of reusable sanitary pads for 639 primary school girls in eight primary schools in 2010. She further spent Kshs. 15,000 for transportation and distribution of the pads to the girls.
- 22) The nominee has never been charged in a court of law in the last three years, nor has she ever been adversely mentioned in an investigatory report of Parliament or any other Commission of inquiry in the last three years. She also has no objection to making inquiries with her present employer/referees in the course of consideration of her nomination.
- 23) The nominee informed the Committee that her education background and work experience have adequately equipped her with necessary experience in management, leadership and gender advocacy skills which will be vital in the running of the Commission and realization of its mission and vision. The mandate of NGECC envisions that the youth, women, persons with disabilities and the marginalized groups are all treated equally before the law without discrimination.
- 24) Her skills in monitoring and evaluation will be key in monitoring various projects undertaken by the Commission and ensuring conclusive implementation of such projects.
- 25) She pledged to promote equality and non-discrimination in the country to achieve the objectives of the Vision 2030 Social Pillar.
- 26) On integrity, the nominee assured the Committee that she would observe integrity, objectivity and impartiality when making decisions without external influence; guided by the tenets of Chapter Six of the Constitution. She also assured the Committee that she would demonstrate selfless service and involve the people in decision making through public participation.
- 27) She also pledged to promote strong advocacy and create awareness to give both genders an equal opportunity and also ensure that they all benefit from affirmative action programmes including the National Government Constituencies Development Fund to ensure that both the youth and PWDs benefit from bursaries. She also committed to pushing for gender equality in recruitments in both public and private sectors and equality in decision making.

- 28) The nominee further informed the Committee that she would work with the other Commissioners and secretariat to ensure that the special interest groups contribute to the 'Big Four' Agenda and the realization of the Vision 2030 by ensuring non-discrimination and involving them in productive activities like manufacturing and agricultural production.
- 29) She will also, together with other Commissioners, enhance synergy in working with other Commissions like the National Commission on Human Rights and the Commission on Administrative Justice to implement the principles of equality and freedom from discrimination.
- 30) The nominee also informed the Committee that she would initiate dialogue and programmes to address issues of negative ethnicity and backward cultural practices e.g., Female Genital Mutilation.
- 31) Regarding some of the challenges facing the NGEC, the nominee informed the Committee that inadequate funding has slowed down the activities of the Commission which includes among others promoting gender equality, preparing and submitting annual reports to Parliament, auditing, monitoring and advising on development of affirmative actions and facilitate gender mainstreaming.
- 32) The nominee indicated that there is no conflict or duplication of roles between NGEC and other Commissions, for instance, the Commission on Administrative Justice, the National Commission on Human Rights and the Anti Female Genital Mutilation Board (FGM) hence there is no justification to merge them since their mandates are distinct.
- 33) Regarding her legacy, the nominee informed the Committee she would want to leave a Commission that has accurate data on special interest groups including the minority for better decision making and creating a roadmap on how to involve them and make them contribute to the welfare of the Nation. She also hopes to improve on the visibility and perception of NGEC in the eyes of the public.

- 22) The nominee has never been charged in a court of law in the last three years, nor has she ever been adversely mentioned in an investigatory report of Parliament or any other Commission of inquiry in the last three years. She also has no objection to making inquiries with her present employer/referees in the course of consideration of her nomination.
- 23) The nominee informed the Committee that her education background and work experience have adequately equipped her with necessary experience in management, leadership and gender advocacy skills which will be vital in the running of the Commission and realization of its mission and vision. The mandate of NGEK envisions that the youth, women, persons with disabilities and the marginalized groups are all treated equally before the law without discrimination.
- 24) Her skills in monitoring and evaluation will be key in monitoring various projects undertaken by the Commission and ensuring conclusive implementation of such projects.
- 25) She pledged to promote equality and non-discrimination in the country to achieve the objectives of the Vision 2030 Social Pillar.
- 26) On integrity, the nominee assured the Committee that she would observe integrity, objectivity and impartiality when making decisions without external influence; guided by the tenets of Chapter Six of the Constitution. She also assured the Committee that she would demonstrate selfless service and involve the people in decision making through public participation.
- 27) She also pledged to promote strong advocacy and create awareness to give both genders an equal opportunity and ensure that they all benefit from affirmative action programmes including the National Government Constituencies Development Fund to ensure that both the youth and PWDs benefit from bursaries. She also committed to pushing for gender equality in recruitments in both public and private sectors and equality in decision making.
- 28) The nominee further informed the Committee that she would work with the other Commissioners and secretariat to ensure that the special interest groups contribute to the 'Big Four' Agenda and the realization of the Vision 2030 by ensuring non-discrimination and involving them in productive activities like manufacturing and agricultural production.

- 29) She will also, together with other Commissioners, enhance synergy in working with other Commissions like the National Commission on Human Rights and the Commission on Administrative Justice to implement the principles of equality and freedom from discrimination.
- 30) The nominee also informed the Committee that she would initiate dialogue and programmes to address issues of negative ethnicity and backward cultural practices e.g., Female Genital Mutilation.
- 31) Regarding some of the challenges facing the NGECC, the nominee informed the Committee that inadequate funding has slowed down the activities of the Commission which includes among others promoting gender equality, preparing and submitting annual reports to Parliament, auditing, monitoring and advising on development of affirmative actions and facilitate gender mainstreaming.
- 32) The nominee indicated that there is no conflict or duplication of roles between NGECC and other Commissions, for instance, the Commission on Administrative Justice, the National Commission on Human Rights and the Anti Female Genital Mutilation Board (FGM) hence there is no justification to merge them since their mandates are distinct.
- 33) Regarding her legacy, the nominee informed the Committee she would want to leave a Commission that has accurate data on special interest groups including the minority for better decision making and creating a roadmap on how to involve them and make them contribute to the welfare of the Nation. She also hopes to improve on the visibility and perception of NGECC in the eyes of the public.

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
TWELFTH PARLIAMENT- (FIFTH SESSION)
THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
MESSAGES

MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT
(No. 047 of 2021)

ON NOMINATION OF PERSONS FOR APPOINTMENT AS CHAIRPERSON OF
THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION; AND MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL GENDER AND EQUALITY COMMISSION

Honourable Members,

Pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order No. 42, I wish to convey the following two Messages from His Excellency The President relating to nomination of persons for appointment to the Offices of the Chairperson of the Public Service Commission and Members of the National Gender and Equality Commission, respectively.

In the First Message, H.E. The President conveys that, in exercise of powers conferred on him by Article 233(2) of the Constitution, Paragraph 3 of the First Schedule to the Public Service Commission Act (Act No. 10 of 2017), as read together with sections 3 and 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, 2011, he nominates Amb. Anthony Mwaniki Muchiri for appointment as the Chairperson of the Public Service Commission.

In the Second Message, Honourable Members, H.E. The President conveys that, in exercise of powers conferred on him by Article 250(2)(b) of the Constitution and section 11(6) of the National Gender and Equality Commission Act, (Act No. 15 of 2011), as read together with sections 3 and 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, (Act No. 33 of 2011), he nominates Ms. Caroline Naikena Lentupuru and Mr. Thomas Okoth Koyier for appointment to the Office of a Member of the National Gender & Equality Commission.

Honourable Members, H.E. The President therefore seeks the approval of this House of the nominees for appointment to the aforementioned state offices.

Honourable Members, Standing Order 45 requires that, upon receipt of notification of nomination for appointment, such nomination shall stand committed to the relevant Departmental Committee of the House for consideration. In this regard, pursuant to the provisions of this Standing Order therefore and paragraph (3) of Standing Order 42 (Messages from the President), I hereby refer the Message relating to appointment of persons to the National Gender & Equality Commission to the Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare to undertake the necessary approval hearings. Similarly, I also refer the nomination of the Chairperson of the Public Service Commission to the Departmental Committee on Administration and National Security, to also undertake the necessary approval hearings.

Honourable Members, whereas the Public Service Commission Act, 2017 and the National Gender and Equality Commission Act, 2011, provide a lesser period within which the House is to consider the respective nominees, section 8 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, (Act No. 33 of 2011), requires the National Assembly to undertake the exercise within twenty-eight (28) days.

In this regard, the Committees should undertake approval hearings and submit their report within the Twenty-Eight day period provided for in the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, (Act No. 33 of 2011), being the most recent amendment made by Parliament with respect to the general period of vetting of state appointees.

Honourable Members, in view of the above, I wish to guide the two Departmental Committees and the House as follows-

- (i) That the Committees should notify the nominee and the general public of the time and place for holding the approval hearings, in good time. The notification should therefore be made tomorrow, Friday, November 26, 2021; and,
- (ii) That the Committees should thereafter commence the necessary approval hearings and submit their respective reports to the House within the statutory timelines.

To this end Honourable Members, noting that the House will proceed on its long recess from Friday, December 3, 2021 in accordance with its published Calendar for the Regular Sessions, Committees should expeditiously notify the nominees and the general public of the respective times and places for holding the approval hearings and thereafter, upon conclusion of the hearings and adoption of their Reports, submit the same to the Speaker to enable the House consider the matter within the statutory timelines.

I thank you!

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
TWELFTH PARLIAMENT – FIFTH SESSION

In the Matter of Approval Hearing by the National Assembly's Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare of the persons nominated for appointment to the National Gender and Equality Commission

Notification of the General Public and Submission of Memoranda

Notification of Nomination

His Excellency the President, through a Notification to the Speaker dated 16th November, 2021, informed the National Assembly of the Nomination of Ms. Caroline Naikena Lentupuru and Mr. Thomas Okoth Koyier for appointment as members of the National Gender and Equality Commission (NGEC). The nomination was done in exercise of the powers conferred to His Excellency the President by Article 250(2)(b) of the Constitution and section 11(6) of the National Gender and Equality Commission Act (Act No. 15 of 2011) as read together with the Sections 3 and 5 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011).

Committal

The Hon. Speaker committed the matter to the Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare on Thursday, 25th November, 2021, to conduct approval hearings of the nominees in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No.33 of 2011) and National Assembly Standing Order No.45.

Notification of Approval Hearings

Pursuant to provisions of Article 118(b) of the Constitution and Section 6(4) of the Public Appointments ((Parliamentary Approval) Act (No. 33 of 2011), the general public is hereby notified that the Departmental Committee on Labour and Social Welfare shall conduct Approval Hearings (Vetting) of the nominees for appointment as members of the National Gender and Equality Commission on Tuesday, 7th December, 2021 in the Mini-Chamber, County Hall, Parliament Buildings at 10.00 a.m. as follows;

2. Kenya Revenue Authority;
3. Higher Education Loans Board;
4. Directorate of Criminal Investigations: and
5. Office of the Registrar of Political Parties.

Public Participation and Submission of Memoranda

The Committee is required under Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution to involve the public in the approval hearings of the nominees. In addition, Section (6)(9) of the Parliamentary Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No.33 of 2011 provides that “any person may prior to the approval hearing and by written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the nominee has been nominated”.

Now, therefore, in compliance with Article 118 (1) (b) of the Constitution and Section 6 (9) of the Parliamentary Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act (No.33 of 2011), the Committee invites interested members of the Public to submit any representations they may have by written statements (affidavits) with supporting evidence on the suitability or otherwise of the nominees for appointment to the office.

The representations may be submitted to the Clerk of the National Assembly, P.O. Box 41842-00100, Nairobi; hand-delivered to the Office of the Clerk, Main Parliament Buildings, Nairobi; or emailed to clerk@parliament.go.ke; to be received on or before Friday, 3rd December, 2021 at 5.00 pm.

26. Potential Conflict of Interest:

(a) Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation or financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to rise.

Those who are likely to present potential conflicts of interest are my relatives such as cousins who will be seeking employment in the institution.

If such arise, I will register the conflict of interest with the organization and I will not participate in the recruitment process if any of the applicants are my relatives.

(b) Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

I will be on alert to the existence of potential conflict of interest in the areas of employment, tender contracts and gifts award. I will do my best to avoid a situation where my personal interests conflict with those of the organization.

If I encounter any of these, I do the following;

- i. I will declare to the NGEN commissioners and management
 - ii. I will have the conflict of interest (s) registered in the NGEN's conflict of interest register
 - iii. I will explain the nature of the conflict to ensure that it is understood
 - iv. I will then withdraw my participation in the recruitment process
 - v. As for gifts, I will declare the same and if it is of a value above Ksh. 20,000, I will surrender to NGEN.
