56. The Nominee informed the Committee on the need for County Governments to prioritize collection of own-source revenues through digitization to ensure maximum revenue generation and reduce loss of funds and not wait for their share from the Consolidated Fund.

How do you intend to represent the interests of Members of Parliament and the Parliamentary Service Commission at large to the SRC?

MIN. NO. 213 NA/ LABOUR/2023: BRIEFING ON THE APPROVAL HEARING FOR MR. ISAAC KIPKEMBOI MELLY, NOMINEE FOR APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF THE SALARIES AND REMUNERATION COMMISSION.

Ms. Christine Odhiambo, Senior Legal Counsel, informed the Committee of receipt of the notification for appointment by the President of Mr. Isaac Kipkemboi Melly to serve as a representative of the Parliamentary Service Commission to the Salaries and Remuneration Commission.

The notification for appointment is pursuant to the provisions of Article 250(2) of the Constitution which provides that the chairperson and each member of a commission shall be—

- (a) identified and recommended for appointment in a manner prescribed by national legislation;
- (b) approved by the National Assembly; and
- (c) appointed by the President.

The committee was further briefed on the procedure for the vetting of the nominee for the above position as governed by the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act, Cap. 136 and the National Assembly Standing Orders. These set out the procedure, requirements as well as the conduct of the approval hearings.

The Committee was briefed on the procedure for the approval hearing as highlighted below;

Submission of documents

As provided in the invitation letter to the nominee, the nominee will be required to provide the following documents—

- 1) Originals of his identity card, academic and professional certificates and other relevant testimonials;
- 2) Letters, certificates of clearance or certificates of compliance from the following—
 - (a) Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission;
 - (b) Kenya Revenue Authority;
 - (c) Higher Education Loans Board;
 - (d) Directorate of Criminal Investigations; and
 - (e) Office of the Registrar of Political Parties.
- 3) A duly filled questionnaire as specified in the Schedule to the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act.

Issues for consideration

Section 6(7) of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act provides that an approval hearing shall focus on a candidate's academic credentials, professional training and experience, personal integrity and background.

Further, the Committee was informed that it shall consider the following issues—

- (a) the procedure used to arrive at the nominee;
- (b) any constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question; and

- (c) the suitability of the nominee for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which nomination is being made.

Procedure used to arrive at the nominee

Section 6(1) of the SRC Act provides that every nominating body under Article 230(2)(b) and (c) of the Constitution shall nominate its representative to the Commission in a competitive and transparent manner in accordance with section 7.

Section 7 of the SRC Act provides that the nominating body shall—

- (a) invite applications from persons qualified to be members of a Commission; and
- (b) interview the applicants and forward 2 names of opposite gender to the Cabinet Secretary for onward transmission to the President.

Section 7(10) further provides that the President shall, within seven days of receipt of the names, nominate the members of the Commission and forward the names to the National Assembly.

However, the report of the Parliamentary Service Commission indicates that section 7(2) of the SRC Act, requiring 2 names to be forwarded to the President, was declared unconstitutional by the High Court in 2019. To this effect the report indicates that the PSC submitted only one name to the Cabinet Secretary.

Constitutional or statutory requirements relating to the office in question

Section 5(2) of the Salaries and Remuneration Commission Act, No. 10 of 2011 provides that a person shall be qualified for appointment as a member of the Salaries and Remuneration Commission if the person—

- (a) holds a degree from a university recognized in Kenya;
- (b) has knowledge and at least ten years' experience in either—
 - (i) finance and administration;
 - (ii) public management;
 - (iii) economics;
 - (iv) human resource management; or
 - (v) labour laws;
- (c) meets the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution; and
- (d) has had a distinguished career in their respective fields.

Further, section 5(3) of the SRC Act provides that a person shall not be qualified for appointment as the chairperson or a member if the person—

- (a) is a member of Parliament or County Assembly;
- (b) is a member of a governing body of a political party;
- (c) is a member of a local authority;
- (d) is an undischarged bankrupt; or
- (e) has been removed from office for contravening the provisions of the Constitution or any other law.

Suitability of the nominee for the appointment proposed having regard to whether the nominee's abilities, experience and qualities meet the needs of the body to which nomination is being made

The Committee will determine the nominee's suitability for the position by scrutinizing the nominee's academic and professional background, and examining whether the nominee's past work experience make him an ideal person to hold the position of a member of the Salaries and Remuneration Commission.

The Committee will therefore engage the nominee in a suitability approval hearing to determine whether the nominee will be suitable to discharge the mandate of the SRC as provided in Article 230(4) and (5) of the Constitution.

Submission of memoranda

Section 6(9) of the Act provides that any person may, prior to the approval hearing, and by written statement on oath, provide the Clerk with evidence contesting the suitability of a candidate to hold the office to which the candidate has been nominated.

The Clerk of the National Assembly placed an advertisement in the local dailies inviting interested members of the public to submit any representations by written statement on oath (affidavit), that they may have on the suitability of the said nominee. This is pursuant to the provisions of Article 118(1)(b) of the Constitution which mandates Parliament to facilitate public participation and involvement in the legislative and other business of Parliament and its Committees.

In terms of the advertisement, the deadline for the submission of memoranda in relation to the approval hearings is on Thursday, 27th April, 2023.

For a memorandum in relation to an approval hearing to be admissible, it must—

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) be made on oath (affidavit); and
- (c) contest the suitability of the nominee.

Powers of the Committee during the approval hearing

The Committee was informed that Section 6(5) of the Act provides that all Committee proceedings on public appointments shall be open and transparent. However, section 6(6) of the Act permits the Committee, either on its own motion or on the application of a candidate or any other concerned person, to determine that the whole or part of the Committee sittings shall be held in camera.

Section 12 of the Act gives the Committee the same powers as the High Court to summon any person or compel the production of documents for the purpose of giving evidence or providing information during the approval hearing. In this regard, the Committee shall have the power to—

- (a) enforce the attendance of witnesses and examine them on oath, affirmation or otherwise;
- (b) compel the production of documents; and
- (c) issue a commission or request to examine witnesses abroad.

Timelines for the approval hearing

After the approval hearing, the Committee shall prepare its report on the suitability of the candidate to be appointed to the office to which the candidate has been nominated. In doing so the Committee shall include in the report such recommendations as it may consider necessary.

Section 8 of the Act provides that a Committee shall consider a nomination and table its report for debate and decision within 28 days from the date on which the notification of nomination was given to Parliament.

It is important to note that section 9 of the Act provides that if after expiry of the 28-day period, Parliament has neither approved nor rejected a nomination of a candidate, the candidate shall be deemed to have been approved.

Section 10 of the Act provides that where the nomination of a candidate is rejected by Parliament, the appointing authority may submit to the relevant House the name of another candidate, and the procedure for approval specified in the Act shall apply accordingly.

Section 13 of the Act provides for extension of time in relation to approval hearings under the Act. In terms of this section, such an extension may only be for a period not exceeding 14 days. The power of the National Assembly to extend a timeline relating to a public appointment may be exercised—

- (a) only once in a session of the National Assembly in respect of a particular matter; and
- (b) only in exceptional circumstances to be certified by the Speaker.

The Committee was further briefed on the experience and education qualifications of the Nominee.

The Chairperson informed the Committee that the approval hearing would be conducted on Friday 28th April 2023 starting at 10:00 a.m. at a venue to be communicated.
