The nominee was born in Embu in 1974 and is married, with three children. She produced an affidavit stating that she got married to Mr. Camilas Owiti Omollo under Luo Customs and Rites on 20th April 2003 in Kisumu. The affidavit also affirmed that Lillian Mbogo Omollo and Lillian Wanja Muthoni Mbogo as appearing on the nominee's Identity Card is one and the same person.

Educational Background

She holds a Masters in Education (Major: Entrepreneurship studies) University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, USA and a Bachelor of Education from Kenyatta University.

Professional Experience

1. The nominee started her professional career in 2001 where she served as an Intern/Program Assistant (SME Unit) at the United Nations Development programme (UNDP) Office in Kenya.
2. From July 2002 to November 2003, she served as a Program Officer, Capacity Building Department at the Catholic Relief services – Kenya Program
3. The nominee then worked at the Sudan Council of Churches from December 2003 to August 2005 where she served as the Capacity Building Manager.

4. From September 2005 to October 2011, she served in her capacity as the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Project Manager, Public Sector Reforms Programme. In this capacity, the nominee was tasked with the overall management of the donor funded Public sector reform Programme.
5. Before her nomination as Principal Secretary, the nominee was serving as the Chief Executive Officer NEPAD/APRM Kenya Office where she has been since October 2011.

The nominee explained to the Committee how her experience and educational background would be useful in the role of Principal Secretary. She noted that she would utilize her understanding of Entrepreneurial Development to help empower the youth of Kenya. The nominee also stated that public sector reform is about improving systems and capacity of personnel, something her background in capacity building reform had prepared her for.

Potential Conflict of interest

The nominee stated that she would have no conflict of interest between her private interests and her position as a public officer if her appointment was to be confirmed.

Integrity

The nominee informed the Committee that she had never been mentioned adversely in any report by a parliamentary committee or an independent Commission. She also confirmed that she had no previous conviction or an ongoing case in court.

The nominee also confirmed that she had clearance from the Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA), the Higher Education Loans Board (HELB), Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), Criminal Investigation Department and the Credit Reference Bureau and produced certificates to verify the same.

Personal Vision for the State Department

The nominee explained her understanding of the opportunities and challenges at the State Department of Youth and Public Service and offered her vision for the State Department as follows:

- a) Staff Rationalization at County and National Level – The nominee acknowledged the challenge of rationalizing staff at both levels of government. She explained that the proposed Public Service Bill would address this by determining the staffing needs of both levels of government, standardizing positions, schemes of service and in conjunction with the Salaries and Remuneration Commission, the remuneration of staff. She stated that this would be the foremost agenda she would address if confirmed in the position.
- b) Public Service Output – To address the perceived apathy of civil servants, the nominee stated her desire to implement performance contracting in the entire public but noted that this would face challenges. She explained that officers who were on permanent and pensionable terms would have decreased output due to assurance of employment.

The nominee also explained the system of seconding staff from parents Ministries affected productivity. She gave an example of all Accountants in civil service being seconded by the National Treasury. Such Accountants would in cases exhibit apathy since they were not accountable to the parties they had been seconded to but to their parent Ministry.

- c) Service Delivery – The nominee stated that she had been part of several visionary programmes that had improved service delivery to the public. She noted that the Huduma Centers had proved very efficient by increasing the number of citizens served at ID centers from 500 per day to over 4000 per day. The nominee stated that simple measures such as introducing customer feedback and survey had drastically improved the quality of service offered to citizens and stated her intention to introduce such measures at all points of service.

The nominee stated that her main goals as Principal Secretary would be to create sustainable economic programmes for the youth and work towards the enactment and implementation of the proposed Public Service Bill. She noted that youth and public service were at the heart of development.

The Committee acknowledged the nominee's understanding and experience of the public sector reforms. The Committee thanked the nominee for appearing before it and for the elaborate and well thought out responses.

The Departmental Committees Administration & National Security and that on Labour and Social Welfare will jointly vet the proposed appointment of Ms. Lilian Omollo, as the state department on Youth and Public Service, for which she is nominated to, falls within the mandate of the two Committees.

Further, and pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 204(4), the nomination on the seven (7) Cabinet Secretaries is hereby referred to the Committee on Appointment.

I have also directed the Clerk to publish and circulate, tomorrow, the list of the nominees, showing clearly the respective Committees which will vet each one of the nominees

Hon. Members, section 8 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act requires that unless otherwise provide in law, a Committee shall consider a nomination and table a report for debate and decision in the House within fourteen (14) days from the date of notification. It is therefore imperative that each of the aforementioned Committees immediately seizes itself of the matter to enable speedy conclusion within the set timelines. For the avoidance of doubt, the Committees are expected to have concluded their deliberation and table the necessary reports by ~~December 14, 2015. You will note that this is the time that the House ought to consider and make a decision on the nominees for appointment to the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission, being the 21st and last day following the conveyance of the names in the House.~~

Hon. Members,

From the foregoing, and aware that the House is scheduled to break for long recess tomorrow in accordance with the House Calendar, it is only prudent that the House be recalled from the recess for Special Sitings on or around December 16th to 18th, 2015. Notably, about 12 Committees will be involved in the vetting exercise. It therefore follows that, the approval process will also be considered by the House by way of various separate motions. To this end, it may not be possible to conclude with all the separate motions within the required timelines. I have therefore requested the Leader of the Majority Party to move a motion tomorrow for the extension of the time for consideration of the nominations pursuant to the provisions of section 13 of the Public Appointments (Parliamentary Approval) Act. This will allow the conclusion of the approval motions after the tabling of the reports when the House is recalled for the special sitting on or around December 16, 2015. For avoidance of doubt, the said section states:-

“13(1) Despite the provisions of this Act or any other written law, where a time is prescribed for doing an act or taking a proceeding by the National Assembly relating to a public appointment, the National Assembly may, by resolution, extend that time by a period not exceeding fourteen days.”

Hon. Members,

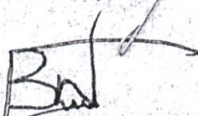

In this regard, I wish to guide the Committees and the House as follows:-

- (i) The Committees should immediately notify the nominees and the general public of the time and place of holding approval hearings in good time to ensure commencement of the necessary hearings in good time; and
- (ii) The Committees are expected to have concluded their reports to the House on or before December 15, 2015 to enable the House to consider the respective reports and the nominees immediately thereafter.

Finally Hon. Members, let me take this early opportunity to correct the impression made by the print and electronic media with regard to the vetting of the nominees for the position of Cabinet Secretaries and Principal Secretaries. Articles 152(5)(a) and 155(4) allows the President to re-assign a Cabinet Secretary or a Principal Secretary respectively. The interpretation of these provisions is that a person vetted and approved for appointment to the position of Cabinet Secretary or Principal Secretary may be reassigned within the same position by the President. Indeed, any appointment approved by the National Assembly would not require subsequent vetting if the reassignment is of the same nature and responsibility. Consequently, serving Cabinet and Principal Secretaries who have been moved to other Ministries or State Departments will ~~be~~ NOT require further approval of the House.

I thank you!

THE HON. JUSTIN B.N. MUTURI, EGH, MP
SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

CAPABILITY STATEMENT & PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

For the past seventeen (17) years, I have gained significant experience, knowledge and skills and provided leadership in Public Policy formulation, Administration, Programme Management and Resource mobilization gained working with the Government, the United Nations and international organizations. I am conversant with government accounting and reporting requirements, budgeting, performance contracting and administrative procedures which enable me to share and support best practices desirable in advancing the mandate of Institutions.

I possess remarkable interpersonal and communication skills, excellent report writing, analytical and presentation skills in addition to being a seasoned team player. I think strategically, express ideas clearly and have strong leadership and management competencies in addition to having a credible resource mobilization record in area of multi donor support to Government programmes.

Worth noting are the following core professional achievements demonstrated over the course of my work in the last ten (10) years with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) managing the cluster on Public Administration projects and the in my position as Chief Executive Officer NEPAD Kenya;-

- i. At the African Union Summit of January and June 2015, Kenya attained significant diplomatic achievements at the continental level. Worth noting is the successful lobbying by the NEPAD Kenya Secretariat resulting in:-
 - Election of Kenya and H.E President Uhuru Kenyatta to the position of Chairperson of the African Peer Review (APR) Forum of Heads of States and Government (June 2015)
 - The Adoption by summit of proposal made by H.E President Uhuru Kenya to hold an extra-ordinary summit of Heads of State and Government participating in the APRM. The summit is scheduled to be held in the 1st week of September 2015
 - Election of Kenya and H.E President Uhuru Kenyatta to the position of Vice Chairperson of the African Peer Review APR) Forum (January 2015 Summit)

- Inclusion of the LAPSSET project in the Presidential Infrastructure Champions Initiative (PICI) of NEPAD (January 2015 Summit)
 - The confirmation of Kenya as the first ever African country to host the high level Global Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation (GPEDC) in 2016 (Decision reached at the January 2015 summit)
- ii. 2012/2013: Managed the successful withdrawal by the Africa Union of the Special Peer Review Report of Kenya (2012).
 - iii. 2011/2012: unparalleled and superior management of the NEPAD Kenya Secretariat with a first ever financial budgetary increment (since 2002) of the recurrent and development votes by Government to the Institution
 - iv. 2010/2011: Spearheaded development, approval and mobilization of donor resources for the four (4) year (2010 – 2013) Public Sector Reforms (PSR Phase II) programme. The programme covers support to the Public Sector Transformation Department, Performance Contracting and the first phase of the transformation of the Kenya Institute of Administration to the National school of Government.

This was a notable achievement given the background of competing demands for donor funds and the abundance of new and seemingly sensational funding priorities for work in decentralization, constitutionalism, Human Rights and electoral reforms amongst other priorities.

- v. 2005 – 2011: Provision of informed and quality liaison of the PSR programme between the Government, Development partners and UNDP including demonstrated high level and result oriented engagement for enhanced partnership
- vi. Resource mobilization and management of donor funds in support of the Task Force on devolved Government established by the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Local Government through Gazette Notice No. 106 of 25th October, 2010.

The Task Force on devolved Government recommended the policy framework for implementation of the system of devolved government and proposed appropriate legislation for implementation of the devolved government.

- vii. Focal point from the UNDP Kenya Governance unit in working with the regional programme on Africa Governance and Public Administration

(AGPAP) which focuses on the development of the required Governance and Public Administration capacity in the context and challenges of Africa whilst recognizing the benefits that can be derived from collective efforts in the continent. AGPAP strives to; -

- To build Synergies with Existing Programmes and Institutional Activities in the continent
- Provide platform to demonstrate Visible Individual Country and Regional Benefits
- Create focus on African owned programmes and solutions and promote south-south learning

viii. 2010/2011: Resource Mobilization and management of the high level regional programme on CAMPS (Conference of African Ministers for Public Service). The CAMPS programme, currently chaired by Kenya, is an initiative of the African Union and is funded by member states and UNDP Headquarters (through the UNDP regional Service Centre in South Africa and the UNDP Kenya Country Office – as the Kenya Minister for Public Service is the current Chairperson).

The Programme was started in 1994 with a key objective to assess and establish linkages between Governance and Public Administration capabilities and the broader developmental agenda within the continent; and share knowledge and learning within the framework of exchange and capacity development on focused priority areas within the continental Programme.

My Resource Mobilization Skills are evident in the outline of the achievements mentioned above and have been noted significant in my present position as Chief Executive Officer of the NEPAD Kenya Office.

Utilizing the experience and skills acquired in the course of my career, I would bring competencies in project management and as a result oriented focus to deliver tangible gains for the country.
