Upon notification of the Speakers of both Houses by the Chairperson of the Commission on the expiry of the term of the Commissioners to the Commission on Revenue Allocation at the end of December 2016, the Speakers communicated to the Leaders of the Majority and Minority Parties in the Houses informing them of the impending vacancies and of the intended publication of the notices inviting applications for nomination to the Commission.

In the National Assembly, it was recommended to have the allocation of the two slots done by the coalition way, rather than through individual political parties in the National Assembly. Prof. Kimuyu proposed improvement of the quality of data used calculating revenue sharing and avoidance of use of poverty index as part of the changes required in the revenue sharing formula. He pointed out that the use of poverty index is synonymous to rewarding failure.

d) Outside commitment

Prof. Kimuyu confirmed that he will resign from his current employment engagements if appointed as a Member of the Commission on Revenue Allocation.

4.0 COMMITTEE OBSERVATIONS

The Committee having considered the curriculum vitae and heard oral submissions during the vetting exercise/interview, made the following observations:-

4.1 NOMINATION PROCESS

4.1.1 Nomination by political parties

The nomination process was duly done by political parties represented in Parliament as provided for under Article 215 (2)(b) & (c) of the Constitution. The nominees and their nominating parties were as follows:

	Name of the nominee	Nominating party	Constitutional provisions
1	Mr. Peter Gachuba Njeru	Majority Party, National Assembly	Art. 215(2)(b)
2	Prof. Edward Akong'o Oyugi	Minority Party, National Assembly
3	Mr. Kishanto Ole Suuji	Majority Party, Senate	Art. 215(2)(c)
4	Dr. Irene C. Koech Asienga
5	Ms. Fouzia Abdikadir Dahir
6	Mr. Humprey Wattanga	Minority Party, Senate
7	Mr. Peter Kiko Kimuyu

All the nominees that were finally forwarded to the Committee for vetting had applied for the job when the clerks of both Houses of Parliament advertised for the positions of Members of the Commission on Revenue Allocation on 4th and 8th November 2016 in the local dailies.

4.1.2 Nomination by H.E the President

His Excellency the President is obligated under Article 215(2)(a) to nominate the Chairperson for the Commission on Revenue Allocation for approval by the National Assembly. The Committee is concerned that H.E the president has not exercised this constitutional mandate. Considering that it is only the chairperson that has been mandated to call for CRA's Commission meetings, his/her absence will incapacitate the operations of the Commission.

4.1.3 Composition of the Commission

The Composition of the Commission largely adheres to the provisions of Article 250 (4) of the Constitution on regional and ethnic diversity as well as meeting the two-thirds gender balance as per Article 27(8) of the Constitution.

Article 250(4): Appointments to commissions and independent offices shall take into account the national values mentioned in Article 10, and the principle that the composition of the commissions and offices, taken as a whole, shall reflect the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya.

4.1.4 Memoranda from the public

As at the time of compiling this report, the Committee had not received any memoranda from the public on the suitability or otherwise of the nominees to serve as Members of the Commission on revenue Allocation.

4.1.5 Clearance requirements

As at the time of compiling this report, none of the clearing offices (CID, KRA, HELB, EACC & CRA had raised objections for appointment of all the nominees.

The fiscal discipline of counties is weak due to inadequate skills and lack enforcement. To address this, there is need for a legislation of the proper reporting of the balance sheet of every county at the time of winding up.
